Codification Explanation

The Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of Our Saviour's Evangelical Lutheran Church, Tucson, Arizona are organized into chapters by general subject matter and codified as follows:

- a. Constitutional provisions are codified with two sets of numbers, preceded by a "C": the chapter number followed by a period, and a two-digit sequence number also followed by a period.
 1. Required constitutional provisions are preceded by [*]. For example, *C5.02. is a required constitutional provision in Chapter 5, the chapter on Powers of the Congregation. Required provisions must be stated exactly as put forth in the Model Constitution for Congregations of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

Constitution Provisions in this document are in Bold Type.

- b. Bylaws provisions are codified with three sets of numbers, each followed by a period: the chapter number (preceded by a "C"), the related constitutional provision number, and a two-digit bylaw number. For example, a bylaw could be codified as C5.03.01.

Bylaw Provisions in this document are in Regular Type.

- c. Continuing resolutions are codified with three sets of numbers, except that the third set is preceded by a capital letter indicating sequence and a two-digit number indicating the year of its adoption. For example, if a congregation adopted one or more continuing resolutions in 2022 related to the Powers of the Congregation, the first continuing resolution adopted could be numbered "C5.03.A22."

Continuing resolutions in this document are in Italicized Type

Note: In some chapters, you will see that certain numbers are missing from the numbering sequence. These omissions are intentional in order to provide options for future additions.

We, baptized members of the Church of Christ, responding in faith to the call of the Holy Spirit through the Gospel, desiring to unite together to preach the Word, administer the sacraments, and carry out God’s mission, do hereby adopt this constitution and solemnly pledge ourselves to be governed by its provisions. In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Chapter 1.
NAME AND INCORPORATION

- C1.01. The name of this congregation shall be Our Saviour’s Evangelical Lutheran Church, also known as Our Saviour’s Lutheran Church.
- C1.02. For the purpose of this constitution and the accompanying bylaws, the congregation of Our Saviour’s Evangelical Lutheran Church is hereinafter designated as “this congregation.”
- C1.11. This congregation shall be incorporated under the laws of the State of Arizona.

Chapter 2.
CONFESSION OF FAITH

- *C2.01. This congregation confesses the Triune God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
- *C2.02. This congregation confesses Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior and the Gospel as the power of God for the salvation of all who believe.
 - a. Jesus Christ is the Word of God incarnate, through whom everything was made and through whose life, death, and resurrection God fashions a new creation.
 - b. The proclamation of God’s message to us as both Law and Gospel is the Word of God, revealing judgment and mercy through word and deed, beginning with the Word in creation, continuing in the history of Israel, and centering in all its fullness in the person and work of Jesus Christ.
 - c. The canonical Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the written Word of God. Inspired by God’s Spirit speaking through their authors, they record and announce God’s revelation centering in Jesus Christ. Through them God’s Spirit speaks to us to create and sustain Christian faith and fellowship for service in the world.

- *C2.03. This congregation accepts the canonical Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments as the inspired Word of God and the authoritative source and norm of its proclamation, faith, and life.
- *C2.04. This congregation accepts the Apostles', Nicene, and Athanasian Creeds as true declarations of the faith of this congregation.
- *C2.05. This congregation accepts the Unaltered Augsburg Confession as a true witness to the Gospel, acknowledging as one with it in faith and doctrine all churches that likewise accept the teachings of the Unaltered Augsburg Confession.
- *C2.06. This congregation accepts the other confessional writings in the Book of Concord, namely, the Apology of the Augsburg Confession, the Smalcald Articles and the Treatise, the Small Catechism, the Large Catechism, and the Formula of Concord, as further valid interpretations of the faith of the Church.
- *C2.07. This congregation confesses the Gospel, recorded in the Holy Scripture and confessed in the ecumenical creeds and Lutheran confessional writings, as the power of God to create and sustain the Church for God's mission in the world.

Chapter 3.

