Governor pays another impromptu visit to Zephyrhills

Governor Ron DeSantis speaks to his constituents at Bahr's Aluminum in Zephyrhills on Monday morning.

Ron DeSantis stops at Bahr's Aluminum to discuss an upcoming special session

By STEVE LEE
News Reporter

Governor Ron DeSantis paid his second impromptu visit to Zephyrhills this year and third overall on Monday morning. He stopped at Bahr's Aluminum for a press conference to discuss details of an upcoming special session.

"I could run for the county commission in Pasco, I've been here so many times," he jokingly said at the beginning of his address. "We have got to stand up for people and protect their jobs; protect their livelihoods."

Amid a contingent of supporters that included State Senate President Wilton Simpson and State Senator Danny Burgess, the governor said that the special session would focus on several key issues.

Mainly, give teeth to the parent's bill of rights with parents being able to make health choices for their own children; continue the opposition to vaccine mandates being imposed by the federal government, which threaten people's jobs; and supporting police, fire and health workers, along with other essential employees.

"We want people to be able to work," DeSantis said. "We don't want to discriminate against them because of their health choices."

State Senator is running to become Florida's Agriculture Commissioner

Kickoff for Wilton Simpson's campaign starts with a barbecue at family's ranch in Trilby

By STEVE LEE
News Reporter

An announcement that State Senator Wilton Simpson (R-Trilby) was running for agriculture commissioner came in September. Sharing it with longtime family friends, those who he has worked with and ardent supporters took place at his ranch last Thursday night.

The kickoff party, which he envisioned might draw about 100 people, was more in the 500 range.

"It's such an honor to have you come out tonight. You could've done other things," Simpson addressed the crowd before musical entertainment and the barbecue was served up by Alan John and his crew.

Simpson briefly mentioned several issues, such as comparing tax rates of New York and Florida and how the Sunshine State is utilizing more for less. Perhaps most importantly, he said, "We're trying to get ahead of the 1,000 people a day who are moving here."

Heading up the state's agricultural department is something Simpson believes is right up his alley. Things like ensuring funds are available to restore the everglades, making sure people still were able to work during the heyday of the coronavirus pandemic are some of the matters Simpson has addressed during his 12-year tenure in the Florida Senate.

"This is actually something I've done all my life," said Simpson, president of the Florida Senate since 2020. "It's been an honor to produce food for people all my life, so it would be an honor to be in that position."

Simpson heard endorsements from many like State Senator Danny Burgess, a longtime family friend who has worked alongside Simpson in Tallahassee. Burgess had a prior engagement, but wrote a strong endorsement.

"I typically would never ask you to join me in supporting a particular candidate for

Law Enforcement Torch Run is revived and relocated

After a one-year hiatus, fundraiser for Special Olympics shifts from downtown Dade City to Wiregrass Ranch Sports Campus

By STEVE LEE
News Reporter

Two of Zephyrhills' most prominent special athletes walked at the front of the line for the Law Enforcement Torch Run to benefit Special Olympics. Flanking Pasco Sheriff Chris Nocco were Andreas Torres and John Algood, who in recent years have helped the Zephyrhills teams win numerous championships in soccer and softball.

"I'm happy that I get to do this with the sheriff and represent Zephyrhills," Torres said. "It feels good and it's just nice to get out

BEWARE OF MEDICARE "DISADVANTAGE" PLANS

It's that time of the year again! Salespeople are hustling to get you to trade your Medicare for a "Replacement" or an HMO.

www.SeeBetterFlorida.com

With traditional Medicare, you can see any eye doctor you want. But with replacements, you may not get choices. Many plans don't even have local specialists or surgery options—despite what the salesmen say. The cataract surgeons they do offer are not certified by the American Board of Ophthalmology. Some have higher Co-pays than traditional Medicare.

Don't fall for the common sales trick that gets you to replace serious medical and surgical eye care coverage for a cheap eye glasses exam with a non-specialist.

We don't recommend Humana, Care Plus, Wellcare, Freedom or Staywell.

Ramblewood Village celebrates Halloween

By BARBARA TABOR

Residents celebrated Halloween with a dance. Costumes were optional, but lots of fun for the ones who chose to participate.

