Nelson Ryman passed away at 83

Beloved "Poppi" is remembered as a pillar of the community, devoted to his family and for helping others

By STEVE LEE
News Reporter

A celebration of life could not have been a more fitting term, alluding to some final good-byes to the late Nelson Ryman from family and friends on Monday night at the Whitfield Funeral Home. That followed a memorial service at St. Elizabeth's Episcopal Church.

A family man, pillar of the community and philanthropist, Ryman passed away on Sept. 30 with his loving wife Dottie by his side. He was 83.

At the celebration of life, three of Ryman's grandchildren — Christian, Chad and Kelli — spoke eloquently of their beloved "Poppi."

"He lived his life, not for himself but for giving back to others," Christian said. "Nelson love life and so many people, something the Lord put in him."

Added Chad, "Poppi loved community, especially here in Zephyrhills. There was never a shortage of people who wanted to spend some time with Nelson Ryman."

Ryman's sense of humor touched many, especially those in his extended family.

"If you knew Nelson well there was always a joke in everything he had to say," said Kelli, taking pride in being the only granddaughter. "Poppi wasn't all fun and games. He wore many hats. He was a true pillar in our community and believed in bettering it."

Echoing that sentiment was Bob Hatfield, a longtime teacher and coach at Zephyrhills High who also has been active in community and political organizations.

"Nelson left such an impact on this whole town," he said. "He cared so much about helping other people."

Bulldogs fall short in comeback bid against Raiders 23-20

The Bulldogs staged a furious comeback against the visiting South Sumter Raiders but ultimately fell just short

By ANDY WARRENER
Sports Reporter

After almost three full quarters of combat the Bulldog-Raider showdown came down to the final 13 minutes. South Sumter had just recovered their own fumble and faced a 4th-and-7 at the Zephyrhills 22-yard line. Running power option plays from stout, 6-2, 202-pound quarterback Eian Finkley and speedster running back Jamare Dorsey, the Raiders pulled a rabbit out of their hat. The power read drifted right only for Finkley to pivot left and lob a jump pass over the Zephyrhills defense, finding Colby Rinberger for just his second touch of the game. Rinberger snared the pass and bested two defenders en route to a 13-yard completion and first down.

The play brought the game into the fourth quarter and seven yards from the end zone. The Bulldog defense held until third down but South Sumter's Stanley Young punched it in from two yards out to make it 23-13 with 11 minutes left in the game.

The Bulldogs would answer the bell. They converted a 3rd-and-2. They faced a 3rd-and-18 after a holding penalty and got 17 on a completion from Brendyn Colella to Theodore Sands. Colella drew the

BEWARE OF MEDICARE "DISADVANTAGE" PLANS

It's that time of the year again!

Salespeople are hustling to get you to trade your Medicare for a "Replacement" or an HMO.

www.SeeBetterFlorida.com

With traditional Medicare, you can see any eye doctor you want. But with replacements, you may not get choices. Many plans don't even have local specialists or surgery options—despite what the salesmen say. The cataract surgeons they do offer are not certified by the American Board of Ophthalmology. Some have higher Co-pays than traditional Medicare.

Don't fall for the common sales trick that gets you to replace serious medical and surgical eye care coverage for a cheap eye glasses exam with a non-specialist.

We don't recommend Humana, Care Plus, Wellcare, Freedom or Staywell.

PASCO COUNTY

BRIAN E. CORLEY, SUPERVISOR OF ELECTIONS

Voter turnout posted on website

Supervisor of Elections Brian E. Corley announced that voter turnout for the Nov. 8 General Election will be posted daily on the elections' office website, PascoVotes.gov. The voter turnout numbers will represent those who have returned their vote-by-mail ballot. Beginning Oct. 26, the posted turnout will include those who have voted early.

"Posting voter turnout is part of our commitment to transparency with elections in Pasco County," said Corley.

Voter turnout will be updated every 10 minutes during Early Voting and on General Election Day. After the polls close at 7 p.m. on Nov. 8, the election results will be posted as soon as they become available.

The elections' office has already mailed over 120,000 vote-by-mail ballots with new requests being processed daily. To request a vote-by-mail ballot, call the office at (800) 851-8754, or visit PascoVotes.gov.

The early voting period, available at 12 locations countywide, will begin Oct. 26 and end Nov. 5. Early voting times and locations can be found at <https://www.pascovotes.gov/Elections/Ways-to-Vote/Early-Voting/Early-Voting-Locations-and-Wait-Times>.

