Bulldog defense and Pirate meltdown make for lopsided 21-0 shutout in 9-Mile War

Zephyrhills running back Zyre Roundtree kept up the ground assault against the Pirate defense, carrying 13 times for 103 yards.

The stage was set. The patriotic pre-game pageantry gave way to the historic rivalry game on a night that celebrated the 10th anniversary of the event being dubbed, "The 9-Mile War." Zephyrhills and Dade City Rotary Clubs commemorated the occasion at halftime as the most valuable player from the 2010 game, Andrew Pope, was recognized.

Yet, it would be the Zephyrhills defense that stole the show Friday night in a dominant, 21-0 performance that frustrated the Pirates and caused a mental and emotional meltdown that exploded after the final buzzer sounded.

It was going to be a defensive battle all the way. There was no question about that. The question was, which offense would blink first and which defense would be able to capitalize. Both defenses were keyed in early. The Bulldogs forced the Pirates back two yards and into a three-and-out their opening drive. Gabriel Barnes and the Pirate defense recovered a Bulldog fumble on their opening drive. Barnes and EJ Redfield were stuffing everything the Bulldogs threw at them until the third Bulldog drive.

The third drive started on a short field, the Pirate 18-yard line and even after back-to-back false start penalties, the Bulldogs broke through on a 3rd-and-7. The Bulldogs setup a trips left. The Pirate bench yelled out, "screen, screen." The Bulldogs were one step ahead. Instead of the screen pass, quarterback Jaxson Rivera hit Tre Gallimore on a short hook route, over top of the screen. It was wide open and Gallimore spun around and scored from 15 yards out to make it 7-0 with 10 minutes left in the half.

Late in the half, the Pirate offense go their try on a short field. Working from the Bulldog 35-yard line, the Pirates converted a 4th-and-1 with a 17-yard run from Malcolm Gibbs. The Pirates made it all the way to the three-yard line and went for it on a 4th-and-2 with 22 seconds left in the first half. A reverse to Devin Jernigan was sniffed out and caught from behind by Zephyrhills' Maguire Neal. The stop for a loss forced a turnover on downs. It would prove to be the pivotal play in the half and in the game.

"That was huge," Bulldog head coach Nick Carroll said. "It

Two middle school boys soccer teams at opposite ends of the spectrum clashed Tuesday night at W.F. Edwards Stadium in Dade City. It was all Pasco, which took a commanding 4-0 halftime lead and eventually won 6-0.

Still, the Bulldogs, who have struggled in recent seasons, put up a tough fight during various stages of the match. Afterward, longtime Pasco coach Dan Herndon credited Stewart with improved play.

"Stewart put up a good game," he said. "That was the best Stewart team in years."

At halftime, Herndon warned his players that the Bulldogs showed more talent and had more runs on offense than in some previous seasons.

"They've got some guys who can play this year," said Herndon, who coached the perennial-contending Pirates to a championship in 2017. "They've had some opportunities."

Pasco scored twice in the first six minutes of the game. Noah Valdovinos stole an attempted clearing kick from Stewart goalkeeper Carson Weaver from just outside of the penalty box and kicked the ball into the far left corner for a 1-0 lead. A few minutes after that goal, Mario Castillo picked off a pass from a Stewart defender and beat Weaver with a low shot into that same corner.

The Pirates went ahead 3-0 when Giovanni Fajardo converted a through ball from Benicio Leos, beating the Stewart keeper with a high shot into the far right side.

At that point, the lone bright spot for the Bulldogs was some solid play by defender Andre Brown with contributions on the back line by Ethan Stone and Aiden Dirks.

To encourage that trio, as well as the midfielders

Zephyrhills chamber forges on with Incredi-Bowl

The third annual event was held at Pin Chasers in Zephyrhills with a COVID-adapted format

By ANDY WARRENER
Sports Reporter

Like many public events in the COVID-19 era, there was some doubt whether or not the event would take place at all. Yet, as adaptations and safety protocols were put in place, the event began to materialize. The whole venue at Pin Chasers was booked in order to only have bowlers on every other lane - an effort at social distancing. Incredi-Bowl Zephyrhills is a replacement fundraiser for previous golf events conducted by the chamber.

"We found there were a lot of golf tournaments and our ability to capture the market was less," chamber chairman Randy Stovall said. "Golf is only for golfers. With bowling, it's more of a family social activity."

