2. Red Rock Views: Like Sedona, the Village of Oak Creek is surrounded by breathtaking red rock formations, including well-known landmarks such as Bell Rock and Courthouse Butte.

3. Outdoor Activities: The area offers numerous opportunities for outdoor activities, including hiking, biking, and golfing. Popular hiking trails in the vicinity include those around Bell Rock and Cathedral Rock.
4. Golf Courses: The Village of Oak Creek is home to several golf courses, making it a popular destination for golf enthusiasts seeking to enjoy the sport amidst the picturesque desert landscape.
5. Shopping and Dining: Visitors can explore local shops, galleries, and restaurants in the Village of Oak Creek. The area provides a more relaxed and less crowded atmosphere compared to the main Sedona area.
6. Chapel of the Holy Cross: This iconic chapel, built into the red rocks, is located near the Village of Oak Creek and is a notable attraction in the area.

While the Village of Oak Creek is distinct from Sedona, it shares many of the natural and recreational attractions that make Sedona a popular destination. Whether you're interested in outdoor adventures, art galleries, or simply enjoying the scenic beauty of the red rocks, the Village of Oak Creek provides a charming and picturesque setting.
