- Contributing to team meetings.
- Identifying and conveying behavior challenges that come in your session.
- Developing materials for sessions.
- Attending scheduled sessions reliably.
- Communicating with all team members in a timely and professional manner both in- person and electronically.
- Maintaining respectable and professional boundaries with families.

Qualifications that we are looking for include:

- Enjoys working and playing with children.
- Desire to make a difference in a child's life.
- Compassionate and patient personality.
- Strong creativity and great play skills.

- Fluent in written and spoken English (additional languages are an asset).
- Well-developed oral and written communication skills
- Proficiency in Microsoft Excel, Google Docs, and Email
- Excellent organizational skills to manage caseloads effectively.
- Able to work independently.
- Possess a punctual, reliable, conscientious work ethic.

- Complete recent Vulnerable Sector Criminal Record Check

Requirements of an Independent Contractor include but are not limited to:

- Having your own computer, printer, and internet.
- Access to Microsoft Excel, Microsoft Teams, and Google Docs.
- Driver's license, and reliable vehicle (mileage is not reimbursable).
- Submission of invoices monthly. Please note that independent contractors are paid on an hourly basis. Number of hours vary per client.

Benefits of an Independent Contractor Include:

- A flexible schedule
- The opportunity for supervision by a Board Certified Behavior Analyst
