City-wide municipal election coming April 11

Candidates vying for Zephyrhills Mayor are, left to right, Melonie Monson, Mark Harm and Nick Deford and running for Council Seat 2 are incumbent Wallace Alan Knight and Steve Spina.

Two positions will be up for election as well as eight amendments to the city's charter

By ANDY WARRENER
News Reporter

Next Tuesday, Zephyrhills voters will have some difficult decisions on their hands. Council Seat 2 and mayor are up, as are eight potential amendments to the city's charter. Council Seat 2 will be a race between incumbent Wallace Alan Knight and former Zephyrhills City Manager Steve Spina.

Knight is looking to Zephyrhills residents to give him another three, possibly four years if the referendum passes, to sustain his vision for the city at a critical juncture. Knight has 35 years of experience in the public school system and has sat at Seat 2 during years of rampant growth and the specter of water shortages looming. Spina served as city manager for 20 years and retired in 2019. He did not go far.

"After I retired I did some consulting work, serving as interim city manager in several communities, Kenneth City for two months and Temple Terrace for eight months," Spina said. "I found I still

St. Francis Garden to become a pet cemetery

Boy scout brings pet cemetery to life for a troop project

By SUSAN SLATER
News Reporter

In September of 2004, Scott Mackey from Lakeland, a parishioner of St. Elizabeth's Church, needed a project to be awarded his Eagle Scout rank in the Boy Scouts. In speaking with the rector of the church, then Reverend Martha Vaquener, Mackey learned that she had a special care and concern for animals and had been wanting to have a pet cemetery.

"With the help of his entire troop, he made that happen," said Ken and Kathy Mackey, Scott's parents. "The cemetery was blessed by the bishop in 2004."

"After completing the garden, Hurricane Jeanne struck, and a tree fell right beside the cemetery," said the Mackey's.

St. Francis later was vandalized and the cemetery fell by the wayside until Susan Wander, heard about the cemetery in an annal report.

"I had two dogs and am a snowbird. One dog was an old dog named Cody, an American Water Spaniel," said Wander.

She was not planning on taking him home as he was degenerating very quickly. She got to work cleaning up the cemetery, which took 12 hours to weed and mulch.

While cleaning the garden area, wander found a brick with a pet's name and dates. The church hopes to be able to offer bricks with their pet's name to anyone with pets in the garden.

St. Francis wrote poems and had praises for the creation of God's animals and is a protector of animals. Therefore, plans were made to find

Bulldogs struggle on tennis court

Winless Zephyrhills girls team led by senior trio build bonds during a trying season

By STEVE LEE
News Reporter

When referring to struggling athletic teams it often is said that winning isn't everything. At least one victory would have been nice, though.

The Zephyrhills girls tennis team headed into the district tournament hosted by River Ridge without a single win during the regular season. Nonetheless, there was plenty of camaraderie on the rebuilding team.

Not long ago, the Bulldogs contended for the playoffs. In 2021 they were district runners-up with a 5-6 overall record and 3-1 in Class 2A, District 9. Last year there were just a few wins and this year none at all.

Coach Katie Jeffcott, who also coaches the Zephyrhills girls soccer team, noted that despite the dismal record this year's group is playing much better compared to the start of the season.

"We just focus on getting better each match," she said. "Winning a single set is an accomplishment. As the season has progressed, we have less and less 0's.

Wearing senior sashes before last week's match were Saffron Stone, Kyli Cruite and Athena Ziatas.

STEVE LEE

"They have greatly improved considering my Nos. 4, 5, 6 have never played tennis before and now are getting wins in each set. My 2 was 6 last year only played in a few exhibition matches. My 3 was 7 last year and never played a single match."

The Bulldogs are led by three seniors in Kyli Cruite, Athena Ziatas and Saffron Stone. They celebrated before last week's match against Gulf by writing their names on the court.

