Pioneer Florida Museum saves Christmas Parade in Dade City

Local schools like Academy at the Farm took part in the downtown festivities. ANDY WARRENER

The Pioneer Florida Museum & Village teamed up with an army of volunteers to bring back the Dade City Christmas Parade

By ANDY WARRENER
News Reporter

People will remember the year 2020 for decades to come. The year saw Americans and people all over the world encounter new challenges. Public events took a nosedive, almost into disappearance. As the country and the state began to emerge from under the rock, events started to get back on the calendar. Zephyrhills started to go ahead with limited and then full-on public events.

Dade City saw several events scuttled, including the 2020 Christmas parade. The planning phase for the 2021 parade came around and the Dade City Chamber of Commerce began to seek alternative entities to put the event on. Enter the Pioneer Florida Museum & Village.

"We are so grateful that we were able to work with Dade City and our community to keep the Dade City Christmas Parade going," museum executive director Stephanie Black said. "We already have exciting ideas to make it better for next year."

Black and a team of volunteers set to work. Grand Marshall - Simpson Lakes and presenting sponsors Ricycle and Saint Leo University stepped up and provided some much-needed seed money. Then the local businesses, clubs and civic organizations began to line up. By the time the queue was setting up Friday evening, there were 55 floats ready to roll through downtown Dade City.

One of the parade's annual entries was Dade City Church. The 2021 parade was the eighth year for the church on 21st Street.

"Last year was a real Christmas damper - there was no stroll, no parade, no Church Street," Kimmie Frier said. "We're grateful to have it back, it brings Christmas spirit for the whole town."

Other civic organizations lined up to take part. Cub Scouts Pack 301 packed in their float with children, most of whom helped put together the float.

New ZPD officers sworn in during final city council meeting of 2021

New ZPD officers and recognition of city employees headlined the final Zephyrhills City Council meeting of 2021

By ANDY WARRENER
News Reporter

Dark blue uniforms bedecked the Zephyrhills City Council chambers on Monday night as current ZPD officers were on hand to witness the swearing in of four new officers: Nickolas Cherubino, Celeste Tojvat, Jailene Colon and Kirk Jadotte. Police chief Derek Brewer gave a brief bio of each of the incoming officers before administering the oath. After the oaths were read, family members pinned the new badges on the freshly-minted ZPD officers and a standing ovation welcomed the quartet into the fold. It was later pointed out that with the new hires, ZPD is now fully-staffed.

Next up was a recognition and presentation by Zephyrhills Mayor Gene Whitfield regarding the water division of the utilities department. The water division just recently returned from a conference in Orlando where they were awarded first place by the American Water Works Association for Outstanding Water Distribution System Division 3. Utilities director John Bostic and a handful of his staff were present to receive the award and commendation by the mayor.

"These guys do excellent work 24/7, 12 months a year," Bostic said. "These gentlemen take pride in what they do."

Zephyrhills Utility Service Worker 3 Dennis Farr didn't have far to go after the photo op because he was called right back up to the front to receive his Zephyrhills City Employee of the Year Award. Both Farr and finance supervisor/assistant city clerk Jessica Gardner were nominated by a committee and Farr was chosen at the recent city employee Christmas party. Farr managed to escape the spotlight by missing the party but he got his recognition at Monday's council meeting.

Down the agenda, six Consent Agenda items were bundled and passed together with 5-0 unanimity. They were: a 60-month approval, $54,000 contract with Axon for services related to ZPD body cameras. An approval for $79,758 to refurbish a truck received from the

Walk Through Bethlehem is a live reenactment

Longstanding tradition is hosted by Family of God in Dade City and is a collaboration among four area churches

By STEVE LEE
News Reporter

For a second straight year Family of God Baptist Church in Dade City hosted a Walk Through Bethlehem, a live reenactment with period characters that continues a longstanding tradition and that now involves four churches. It was revived last December following a two-year hiatus from when it switched over from Richland Baptist Church.

The mock biblical village was set up outdoors for three days last weekend at Family of God, located off Old Lakeland Highway just north of U.S. 98. It is a collaboration that includes three other churches — Pasadena Baptist, Faith Fellowship of Jesus Christ in Trilby and Richland Baptist, where the Walk Through Bethlehem was initiated 26 years ago.

"It brings us closer together than we realize," said Robert Perkins, a pastor at Faith Fellowship who was back at the Walk Through Bethlehem event for a second straight Christmas season. "It shows us how much we have in common."

Perhaps there is more in common than outsiders think.