NATURE OF THE CHURCH

- *C3.01. All power in the Church belongs to our Lord Jesus Christ, its head. All actions of this congregation are to be carried out under his rule and authority.
- *C3.02. This church confesses the one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church and is resolved to serve Christian unity throughout the world.
- *C3.03. The Church exists both as an inclusive fellowship and as local congregations gathered for worship and Christian service. Congregations find their fulfillment in the universal community of the Church, and the universal Church exists in and through congregations. The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, therefore, derives its character and powers both from the sanction and representation of its congregations and from its inherent nature as an expression of the broader fellowship of the faithful. In length, it acknowledges itself to be in the historic continuity of the communion of saints; in breadth, it expresses the fellowship of believers and congregations in our day.
- *C3.04. This church, inspired and led by the Holy Spirit, participates in The Lutheran World Federation as a global communion of churches, engaging in faithful witness to the gospel of Jesus Christ and in service for the sake of God's mission in the world.
- *C3.05. The name Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA or "this church") as used herein refers in general references to this whole church, including its three expressions: congregations, synods, and the churchwide organization. The name Evangelical Lutheran Church in America is also the name of the corporation of the churchwide organization to which specific references may be made herein.

The Congregation Council shall prepare descriptions of the responsibilities of each committee, task force, or other organizational group and shall review their actions. [Such descriptions shall be contained in continuing resolutions in the section on the Congregation Committees.]
- *C4.05. This congregation shall adopt and periodically review a mission statement which will provide specific direction for its programs.
- C4.05.01 The current mission statement of this congregation shall be maintained and reviewed by the Congregation Council every five years, revised as necessary, and submitted to the congregation for consideration and adoption if revised. The mission statement will be included in the annual report and the historical record. The current mission statement, adopted February 2024, is:

- C5.05. This congregation shall have a mission endowment fund that will operate as specified in this congregation's bylaws. The purpose of the mission endowment fund is to provide for mission work beyond the operational budget of this congregation.
- C5.05.01. The congregation's responsibility to motivate its members to provide financial support for the congregation's ministry and the ministry of the ELCA shall include motivation to support the future work of the church through bequests and memorial gifts. The Congregation Council shall establish programs on behalf of the congregation to encourage such gifts and shall administer them in such a way that they encourage the responsible stewardship and on-going support of the members. The Endowment Fund (established in 1986), whose operation and procedures shall be defined in these Bylaws and by Continuing Resolution adopted by the Congregation Council, was established and will be maintained as one of the means of fulfilling this responsibility.

A. Endowment Fund Principles

1. Christian stewardship involves the faithful management of all the gifts God has given to humankind – the created world; the gospel; life; time; abilities; and money, including accumulated, inherited and appreciated sources.
2. The scriptural principle of proportionate giving, to return to the Lord a portion of the gifts God has first given to God's beloved children, is both a privilege and an appropriate response in all times and circumstances. Christians, therefore, are encouraged to give to the work of the church. Gifts will be received according to this congregation's Gift Acceptance Policy.
3. It is the desire of this congregation to encourage, receive and administer these gifts in a manner consistent with the loyalty and devotion to our Lord expressed by the donors and in accord with the policies of this congregation.
4. The purpose of the Fund shall be to support the mission of the Church to the glory of God with the current mission statement of this congregation as a guide. Endowment Fund principal shall be prudently managed and invested to ensure safety and security of principal with growth and income. Ten percent annually of the endowment fund income shall be invested for growth of principal.
5. The Endowment Committee shall be the custodian of the Endowment Fund for the Congregation Council, administering the fund under these Bylaws.

B. Committee Membership

1. The pastor is a permanent voting member of the Endowment Committee. In addition, the Congregation Council shall appoint four voting members of this congregation (two each year) to the Endowment Committee for two-year terms. Members cannot be appointed for more than two full terms consecutively. Nominations for committee appointments shall be recommended by the Congregation Council officers and the Senior Pastor to the Congregation Council. Terms begin January 1. When a member resigns before the end of term, a replacement shall be appointed by the Congregation Council to complete that term.
2. The committee shall meet at least quarterly, or more frequently as deemed by it to be in the best interest of the und.
3. A quorum shall consist of three members. Three or more affirmative votes shall be required to carry any motion or resolution.
4. The committee shall elect a chairperson from its lay membership and shall elect or appoint a secretary. The secretary may be chosen from outside the Committee, in which case the secretary shall have voice, but not vote. The chairperson, or member designated by the chairperson, shall preside at all committee meetings.
5. The secretary of the committee shall maintain complete and accurate minutes of all meetings and supply a copy thereof to each member of the committee. The secretary shall supply a copy of the minutes to the Congregation Council.
6. The Parish Administrator shall work with the Congregation Council Treasurer in maintaining and coordinating complete and accurate accounts for the fund. Checks and all other necessary documents shall be signed according to the church's Check Signing policy. Reports will be prepared for the committee in advance of all regular meetings and for the Congregation Council at each regular meeting. The books shall be reviewed annually by a certified public accountant or other appropriate person who is not a member of the committee.

