Senator Max Burns will report more than $85K in his campaign account for reelection

Sylvania, GA – The Max Burns for State Senate Campaign will file its fundraising figures later this month with over $85,000 cash on hand. For the term July 1st through January 9th the campaign raised more than $70,000. Contributions are not accepted while the 2022 Legislative Session is in progress.

“I am grateful to everyone who contributed to our reelection campaign. These contributions help us communicate our core conservative message to constituents in the 23rd State Senate District. We must ensure that the Georgia State Senate continues to have a strong, rural, conservative voice.”