The tables were piled high with donations for the Neighborhood Care Center. This is the parks version of Trick or Treat. They can always use all the non-perishables that the park collects.

Right: Mike and Faith Stivers always enjoy dancing wherever they go. She was a regular student at the local line dance classes.

Above: David Nalley played the music for the dancing. He chose a wide variety of music including fast and slow music and line dancing.

Below: Larry and Dona Mennig chose costumes of designed t-shirts. Wonder how she got her hair to look like that.

Below: Steve and Connie Weston were the hit of the party. They are such good dancers, no matter what type of music is played.

AdventHealth Zephyrhills presents Christmas Stroll opening night celebration

GOVERNOR DESANTIS: From Page 1

Doling out $5,000 signing bonuses for law enforcement employees who opt to leave a state that is currently mandating vaccines to come to Florida is one way in which the governor plans to deal with the matter. To bolster that stance, a small gathering heard from several people.

Lisa Williams, a single mother from Tampa and longtime flight attendant for a major airline, had an adverse reaction after receiving a shot. She bemoaned the fact that she cannot get help for her medical issues from her employer.

"We are not anti-vaccine, we are anti-mandate," she said before praising the governor's stance.

A local business owner addressed questions he had over how his employees and contractors would be affected by the mandates and was unsure of who the new rules applied to. Doc Hyder, president of Rowland Transportation in Dade City, said he could not afford to let people go if they did not get a shot and that it would be devastating to his business.

"It makes no sense to us," he said. "The vaccine mandate will mean more chaos in the supply chain."

People at the gathering also heard from a Hillsborough County Sheriff's deputy and a Red Cross worker, both of whom are opposed to the vaccine mandate.

DeSantis reiterated that vaccine mandates are unconstitutional and violate freedom of choice.

"They're threatening to potentially deprive individuals and people that we need," he said. "They're threatening to throw out people from work in the state of Florida. We have a responsibility to protect Floridians, regardless of these mandates."

Well aware of the governor's actions in facing vaccine mandates, mask mandates at business and in schools, Simpson noted the importance of keeping people at work and the state's economy going during the coronavirus pandemic.

"Florida is the shining state on the hill that we always talk about," said Simpson, who is running for agriculture commissioner. "We're going to stand up for all our workers in this state."

Keeping the state open for business and keeping a Florida free agenda is a must, noted Chris Sprowls, Speaker of the Florida House of Representatives.

"This is vital to the strength of Florida, the strength of Florida families," he said.

Looking forward to the special session, DeSantis said, "I'm proud we're going to do something that matters. We're going to be saving a lot of jobs in Florida. We're going to be fighting for freedom."

OBITUARIES

Katie M. (Zirkalos) Latulippe LATULIPPE, Katie M. (Zirkalos), 94, formerly of Coldwater, Mich., passed away peacefully at her Zephyrhills home on Sept. 25, 2021, after battling a one-year illness. Katie was born April 10, 1927, in Hutchinson, Kansas, to Jacob J. Richer and Anna Mae Miller. Her family moved to Indiana where she was raised along with her five siblings before moving to Hillsdale, Mich. As a married woman, Katie moved to Coldwater, Mich., and worked as a clerk at both Lueders and Carroll's Shoe Stores. After her children were grown and her first husband had passed, she would split her time between Coldwater, Mich. and Zephyrhills where she worked as a housekeeper. Katie met Paul Latulippe while residing in Zephyrhills where Paul did some handyman work for her. After a short courtship, they were married on Dec. 19, 1998, in Paul's native Connecticut, and they enjoyed nearly 24 years together. For a number of years, they spent seasonal time between Paul's home in Connecticut and Katie's home in Zephyrhills before making Zephyrhills their permanent residence. Katie enjoyed playing cards, putting jigsaw puzzles together, dining out, travelling in Paul's motorhome, and visiting with friends and family in Florida, Indiana, Michigan and Connecticut. She was a member of St. Joseph Catholic Church. Survivors include her husband, Paul, of Zephyrhills; two sons, John (Deb) Richer of Petoskey, Mich. and Eddie (Margaret) Richer of Plymouth, Ind.; four grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; two great-great-grandchildren; and a brother, Henry "Hank" Richer of Altoona. Additionally, there are seven stepchildren in Arizona, California, Connecticut, Florida, and Virginia; 10 step-grandchildren; 15 step great-grandchildren; and seven step great-great grandchildren. A private memorial was held in Zephyrhills on Oct. 5 with Pastor Roger Lucas officiating. A graveside service and interment was held Nov. 6, 1 p.m. at the Zirkalos family plot in Quincy, Mich. There will be a memorial mass offered at St. Joseph on Dec. 8, 8 a.m. Memorial contributions can be made to Gulfside Hospice with offices in Land O' Lakes.