Right: Kerry Ryman, Nelson's only granddaughter, was among the few speakers at Monday's Celebration of Life at Whitfield Funeral Home.

Ryman, born in Indiana in 1939, was a fixture in the community since moving to Zephyrhills in 1970. He raised his family here and worked in the mobile home business for 50 years until retiring in 2000.

For many years he ran the scoreboard at Bulldog Stadium for Zephyrhills High football games, took an active role in the Daybreak Rotary Club and was part of a small circle of breakfast club locals at the former Barb's Restaurant. Ryman was one of the club's charter members and in 2019 was named Rotarian of the Year.

Bill Cassel, who often was part of what he called an eclectic group at those breakfast gatherings and enjoyed sitting beside Ryman at the Rotary club's meetings, spoke fondly of his friend.

"Everyone was Nelson's best friend," he said at the celebration of life ceremony. "He had limitless love."

Ryman also spread his good cheer internationally by taking part in mission work in Haiti, where he survived a 2010 hurricane.

"The outpouring of love from people there has been very special," Kelli said of people helped by her grandfather, who she witnessed were appreciative of what little they had.

"Poppi," as he was affectionately called by eight grandchildren and great-grandchildren, always had a joke to share with family and friends. Ryman was preceded in death by his first wife Barbara, mother of his sons Kerry and Kevin, along with his parents, Louise and Nelson, and brother Gary. He spent the last 32 years with his second wife Dottie.

Ryman is survived by his wife, Dottie; children, Kevin, Kerry, Angela and Cynthia; grandchildren, Kelli, Chad, Christian, Kyle, Devin, Julian and Kaden; great grandchildren, Max, Tegan, Tenley, Elijah, Zarek, Kason, Kierslyn, and Peyton; his sister, Gale; brothers, Lyle and Mike; and many nieces and nephews.

At the conclusion of Monday night's gathering, Christian put things in proper perspective when he said, "I just love all these memories."

SALOME'S STARS ★ ★ ★ ★

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) This is a good time for the usually outspoken Lamb to be a bit more discreet. You still can get your point across, but do it in a way less likely to turn off a potential supporter.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Good news: All that hard work you put in is beginning to pay off. But you need to watch that tendency to insist on doing things your way or no way. Be a bit more flexible.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) You might want to delay making a decision on the future of a long-standing relationship until you check out some heretofore hidden details that are just now beginning to emerge.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Your reluctance to compromise on an important issue could backfire without more facts to support your position. Weigh your options carefully before making your next move.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) This is a good time for ambitious Leos or Leonas to shift from planning their next move to actually executing it. Your communication skills help persuade others to join you.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Relationships -- personal or professional -- present new challenges. Be careful not to let a sudden surge of stubbornness influence how you choose to deal with them.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) You might need more facts before you can decide on a possible career change. But you should have no problem making a decision about an important personal matter.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) You're respected by most people for your direct, no-nonsense approach to the issues. But be careful you don't replace honest skepticism with stinging sarcasm.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) A newly emerging situation could require a good deal of attention and some difficult decision-making. However, close friends will help you to see it through.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Family matters need attention. Check things out carefully. There still might be unresolved tensions that could hinder your efforts to repair damaged relationships.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Of course you deserve to indulge yourself in something special. But for now, tuck that bit of mad money away. You'll need it to help with a looming cash crunch.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) A temporary setback in your financial situation is eased by changing some of your plans. You'll be able to ride it out quite well until the tide turns back in your favor.

BORN THIS WEEK: You have a gift for understanding people's needs. You have a low tolerance for those who act without concern for others.

