The KNGN “NATYĪKAKĪWIN” Summer Camp is a week-long immersive cultural and land-based learning experience. This year’s camp will focus on traditional medicine harvesting, nehiyaw language learning, and outdoor activities.

Camp Fee Includes:

- Access to guided cultural workshops and activities
- Support from knowledge keepers and camp staff
- (Does not include fees for kayaks, canoeing)

Campers Must Bring:

- Personal medicine-harvesting tools
- Own tent/trailer and full camping gear (sleeping bag, mat, flashlight, etc.)
- Weather-appropriate clothing and footwear
- Refillable water bottle & backpack

Waiver of Liability

By registering for this camp, you acknowledge that outdoor and physical activities involve inherent risks, including but not limited to minor injuries, illness, insect bites, or accidents.

KNGN and affiliated organizers, staff, knowledge keepers, or volunteers are not liable for any injury, accident, loss, or damage that may occur during participation in the Cranbrook Summer Camp 2025.

By signing below, you accept full personal responsibility for your safety and well-being and confirm that you are physically and mentally fit to participate.

Consent and Agreement

By signing below, I confirm that:

- I understand the camp fee is $1000,
- I am responsible for bringing all personal tools and camping gear,
- I waive KNGN and its representatives of any liability in the event of injury or incident,
- I give permission for photos/videos taken during the camp to be used for promotional and educational purposes by KNGN.

I agree to the above terms.
