III. SHIPPING PARTNERSHIPS

As the buyer of auction items, you have the flexibility to choose the shipping vendor based on your preferences and research. This means you can consider factors such as shipping speed, reliability, and cost when selecting a shipping provider. It's a common practice for buyers to explore different shipping options to find the most suitable one for their needs. Please note, the following are shippers House of Craven has had past success. It is the responsibility of the buyer and shipper to complete the transaction and liability for the items is transferred to the buyer and shipper once the item is collected from House of Craven.

Here are a few steps you might consider when choosing a shipping vendor:

- 1. Research Shipping Providers:
 - Look into various shipping companies and carriers.
 - Compare their services, rates, and delivery times.
- 2. Consider Your Location and Item Size:
 - Some shipping providers may be more efficient or cost-effective for certain regions.
 - Consider the size and weight of the auction items, as this can impact shipping costs.
- 3. Check for Shipping Insurance:
 - Verify if the shipping provider offers insurance coverage for the value of the items being shipped.
- 4. Read Reviews:
 - Look for customer reviews and feedback about the shipping providers you are considering as a gauge for their reliability and customer satisfaction.
- 5. Contact the House of Craven:
 - Communicate with the House of Craven to confirm any specific shipping requirements or recommendations we might have.
- 6. Track Shipments:
 - Choose a shipping vendor that provides tracking information, so you can monitor the progress of your shipment.
- 7. Consider Customs and International Shipping:
 - If the items are being shipped internationally, be aware of customs regulations and choose a shipping vendor experienced in international shipping and knowledge of any additional value-added tax, or VAT.
- 8. Verify Shipping Costs:
 - Ensure that you are aware of the total shipping costs, including any potential additional fees or taxes.

By taking these steps, you can make an informed decision about the shipping vendor that best aligns with your needs and preferences as the buyer of auction items.

NOTE: Below, please find recommended third-party shippers. Please contact them directly for shipping quotes and additional information and include the Lot or Item number; dimensions; shipping address; and a picture of the item from the listing. The turnaround time for a quote is usually 24-48 hours but varies by shipping vendor. Please complete the release form below for the pick-up of the item(s). See Page 5.
