

Our Saviour's Lutheran Church
Sunday Worship
November 9, 2025
Twenty Second Sunday after Pentecost

WELCOME

ELCA

Your presence builds up the body of Christ. We welcome and affirm God's diversity, including all ethnicities, cultures, races, sexual orientations, gender identities and expressions, abilities, ages, and life experiences. You are invited to full participation in our congregation because of who you are. We lament and confess how the Christian Church has withheld Christ's love by misusing the power of institution. We commit to advocating for God's justice and mercy for all of creation, including humans. We commit to anti-racism and other ways of ending systems that cause harm. Christ is our peace and breaks down the walls that divide us. Our communion table is Christ's table. You and all people are welcome without exception.

RECONCILING IN CHRIST

Newcomers and Visitors + Newcomers and Visitors + We're glad you're here. Please fill out the green slip in the pew rack and place in the offering plate. You're welcome to share in Holy Communion. Families - we have a small play area up front.

Nametags + Nametags help us get to know and remember each other. Please let the ushers know if you need one made for you.

Expansive Language + As Lutherans, we teach that "God calls all creation into being and gives people language as a way of responding to God and forming community" (Principles for Worship, Principle L-1). In worship at Our Saviour's, we seek to use expansive language for God and people, sometimes changing or offering alternatives to the printed text.

Current Liturgy Music + liturgy is the flow of our worship service - working together as people to praise God. Currently our liturgy music is from Setting Three from Evangelical Lutheran Worship.

Sunday Forum Today - "Letters to Mom" - by Roy Meyer and Tara Meyer Harper

Tara Meyer Harper, along with Eric Meyer and their mother Gerry Meyer, will share about the newly released collection of letters that their father Roy Meyer sent his mother while stationed in Italy during World War II. Tara and Eric will read excerpts from the book and share some of Roy's history. Roy was in the US Army Air Forces and Gerry was in the Women's Army Corp, both serving during World War II. The Meyer family is a 3-generation Our Saviour's family.

SUNDAY FORUM November 16, 2025 Generosity Appeal - Pie & Purpose

For over 80 years, Our Saviour's has been sharing God's love and mercy throughout Tucson and beyond. We will explore how we do that during our fall Generosity Appeal for 2026 - Pie & Purpose. Jesus reminds us in Matthew 6:21, "For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also." When we invest in God's work, we express our love for Christ and for one another. As we enter this season of stewardship, we invite you to prayerfully consider how you can support our congregation's mission. On Sunday, November 16 following Worship, we will hold a congregational meal. We'll enjoy chicken pot pie and pumpkin pie as we talk about ministry and turn in our Statements of Intent. We hope as many of us as possible will gather that day to celebrate what we've done and look to the future together.

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

All may make the sign of the cross, the sign that is marked at baptism, as the presiding minister begins.

Blessed be the holy Trinity, ☩ one God,
who looks upon us in compassion,
forgives our sin,
and heals our lives.

Amen.

Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another.
Silence is kept for reflection.

Have mercy, O God,
against you, you alone,
we have sinned.
In your compassion,
cleanse us from our sin
and take away our guilt.
Create in us a new heart
and give us a steadfast spirit.
Do not cast us away,
but fill us with your Holy Spirit
and restore your joy within us.
Amen.

As tender as parent to child, so deep is God's compassion for you.
As high as heaven is above earth, so vast is God's love for you.
As far as east is from west, so far God removes your sin from you,
renewing your life through Jesus Christ.
Blessed be God who crowns us with mercy and love.
Blessed be God forever.

*PRAYER OF THE DAY

FIRST READING Job 19:23-27a

The book of Job is a challenging piece of wisdom literature. The opening two chapters narrate in prose a dramatic test involving God, Satan, and Job. The next forty chapters of poetry explore issues related to suffering and evil and "where is God." Three "friends" basically tell Job that all that has happened is because of Job's sin. Our reading is one of Job's responses to such a callous theology. In it, Job testifies not only to God as Redeemer but to the hope of life after death.

²³ "O that my words were written down!
O that they were inscribed in a book!
²⁴ O that with an iron pen and with lead
they were engraved on a rock forever!
²⁵ For I know that my vindicator lives
and that in the end he will stand upon the earth;
²⁶ and after my skin has been destroyed,
then in my flesh I shall see God,
^{27a} whom I shall see on my side,
and my eyes shall behold, and not another."

Word of God, word of life.
Thanks be to God.

