FROM OUR SENIOR MINISTER

Rev. Dr. Elizabeth Bingham

FAITHFULLY YOURS

The days of Lent are here. And for me, the days during Lent are different. They aren't the colors they are in my mind's eye the rest of the year—Sunday yellow, Monday white, Tuesday and Thursday a soft brown, Wednesday pink, Friday ????. Instead, they are darker gray with only shards of their usual colors showing—although Sunday manages to shine a bit more than the others.

It is also how I experience Lent. A time of shadows, with some glimpses of light, but mostly shadows. For as we journey with Jesus through this season we know too well what awaits us. We can't help but see the cross ahead of us. And while we know that the light will shine on Easter morning, the way to get there is difficult and painful. So we choose to journey with Jesus. We must journey with Jesus.

For there are stories that Jesus must tell. There are people He needs to heal. There are wounded souls He will forgive, and hungry people He will feed. There are those who long to hear of the kingdom, the light of God's presence. So He keeps walking, knowing what awaits Him. He keeps walking, knowing that He will be betrayed, arrested and crucified.

Let these be the days when we walk with Jesus, healing and hoping, praying and praising, feeding the hungry, protecting the vulnerable...Let these be the days when we meditate upon and savor the reality that God loved us so much that He gave us His Son, to dwell among us.

And let us thank God for the inexpressible gift of God's Son, our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Love and blessings to all, Beth

GETTING TO KNOW YOU

Erica Litwin

Michele Marot

Born in Hinsdale, Illinois, Erica grew up in the suburbs of Chicago. One of the more interesting jobs she had as a young person, and one that we should take advantage of, is that she used to work in a bakery DECORATING CAKES! Erica currently works in a job where she excels in marketing movies.

Erica's hobbies have long included physical activities - running, hiking, marathons. But now, with Gus in her life, she has taken up more adventurous pastimes - the kind that often include signing a waiver (sky diving, race car driving, and more!).

Erica was first drawn to our church by God's leading, AND also a clever banner posted at Magnolia and Hazeltine. I'll let her tell the story in her own words:

"I have lived in Sherman Oaks for 11 years now and a few years ago I felt a calling to go to church. I drove by COTC and saw the 'Join Us for Happy Hour Sunday, 10:30' sign, and thought it was funny! So I decided to go to church by myself. That day in service I saw Doug and Jane addressing the congregation, and felt a feeling I hadn't felt before and it was quite lovely. I felt completely loved and there was no judgement - I felt this was indicative of the church community. So I came back and haven't left! I love the community and feel so blessed that God guided me here."

And we are so blessed to have her here!

Erica stays active in church by attending the Wednesday Evening Women's Bible Study, by faithfully running the "Country Store" at our annual Golden West Fair, and by being an active member of CWS. You'll see Erica in church every Sunday, unless she's out of town - an integral part of our loving church community! Thank you, God, for bringing her to us.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO BE CONGREGATIONAL? FIND OUT!

Join us in Dreier Hall on Sunday, March 26 after worship (maybe bring a few snacks from the Fellowship Hour) to learn about our Congregational heritage and Church of the Chimes. There will be information about our spiritual ancestors as well as an introduction to how Church of the Chimes is organized, our activities and ways to become involved. And weather permitting there will be a tour of the campus!

FROM OUR ASSOCIATE MINISTER

Rev. Curtis Peek

Revisiting Curtis' article from the March 2022 Chiming In

My Journey

By Rev. Curtis Peek

A boy was born in hard-time Mississippi surrounded by walls that were not so pretty. His mother would give him love and affection to keep him strong and going in the right direction. In Mississippi, as a black boy, you had to go in the right direction. My mother told me "Son, you are going to preach and be a servant of God." I didn't believe that was my purpose. I'm glad she lived to see my ordination.

We all need to remember we have a purpose in life. What is your purpose?

My mother knew mine before I did. We all have to get out of the way, and let God guide us. It took my getting out of the way and letting God guide me and saying "yes" to God's purpose for my life, a life of service. We all should remember, if service is beneath you, then leadership is beyond you. My ordination into ministry was me believing and trusting. Me believing my mother and trusting God's word. Dr. Tom Richard was the Interim Minister at Congregational Church Of The Chimes when I was called into ministry. I would like to thank him and Congregational Church Of The Chimes for believing in me and trusting me to do God's work. At the present time, I serve as Associate Minister at Congregational Church Of The Chimes under the direction of Dr. Beth Bingham. I will continue to believe and trust the word of God and I ask you to continue to believe and trust in me.