MOMENTS IN TIME

The History Channel

- On Oct. 13, 1953, the 45-foot Artmobile, the world's first art museum on wheels, arrives in Virginia carrying 16 paintings by 15th- and 16th-century masters. It attracted 5,000 visitors in the first few weeks. Art objects were loaned for exhibit by famous museums across the country until the Artmobile was canceled in 1994 due to budget cuts.
- On Oct. 14, 1857, engineer and inventor Elwood Haynes is born in Portland, Indiana. Haynes designed one of the very first American automobiles using a gas engine he saw in use at the 1893 Chicago World's Fair. The finished product weighed 820 pounds and moved on 28-inch bicycle wheels.
- On Oct. 15, 1965, in one of several identical events across the country, Catholic priest David Miller burns his draft card in New York. For violating the recent law banning the burnings, Miller was arrested and sentenced to two years in jail.
- On Oct. 16, 1793, Marie Antoinette, the last queen of France, is taken to the guillotine and beheaded nine months after her husband, the former King Louis XVI of France. Marie Antoinette and Louis, unpopular and accused of high treason due to France's financial woes, had been caught trying to flee to Austria.
- On Oct. 17, 1986, President Ronald Reagan signs into law an act that approves $100 million in humanitarian and military aid for Nicaraguan Contras with a goal of overthrowing the Sandinista government. Shortly afterward, however, the Iran-Contra scandal was revealed wherein the U.S. had sold missiles and arms in secret deals with Iran and $30 million were diverted to the Contras.
- On Oct. 18, 1974, singer Al Green is attacked when an ex-girlfriend pours a pot of hot grits on his back while he was in the bathtub. Green was left with severe injuries but also a spiritual awakening. By 1976, Green had become an ordained Baptist minister and established a Memphis church.
- On Oct. 19, 1931, David Cornwell, known as spy novelist John le Carre, is born in Poole, England. He published his first spy novel, "Call for the Dead," in 1961. The novel, like his second, "A Murder of Quality" (1962), featured spy George Smiley.

HERE IS A PLEASANT LITTLE GAME that will give you a message every day. It's a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner and check one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Even Exchange by Donna Pettman

Each numbered row contains two clues and two 6-letter answers. The two answers differ from each other by only one letter, which has already been inserted. For example, if you exchange the A from MASTER for an I, you get MISTER. Do not change the order of the letters.

Breast CANCER awareness MONTH

7 ways to reduce breast cancer risk

Many women are concerned about the potential for developing breast cancer in their lifetimes. Breast cancer is the second-most common cancer among women in the United States and Canada. Despite that prevalence, there are ways for women to reduce their risk for breast cancer.

While it is impossible to change family history or genetic markers like gene mutations that increase breast cancer risk, the following are seven ways women can lower their risk.

1. Exercise regularly and maintain a healthy weight. Physical activity and monitoring calories can keep weight in check. The Mayo Clinic recommends at least 150 minutes per week of moderate aerobic activity or 75 minutes per week of vigorous aerobic activity. Strength training at least twice a week also is recommended. Being overweight or obese increases a woman's risk for breast cancer.
2. Consume a healthy diet. The link between diet and breast cancer risk is still being studied. However, research suggests that a diet high in vegetables and fruit, and calcium-rich dairy products, but low in red and processed meats may lower breast cancer risk.
3. Avoid or limit alcohol consumptions. Alcohol increases risk of breast cancer, even in small amounts. For those who drink, no more than one alcoholic drink a day should be the limit. The more a woman drinks, the greater her risk of developing breast cancer, states the Mayo Clinic.
4. Undergo genetic counseling and testing. Women concerned about a genetic connection or family history of breast cancer can speak to their doctor about testing and counseling that could help them reduce their risk. Preventive medicines and surgeries might help those at elevated risk for breast cancer.

5. Limit hormone therapy. Combination hormone replacement therapy for post-menopausal women may increase risk of breast cancer, indicates the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. Similarly, taking oral contraceptives during reproductive years may increase risk. Women can speak with their physicians to weigh the pros and cons of taking such hormones.
6. Breastfeed children, if possible. Breastfeeding has been linked to reducing a woman's risk of developing breast cancer.
7. Learn to detect breast cancer. Women should get to know their bodies so they can determine if something is awry as early as possible. Early detection of breast cancer increases the chances that treatment will prove successful.

Women can embrace various strategies to reduce their risk of developing breast cancer.

Night Sights

Right: Jamare Dorsey proved difficult to bring down on Friday night, amassing 114 yards and two touchdowns.

Raider defense offsidess to convert the fourth down. Colella completed six of seven passes on the 77-yard drive, culminating with a seven-yard touchdown pass to Fred Adams. It drew the Bulldogs to within 23-20 and 4:44 left on the clock. All they had to do next, was get a stop.

They got it. On a most difficult 3rd-and-1, the Bulldogs bagged Finkley for a four-yard loss and forced a punt with 2:43 left to play. On the Bulldogs next offensive drive, a 20-yard completion to Sands electrified the home crowd but the Bulldogs missed on what looked to be a certain completion to DJ Pickett on third down. The play on 4th-and-13 resulted in a South Sumter sack and fumble recovery, throwing ice on the fanning comeback flames. Down to just one timeout, the Bulldogs were powerless to stop the inexorable march off of the final seconds, the final 23-20 score burned red into the scoreboard.

