

My Refuge in a Thousand Ways

D Asus G D Bm7 D/F# G D Asus

1. You are the One be - fore all time, The Great I Am, the God Most High; Un - chang - ing and un -
 2. The blood You spilled at Cal - va - ry Has drowned a - way sin's tyr - an - ny; Oh it dis - solved my
 3. Un - wea - ried arms be - neath me now Up - hold me when I'm sink - ing down; When sor - row bends me
 4. Why should I ev - er be a - fraid? You are my home and dwell - ing place. As You have been so

G D/F# Em7 D/F# Asus D G/D D /C# Bm G

- change - a - ble, The Rock on which I rest my soul. But oh, Your love! Your stead - fast i - ron chains And washed me clean from ev - 'ry stain. Though Sa - tan roars to ru - in to its will, Your reach ex - tends much deep - er still. You've known my depths, You've tast - ed You will be My shel - ter for e - ter - ni - ty. Come quick - ly, Lord, col - lect Your love! I cling to You, no oth - er one. You are the God from age to age, My me, O might - y Christ, You hold his leash. No lie can shake me from Your grace, My grief, You are my strength when I am weak. You catch my tears and hold me safe, My own; I look for You, my bless - ed hope! You are the God I'll ev - er praise, My

D A/C# Bm D/F# G A Bm

G D/F# Asus Bm Em7 D/F# Asus D G/D

re - fuge in a thous - and ways; My re - fuge in a thous - and ways.
 re - fuge in a thous - and ways; My re - fuge in a thous - and ways.
 re - fuge in a thous - and ways; My re - fuge in a thous - and ways.
 re - fuge in a thous - and ways; My re - fuge in a thous - and ways.