Cruite, a standout soccer player who has signed to play that sport at Pasco-Hernando State College, plays at No. 1 singles and No. 1 doubles with Jenna Goodman.

MAYOR

IF ELECTED MAYOR, I WILL USE MY POSITION TO ENSURE THAT THE CONCERNS OF CITIZENS ARE EFFECTIVELY COMMUNICATED TO THE MEMBERS OF THE CITY COUNCIL.

- GUIDANCE TO THE COMMUNITY TO PROSPER AND ALLOW GROWTH
- PROVIDE THE COMMUNITY SAFETY AND STRUCTURE TO CARE FOR EACH OTHER
- DECISION MAKING ON BEHALF OF THE COMMUNITY THAT WILL EMBRACE THE FUTURE BUT REMEMBER AND HONOR THE PAST

"I have watched the growth of Pasco County, particularly Zephyrhills over the last several years. My strong family and business ties here have encouraged me to be more involved with the progress and future of our city. When attending City Council meetings and speaking with residents, I have observed so many things the current city government does right. However, there are some issues that are close to my heart that I feel could be addressed more thoroughly. I am hopeful that as Mayor I can provide insight and support to the city council."

enjoyed working in local government and in communities. After my time in Temple Terrace a number of local residents encouraged me to stay involved here and run for council. I think it is a good way to continue to give back."

Spina certainly has experience on his side. He worked for the city for 29 years and was a reporter for The Zephyrhills News in 1978, when he first moved here. At the time, he had eyes on a move to Tampa but something about Zephyrhills kept him around.

"My favorite thing about living in Zephyrhills is the community itself," Spina said. "I appreciate the small-town flavor, the ability to know your neighbors and its proximity to other cities without their problems. I stayed because of the opportunities here and the sense of community I found."

Spina's focus on the issues facing Zephyrhills is certainly shared by Knight and by the rest of the sitting council members.

"We are in a high growth region and I think we need to put the brakes on residential growth until we can get a handle on how to deal with the traffic and natural resources - (water) issues," Spina said. "I will suggest we sit down with Pasco County for some regional solutions. The problem is much bigger than just the City of Zephyrhills. In addition, I recommend we look at our transportation impact fees to provide funding for road improvements and to stay current with those types of costs and impacts."

Knight's mantra is unfinished business. He is coming off of a difficult term for council members as they deal with growth and infrastructure issues.

"There's a lot of unfinished business, some of which I started and want to see it through," Knight said.

Knight certainly understands the Zephyrhills community.

"I have lived in Zephyrhills for over 50 years and have been a part of this community," Knight said. "I feel I know the needs of the people, the family atmosphere, churches, schools and the businesses we have brought to Zephyrhills."

Also, his vision for the future of Zephyrhills is clear.

"Without a doubt, three major concerns: growth, infrastructure and water," Knight said. "They are all equally as important and must be addressed as maximum concerns. Growth with common sense, infrastructure in the most needed areas along with traffic control and working with the state agencies on developing solutions to water needs. We need community input to serve these three areas."

The office of mayor will be a three-person race with incumbent mayor Gene Whifield not seeking re-election. The mayoral candidates are Melonie Bahr Monson, Nick Deford and Martin Harm.

Bahr is the former CEO of the Zephyrhills Chamber of Commerce, where she served for eight years. Deford is lead pastor at Zephyrhills First Church of the Nazarene and an eight-year Zephyrhills resident. Harm is the current treasurer of Main Street Zephyrhills and the account manager for a security company.

The office of mayor is largely ceremonial. The mayor does not have a vote on the council but can contribute to, even shape discussions during council meetings.

Harm wants to be a mayor that is visible and interactive. His approach?

"Truly listening and directly speaking to the constituents of our fine city," Harm said. "Understanding how important having common sense is. The ability to find the middle ground, which will benefit all parties. So projects and goals can be met and accomplished quickly."

Harm has growth in his sights as well.