"This was a battle," Bulldog head coach Nick Carroll said. "It's been like that all year. There are no easy games."

It looked as if the Bulldogs were in over their heads early, trying to stop a very efficiently-run power option game by the Raiders. Finkley proved very difficult to bring down and made great decisions on when to take and when to give to running backs Dorsey, Young, Malakhi Boone and Kaden Payne. The Bulldog defense managed to stop them their first drive. A tackle-for-loss by Zephyrhills's Christian Velasquez, extinguished the second Raider drive. Finally, the Raiders got close enough to draw first blood with a field goal.

The Bulldogs managed to keep it close until tragedy struck in the waning moments of the first half. South Sumter's Cody Zilcosky blocked a Zephyrhills punt and recovered it himself, setting up a short field for the Raider offense. Two plays later, Dorsey was in the end zone. A missed extra point made it 9-0 Raiders with 1:05 to play in the half.

The Bulldogs answered. A huge, 46-yard completion to DJ Pickett got the home crowd on its feet and got the Bulldogs in striking distance. A 12-yard and then a 20-yard completion to Sands scored the first Bulldog touchdown of the night and made it just a 9-7 deficit heading into halftime.

The speedy Dorsey broke a big run on the Raiders's second possession of the third quarter. It went for 49 yards, up the left sideline for a touchdown and 16-7 lead.

The Bulldogs put together a formidable drive, Colella again, made some great throws, completing five of five passes. Rodney Smith capped the drive with a four-yard touchdown run. The two-point conversion failed and it was 16-13 with 3:53 left in the third before the final flurry took over.

The Bulldogs, while stinging from the loss, have to be proud of the way they hung in and traded blows with the undefeated Raiders. The Raiders amassed 269 rushing yards on 39 attempts, Dorsey gaining 144 of those yards on 19 carries with a pair of touchdowns. The Bulldogs, who like to rely on their run game behind Smith, ended up throwing the ball much more than usual.

"That's what they (South Sumter) were giving us," Carroll said. "We would have thrown all night."

Colella would throw 35 times, completing 23 of those attempts for 221 yards and two scores. The Bulldogs will not dwell on it long. They have another undefeated team this Friday, their rival Pasco Pirates, coming in at 6-0.

Pioneer Florida Museum hosts Scarecrow Festival and Harvest Festival in downtown Zephyrhills

By STEVE LEE
 News Reporter

Saturday in east Pasco proved to be a rather festive day, to say the least. The Pioneer Florida Museum and Village hosted the Scarecrow Festival and downtown Zephyrhills was the place to be for the 13th Annual Harvest Festival.

Just two years removed from being a scaled-down version due to restrictions placed on events because of the coronavirus pandemic, the Scarecrow Festival at the popular Dade City venue is back to what it once was. Saturday's event turned out to be bigger and better than ever.

Stephanie Black, executive director of the museum and village, acknowledged as much. She noted that the line of vehicles entering the parking lot were continuous and the crowds were steady throughout the day.

"We did have a pretty big crowd," Black said. "We had a few more people than last year. It's back up to pre-Covid numbers. I think that people are getting back out there and doing things."

Black recalled that even during the height of the pandemic in 2020 the annual fall festival still took place, just in an altered format with less interaction among people.

"We never stopped it," she said. "We just kept everybody outside, made sure they kept their distance and we had hand sanitizer everywhere. I let (people) keep up their family traditions if they chose to."

One family that kept up their tradition was the Frasers. Alex and Sarah brought their daughters, Lindsay, 6, and 4-year-old Emily to the festival for the second straight year.

"Lindsay loves animals, so she liked to ride the ponies again and see the animals at the petting zoo," Sarah said, adding that Emily liked stuffing hay into a homemade scarecrow at the bottom of the big hill.

Zephyrhills High Future Farmers of America students helped children and adults maneuver their way through pens to pet the animals, which included ducks, rabbits, a pig, a pony, sheep, goats, a calf and a cow.

"The kids' faces light up when they see these animals," said Gabbie Philipsen, a sophomore FFA member.

Those areas were among several attractions for visitors. Additionally, there was a costume contest, pumpkin painting, a pumpkin patch, carnival games, soccer collies, a Sphere's Bubble Show as seen on America's Got Talent, musical entertainment by the Geared up Band, old-time music played by Barking Dogs and a blacksmith demonstration.

New this year were Dancing Scarecrows, who performed a series of acrobatic stunts with audience participation.