7. The committee shall report at each annual meeting of the congregation and shall render a full and complete reviewed account of the administration of the fund during the preceding year.
8. The committee may request staff and other members of the congregation to serve as advisory members and, at the expense of fund income, may provide for professional counseling on reinvestments or legal matters as it deems to be in the best interest of the fund.
9. Members of the committee shall not be liable for any losses which may be incurred upon the investments of the assets of the fund except to the extent such losses shall have been caused by bad faith or gross negligence. No member shall be personally liable as long as they act in good faith and with ordinary prudence. Each member shall be liable only for their own willful misconduct or omissions and shall not be liable for the acts or omissions of any other member. No member shall engage in any self dealing or transactions with the fund in which the member has direct or indirect financial interest and shall at all times refrain from any conduct in which their personal interest would conflict with the interest of the fund.
10. All assets are to be held in the name of this congregation.
11. Decisions to hold, sell, exchange, rent, lease, transfer, convert, invest, reinvest, and in all other respects to manage and control the assets of the fund, including bank deposits, stocks, bonds, debentures, mortgages, notes, or other securities or investment's as in their judgment and discretion they deem wise and prudent, are to be made by the committee, with subsequent execution by the delegated member of the committee.

C. Distribution of Fund Income

1. Endowment Fund income not invested for growth of principal should be distributed as grants and allocated as follows:
 - a. A minimum of 20% for outreach into the community and synod, including, but not limited to, grants to ELCA seminaries, colleges or students attending such schools, social service agencies, institutions and agencies to which this congregation relates, and to special programs designated for those persons in our parish area who are in spiritual and/or economic need.
 - b. A minimum of 15% for missions of the ELCA in this continent and worldwide, including, but not limited to, grants to the ELCA for new congregational development in North America, professional leadership, educational ministries, global mission, ecumenism, evangelism, social ministries, and capital financing. A minimum of 20% for facility preservation, capital improvements and repairs, debt reduction, or building programs.

2. Distribution of the total fund income should occur annually at the discretion of the committee.

D. Distribution of Principal

When Congregational circumstances are so dire and of such an emergency nature that the future of the congregation is at stake and that the only recourse seems to be the use of the fund principal, the Congregation Council may, upon a two-thirds majority vote, recommend such authorizing action to the congregation. The congregation shall consider such action under the notification and voting rules established by chapter 10 of the constitution. The congregation may then, with a 10% quorum of voting members, authorize expenditure of the fund principal with a two-thirds majority vote.

C5.05.A24 Endowment Fund Guidelines:

A. Eligibility for Grants

1. Projects must fit within and be explicitly related to the current mission statement of this congregation.

C5.06.A24 Political Engagement Guidelines: As a congregation with tax-exempt status, we are free to address public issues as guided by our faith and values, but we are prohibited from using church resources to support or oppose any individual candidate or party. We respect the freedom, rights, and responsibilities of our pastors, staff, and Congregation Council members to speak out as private citizens in a democracy. As they do so, we expect them to follow the law, making it clear that they are speaking as individual Christians and citizens and not as official representatives of this congregation. We also expect them to exemplify Christian values when they speak out, including truthfulness, kindness, and clarity.

