

Moorish Times

Love | Truth | Peace | Freedom | Justice

As gas prices soar and rumors of food shortages arise, the religious organization has provided essential aid to its members and community.

As Spring is upon us , the Moors of Oakland, California are back feeding and showing love to their community. As the worlds news brings concern and instability. The MSTofA in Oakland is a beacon of light and a uplifting sign that help and resources are available to the people. As gas prices soar and rumors of food shortages arise, the religious organization has provided essential aid to its members and community. The temple gives away a bag of groceries free to anyone in need every Friday from 4pm-7pm. The bags are consistently filled with stable items such as rice, beans, peanut butter potatoes and noodles. Produce is also available but varies from week to week. On average the Temple gives away about 30 bags a week.

The encore is the Community Cookout which is the last Sunday of every month. On this day Moors are out in full force. Hugging all four corners of Seminary and MacArthur, Fezzes and signs of free food can't be missed. As the Moors persuade people to pull over and grab a warm dinner plate, sounds of soul music serenade the open air. Dinner plates are served to the community both all vegan or halal chicken options. Side salad, beans, lentils, rice, greens, cabbage, samosas and desserts are available buffet style. The vibes are right and the food was prepared with Love. The MSTofA in Oakland is working to provide a spark that ignites a movement of unity in our society. Through the charitable works and faithful members honoring their social duties instructed by Noble Drew Ali, the Temple is working to aid and assist the families of Oakland with food and other essentials needs during this uncertain time. The Temple is always looking for volunteers and men and women who think their condition can be better to take your place in the affairs of men. Peace