Obituaries are available in The Zephyrhills News. Information is due Monday before noon in order to appear in the same week's publication. For pricing call the office at (813) 782-1558.

Valerie Regina Nagy NAGY, Valerie Regina, 71, of Zephyrhills, passed away Oct. 13, 2021 at American House, 38130 Pretty Pond Rd., where she had resided for the past three years. A Mass of Remembrance was held Nov. 10, 1 p.m. with Msgr. Cesar Petilla, of St. Joseph's Catholic Church officiating. Ms. Nagy was born in Bayside, N.Y. to Michael and Regina Nagy on May 3, 1950. She spent her formative years with her parents and brother on a family farm in the hamlet of Woodbourne, N.Y., where she completed her primary and secondary education. Ms. Nagy completed her undergraduate work at Marist College in Poughkeepsie, N.Y. and went on to earn a Master's Degree in Social Work at Penn State. During her lengthy career as a clinical social worker, she worked with special needs children, teens and adults battling drug addiction and private practice patients. Following her father's death Ms. Nagy moved from North Carolina to Wesley Chapel, to look after her mother. She was so moved by the wonderful care her father received through hospice services she later joined HPH Hospice where she provided aid and comfort to patients and their families for many years until her retirement in 2013. Valerie was an active member of St. Joseph's Catholic Church, where she served as a Eucharistic Minister. She was also a member of Catholic Daughters of the Americas in Zephyrhills. She enjoyed many close friendships within the church community. Ms. Nagy is preceded in death by her parents.

She is survived by her brother and sister-in-law, Kenneth and Anh Nagy, of Tolland, Conn.; her nieces, Christine Nagy and her husband, (R. Steven) Wiltshire, grandniece, Katherine Wiltshire and grandnephew, Samuel Wiltshire; Karen (Christopher) Jankowski, grandnephews, Patrick and Martin Roberg and grand-niece, Madison Jankowski; her beloved cat, Bug; first cousins, Tony and John Klimkiewicz, Christine Rogers, Robert Herman and Carole Zalucky, with whom she was especially close. Memorials may be given to Catholic Daughters of the Americas, 3428 Bohannon Rd., Zephyrhills, Fla. 33541-2478. The family of Valerie Nagy extends our sincere thanks to Margaret Higson, devoted friend, and the Gulfside Hospice nursing staff.

OUTER SPACE FOREVER!

This is Our True Hope — Blessed in the Heavenlies Forever!

How do You get your Ticket??

MARK YOUR ANSWER TO WHAT YOU THINK WILL GET YOU ON BOARD!

- Do Good Works—Go to Church—Be Confirmed—Tithe your Money-
- Other

The answer is none of the above. It's a transformation by God on your behalf when you believe God!

It is a GIFT from God, and NOT a work by man or woman.

The little children's song says it all very clearly and it goes something like this:

"Somewhere in Outer Space—God has prepared a place God for those who trust him and obey. Jesus will come again—Although we don't know when. The countdowns getting closer every day."

GOD DID THE WORK. We simply believe the great work he has done. God sent his Son into the world to save sinners. Man is born into this world a sinner after his father, fallen Adam, and he is in need of a Saviour. Romans 6:23: For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. 2 Corinthians 5:21: For he [GOD] hath made him [CHRIST] to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

OUR OUTER SPACE ADVENTURE IS ACTIVATED the very moment we believe the report that God gave of his Son in that Christ died on the cross to pay for our sins. He was buried, and He rose again from the dead on the third day for our justification (1 Corinthians 15:1-4). When one rests their faith in what God has provided for their salvation, God reconciles them unto himself through his Son's righteousness and translates them into the kingdom of His dear Son, the Lord Jesus Christ from heaven.