 - e. This congregation follows the procedures outlined in *C6.05.
- *C6.05. This congregation may terminate its relationship with the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America by the following procedure:
- a. A resolution indicating the intent to terminate its relationship must be adopted at two legally called and conducted special meetings of this congregation by a two-thirds vote of the voting members present at each meeting. The first such meeting may be held no sooner than 30 days after written notice of the meeting is received by the bishop of the synod, during which time this congregation shall consult with the bishop and the bishop's designees, if any. The times and manner of the consultation shall be determined by the bishop in consultation with the Congregation Council. Unless the bishop and/or the bishop's designees are voting members of this congregation, they shall have voice but not vote at the first meeting.
 - b. Within 10 days after the resolution has been voted upon at the first meeting, the secretary of this congregation shall submit a copy of the resolution to the bishop, attesting that the special meeting was legally called and conducted and certifying the outcome of the vote, and shall send copies of the resolution and certification to voting members of this congregation.

 - d. If this congregation, after such consultation, is still considering termination of its relationship with this church, such action may be taken at a legally called and conducted special meeting by a two-thirds vote of the voting members present. Notice of the second meeting shall be sent to all voting members and to the bishop at least 10 days in advance of the meeting. Unless the bishop and/or the bishop's designees are voting members of this congregation, they shall have voice but not vote at the second meeting.

If the resolution was adopted by a two-thirds vote of the voting members present at the second meeting, the relationship between the congregation and this church shall be terminated subject to Synod Council approval as required by paragraphs f. and g. below.
- f. Unless this notification to the bishop also certifies that this congregation has voted to affiliate with another Lutheran denomination, this congregation shall be deemed an independent or non-Lutheran church, in which case *C7.04. shall apply.
- g. This congregation shall abide by these covenants by and among the three expressions of this church:
 - 1) Congregations seeking to terminate their relationship with this church which fail or refuse to comply with each of the foregoing provisions in *C6.05. shall be required to receive Synod Council approval before terminating their membership in this church.
 - 2) Congregations which had been members of the Lutheran Church in America shall be required, in addition to complying with the foregoing provisions in *C6.05., to receive synod approval before terminating their membership in this church.
 - 3) Congregations established by the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America shall be required, in addition to complying with the foregoing provisions in *C6.05., to satisfy all financial obligations to this church and receive Synod Council approval before terminating their membership in this church.
- h. If this congregation fails to achieve the required two-thirds vote of voting members present at this congregation's first meeting as specified in paragraph a. above or fails to achieve the required two-thirds vote of voting members present at this congregation's second meeting as specified in paragraph d. above, another attempt to consider termination of relationship with this church must follow all requirements of *C6.05. and may begin no sooner than six months after the meeting at which the two-thirds vote was not achieved.

C6.06. If this congregation considers relocation, it shall confer with the bishop of the synod in which it is territorially located and the appropriate unit of the churchwide organization before any steps are taken leading to such action. The Synod Council, after consultation with this congregation by the process established by the synod, may give approval to the request to become independent or to relate to a non-Lutheran church body, in which case title shall remain with the majority of this congregation. If the Synod Council fails to give such approval, title shall remain with those members who desire to continue as a congregation of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. In neither case does title to this congregation's property transfer to the synod.
- *C7.05. Notwithstanding the provisions of *C7.02. and *C7.03. above, where this congregation has received property from the synod pursuant to a deed or other instrument containing restrictions under provision 9.71.a. of the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, this congregation accepts such restrictions and:
- a. Shall not transfer, encumber, mortgage, or in any way burden or impair any right, title, or interest in the property without prior approval of the Synod Council.
 - b. Shall—upon written demand by the Synod Council, pursuant to †S13.23. of the constitution of the Grand Canyon Synod —

C14.01.A24 All fund-raising activities of this congregation (at the church proper and/or in, among, and by any groups and organizations within the congregations, formally recognized or informal in nature), must have prior approval by the Congregation Council, or in the cases of extreme emergency only, the approval of the Congregation Council officers and Senior Pastor, and must directly benefit the Church and/or its ministries.

1. Sale of items on this congregation's campus

Chapter 15.