The chamber took some precautions and allowed for special circumstances. Chamber members all wore masks inside Pin Chasers, as did most of the participants. There were some sponsors that weren't ready to enter into an indoor environment.

"Some sponsors didn't send a team but paid for one," Stovall said. "People that wanted to bowl but that maybe couldn't afford or put together a team - they can now."

The fundraiser assists with some chamber programs like the scholarship fund at Zephyrhills High School, the Youth and the Education Program that awards Citizen of the Month, among others. Chamber CEO Melonie Monson estimated that 20 local businesses donated to the event. Jarrett Ford put up funds for a team, allowing for Stewart Middle School teachers to play on it.

Safe ways to lose weight

People have many options when they seek to lose weight. Fad diets may promise quick results, but highly restrictive eating plans or marathon workout sessions can be dangerous. Taking shortcuts or risks in the hopes of losing weight can lead to various health issues and ultimately put people's overall health in serious jeopardy. Thankfully, there are many safe ways people can lose weight.

The first step in safe weight loss is to visit a doctor and let him or her know your plans. The doctor can help determine if a specific eating plan or exercise routine is safe based on your current health. Certain medications can affect metabolism and even contribute to weight gain, so a discussion with the doctor can help ensure people aren't putting their health in jeopardy when their goal is to get healthy.

It's also vital that people trying to lose weight do not believe everything they read online. Research published in The American Journal of Public Health in October 2014 found that most people who search the internet for tips on how to lose weight come across false or misleading information on weight loss, particularly in regard to how quickly they can shed some pounds. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention advises the safest amount of weight to lose per week is between one and two pounds. People who lose more per week, particularly on fad diets or programs, oftentimes are much more likely to regain weight later on than people who took more measured approaches to losing weight. In addition, the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics notes it is better to lose weight gradually because if a person sheds pounds too fast, he or she can lose muscle, bone and water instead of fat.

The calories in, calories out concept is something to keep in mind when attempting to lose weight. But metabolism and other factors, including body composition and physical activity levels, also are factors. How well one's body turns calories into fuel also needs to be considered. The best ways to experiment are to start slowly.

- Calculate the average daily calories consumed in a day using a tracker. This can be a digital app on a phone or simply writing down calories on a piece of paper. Track over a few days and see, on average, how many calories you've been consuming.
- Notice extra calories. Many diets can be derailed by eating extra calories that you don't realize you're consuming. That cookie a coworker insists you eat or the leftover mac-and-cheese from your toddler's plate can be sources of extra calories. Be mindful of what's being consumed, including sweetened beverages.
- Explore the science. According to the Scotland-based health service NHS Inform, one pound of fat contains 3,500 calories on average. Cutting calorie intake by 500 calories per day should see you lose 1 pound per week. The same goes in the other direction. Eating 500 more calories per day for a year can result in gaining close to 50 pounds. Small changes really add up.

- Eat filling foods. Choose low-calorie, high quality foods, like vegetables, whole grains and lean proteins. Meals that provide satiety can help eliminate between-meals snacks that can derail your weight loss efforts.
- Seek support as a way to create accountability. Share weight loss plans with a friend or relative who can help monitor your progress and keep you on track.
- Incorporate strength training. Good Housekeeping says the more lean muscle you have, the faster you can slim down. Start slowly with strength training, using free weights or body weights. Aim for strength workouts three to four times per week and alternate with calorie-blasting cardio.

Explore safer ways to lose weight, including taking a gradual approach that promotes long-term weight loss.

"Some people weren't ready to come out but were still willing to support us," Monson said.

Prizes included bottles of wine, golf packages from Silverado, a car care bucket from Jarrett Ford, a six-month family membership from the Zephyrhills YMCA, AdventHealth donated a membership and spa package, DG Monson Adjusting donated an HDTV. All told, 15 teams with four to six members were drawn up and they competed for a first-place cash prize, as well as second and third-place prizes, all the while raffle tickets were being sold.

"This is the first event we've had since COVID," Stovall said. "We're grateful to get the people out. I had some people tell me it was nice to see some people for a change. I haven't seen some of these people since February."

The event brought together friends, families, co-workers. Mother and son, Kennlyn and Allen Long hadn't bowled together for more than 20 years. The Palm Tree Acres team gave them the opportunity. Palm Tree Acres wasn't just in it for the charity, they were in it to win it.