"Growth is our biggest challenge, it's here and it's going to keep coming," Harm said. "We need to understand how to control it. This community with its founding residence and history have made this a place where people want to come. With that growth we need to have balance. We need to take care of the people and families that made this city great and understanding the basic needs of our city. It's infrastructure, budget, community services and utilities."

He doesn't want what happened in New Tampa to happen in Zephyrhills.

"We need to learn from history and look around us. When they built New Tampa, and even the mayor moved out there only to find out after a year, there wasn't the infrastructure needed and then they were forced to move back. It's a lesson that we need to learn from. Keeping the great families that built this city here. I am hearing and seeing more and more generations move out of the area. Because they say they just can't afford to stay here. At the same time I see homes torn down to build undesirable housing and/or apartments for the rich to get richer. We have grants and funding that could help our upcoming generations stay here. To revitalize some of these older homes and keep these families in the area. It would be a tough challenge but it would be a great positive to our community."

Deford, while coming from the private sector, has a great deal of experience working with community organizations and residents.

"For nearly 20 years, I have worked with boards and committees in the non-profit and church world to set the vision for the organization, approve and acquire funds to accomplish that vision, and line up the people and material resources needed to make it all happen," Deford said. "This involves working with many people and other outside organizations to unify a goal and process."

Like the other candidates, Deford has his eye on growth and infrastructure.

"If elected, I will work hand in hand with the planning department and commission to ensure that any new growth or development is beneficial to everyone who resides in the city," Deford said. "We must have roads completed before building new homes. We need to have a lot of common sense and wisdom as we do what's best for all residents."

One of the issues that Deford would like to address outside of water and traffic is homelessness.

"One of my heart's biggest desires is to help alleviate homelessness in our community," Deford said. "From a compassion viewpoint, we all want to see it change. But simply from a fiscal point of view, homelessness at large has a huge negative financial impact on a city. So I want to continue working to see this problem reduced."

Bahr is also no stranger to Zephyrhills, even to giving presentations in council chambers. She comes from serving as CEO of the Greater Zephyrhills Chamber of Commerce.

"I have served on many boards which has given me a unique knowledge of our city and county and the issues that we face each day," Bahr said. "Prior to taking the role at the chamber I worked as the assistant city clerk and enjoyed building relationships with our leaders and city employees. Working for the city helped me to know and understand how a municipal budget works and how each aspect of our city is funded. This will be a huge asset to both our residents and city leaders."

Bahr also managed the Zephyrhills Economic Development Coalition for seven years and served on the Pasco County Citizen's Advisory Council. While she certainly has her eye on growth and water, she sees the ripple effects.

"With the growth comes other issues including schools for our children, enough police and fire to service our needs, and employment for our residents," Bahr said. "New business and industry will help to equal out our tax base and ensure our residents can live and work in our community."

Also on the ballot will be the eight proposed amendments to the city's charter. They will be voted on individually and are as follows: REFERENDUM 1 – Add the date of the City's incorporation (November 17, 1914). Incorporation date will serve as validation documentation for Grant Applications.

REFERENDUM 2 – Change Council terms of office from three (3) years to four (4) years.

REFERENDUM 3 – Charter designates the City Manager to make daily deposits on behalf of the City and report deposits at each Regular Council Meeting. Change designates the Finance Director to make daily deposits on behalf of the City and report deposits quarterly at Regular Council Meetings.

REFERENDUM 4 - Change Mayor terms of office from three (3) years to four (4) years.

REFERENDUM 5 – Change from elected officers shall take office within three (3) days after the canvass of vote to elected officers shall take office at the next regularly scheduled Council Meeting.

REFERENDUM 6 – Change from petition signatures may not be signed more than sixty (60) days prior to the date of election to remove the time constraints to obtain signatures to qualify for election.

Qualifying is held every year the first Tuesday of February at noon through the second Tuesday at noon for the upcoming April election. The Charter currently states candidates cannot obtain petition signatures until the Thursday following the opening of qualifying. Change will allow candidates to begin obtaining petition signatures with qualifying paperwork.

