Who we are

A NOTE FROM THE FOUNDER

Thank you so much for your interest in supporting Audience of One. We are so thankful for the support we receive from supporters and businesses alike. Audience of One Productions was started in 2015 to help young artists and professionals develop themselves and create amazing performances for our local community.

Since then we have experienced exponential growth, now with a yearly educational program series and a renowned professional company bringing shows like Hunchback of Notre Dame, Anastasia, On the Town, and many more classics of the stage to Middle Tennessee.

We are growing into a Nashville-based regional company, showcasing Tennessee talent in the best Broadway shows around. Your support helps keep the arts alive in our community and advances our presence in the Nashville theatre scene.

OUR PERFORMANCE HOME

Capitol Theatre in Lebanon, TN serves as our performance space. This recently renovated classic theatre is a historic landmark, hosting all of our productions, and is a local favorite night-out in the area. We've enjoyed a great relationship with Capitol Theatre and the greater Wilson County community, whom we serve with the only theatrical performances of their kind in the area.

SUPPORT THE ARTS!

"Audience of One is like a family to me. It was taught me to see myself and others through the eyes of Christ. The environment of encouragement and freedom has allowed me to grow in my acting, singing, and dancing. The teachers and directors teach us how to find the truth in our characters, work in our process, and not just perform, but thrive; to live in the moment. We work hard. This company has impacted my life and continues to encourage me to be the best version of myself." -Gracie Youngman

"I would encourage anyone to get involved with Audience of One. It is truly a uniquely anointed place to create art." -Key McKinney

"This company provides a firm foundation of triple threat skillsets, resume building, professional connections, and equipping each artist to grow into the best version of themselves. We have a Broadway theatre right here in Wilson County with Audience of One Productions." -Bethany Harrison

Audience of One Productions is a non-profit and would not be possible without business sponsorships, donors, and community support!

We currently offer several opportunities for both single shows and an entire season, available for both individuals and businesses to take part in.

BUSINESS SPONSORS

Audience of One and our shows are a staple of the Wilson County community. What better way to reach more customers than support a local non profit? We offer several benefits of business sponsorship including complimentary advertising and presenting partner opportunities.

You’re not only supporting a local organization, but also helping the arts flourish in our community through professional theatre. We also pride ourselves on hiring Tennessee-based actors to ensure our resources and impact go directly back into our communities.

INDIVIDUAL SPONSORS

We are so blessed to be in a community that supports our work and gives accordingly. We truly cannot do this work without the generous contributions of our neighbors, friends, and family.

Individual patrons also have the opportunity to engage in matching gifts, stock options, and charitable Roth IRA rollovers.