"Palm Tree Acres won the tournament last year and took second the year before," Palm Tree Acres property manager and chamber vice-chairwoman Vicky Jones said.

Commandough's Owner Michael Weaver

brought his team out for their first year at the event. Commandough's wasn't just playing for charity, either. The restaurant has a regular team that plays Monday and Tuesday nights.

"We'd like to think this is right up our alley (pun intended)," Weaver said. "The chamber reached out to us and we never hesitate to help out."

Sunlight Realty put a team together to try and win the event as well as San Antonio Credit Union.

"We've been doing this event since the beginning but this is the first time with this group," San Antonio Credit Union Business Lending Specialist Tori Linville said. "It's a great event, there are exciting raffles or you can win the tournament. It's always a good time."

Perhaps the most spectacular player on the floor was Daniel Light of Light the Grill BBQ and Catering. The company, headed by proprietor Randy Light is a competition barbeque and catering company but as Daniel Light picked up two of three pins on a near-spare, it became apparent that Daniel is the same Daniel Light that was an assistant wrestling coach at Zephyrhills seven years ago. He is also legally and totally blind. A passerby might not even realize, the only indication being friend Robert Yonkof giving Daniel up-close instructions on how and where to send the ball down the lane.

took away any momentum they had and kept points off the board.”

The Pirates would never recover the momentum. An interception by Pasco's Kaleb Myers to start the third quarter, went for naught as the Pirates punted the ball away. The Pirate defense was still fighting. They stopped the Bulldogs again, a sack by Ja'Bari Mention and Barnes dooming the drive. Zephyrhills' TJ Jackson made an incredible play on fourth down as the long snap sailed over his head on the punt attempt. Jackson managed to run it down and still get a decent punt off to start the Pirate offense at their own 36, instead of deep in Bulldog territory. The Bulldog defense forced a three-and-out.

The Bulldogs' longest drive of the game followed as the Pirates began to melt down. A stop by Jabrounze Cooley and Barnes turned into Cooley lifting Rivera off the ground and body slamming him. The ensuing 15-yard penalty set the Bulldog offense up at the Pirate 14, as the third quarter gave way to the fourth. A run by Zyrie Roundtree went for five yards and a facemask flag added five more. Roundtree made another five-yard run, this one into the end zone for a 14-0 Bulldog lead. And that's when the Pirate meltdown accelerated.

The Pirates hit a big pass play from Jernigan to Omarion Harrison but coughed up the ball in the backfield on the ensuing play with the Bulldogs' Neal recovering. Things went from bad to worse for the Pirates. Jernigan refused to take the field to play defense and Roundtree finally broke a big gain, going 48 yards to the Pirate 9-yard line. A seven-yard run by Gallimore put the Bulldogs into a commanding lead, 21-0 and further precipitated the Pirate collapse. On the first play of the Pirates next possession, Jernigan having been excused from the field, the Pirates threw an incomplete pass that was ruled a lateral and Mike Barber jumped on the loose ball to recover for the Bulldogs.

From there, the Bulldogs just wanted to wind down the clock and get out of there. The Pirates were still collapsing. On their next offensive play, a fumbled snap saw big Dajuan McCullough jump on the loose ball and recover for the Bulldogs. The Bulldogs turned the ball over on downs but the final straw would snap the Pasco backs, as the third play of their ensuing drive resulted in another Bulldog fumble recovery, this one by Brian Ashmore.

The socially-distant post-game handshake, where players just wave from across the field, was probably a good idea in the boiling tension in the air. That's when Theotis Smith grabbed a Zephyrhills flag from the visitor stands and ran it out to midfield. Chaos erupted as the Pasco players rushed the field and some tense moments had to be broken up by coaches. When the two sides were finally separated, the Zephyrhills celebrations began. "We played tonight with a big chip on our shoulders," McCullough said. "We can't be lovebugs anymore."

According to McCullough, there's been a long-standing grudge dating back to Pasco's win in 2019, where Pasco players said the win was easy, like, "wiping love bugs off a windshield." The orange-and-black Bulldogs took exception to being compared to love bugs. It was bulletin board material for nearly 12 months and the Bulldogs were ready to squash it. They even brought out a gallon jug of orange-colored love bug repellent and dumped it on first-year volunteer coach Tom McHugh, who coached several years at Pasco.

