Let's introduce

Max Phillips Jr

Max and Bobby, (owner of Varin Enterprises, LLC), first met during their childhood and discovered a mutual love for racing. They both pursued education and career paths in alignment with their passion. Max went to Canada where he was a residence assistant in the dormitory during college, then traveled to Seattle, worked at a car dealership as an assistant manager then transitioned to becoming a professor in Japan, and currently heads the Equipment and Tool Rentals division at Supply Wagon Rentals. Despite his hectic schedule, Max continues to prioritize his interests, showcasing exceptional organizational abilities and adaptability in his role. He is respected for his leadership skills and commitment to mentoring others, embodying a strong spirit and dedication throughout his professional journey.
