

1 Head to YouTube and find a viral video in your niche (just search a few keywords around your topic - they will pop up).

2 Pick one with >500k views

3 Tap "Share" and "Copy Link"

4 Now use a website that can transcribe it for you. I use Clipto.

5 Paste the copied link where it says "enter a YouTube url" and tap "Go"

6 Tap "Copy entire transcript"

7 Go to ChatGPT and enter in the prompt below (feel free to edit) and then paste the transcript after the prompt and hit enter.

I'd love your help creating engaging, viral-style content that speaks directly to my audience. Below is what I'm looking for—feel free to infuse it with creativity, heart, and that scroll-stopping touch:

Short-Form Video Ideas

Could you give me short-form video ideas based on this transcript from a popular YouTube video in my niche:

[Insert transcript here]

Please keep them short, creative, and structured for strong hook → value → takeaway flow.

Instagram Post Ideas (Feed)

I'd love viral post ideas that speak to the most common doubts or struggles my audience faces when it comes to:

[Insert niche-specific problem]

Each idea should offer a practical takeaway or solution—something empowering, real, and shareable.

Instagram Story Ideas

Could you generate unique Instagram Story ideas to increase engagement and spark real connection? I'd love them to include:

- Creative visuals or formats (polls, sliders, DMs, etc.)
 - A strong call to action
 - And bonus points if they feel raw, relatable, or faith-anchored

Call to Action Statements

Lastly, could you give me strong call-to-action phrases I can use at the end of posts or stories to drive engagement or action?

Think things like:

- “Drop a  if this hit home”
- “Save this for when the noise gets loud again”
- “Follow for more science-meets-soul content”

Let's make it real and deeply aligned.

Now you have video ideas based on what's already working!