"After they beat us last year, this was our opportunity for redemption," Roundtree said. "I had to sit back and trust my O-line to come through for the win."

There were very few offensive stats for either team but Roundtree managed to tally 102 yards and a touchdown on 13 carries. The Bulldogs spread the ball out to Jackson, Gallimore and Jaylin Thomas on the ground. The Bulldogs completed just one pass, the touchdown to Gallimore. Outside of the Jernigan completion, the Pirates completed three passes for -13 yards.

The Bulldog defense was ready. Defensive coordinator Matt Jackson practiced at quarterback during the week leading up to the game. He was particularly proud of the Bulldog defense keeping the Pirates off the scoreboard.

And so turns another page of the storied rivalry in the 9-Mile War.

CRIME REPORTS

Possession of methamphetamine

A 35-year-old Dade City woman was arrested Oct. 29 at U.S. Highway 301 and 14th Avenue after a traffic stop, for no headlights after dark, allegedly revealed 9.08 grams of methamphetamine, 5.63 grams of marijuana and a digital scale.

Arrested was Kelly Elizabeth Hatton of 37245 Westview Ave.

Hatton was processed by the Zephyrhills Police Department and transported to the Pasco County Jail.

Diaz was processed by the Zephyrhills Police Department and transported to the Pasco County Jail.

Active warrant

A 49-year-old Tampa woman was arrested Nov. 4 at 5910 13th St. after a check allegedly revealed a warrant out of Pasco County for failure to appear.

Arrested was Heather Leeann Craft; no address listed.

Craft was processed by the Zephyrhills Police Department and transported to the Pasco County Jail.

Ewan McGregor

HOLLYWOOD -- What is the future of movie-going? Will we ever feel safe in a theater, watching a film, or will we settle for the biggest screens we can put into our homes?

Netflix co-CEO Ted Sarandos revealed that pandemic precautions are actually saving them money: "Cutting shooting times on the sets of series, such as the currently shooting 'The Witcher' and 'Sex Education,' are running more efficiently as people adapt to new ways of working."

In 1983 I was asked to shoot some female stars of "The Young and the Restless" at Chippendales, which featured a revue of muscular male dancers stripping down to a G-string.

Now director Craig Gillespie ("I, Tonya" and the upcoming Disney film "Cruella") has cast Dev Patel as Banerjee and Ben Stiller as De Noia.

"The Lost City of D," a "Romancing the Stone"-style film, will reteam Oscar-winner Sandra Bullock and "Deadpool" star Ryan Reynolds.

Ewan McGregor will star in the title role of the Disney+ single season six-episode series "Obi-Wan Kenobi."

and forwards who at times had trouble keeping the ball out of their own end, Stewart coach Jamie Rulison implored his players to keep playing hard.

"Guys, don't stop until you hear the whistle," he said.

The Bulldogs actually got a couple of decent scoring chances midway through the first half with Dylan Fleshood charging in on the Pasco goal from the right side before shooting the ball wide of the right post. Moments later, Stewart's DeMarkus Madden had a strong shot from the top of the penalty box, but Pasco keeper Saul Gonzalez caught the rising shot.

That 3-0 lead turned into 4-0 when Pasco added a goal in the last five minutes of the first half. Diego Valdovinos lofted a pass over a pair of Stewart defenders to send Logan Dietsch in for a breakaway goal. Weaver came out to meet an onrushing Dietsch to no avail.

The Pirates might have had one more goal before the break if not for a heads-up play by Andres Pamias. The Stewart midfielder came back to help out the defense as Pasco players swarmed the net and when he saw a loose ball rolling toward the open net he kicked the ball away at the goal-line.

In an effort to fire his players up for the second half and keep things in proper perspective, Rulison, Stewart's second-year coach who formerly coached at Pasco Middle, said, "I doesn't matter what the score is. It's 0-0. It's a new game."

In the second half, however, it was more of the same with the Pirates adding on to their impressive lead with two goals by Leos. He scored from a tough angle on the right side before kicking in his own rebound.

"They really got aggressive trying to get some offense going," Herndon said of his players. "That's what I need to see."

Stewart's best scoring chance came in between Leos' late goals, but Pamias clanked one off the cross bar off a free kick.