DISCIPLINE OF MEMBERS AND ADJUDICATION

C15.01. Persistent and public denial of the Christian faith, willful or criminal conduct grossly unbecoming a member of the Church of Christ, continual and intentional interference with the ministry of this congregation, or willful and repeated harassment or defamation of member(s) of this congregation is sufficient cause for discipline of a member. Prior to disciplinary action, reconciliation and repentance will be attempted following Matthew 18:15–17, proceeding through these successive steps, as necessary: a) private counsel and admonition by the pastor, b) censure and admonition by the pastor in the presence of two or three witnesses, c) written referral of the matter by the Congregation Council to the vice president of the synod, who will refer it to a consultation panel drawn from the Consultation Committee of the synod, and d) written referral of the matter by the consultation panel to the Committee on Discipline of the synod. If, for any reason, the pastor is unable to administer the admonitions required by paragraphs a. and b. hereof, those steps may be performed by another pastor chosen by the Executive Committee of the Congregation Council.

- *C15.02. The process for discipline of a member of this congregation shall be governed as prescribed by the chapter on discipline in the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. If the counseling, censure, and admonitions pursuant to *C15.01. do not result in repentance and amendment of life, charges against the accused member(s) that are specific and in writing may be prepared by the Congregation Council, signed, and submitted to the vice president of the synod. The vice president shall select from the synod's Consultation Committee a panel of five members (three laypersons and two rostered ministers). A copy of the written charges shall be provided to the consultation panel and the accused member(s). The consultation panel, after requesting a written reply to the charges from the accused member(s), shall consider the matter and seek a resolution by means of investigation, consultation, mediation, or whatever other means may seem appropriate. The panel's efforts to reach a mutually agreeable resolution shall continue for no more than 45 days after the matter is submitted to it.
- *C15.03. If the consultation panel fails to resolve the matter, that panel shall refer the case in writing, including the written charges and the accused member's reply, to the Committee on Discipline of the synod for a hearing. A copy of the panel's written referral shall be delivered to the vice president of the synod, the Congregation Council, and the accused member(s) at the same time it is sent to the Committee on Discipline of the synod. The Executive Committee of the Synod Council shall then select six members from the Committee on Discipline to decide the case and shall appoint a member of the Synod Council to preside as nonvoting chair. Those six members, plus the nonvoting chair, comprise the discipline hearing panel for deciding the case. The Congregation Council and the accused member(s) are the parties to the case.
- *C15.04. The discipline hearing panel shall commence and conduct the disciplinary hearing in accordance with the provisions governing discipline of congregation members prescribed in the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.
- *C15.05. By the vote of at least two-thirds of the members of the discipline hearing panel who are present and voting, one of the following disciplinary sanctions can be imposed:
- a. suspension from the privileges of congregation membership for a designated period of time;
 - b. suspension from the privileges of congregation membership until the pastor and Congregation Council receive evidence, satisfactory to them, of repentance and amendment of life;
 - c. termination of membership in this congregation; or
 - d. termination of membership in this congregation and exclusion from the church property and from all congregation activities.
- *C15.06. The written decision of the discipline hearing panel shall be sent to the vice president of the synod, the accused member(s), and the Congregation Council as required by the Constitution, Bylaws, and Continuing Resolutions of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. The decision of the discipline hearing panel shall be implemented by the Congregation Council and recorded in the minutes of the next council meeting.

- *C15.07. No member of this congregation shall be subject to discipline a second time for offenses that a discipline hearing panel has heard previously and decided pursuant to this chapter.
- *C15.10. Adjudication
- *C15.11. When there is disagreement between or among factions within this congregation on a substantive issue which cannot be resolved by the parties, members of this congregation may petition the synod bishop for consultation after informing the president [vice president] of this congregation of their intent to do so. The synod bishop shall seek a timely resolution of the dispute. If the issue relates directly to the pastor, the bishop may begin the process in ¶S14.18.d. In all other matters, if the bishop's consultation fails to resolve the issue, the bishop shall refer the matter to the Consultation Committee of the synod, which shall undertake efforts to find an appropriate solution. If the Consultation Committee's efforts fail to resolve the dispute, the entire matter shall be referred to the Synod Council for adjudication by whatever process the Council deems necessary. The Synod Council's decision shall be final.

Upon the request of at least two (2) voting members of this congregation, the Congregation Council shall submit such notice.
