

Our Saviour's Lutheran Church

Sunday Worship

January 18, 2026

Second Sunday after Epiphany

WELCOME

Your presence builds up the body of Christ. We welcome and affirm God's diversity, including all ethnicities, cultures, races, sexual orientations, gender identities and expressions, abilities, ages, and life experiences. You are invited to full participation in our congregation because of who you are. We lament and confess how the Christian Church has withheld Christ's love by misusing the power of institution. We commit to advocating for God's justice and mercy for all of creation, including humans. We commit to anti-racism and other ways of ending systems that cause harm. Christ is our peace and breaks down the walls that divide us. Our communion table is Christ's table. You and all people are welcome without exception.

RECONCILING IN CHRIST

Newcomers and Visitors + Newcomers and Visitors + We're glad you're here. Please fill out the green slip in the pew rack and place in the offering plate. You're welcome to share in Holy Communion. Families - we have a small play area up front.

Nametags + Nametags help us get to know and remember each other. Please let the ushers know if you need one made for you.

Expansive Language + As Lutherans, we teach that "God calls all creation into being and gives people language as a way of responding to God and forming community" (Principles for Worship, Principle L-1). In worship at Our Saviour's, we seek to use expansive language for God and people, sometimes changing or offering alternatives to the printed text.

Current Liturgy Music + liturgy is the flow of our worship service - working together as people to praise God. Our current liturgy is from All Creation Sings, Setting 12 and Sundays and Seasons.

Prayer Requests: Our Saviour's Community: Family and Friends of Isobel Barnhill; Mary Wildner-Bassett (daughter's health diagnosis); Patty Sirls (death of dear friend); Paul Stum (hospitalization); Scott Koenig (death of grandfather); Rankin Family (death of Mike's mother); Delaossa Family (death of Lisa's mother); Corky Ronstadt (at-home care), Mary Neff (hospice care), Schatzi Taylor (in a rehabilitation center following a fall and diagnosis), and those at home and in care facilities.

Names will generally remain on the list for three weeks, unless requested for renewal. Please contact the church office for corrections, updates, and additions.

OVERVIEW OF TODAY'S SCRIPTURE:

The lections for this second Sunday in the season of Epiphany bring further revealings of the God who comes among us. Isaiah speaks of God's calling of a Servant to bring light and healing to all nations and peoples. The psalm testifies to the trustworthiness of God's steadfast love and faithfulness. Paul gives thanks for the church at Corinth, whose strength is grounded in God's faithfulness. In John, the Baptizer proclaims Jesus to be the Lamb of God. And to a question asked by two would-be followers, Jesus says to them (and us): "Come and see."

Sunday Forum - TODAY at 10:30 "Hearing and Acting"

We are living in unprecedented times. In these times, Our Saviour's seeks to be an anchor and place of refuge. Yet Christ followers cannot remain isolated from the places God is leading us. At the end of the Sermon on the Mount in Matthew, Jesus talks about "hearing and acting" (Matthew 7:24). By hearing and acting according to the teachings of Jesus, we can be a grounded source of positive change and hope for others and for our whole creation. In community we live out diverse ways of being Christ-centered people - "there is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling." Further, this whole body is in Christ "from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by every ligament with which it is equipped, as each part is working properly, promotes the body's growth in building itself up in love" (Ephesians 4:4, 16).

In our forum today, Pastor Amalia will guide small group and large group conversation about how Our Saviour's can "hear and act" as a congregation.

WELCOME

PRELUDE In the Garden by C Austin Mikes, arranged by Asher Havenhill

Asher Havenhill and Kent Pflibsen

*CONFESSiON AND FORGIVENESS

All may make the sign of the cross, the sign that is marked at baptism, as the presiding minister begins.

Blessed be the holy Trinity, ☩ one God,
the Creator of heaven and earth,
the Word who spoke life into being,
the Wind stirring the waters.

Amen.

Let us turn in confession to the one who knows us completely.

Silence is kept for reflection.