*"I pray for you,
you pray for me,
and God holds us
in the palm of his hands."*

*Believe it!

TRUSTEE NEWS

Diane Delaney, Chair

COTC's 2023 Stewardship Campaign, "Our Church, Our Community, Our Responsibility", was very successful with more than 90% of estimates of giving cards turned in on Consecration Sunday!

Thanks to our Senior Minister, Beth Bingham, for her excellent campaign leadership and to our Stewardship Committee volunteers: Hayley Cabral, John Luker, John Sullivan, Wade Young, and Diane Delaney for their time, effort, and contributions.

And don't worry, it's not too late to turn in your estimate of giving card! Just send it to the church office as soon as possible. Thank You!

DEACON NEWS

Greg Abbott, Chair

Not a lot to report on but things will pick up as we approach Holy Week. We had a short discussion about lectern supply. We will be having a Deacon in the Lectern on Communion Sundays.

Some good news on the Deacons Angel Fund. In October, we were down to $863. Your generosity since then, has brought that up to just under $2100. Thank you all for your support. We will continue to build up the fund as we never know when there will be a need.

Till next month, Greg

COMMUNITY & WORLD SERVICE NEWS

ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING – SYRIA & TURKEY

Congregationalists around the world join together lifting the people of Syria and Turkey in prayer. Our hearts go out to those devastated by the earthquake's overwhelming destruction; the death toll, already at 47,000, continues to rise.

The CWS Board will be making a donation on behalf of COTC and ask those who can to make a personal donation as well. Please write "One Great Hour of Sharing" on the check's memo line. Thanks!

Donations will be sent to the Armenian Evangelical Bethel Church, Aleppo, Syria, which was recommended by a member of the Pilgrim Congregational Church of Pomona, CA. The NACCC will receive documentation as to how funds are used and will share it in a future edition of the Congregationalist.

On the local front, COTC's Craft Group continues to do good things with the donation that CWS gave to buy supplies; last month Valentine treats were provided for the lovely residents at the Blue Chateau Assisted Living Facility.

you will receive" –Matthew 21:22

JANE'S CORNER

Jane G. Poole, CE Director

HANDS, our hands tell a story and they speak volumes. Hands pray, they work, they toil, they help, they wave, they feel, they clap and help with a hug. A tiny baby's hands are small luscious wonders, and a teenager's hands have years ahead of them. Hands are soft and smooth, wrinkled and calloused. Hands of all sizes and shapes can make a difference – in our church, in our neighborhood and even in our world.

Lent began this past Wednesday, and I started to think about Jesus' hands. His hands healed and saved. His hands might have been rough from being on the road, and dusty too. Jesus' hands might also have been smooth from someone who shared their oil or ointment with him. Unquestionably, Jesus' hands protect us. His hands rejoice with us in celebration and hold us up in times of need and comfort. Jesus will always have hands outstretched to embrace us for whatever our hearts may need.

Think of your hand as an extension of Jesus' hands and his love. Your hands share grace, peace and love. Wonderful hands, Jesus' and yours!

Blessings, Jane ...and don't forget to spend quiet time with God!

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION NEWS

Barbara Downs, Chair

Souperbowl of Caring: THANK YOU! Through the congregation's generosity, we raised $374.52 for the North Hollywood Interfaith Food Pantry! Thanks also to the wonderful children who helped to collect the funds and food!

Blessing Bags: Thank you to everyone who helped pack the 160 bags! And a big thank you to Bobby, Jule, Diane, Judy, Joy, Joi and CWS for their generous donations that made the outreach project happen!

Looking Forward

St. Patrick's Day Chimes Café ~ March 18th. Please reach out to John Sullivan to help plan this fun social evening.

"Friends, Family and Faith" ~ On March 12th COTC's Youth will be performing the service entitled, "Friends, Family and Faith" There will be readings and several of the youth will be performing musical pieces. It will be a wonderful worship service. Please plan on attending!

