DISTRICT 7 UPDATE

Dear neighbors,

I hope everyone in the Jefferson Neighborhood Association is doing well. The District 7 office has been busy gearing up for summer!

In early May, my office hosted a Property Tax Workshop with the Bexar County Appraisal District, Texas Rio Grande Legal Aid, and the Bexar County Tax Assessor-Collector to teach residents how to protest their property appraisals and provide tools and resources to assist with property taxes.

Thank you to everyone who joined us. We are committed to making this process approachable and accessible, so additional clinics will be hosted in the coming weeks. Details are forthcoming.

More information on the protest process can be found at tinyurl.com/BCADProtestInfo

SENIOR LASSOS OF THOMAS JEFFERSON HIGH SCHOOL

Congratulations to The Thomas Jefferson High School Lasso Seniors, Class of 2022: Victoria Espinosa, Amber Charles and Cynthia Ontiveros!

You have made the 90 years of Lassos before you very proud. Your focus and determination in the face of the wild ride of the past two years plus your drive to find opportunities to succeed have inspired us all. We applaud your efforts as much as we appreciate the dedication of your families and friends and their support of your accomplishing this milestone. The cooperation between you and your teachers, coaches, counselors and the TJHS staff is one of the best skills anyone can learn and you've done well.

That said, the TJHS Lasso Alumni Association was delighted to award each of you a scholarship toward your first session in college. Go forth and do good things!

We wish you all the best as you start out on your next paths and adventures and, of course, we welcome you as the latest members of our Lasso Alumni Association!

With love for now and confidence in all your futures, we are all "Once a Lasso, Always a Lasso"! lassos.org
