Fundraiser/Events Update:

Completed

- Milk and Cookies: Helen Gruber chaired this event. This event had to be rescheduled due to inclement weather. It took place in the ES for Grades K+1 on November 27th and had a camping theme. There was a great turn-out and the kids had a great time. It came in under budget. It has been requested to think of some new ideas for Milk and Cookies Night for next year.

Current/Upcoming

- Holiday Fair: Delina Cassidy, Karen Lee, Jenny Voelger and Lisa Johnson chaired. At the time of the meeting the daytime holiday fair at the MS made about $2,800. The daytime ES fair and the evening portion had not taken place yet. We are all set with a ton of volunteers and about 20 kids helpers are scheduled to come from the NJHS.

- Bingo: Sue Oldring and Helen Gruber will be chairing this event which will take place on January 24 at the ES for Kindergarten at 6:30 and for grades 3 and 4 from 7:00-8:00 at the ES.
- Frost Valley Breakfast: The morning of December 18, 2018 the PTO is providing a make and take bagel breakfast for the 7th graders going to Frost Valley. Everything is all ordered and good to go.

New Business:

- Jessica mentioned that we only had two interested people to be included on the “Assembly Committee.” (Sue Oldring and Trish Specht) Karen Lee volunteered at the meeting and Tom Frey showed an interest. This committee would meet to discuss any interest in upcoming assemblies that they would like to see brought to the school.
- Jessica also mentioned that we are still in need of a coordinator for the “Recess Activity Program Committee.” This committee will focus of creating games and activities that can be explained and taught to the monitors so that the children can be entertained during recess. (A letter will be coming out informing the school community of the formation of these committees and asking if there are any interested parties.)
- The suggested idea for a Gaga pit was presented to the board and we are awaiting approval.

Miscellaneous:

There being no further business, the PTO Meeting was adjourned on a motion from Lisa Johnson and seconded by Trish Specht at 6:45 pm.

Next PTO meeting scheduled for Tuesday January 15, 2019 at 6:30 pm at the Middle School.
