JUMPING TOUR

Split Rock Jumping Tour concluded a successful week of showing at Bruce's Field this past Sunday. Derek Braun, founder and president of Split Rock Jumping Tour brought his exciting European brand of International show jumping to Aiken allowing Bruce's Field to host the first FEI show jumping competition in South Carolina and provided the largest purse of a single class by featuring the $100,000 1.45m Aiken International Grand-Prix. It was an exciting week, transforming Bruce's Field into an epic showcase with fantastic competition and extraordinary talent. While the inaugural year was unable to open to the public, we plan to build on all of this year's successes going into 2021 and look forward to the day that we can welcome spectators back to Bruce's Field.

Maneline Art

A frequent sponsor at Bruce's Field, Maneline Art represents exceptional works by established and emerging artists. Maneline Art owner, Anna Sharp, a successful competitor in the amateur hunter ring across the country, strives to bring a unique experience to both the artist and the art collector. With an eagerness to connect fellow riders, competitors, equine devotees, or those just looking to diversify their own art collection, she brings an inimitable perspective to curating a choice work of art. Whether with original art offerings for sale or by assisting in the process of commissioned pieces, Anna helps meld a collector's vision with an artist's vision based on the subject and desired style preference. Cultivating an honest and dedicated working relationship with a diverse group of artists is an integral part of her process. As a representative for both artist and collector, she applies a unique model to help place a work of art that will invariably arouse lifelong interest.
