Moorish Americans Eid al Adha 2023

The Moors connected with www.prophetnobledrewali.org would like to share some online information about Eid al Adha from islamicfinder.org in our attempt to honor the ways and customs of our Ancient Fathers and Mothers. Eid al Adha 2023 or Bakra Eid 2023 is celebrated today. The date of this celebration is based on the sighting of the moon of Dhul Hijjah, 1441, the 12th and last month of the Islamic Calendar.

What is Eid al Adha 2023?

“The Moorish Science Temple of America deriving its power and authority from the Great Koran of Mohammed to propagate the faith and extend the learning and truth of the Great Prophet of Ali, in America.”

“Eid ul Adha is a festival celebrated among Muslims [Moslems (here in the Western Hemisphere)] all over the world in remembrance of the sacrifices that Prophet Ibrahim [Abraham] (PBUH) made out of his strong faith in Allah.”

“Ibrahim (PBUH) showed a willingness to sacrifice his son Prophet Ismail (A.S.) but his son was replaced with a lamb by Allah. Allah was so pleased with Ibrahim’s (PBUH) submission to Him that He made this demonstration of sacrifice and faith a permanent part of Muslim’s life. This event is mention in Quran - Surah As-Saffat (37:102).”

“Hence, every year on the 10th of Dhul Hijjah, Muslims/Moslems all over the world celebrate Eid ul Adha. On this day, Muslims slaughter a lamb, sheep, goat pr camel to honor the sacrifice of Ibrahim (PBUH). “

This act reminds me of a Quote/Hadith from Prophet Noble Drew Ali that states: “You say that you want some pure meat to eat; no one is going to kill a camel for you to eat over here.” Moslems, descendants of Moroccans born in America, are reminded by this quote of how sacred camels are based on their service to Humanity. We Moorish Americans are returning to the ways and customs of our Ancestors. Eid al Adha reminds us of: “Teach him obedience, and he shall bless these; teach him modesty, and he shall not be ashamed.” Holy Koran (Circle Chapter 23:Key 8). It is clear that Prophet Ibrahim’s (PBUH) obedience to Allah lead to the Blessing we as his and Prophet Ismail’s (PBUH) descendants will receive as we return to the Ancient custom of Islamism, the Old Time Religion. All Muslims/Moslems must submit to the will of Allah. 🇲🇸

“Both Eid ul Fitr and Eid Al-Adha have great significance in Islam as the same is evident from the following Hadith of Prophet Mohammad (PBUH): “Allah has given you better than those feasts (festivals of non-believers): the ‘Eid-ul-Adha’ and ‘Eid-ul-Fitr.’” (An-Nasai:1556)

Sawm:Fasting the 4th Pillar of Islam:

“Fasting on Eid al-Adha and Eid ul-Fitr is strictly forbidden as the same is obvious from the following Hadith of our beloved Prophet” (PBUH):

“No fasting is permissible on the two days of Eid-ulFitr and Eid-ul-Adha.”(Sabih Bukhari: 1995)

“In conclusion, I urge you to remember there is work enough for all to do in helping to build a better world. The problems of life are largely social and economic. In a profound sense, they are moral and spiritual. Have lofty conceptions of your duties to your country and fellowman in general and especially those with whom you deal. This includes such honesty and righteousness as will cause you to put yourself in the other fellow's place. Look for the best in others and give them the best that is in you. Have a deeper appreciation for womanhood. Brighten the hopes of our youth in order that their courage be increased to dare and do wondrous things. Adhere at all times to the principles of love, truth, peace, freedom, and justice. I am your affectionate leader. I shall continue to labor day and night, both in public and private, for your good, thereby contributing to the welfare of our country and its people as a whole.”