NEXT, WE AWAIT THE COMING DAY OF OUR DEPARTURE. GOD CALLS THIS THE RAPTURE OF HIS CHURCH (THE BE-LIEVER) TO HEAVEN (1 Thessalonians 4:16-18) which is:

- THE LORD DESCENDS FROM HEAVEN INTO THE AIR.
- CHRIST SHOUTS WITH THE VOICE OF THE ARCHANGEL.
- GOD SOUNDS THE TRUMPET.

- THEN ALL BELIEVERS, both dead and alive are CHANGED AND RISE TO MEET THE LORD IN THE AIR, TO FOREVER BE WITH THE LORD.

WHAT A SOUND-OFF! QUESTION: HAS YOUR DEPARTURE BEEN ACTIVATED?

If not, why not? Let God pass you from eternal death and suffering unto eternal life and glory? It is a gift. It was paid for by Christ's perfect sinless blood. For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die. 8 But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us (Rom. 5:6-8). WOW! WHAT LOVE FOR ALL PEOPLE OF ALL NATIONS! MANY THANKSGIVINGS UNTO GOD OUR GREAT SAVIOUR!

Peanut butter can pack a nutritional punch

A nutritious, well-balanced diet is a vital component of a healthy lifestyle. Many foods provide a host of vitamins and nutrients, and that includes some that aren't traditionally associated with eating right. That includes peanut butter, an item many people have in their pantries but few might characterize as "healthy."

Though peanut butter may pack a more nutritional punch than people realize, it's important that shoppers check labels when choosing a jar to take home from the grocery store. Added sugars, vegetable oil and trans fats can reduce the nutritional value of peanut butter. Shoppers who want to eat more peanut butter for its nutritional value should look for products that do not contain any additives or trans fats.

An analysis of various peanut butter brands conducted by the United States Department of Agriculture found that the amounts of partially hydrogenated oils in 13 brands was so small that levels of trans fats were undetectable. So consumers should be able to find healthy peanut butter at their local grocery stores.

So what's so healthy about peanut butter? According to WebMD, peanut butter is a good source of: Vitamin E, Niacin (B3), Manganese, Vitamin B6 and Magnesium.

The fats in peanut butter also may promote a healthy body. Oleic acid is one such fat and it has been linked to a host of cardiovascular benefits. When substituted for other fats, oleic acid has been shown to help people maintain a healthy cholesterol, blood pressure and blood sugar levels. Maintaining healthy cholesterol and blood sugar levels and a healthy blood pressure are some ways for individuals to reduce their risk for heart disease.

Peanut butter may not be the first food people associate with a healthy diet. But the right peanut butter can pack quite a nutritional punch, which supports the notion that a healthy diet need not lack flavor.

and exercise with the other kids."

Following a one-year hiatus due to the coronavirus pandemic, the torch run was revived at a new location. The annual fundraiser traditionally began on the track at Pasco High School's W.F. Edwards Stadium, meandered throughout the downtown Dade City area and wound up at the Old Historic Courthouse. There were water stations along the way and plenty of supporters along the route.

This year's event took place at the Wiregrass Ranch Sports Campus of Pasco County, a sprawling sports facility that opened in 2000. The torch run is likely to continue at its current location.

Amanda Hunter, the sheriff's public information manager, noted that shifting the torch run to the sports campus solves the issue of changing traffic patterns in an urban area. Before, traffic had to be re-routed and there were concerns about the safety of the participants.

"It's a little easier to have it at a facility like this," she said. "It's a lot safer for the athletes."

Richard Blalock, chief executive officer of RADDSports at the sports campus, said he welcomes opportunities to work with law enforcement, fire departments and other service agencies. When approached by sheriff's office officials he said he was happy to be able to help out.

"These are the types of things we want to do," he said. "It's a win-win for everybody."