Mighty God, lover of justice,
you call us to life in community,
but we have served our own interests
at the expense of our neighbors.
We have sown deceit where honesty was needed.
We say the right words,
but our hearts are far from you.
Turn us to seek your face.
Knit us together and give us the mind of Christ,
that we may do justice, love mercy,
and walk humbly with you, our God.
Amen.

The former things have passed away,
and new things God now declares:
Like a spring of water that never fails,
God covers you in the righteousness of Christ,
and forgives your sin in ☩ Jesus' name.
May the Spirit give you strength to live for others,
and bless you with the gift of peace.
Amen.

*GREETING

The grace of Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.
And also with you.

*PRAYER OF THE DAY

FIRST READING

Our Old Testament reading is from the book of Isaiah.

As with last week, the passage before us is one of Isaiah's "servant songs." The identity of the servant in Isaiah's time remains unclear. In retrospect, the Church has heard in these songs hints of the eventual ministry of Jesus. With surprising candor, the song early on speaks of the frustration experienced by the servant in his calling. Equally startling is the scope of that calling. It is not enough for the servant to declare the hope of return from exile for Israel. The servant is to be a light of God's saving purposes for all peoples, Jew and Gentile alike.

Isaiah 49:1-7

¹ Listen to me, O coastlands;
pay attention, you peoples from far away!

 The Lord called me before I was born;
 while I was in my mother's womb he named me.

² He made my mouth like a sharp sword;
 in the shadow of his hand he hid me;
 he made me a polished arrow;
 in his quiver he hid me away.

³ And he said to me, "You are my servant,
 Israel, in whom I will be glorified."

⁴ But I said, "I have labored in vain;
 I have spent my strength for nothing and vanity;
 yet surely my cause is with the Lord and my reward with my God."

⁵ And now the Lord says,
 who formed me in the womb to be his servant,
 to bring Jacob back to him,
 and that Israel might be gathered to him,
 for I am honored in the sight of the Lord,
 and my God has become my strength—

⁶ he says,
 "It is too light a thing that you should be my servant
 to raise up the tribes of Jacob and to restore the survivors of Israel;
 I will give you as a light to the nations,
 that my salvation may reach to the end of the earth."

⁷ Thus says the Lord,
 the Redeemer of Israel and his Holy One,
 to one deeply despised, abhorred by the nations,
 the slave of rulers,
 "Kings shall see and stand up;
 princes, and they shall prostrate themselves,
 because of the Lord, who is faithful,
 the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you."

PSALM 40:1-11

¹ I waited patiently upon the Lord, who stooped to me and heard my cry.

² The Lord lifted me out of the desolate pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a high cliff, making my footing sure.

³ The Lord put a new song in my mouth, a song of praise to our God;
many shall see, and stand in awe, and put their trust in the Lord.

⁴ Happy are they who trust in the Lord!

They do not turn to enemies or to those who follow lies.

⁵ Great are the wonders you have done, O Lord my God! In your plans for us, none can be compared with you! Oh, that I could make them known and tell them! But they are more than I can count.

⁶ Sacrifice and offering you do not desire;

you have opened my ears: burnt-offering and sin-offering you have not required.

⁷ And so I said, "Here I am; I come.

In the scroll of the book it is written of me:

⁸ 'I love to do your will, O my God;

your law is ¹deep within me.'

⁹ I proclaimed righteousness in the great assembly;
I have not restrained my lips, O Lord, you know.

¹⁰ I have not hidden your righteousness in my heart; I have spoken of your faithfulness and your deliverance;

I have not concealed your steadfast love and truth from the great assembly.

¹¹ You are the Lord; do not withhold your compassion from me;

may your steadfast love and your truth continually keep me safe.

SECOND READING

Our New Testament reading is from Paul's first letter to the church at Corinth.

Paul founded the church at Corinth and labored there for a year or more. Now, perhaps two or three years later, Paul sends a letter to Corinth. Our reading reintroduces Paul as an apostle "by the will of God." The following verses consist of a prayer of thanks and benediction. Paul's opening sets the stage for what prompts the letter and what we will read of next week: internal issues that threaten to undermine the community.