"I look for different events and I thought, how would you guys like to dress up as scarecrows," Black recalled of her meeting with Noel Mouse and Courtney Kirby, who go by the name of Cosmic Riot Entertainment.

"We try to transform into what they want us to be," Mouse said. "I didn't think it was going to be this big. It's fun. It's a great festival."

Nima Romeiro, who brought her young sons Sam and Kai from Wesley Chapel, helped them stuff hay into their scarecrows. The best thing about the day, she said, was the weather.

Nearby, the Stevens family — Justin and Kylie, along with 2-year-old Luke, pushed a hay bale.

The Zephyrhills event was a partnership with the Samaritan Project and Zephyrhills Wesley Chapel Ministerial Association.

Events continue at both locations this fall. Next up at the museum and village is a living history event entitled Florida's Seminole Wars with battle reenactments and alligator wrestling.

As for downtown Zephyrhills, another Main Street Market is this coming Saturday from 9 a.m.-2 p.m. The following Saturday is the Paulie Palooza, a music festival to benefit Gulfside Hospice.

The Shops at Wiregrass hosts breast cancer fundraiser

Left and right: Walkers and supporters, some of whom brought along their dogs, mingle around at the finish line at the conclusion of a 2.5-mile walk through the streets of The Shops at Wiregrass.

Right: Various groups signed up to make the walk together with finishers celebrating their accomplishments as they approached the finish line.

Making Strides Against Breast Cancer Walk brings more than 2,500 people to the outdoor mall

BY STEVE LEE
News Reporter

Pink was the color du jour Saturday morning at The Shops at Wiregrass. A parade of people — from toddlers in strollers to teens, adults to senior citizens, along with several dogs — walked through the streets of the outdoor shopping complex. Most dressed in pink for the Making Strides Against Breast Cancer Walk.

Some sprinted, a few danced and plenty cheered in unison as they crossed the finish line following a 2.5-mile walk along Paseo Drive and through the streets of the outdoor mall in Wesley Chapel. They relished supporting a benefit for cancer research and associated programs.

A few, like New Port Richey's Brian Donnelly, stayed near the finish line to dance and sing to songs played by a disc jockey. Like many his life has been touched by cancer. He lost his mother Sharon and his mother's friend Carol Macy to the world's second-leading cause of death.

"They're not here anymore so it's just my way of showing my love for them because they're up in heaven," he said.

Meredith Tucker, manager of the annual event, estimated a crowd of more than 2,500 who helped raise about $60,000 for the cause. Those numbers marked an increase from last year's turnout with the event returning after being cancelled in 2020 due to the coronavirus pandemic.

"It's more than they had last year," she said. "It's just more people coming out, building it back up again."

Tucker and organizers expressed concern about Hurricane Ian and its aftermath adversely affecting the cancer walk. Such was not the case, however, with Tucker saying, "We ended up having a great turnout."

Bringing back the popular fundraising walk for a second straight year was welcomed by many, those who organized the event and others who participated or showed up in support.

Two years ago, during the height of the pandemic, Tucker noted that the American Cancer Society still organized a "Walk Your Way" to keep people involved.

"We still did fundraising," she said of that 2020 event. "We encouraged people to get small groups and walk in their neighborhood."

T.J. Tolentino, who showed up with a dozen members of the Infante family from New Port Richey, is among many glad that the event was revived.

"I think it helps support everyone," he said.

So too do friends Debbie Cardona, who brought along her French Bulldog Zoe, and Elayne Bassinger. Both are breast cancer survivors.

"It's absolutely fantastic," said Cardona, a two-time survivor of ovarian cancer.

For Cardona and Bassinger, longtime president of the Land O' Lakes Lutz Women's Club, it marked their fourth breast cancer walk at The Shops at Wiregrass.

The day after the breast cancer walk at the Wesley Chapel area mall, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers honored a cancer survivor before their game against the Atlanta Falcons, a National Football League rival, at Raymond James Stadium in Tampa. Kelly Broadbelt, a Hillsborough County school teacher who was diagnosed with breast cancer in 2001, was named the Bucs' Goal Getter of the Game.

Since 1993, the American Cancer Society's annual campaign has united communities, companies, and individuals with a collective goal to end breast cancer. Over the past two decades, the non-competitive walks have collectively grown into the nation's largest and most impactful breast cancer movement.

This year was even more special since Making Strides Against Breast Cancer is celebrating its 30th anniversary and took place in more than 150 communities nationwide.