Unlike the previous torch runs in which Nocco led a contingent of law enforcement runners/walkers, Special Olympians from Pasco and Hernando counties, and numerous family members and supporters through downtown Dade City, a walk around the soccer field proved sufficient.

Some participants took more than one lap with three being the equivalent of one mile. Either way, the walk, which included a lighted torch passed from Nocco to deputy Ray Meunier, aboard Samson with the Pasco Sheriff's Posse, proved beneficial for the cause.

"Go out and have a fun day," the sheriff urged participants. "This is one of the great days that makes me happy."

Cypress Creek, led by coaches Will Fulmer and Angel Ramos, brought 23 Special Olympians to the walk. They were among other special athletes who also got to play kick ball and throw footballs at targets drawn out on a net.

"It's a blessing," said Fulmer, who also is an assistant coach for Cypress Creek's varsity football team. "These kids try 100 percent every second they're out there."

Added deputy Larry Roberts, a former Pasco High football and track standout, "It's a big deal to give to those who are not as fortunate as others; who are challenged in life. It makes us happy to put a smile on their faces."

Nocco thanked everyone for coming and tossed the football around with some of the special athletes. Other representatives of the sheriff's office played kickball with them.

Another popular attraction were three horses from the sheriff's posse. They were ridden by Meunier, Diane Shefts and Marnie Bennett with Taylor Nutt along to assist.

Bulldogs dominate Pirates in this year's 9-Mile War game

Playoff-bound Zephyrhills wins 56-0 while Pasco finishes a dismal season without a victory

By STEVE LEE
Sports Reporter

The dire warning from coach Nick Carroll not to overlook winless Pasco in last Friday night's 9-Mile War at Bulldog Stadium really was not necessary. Host Zephyrhills crushed its longtime nemesis 56-0.

For playoff-bound Zephyrhills it marked one of the most lopsided outcomes in the storied rivalry, which began in 1941 and at 63 matchups is the oldest and fiercest in Pasco County history. The Bulldogs, who have won six of the past seven games in the 9-Mile War, narrowed Pasco's all-time lead in the series to 41-22.

"I'm happy for the kids and the coaches," Carroll said. "It's always good to beat Pasco, because you never know. It's always nice to get a win against our rival."

Zephyrhills heads into the playoffs against St. Petersburg Gibbs this Friday at home with a 9-1 record while Pasco's season ends at 0-10. Carroll feels the rivalry will be more competitive someday, reasoning that "eventually they are going to be back. There's too much rich tradition and history at Pasco."

While the game was unlike many of the previous close battles between the rivals, the sparse attendance also was not indicative of previous Zephyrhills-Pasco matchups. Due in part to Pasco's dismal record along with rain that soaked the area throughout the day, Bulldog Stadium was literally half-empty. By halftime many of those people had left.

It was nothing like many of the past matchups, some of which Carroll labeled "electrifying."

Zephyrhills wasted little time getting on the scoreboard against Pasco. The defense forced the Pirates to punt after the game's first three plays and the Bulldogs needed just one play to score with Maguire Neal on the receiving end of Jaxson Rivera's 17-yard touchdown pass.

Jaylin Thomas then scored the first of his two touchdowns in the first half. The senior running back, who has rushed for at least 100 yards in eight games this year, plunged into the end zone from a yard out on a drive set up by his 46-yard burst down the right sideline.

Rivera then hit Jakobe Campbell on a slant-in from the left side for an 18-yard touchdown pass, his second of the game, before Thomas added a 30-yard scoring run.

Willie Queen added an 18-yard touchdown run and Campbell scooped up a fumble and scored from 36 yards out to help stake the Bulldogs to a 43-0 halftime lead.

Defensively, Theotis Smith caused two Pasco fumbles and recovered another, and Lawrence Graham had an interception. All of those turnovers came in the first half.

A notable play, which made history, also took place in the first half when backup defensive tackle Annaleese Thomas run the football into the end zone off left tackle for a two-point conversion. The 5-foot-3 senior, who lined up in the offensive backfield alongside Smith for that play, is the only female football player for Zephyrhills to ever score in a game.