1 Corinthians 1:1-9

¹ Paul, called to be an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and our brother Sosthenes,

² To the church of God that is in Corinth, to those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, together with all those who in every place call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both their Lord and ours:

³ Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

⁴ I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that has been given you in Christ Jesus, ⁵ for in every way you have been enriched in him, in speech and knowledge of every kind ⁶ just as the testimony of Christ has been strengthened among you ⁷ so that you are not lacking in any gift as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁸ He will also strengthen you to the end, so that you may be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹ God is faithful, by whom you were called into the partnership of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

*GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Al-le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

Repeat alleluia

Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of e - ter - nal life.

*GOSPEL

The Holy Gospel according to John. Glory to you, O Lord.

John 1:29-42

²⁹ [John the Baptist] saw Jesus coming toward him and declared, "Here is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!" ³⁰ This is he of whom I said, 'After me comes a man who ranks ahead of me because he was before me.' ³¹ I myself did not know him, but I came baptizing with water for this reason, that he might be revealed to Israel." ³² And John testified, "I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it remained on him. ³³ I myself did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water said to me, 'He on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain is the one who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.' ³⁴ And I myself have seen and have testified that this is the Chosen One."

³⁵ The next day John again was standing with two of his disciples, ³⁶ and as he watched Jesus walk by he exclaimed, "Look, here is the Lamb of God!" ³⁷ The two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Jesus. ³⁸ When Jesus turned and saw them following, he said to them, "What are you looking for?" They said to him, "Rabbi" (which translated means Teacher), "where are you staying?" ³⁹ He said to them, "Come and see." They came and saw where he was staying, and they remained with him that day. It was about four o'clock in the afternoon. ⁴⁰ One of the two who heard John speak and followed him was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. ⁴¹ He first found his brother Simon and said to him, "We have found the Messiah" (which is translated Anointed). ⁴² He brought Simon to Jesus, who looked at him and said, "You are Simon son of John. You are to be called Cephas" (which is translated Peter).

The Gospel of Jesus Christ. Praise to you, O Christ.

*OFFERING PRAYER

*THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy... ...we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

*HOLY HOLY HOLY

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and God of might, heav - en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Bless - ed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na, ho - san - na in the high - est.
Ho - san - na, ho - san - na in the high - est.

*THANKSGIVING AT THE TABLE

*THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

This congregation tends to use the traditional form of the Lord's Prayer. You are welcome to pray using other versions, words, or languages that may be more familiar to you. You are also encouraged to address God in a way that most opens your heart to relationship with God (Creator, Father and Mother, Abba, Our Only Home are a few options). Jesus taught this form of prayer to the disciples to encourage sincere and meaningful conversation with God.

COMMUNION

Come to this Table of mercy. Become what you receive.

This is Christ's table. You and all are welcome, without exception. If you prefer a blessing only, cross your arms over your heart. Gluten free wafers available by request. The wine is red; grape juice is clear. Please let an usher know if you would like communion brought to your pew.

COMMUNION HYMNS Lamb of God

Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world; have mer-cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world; have mer-cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world; grant us peace, grant us peace.

 1 Lord Je - sus, you shall be my song as I jour - - ney;
 2 Lord Je - sus, I'll praise you as long as I jour - - ney.
 3 As long as I live, Je - sus, make me your ser - - vant,
 4 I fear in the dark and the doubt of my jour - - ney;

Jé - sus, je vou - drais t'an - non - cer à mes voi - sins par - tout,
 I'll tell ev - 'ry - bod - y a - bout you wher - ev - er I go:
 May all of my joy be a faith - ful re - flec - tion of you.
 to car - ry your cross and to share all your bur - dens and tears.
 but cour - age will come with the sound of your steps by my side.

car toi seul es la vie et la paix et l'a - mour:
 you a - lone are our life and our peace and our love.
 May the earth and the sea and the sky join my song.
 For you saved me by giv - ing your bod - y and blood.
 And with all of the fam - ly you saved by your love,

Jé - sus, je vou - drais te chan - ter sur ma rou - - te.
 Lord Je - sus, you shall be my song as I jour - - ney.
 Lord Je - sus, I'll praise you as long as I jour - - ney.
 As long as I live, Je - sus, make me your ser - - vant.
 we'll sing to your dawn at the end of our jour - - ney.
