

Speech, Language and Communication Needs (SLCN): Parents' and Carers' Information Session

Speech, language and communication development begins at home.

This is a relaxed, interactive session which gives parents and carers a basic background in speech, language and communication. It covers some of the difficulties children with speech, language and communication needs may face and how this can impact on their learning. There is the opportunity for parents and carers to try hands on activities, aimed at specific key stages, which can be incorporated into everyday life to support the development of their children's speech, language and communication skills.

Course Aims:

- To enable parents and carers to understand the difficulties their children may encounter when developing their speech, language and communication skills.
- To enable parents and carers to understand and use strategies to help their children to improve their speech, language and communication skills.
- To provide examples of useful and fun resources to support children's development of speech, language and communication skills which can be incorporated into daily life.
- To equip parents and carers with the confidence and strategies to make speech, language and communication development part of their day to day life.