"That's a play we put in for her," Carroll said. "She is a great kid and a great addition to our team. We all accept her as another player and we're happy for her."

Thomas, who often plays on the defensive line late in lopsided games, held the ball aloft on the sidelines afterward as teammates cheered for her.

The second half went by fast, thanks to a running clock that is implemented when a team is ahead by 35 points or more after the break.

Queen added his second touchdown, this time on a 76-yard kickoff return and backup quarterback R.J. Allen completed a 25-yard scoring pass to Xavier Garroway.

HOLLYWOOD

Scarlett Johansson

HOLLYWOOD -- James Bond looks pretty good for a 58 year old. Bond first appeared on May 8, 1963 in the guise of Sean Connery in “To Russia With Love.” Daniel Craig, 53, the sixth actor to embody Bond, has gotten people back into movie theaters and broken box-office records worldwide with his latest and last film, “No Time to Die.” But Craig’s fifth and final Bond film leaves him two short of the record holder, Roger Moore, who played 007 seven times between 1973 and 1985. He was preceded by Sean Connery, who gave him life five times from 1963-1983.

As much fun as Bond movies are, the 26 films (not counting the one-off 1967 comedy “Casino Royale,” with four male and four female stars playing Bond) won only five Oscars, for visual effects, sound editing and the song “Skyfall,” and none for acting. Collectively, the franchise has earned almost $7 billion globally. The single top-grosser was “Skyfall” (2012), which netted $1.1 billion. The search for the new Bond has begun.

Scarlett Johansson has settled her lawsuit with Disney. Disney had agreed to a 90-day theater run of her film “Black Widow,” but started streaming it on Disney+ after 45 days for $30 a pop. Johansson sued for the 45-day percentage she lost from the streaming move. Disney had assumed her $20 million payday covered it, but rather than face a lengthy court trial with the entire movie industry waiting for a big payday precedent, they settled out of court and signed a non-disclosure settlement.

Also wanting her day in court is Lisa Renna (wife of Harry Hamlin), former star of “Days of Our Lives,” “Melrose Place” and currently “The Real Housewives of Beverly Hills.” A photo agency is suing Renna for $1.2 million for posting eight photos of herself with her two adult daughters on her own Instagram page. The agency is suing because, “Once a photograph is posted, People Magazine or US Weekly are less likely to buy it.” Copyright laws generally protect writers or images produced through creative effort. It seems absurd that celebrities can’t use photographs of themselves taken by others, especially those taken in public without their consent (Renna says, “My kids grew up with them jumping out of the bushes in Malibu”). Still want to be a celebrity?

DC Comics are taking Superman where he’s never gone before. Jon Kent, the 17-year-old son of Clark Kent (Superman) and Lois Lane, is coming out as bisexual in the Nov. 9 release in “Superman: Son of Kal-El No. 5, in which he shares a romantic kiss with reporter Jay Nakamura. Proving once again ... “A kiss is NOT just a kiss!”

office, but when it comes to Wilton Simpson - I am all in," Burgess wrote. "And I'm all in because of the character of the man. He is a loving father and husband. A successful local businessman. And a common sense, conservative leader who has helped Florida navigate trying times."
Others spoke of their friendships with Simpson. Alan Altman, a longtime member of the Pasco County School Board, gave the blessing before saying, "All of us here love and support him."
For her part, Simpson's wife Kathy viewed last week's kickoff as a welcome gathering of friends and families the couple has known over the years.
"We just get to hang out with our friends and a lot of people we hadn't seen in a while,"

she said.
Providing musical entertainment were Billy Dean a country music artist who has sold more than five million records and had several top hits, and Rivers Rutherford, a country music songwriter. Rutherford showed up at the behest of Dean, who spoke highly of Simpson.
Lobbyist Shawn Foster gave some insight into Simpson's dealings with the public. Back in 2018 after the shootings at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School in Parkland, a contingent made their way up to Tallahassee to speak with lawmakers. Simpson, Foster noted, made sure those students and parents were fed and cared for.
Foster said one of Simpson's mottos is, "Stop worrying about the past and look toward the future."