Psalms 17:1-9

¹ Hear a just cause, O Lord; give heed to my cry;
listen to my prayer, which does not come from lying lips.

² Let my vindication come forth from your presence;
let your eyes be fixed on justice.

³ Examine my heart, visit me by night,
melt me down; you will find no impurity in me.

⁴ I have not regarded what others do;
at the word of your lips I have avoided the ways of the violent.

⁵ My footsteps hold fast to your well-worn path;
and my feet do not slip.

⁶ I call upon you, O God, for you will answer me;
incline your ear to me and hear my words.

⁷ Show me your marvelous ¹ lovingkindness,
O Savior of those who take refuge at your right hand from those who ¹ rise against them.

⁸ Keep me as the apple of your eye;
hide me under the shadow of your wings,

⁹ from the wicked who assault me,
from my deadly enemies who surround me.

SECOND READING 2 Thessalonians 2:1-5, 13-17

Both letters to the Thessalonian church share several things in common. First is their attribution of Paul as author in their opening verses. Second is their concern over the day of Christ's return or Parousia. These letters are considered among if not the earliest New Testament writings. The early church clearly viewed Christ's coming as imminent. Today's reading urges the church to stand firm and keep faith in the interim, now 2000 years and counting.

¹ As to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we beg you, [family,] ² not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by spirit or by word or by letter, as though from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord is already here. ³ Let no one deceive you in any way, for that day will not come unless the rebellion comes first and the lawless one is revealed, the one destined for destruction. ⁴ He opposes and exalts himself above every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, declaring himself to be God. ⁵ Do you not remember that I told you these things when I was still with you?

¹³ But we must always give thanks to God for you, [family] beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the first fruits for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and through belief in the truth. ¹⁴ For this purpose he called you through our gospel, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. ¹⁵ So then, [family,] stand firm and hold fast to the traditions that you were taught by us, either by word of mouth or by our letter.

¹⁶ Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and through grace gave us eternal comfort and good hope, ¹⁷ comfort your hearts and strengthen them in every good work and word.

Word of God, word of life.

Thanks be to God.

*GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Gospel

The Holy Gospel according to Luke. Glory to you, O Lord.

Luke 20:27-38

²⁷ Some Sadducees, those who say there is no resurrection, came to [Jesus]²⁸ and asked him a question: “Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man’s brother dies leaving a wife but no children, the man shall marry the widow and raise up children for his brother. ²⁹ Now there were seven brothers; the first married a woman and died childless; ³⁰ then the second ³¹ and the third married her, and so in the same way all seven died childless. ³² Finally the woman also died. ³³ In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For the seven had married her.”

³⁴ Jesus said to them, “Those who belong to this age marry and are given in marriage, ³⁵ but those who are considered worthy of a place in that age and in the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. ³⁶ Indeed, they cannot die anymore, because they are like angels and are children of God, being children of the resurrection. ³⁷ And the fact that the dead are raised Moses himself showed, in the story about the bush, where he speaks of the Lord as the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. ³⁸ Now he is God not of the dead but of the living, for to him all of them are alive.”

The gospel of Jesus Christ. Praise to you, O Christ.

Tucson Interfaith HIV/AIDS Network
Helping People with HIV to Live Well

TIHAN NEWS: SHARE WARMTH AND JOY THROUGH YOUR GIFTS

Each December, TIHAN has the opportunity to brighten the holidays for CarePartners living with HIV by sharing gifts and gift cards to let them know they are seen, valued, and not alone. For many CarePartners, this is the one gift they can count on receiving, and it means the world to them. Will you help us make this heartfelt tradition possible again in 2025? As you shop and help spread the word, please remember: Gifts must be new, unused and unwrapped. Because CarePartners belong to a variety of faith traditions, or may not identify with any faith, we ask that holiday gifts do not portray any religious images or messages.

To keep gifts equitable, please look for gifts with a value between $15 and $25.

The greatest need is for gifts that would be appropriate for older adult males, such as household items like towel sets, small kitchen appliances, cooking tools, bed pillows, etc.

Please try to avoid sized items like shoes or clothing.

We are also hoping to give a $25 gift card to Target, Walmart, or Fry's to every CarePartner, so we gratefully accept donations of $25 gift cards.

We will gladly accept cash if you don't have time to shop.

Please bring all donations to OSLC before or after worship on any Sunday in November, or to the church office during the week by Sunday November 30th. Any questions? Please see Mary Pflibsen at the TIHAN table on the patio Sunday mornings, or contact her at marypflib@hotmail.com, 520-622-1983.
