

I'M BACK

Hi

Guess who just slid down from the North Pole last night? It's me—your Elf on the Shelf! Santa sent me back to keep watch and spread Christmas cheer while he's busy making toys and checking his list (twice, of course!).

I've missed you so much and can't wait to see all the fun things you've been up to this year. Remember, my job is to report back to Santa each night, so let's make sure we fill these days with kindness, giggles, and a little holiday magic.

I'll be popping up in silly spots every morning—so keep your eyes wide open! Let's make this the merriest season yet!

Your sneaky little buddy,

P.S. Don't forget to give me a wave each morning—but no touching or I'll lose my magic!