REFERENDUM 7 – Charter states City Council shall receive the canvass of votes within forty-eight (48) hours. Change to City Council will accept and declare the canvass of votes at the next regularly scheduled Council meeting.

REFERENDUM 8 – Change the review of the City's Charter from every five (5) years to every ten (10) years.

Don't forget to vote next Tuesday. Voter turnout for municipal elections is critically low annually. Your vote could decide which candidate takes office or which, if any, referendums are adopted.

SALOME'S STARS ★

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Change is still dominant for Rams and Ewes, both in the workplace and in their private lives. This is also a good time to look at a possible relocation if that has been one of your goals.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Doing things for others is what you do well. But don't forget that Bovines thrive on the arts, so make some time for yourself to indulge your passion for music and artistic expression.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) While the Romantic Twin considers where to go for an upcoming vacation, the Practical Twin will start making travel plans now to take advantage of some great bargains.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Your sensitive nature helps you deal with a difficult emotional situation. Be patient and continue to show your sincere support wherever (and for whomever) it is needed.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) You're making progress as you move through some unfamiliar territory. And while there might be a misstep or two along the way, you're heading in the right direction overall. Good luck.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Some good news arrives -- and just in time to remind you that you're making progress. Perhaps things aren't moving as quickly as you'd prefer, but they're progressing nevertheless.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) This is a good week to step back and assess the facts that have recently emerged, to see where they can be used to your advantage. Also, don't hesitate to make changes where necessary.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) You should begin to experience some support from those who now agree with your point of view. This should help counter the remaining objections from die-hard skeptics.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Don't let your aim be deflected by trivial matters as you try to resolve a confusing situation. Take time to find and thoroughly assess the facts before making any decisions.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) The possibility of moving to another location has come up. But, before you dismiss it as unworkable, it's worth checking out just in case it does have some merit after all.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) New relationships, personal or work-related, show mixed signals. Best to assume nothing. Let things play themselves out until you have something substantive to work with.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Your ability to make needed changes without causing too much, if any, negative ripple effect comes in handy when dealing with a sensitive matter either on the job or in the family.

BORN THIS WEEK: Although you like things to go smoothly, you're not shy about making waves when you believe the situation calls for it.

MOMENTS IN TIME: The History Channel

- * On April 19, 1927, blond bombshell Mae West was confronted by the New York Police Department’s Municipal Vice Squad, sentenced to 10 days in a workhouse on the charge of obscenity for her play titled “Sex,” and fined $500. She later quipped that the only thing that really bothered her about the experience was having to wear cotton underwear.
- * On April 23, 1940, a fire broke out in the Rhythm Club in Natchez, Mississippi, causing the deaths of more than 200 African Americans due to boarded up windows and a padlocked back door. At the time, it was the second deadliest building fire in American history.
- * On April 20, 1957, the Mayflower II, a replica of the original

- Mayflower that transported Pilgrims to the New World, set out to re-create that voyage from Brixton, England to Plymouth, Massachusetts. The journey took 55 days, and the ship is currently docked at the Plimoth Patuxet Museum.
- * On April 17, 1964, the Ford Motor Company unveiled its new Mustang model at the New York World’s Fair. Championed by Ford Division general manager Lee Iacocca, the car came with a suggested retail price of $2,368 and was a great success, with more than a million sold in just its first 18 months.
  - * On April 18, 1988, a retired U.S. auto worker identified as “Ivan the Terrible” was found guilty of Nazi war crimes in an Israeli court and sentenced to death. His conviction was overturned in 1993 after evidence suggested another Ukrainian was actually Ivan the Terrible, and he was returned to America, but later

- deported back to Ukraine when a judge ruled there was enough evidence to prove he had indeed been a death camp guard.
- * On April 22, 1993, the Holocaust Memorial Museum opened in Washington, D.C. Dedicated to documenting, studying and interpreting the history of the Holocaust, it serves as the official American memorial to the millions of Jews and others who lost their lives under the directives of Hitler’s Nazi Germany.
  - * On April 21, 2014, Kraft Foods recalled 96,000 pounds of Oscar-Meyer hot dogs that had been mislabeled. The company stated that some of their “Classic Cheese Dogs” had been placed in regular hot dog packaging, posing a threat to consumers with dairy allergies.

