

HOW TO SHARE THE GOSPEL

How to Share the Gospel – Dylan A.

Sharing the Good News of Jesus Christ and His work is a daunting task. God, the Perfect Creator, has made some of us shy, timid, cautious, and even distrustful of others. Though the Father has saved us in Jesus by this gospel that we are scared to share, the biggest obstacle in this humble author's opinion, is ourselves. That's my point. Thankfully, God uses even our flawed personalities to share the gospel! I mean, who else besides flawed people does God use for this task? My prayer as you read this is that you understand with me that God can help us share the gospel and look to His promises in this task. This is how God uses imperfect people to call imperfect people to salvation! (so true...Ed.)

One of the many things I know to trust God for is this – if He calls us to something, He will enable us to be able to do it. If He calls us to share Jesus' message, He has enabled us. Wasn't Moses an example of this? Was not Moses called to proclaim salvation to Israel, yet his issue was his speech? (Exodus 4:10). The God who called Moses enabled Moses in the very next verse! Right after Moses doubted God. Like Moses, we doubt the call, but God enables us for it. Loved ones, let's cling to this promise so we can, in love, freely share the Gospel to those who desperately need to hear it.

Another reassurance for this task is Isaiah 55:11 and John 10:15-16. Isaiah tells us when Gods Word goes forth and we proclaim the gospel; God will accomplish what God wants to accomplish. Sadly then, as we trust in Gods perfect wisdom, we know not everyone who we share the gospel with will receive it how we have received it. As we again look to the Bible in John, Jesus says, He is the Good Shepard and His sheep know His voice. Jesus is the Word made flesh (John 1). If the sheep know the Shepards voice, if when Gods Word goes forth and God wants it to do what He wants it to do, the other assurance from God for this task is whether we are rejected or accepted. When we share in this way, this message of salvation, God will do what He wants to do with this message. God will do what He wants to do, in His time, not ours. Salvation is the Lords! (Psalm 3:8)

Our ability (or lack thereof) is secondary to this task of sharing the gospel since it's God who works on someone's salvation. He just uses us to share it! God tells us both why and how His salvation in Jesus is either accepted or rejected. Yet in His sovereignty, we are still called to share the gospel!

If we look past ourselves, our issues and insecurities...everything that stops us from sharing Gods Word and start trusting scriptural promises in this task, only then can we start freely sharing the gospel with the lost sheep that Jesus taught us to bring to Him!

Take care and be bold in this. God is with you in all things!
