Dara Marias is a partner with Kainen Law Group, PLLC and is a Certified Amicable Divorce Professional. She is the founding attorney member of the Amicable Divorce Network in Nevada and current state ambassador. With both a Juris Doctor and Master of Social Work, Dara's divorce practice focuses exclusively on non-litigated divorce options including Amicable Divorce and Joint Mediation. Dara also offers holistic education on co-parenting, emotion management, communication skills, and problem-solving strategies. Dara also oversees Kainen Law Group's Fresh Start services, which help clients start life after divorce with confidence. Dara joined the Nevada Bar in 1994 after graduating with a Juris Doctor and Master of Social Work from the University of Southern California. Prior to attending USC, Dara graduated summa cum laude from Georgetown University where she was inducted into Phi Beta Kappa. As Nevada's 2020 Mother of the Year, Dara prioritizes families and creating optimal co-parenting environments. Dara is rated as an AV-Preeminent attorney and has an extensive background in family law, mediation, and social-emotional skill development. Dara authored "Mediation and the Role of the Attorney" for the Nevada Family Law Report and is also a contributing author to Divorce Amicably: Your Roadmap to Resolution, writing four chapters about co-parenting, resolving impasses in divorce negotiations, and developing emotional agility. Her forthcoming article, "A Just Way to Divorce," about non-litigated divorce options will be published in Fall 2025 in the Journal of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers. Whether serving as an attorney, mediator, or educator, Dara strives to empower people so they can emerge from divorce with a solid financial and emotional foundation ready to thrive in their next phase of life.

Stacy Weil graduated from UC Santa Barbara in 1983 with a degree in Political Science. After earning her law degree from Santa Clara University in 1987, she practiced family law in Saratoga, California. Stacy is recognized as a Family Law Specialist in California, has represented minor children in high-conflict custody cases, and served as a Settlement Conference Judge and Pro Tem Judge in California. Stacy relocated to Las Vegas in 2003, shifting her focus to family and caregiving. She honed her Nevada family law expertise under esteemed mentors before becoming a partner at Hagen & Weil, PLLC, and later establishing her own practice in 2014. A dedicated community advocate, she participated in the Truancy Diversion Program for six years and is a founding member of the Nevada Chapter of the Amicable Divorce Network. As a Certified Amicable Divorce Professional and Certified Gray Divorce Professional, Stacy brings compassion, understanding, and flexibility to her practice while remaining a strong advocate for her clients. She firmly believes in empowering families to navigate divorce outside the courtroom, fostering an atmosphere of control and reduced stress.

KRISTINA WILDEVELD & ASSOCIATES

(702) 222-0007

fran@veldlaw.com

Fran has dedicated her legal career exclusively to family law, practicing since 1985. Her journey in the legal field began as a legal secretary and legal assistant, before being encouraged to pursue a law degree at Golden Gate University, where she graduated in 1983. While preparing for the Bar Exam, Fran served as a law clerk with the United States Attorney's Office for the State of Nevada. After passing the Bar, Fran joined Moran & Associates until 1987, and then William R. Phillips & Associates before opening her own practice in 1991. In 1992, she was elected as a District Court Judge in the newly formed Family Division of the 8th Judicial District Court, serving honorably for nearly six years. Following her tenure on the bench, Fran returned to private practice in 1999, reopening her firm and continuing her commitment to helping families navigate complex legal challenges. In 2019, Fran explored partial retirement but found her passion for the law undiminished. By 2023, she resumed full-time practice as Of Counsel at Kristina Wildeveld & Associates. In addition to her work as an attorney, Fran is an accomplished mediator, regularly enhancing her expertise through ongoing education and conferences. She has also made significant contributions to the legal community, serving on the Executive Committee of the Family Law Section, the Executive Council of the CASA Foundation, and the Nevada State Bar ADR Section, where she held the role of Secretary. Her dedication extends to serving as a Guardian Ad Litem and Child Advocate (CAP), further demonstrating her commitment to protecting the interests of children and families.

Carlia Waite, Esq. graduated with a bachelor's degree in psychology and criminal justice from Missouri State University in 1995, and later received her master's degree in social work (M.S.W.) in 1998, graduating Summa Cum Laude. Thereafter, she graduated in 2003 from the William S. Boyd School for Law. Carlia is licensed in Nevada and her home state of Missouri. Since graduation, Carlia has focused her practice exclusively on family law, with an emphasis on domestic relations and divorce. Her specialty is complex high asset property division that includes business valuation, appraisal and forensic accounting, high conflict child custody cases, and prenuptial and postnuptial agreements. While Carlia is a skilled litigator, she also has extensive experience in non-litigated divorce solutions including mediation, collaborative law, and Amicable Divorce. With Carlia's social work and legal experience, she offers clients a unique understanding of both the emotional and financial impact of domestic disputes that are not often found in traditionally trained attorneys. As the principal attorney of Waite Family Law, Carlia brings together her legal and amicable skills to ensure her clients are provided with the best possible services tailored for their specific case and needs. Carlia has three children ranging in grades from middle school to college, her best accomplishments yet. In her free time, Carlia loves spending time with her family, shopping, watching movies, playing games, and planning her family's next trip to Disneyland.

YASNAI C. RODRIGUEZ-ZAMAN, ESQ.

Divorce & Family Law Attorney

Zaman & Trippiedi, PLLC

(702) 842-4242

www.ztlawgroup.com

Yasnai Rodriguez-Zaman was born and raised in Chicago, Illinois, as one of ten siblings. Growing up in a large family instilled in her a deep appreciation for communication, collaboration, and conflict resolution—skills that naturally led her to pursue a career in law with a strong focus on supporting families. She began her undergraduate studies at Florida International University in Miami before completing her degree at the University of Illinois at Chicago in 2014. Committed to furthering her impact in family law, Yasnai relocated to Las Vegas to attend the William S. Boyd School of Law at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. During law school, she gained valuable insight into the judicial process through externships with several judges in the Eighth Judicial District Court's Family Division, solidifying her dedication to the field. Following her graduation in 2017, Yasnai served as a law clerk to a Family Court Judge in Las Vegas, where she developed a strong foundation in the procedural and substantive aspects of family law. Since completing her clerkship, she has focused her practice on family law, representing clients in matters such as custody, divorce, and guardianship. In addition, she has experience in special education law, advocating for children with disabilities and their families to ensure access to appropriate educational services. Yasnai approaches each case with empathy, integrity, and a commitment to finding thoughtful, effective solutions. She understands that family-related legal matters are often deeply personal and emotionally charged. Her goal is to guide her clients through challenging times with clarity, compassion, and a resolution-oriented mindset—values that align seamlessly with the principles of alternate dispute resolution.