HERE IS A PLEASANT LITTLE GAME that will give you a message every day. It's a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner and check one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

"It was a new sport and I didn't know who I'd be playing with," said Cruite, who moved to Zephyrhills from Michigan before her sophomore year and now teams with sophomore Jenna Goodman at No. 1 doubles. "It turned out to be really fun. I met some of my friends playing tennis."

Jeffcott recognized that Cruite is a talented athlete and gave her some responsibility as she would any team leader.

"Kyli helped me run drills a lot in the beginning," the coach said. "We would split the team up; she would take half and I would take half. She has also helped explain the game and how it's played to the new girls."

"They don't know scoring, they don't know what the lines on the court mean, they don't know the techniques, they don't know the rules. It's tough and can be frustrating, but she has never wavered. She has been a great leader."

Ziatas, who has been on the team since her sophomore year and also has been a cheerleader and soccer player, said, "I definitely learned over the years. All of my teammates make it fun."

Stone, a cheerleader for all four years at Zephyrhills, said she joined the tennis team because "I wanted something else to do before I graduated. It's very rewarding to be out here."

Jeffcott noted that, collectively, the senior trio has "helped make this a fun experience for the new girls. They have a great time cracking jokes and teasing each other. I think that has helped the new girls loosen up faster."

As for the upcoming district hosted by River Ridge, Jeffcott does not have any lofty expectations about competing for district titles.

"I just want them to have fun and enjoy the experience," she said. "For my seniors it's all about seeing if they can take what they have learned and apply it in an environment where the stakes are the highest."

another statue. You can now see St. Francis in the garden looking over and protecting the animals.

"I wanted a place of comfort," Wander said. "A place to put Cody where he would be loved, a place to be able to visit anytime and sit in peace."

The St. Francis Garden is still a work in progress, a rejuvenation of the original cemetery Scott Mackey and his troop members created.

"I have a respect for Scott coming from Lakeland to attend church here with his family and work with the garden," said Father Rick Campbell of St. Elizabeth's. "Why did he do it? Scott had no idea he was breaking ground for this cemetery and other possibilities for it."

Father Campbell has been at St. Elizabeth's Church "since Nov. 8, 2020 when covid was raging."

"The Episcopal Church published a service just for the animals. It contains prayer for the comfort for the owner's sadness," said Father Campbell.

"Zephyrhills is a retirement community. Animals mean so much more in a retired lifestyle and that means more pets. This is the only pet cemetery of its kind, in this part of the Tampa area that we know of. Many Episcopal churches have a columbarium made of metal, stone or a case. This cemetery is strictly ashes."

Father Campbell performs a brief service, a 10-minute prayer and psalm about what God thinks about his creations. You also receive a card of remembrance, and the ashes of your pet spread in the garden. The prayers and services are dedicated to the animals.

The cemetery is designed as a service to anyone wanting to spread their pet's ashes in the garden. You do not have to be a member of the church and you are able to visit the garden at any time.

The church will also be keeping burial records of pets' dates and information given to the church about the animal. Donations are accepted for the service. All proceeds will go to the maintenance of the St. Francis Garden.

Episcopalians recognize the Feast of St. Francis with a blessing of the animals. St. Francis Day is Oct. 4. On that day Father Campbell will bless the animals brought to the church as well as the animals in the St. Francis Garden.

If you would like to speak to someone about your pet, you may contact St. Elizabeth's Church at (813) 782-1202 or email st.e.zhills@gmail.com.