Annual Easter Egg Hunt~ April 1st from 10 – 12 noon. CE needs a volunteer to be the big white "you know who" for the event. Contact Jane if you will fill some very white shoes!

VBS 2023 ~ Save the Dates July 24–28. This year's theme is "Hero Hotline"! We need volunteers to lead the areas of snacks, crafts, games and age level groups. Contact Jane if interested in helping out during this totally fun week!

where the earliest Congregational Church on English soil, under the leadership of John Robinson and William Brewster, can be traced. On the far-right side is a stone from Plymouth, England, the point of departure of the Pilgrims on the Mayflower, on their historical trip to the New World.

The wood carvings surrounding the Magnolia and Hazeltine Avenue doors provide more symbols of our faith. They remind us of the source of the story of the Life of Christ, as related in the gospels of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John.

Many other memorials and special gifts to our Church, are listed in the Book of Life, located in a special glass-covered stand in the Narthex. Next to the Hazeltine entrance is a handcrafted model of an outrigger, a gift from the Congregational Churches of the Marshall Islands. The table and glass case enclosing this outrigger were constructed by Maurice R. Leech and dedicated on January 26, 1977.

Directly above the Book of Life is the Life Eternal Plaque, of baked enamel on copper, which was designed and created by church member and organist, Millie Andrews. This plaque symbolizes the Christian conviction that mankind, even though in the unknown, proceeds Christ-like into the light and reality of God's presence.

With so many Sanctuary symbols reminding us of God's Love and His plans and purposes for our lives, how can we not feel His presence among us? My hope is that each of you take an "up close view" of these symbols that were so lovingly and carefully designed to bring meaning to Church of the Chimes... and take time to reflect on the beauty of each one's significance to your life.

The Symbols in Our Sanctuary

A multitude of symbols were meticulously built into the design of our beautiful Sanctuary. An overview of these are depicted in this article and many of them will be presented in future editions of Chiming In beginning with pictorial overviews of its stained glass windows with associated symbolism. The first to be featured will be the magnificent stained glass window at the front of our Sanctuary which was donated by church members as a memorial to Dr. Walter Staves. In front of this hangs a 17-foot-tall silver cross, designed by silversmith Allan Adler. Fabricated from sterling treasures contributed by the members, it was worked into a gleaming symbol, representing the faith of the congregation. Also to be presented in future editions of Chiming In will be photos of the eight small windows in the Sanctuary Balcony, all of which are symbols of Christ.

Beyond the front window is the Garden Chapel, a gift from Dr. Katherine Gibson, which features a beautiful tiered fountain; its three sprays of water represent the Trinity: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

There are sixteen wood carvings in the Nave at the front of the Sanctuary which symbolize the contributions of the Christian faith to the life and welfare of mankind. Starting from the back of the Pulpit and winding all around to the back of the lectern, they are (1) Immortality, (2) Marriage, (3) The High Position of Womanhood, (4) Family Life, (5) Peace, (6) Liberty, (7) Justice, (8) Social Action, (9) Scientific Research, (10) Medical Research, (11) Freedom of Interpretation, (12) Education, (13) World Missions, (14) Representative Government, (15) Brotherhood and (16) Ecumenicity. These symbols represent the very essence of Congregationalism. Most of them were designed by Dr. Staves and Theodore Sebern.

More symbolism is found in the outside church wall of solid brick which is constructed of Ojai stone. Some of the architectural details in the lower part of this wall on the Magnolia Ave side, deserving our attention, are six symbols of our past, three on each side of the cross. Furthest to the left is a stone of Bethlehem; to its right is a piece of stone from Corinth. Both symbolize places of significance in the formation of our Christian faith; Bethlehem was the city of David's ancestry, where Jesus Christ our Lord was born, and Corinth was the city where the Apostle Paul started a great early church.

RACIAL EQUITY DISCUSSION GROUP

COTC's Racial Equity Group met for a debrief of the MLK Jr. "A Seat at the Table" event. It was such a huge success that we want you to SAVE THE DATE of January 14th, 2024 for our 2nd annual event!

Black History Month (BHM), which is celebrated annually in February, was discussed. We want to thank Diana Garrett for sharing some thoughts and experiences with us during our February 19th service in honor of BHM.