Second Annual Ladies Tea at Zephyr Christian Church

Dec. 4, ladies were treated to an Annual Ladies Tea at Zephyr Christian Church. The hall was transformed into a Christmas Wonderland. Each table was set for six, and each had a separate theme. One was an Angel Table, which was elegantly decorated with an assortment of angels. Karen Baker and Linda Zito headed up the event with a lot of willing helpers. The food was blessed and table chat was abundant. The menu for the tea consisted of tea of course with hot chocolate, Finger food sandwiches, and appetizers, Cheese balls, crackers, and decadent desserts. Following the luncheon, Joyce Thomas was the guest speaker. It centered on Joyce's The Story of Ester.

AmVets brighten local children's Christmas

Zephyrhills AmVets Post 550 makes Christmas a little merrier for 25 local children. The ladies Auxiliary of Post 550 recently sponsored a Children's Christmas gift project. Members took 25 paper Angels or Snowmen from the Christmas tree where 25 children had written their wish list.

Members then bought the gifts and wrapped them to be taken to the local school for secret delivery to the parent(s). In addition to the wish list items each child received a new pair of shoes/sneakers, socks and a plastic candy cane filled with chocolates.

utility department into a mobile command post for ZPD. A request for Skydive City to re-enter into a sublet agreement for certain premises with GSA (General Services Administration) for use by SOCOM (Special Operations Command/ MacDill Air Force base) to train the Para-Commandos. This has been allowed as common practice for over a decade. The existing lease and extensions were set to expire on Dec. 28.

Requested assistance from Jones Edmunds to provide engineering services during the construction of the Fort King Water Line Extension Project. Recently, the city went out to bid and received the bids for the construction of a 12-inch water main along Fort King Road beginning at the Phelps Road/Fort King intersection, heading south to the Simons Road/Fort King area. Amendment No. 1 will cost no more than $66,850.00 and is currently budgeted in the FY22 budget year under the water division - infrastructure line item.

A 65-day extension to the completion date of a fuel farm at Zephyrhills Municipal Airport was approved. It pushes the completion date out to Feb. 22, 2022.

Finally an approval to purchase a Grapple Truck through the Florida Sheriff's Association. The grapple truck purchase proposal of $243,996.49 is to be covered by FY 21-22 Streets Department Capital Line Item $125,000 and FY 21-22 Sanitation Department Capital Line Item $125,000.

In business items, Item 1 was tabled until the Jan. 10 meeting. Item 2 codified an ordinance related to the Abbott Square Community Development District. Item 3 approved a Land Development Code Amendment that dictates allowable uses in the LDC. Item 4 dealt with fencing allowed at the Hounds Town USA dog daycare center on Eiland Boulevard and Fort King Road. It was established that six-foot, opaque perimeter fencing would be used and that the designs complied with C2 zoning requirements. All of the aforementioned items passed 5-0, with item 1 taking just a 4-0 vote as councilman Lance Smith abstained from the vote.

In citizen comments, Zephyrhills resident Eddy Knapp and later John Watson addressed council regarding low flying tow aircraft coming out of the Zephyrhills Municipal Airport. Knapp contested that the flight pattern and low altitude that tow planes were currently flying were in violation of FAA guidelines and that reports have been made to the FAA regarding. Knapp also produced some items that he claimed fell into his yard from the tow planes. Tow planes are used to take engineless gliders up into the air.

Zephyrhills City Manager William Poe Jr. stated that the city has been in talks with the airport and the FAA and that the FAA is, "aware and investigating."

The Greatest Story Every Told

*From the Manger to the Cross,
We have eternity in Heaven as a free gift of God,
Because of what my Saviour lost.*

*The cruelty of the Calvary Cross
Took the life of my Saviour, and Satan thought he had the victory;
But my Saviour's life was actually given,
Because He was keeping in His Father's favor.*

*Nothing can be added to the Cross,
Because everything was taken away,
All the sin in this world, all the sin of you and I,
Was covered by the Precious blood
my Redeemer shed that day.*

*The victory Satan thought he had attained, Was only in his mind,
For Before the foundation of this world, The salvation of Saul was planned;
To be an Apostle with the new name of Paul,
And deliver the Dispensation of the Grace of God,
The free gift of Salvation to all!*

*From the Manger to the Cross,

Host Bulldogs defeat arch-rival Pirates 58-25

Zephyrhills extended its current winning streak to seven straight games while Pasco has lost three in a row

BY STEVE LEE
Sports Reporter

In recent years, Zephyrhills and Pasco have not had much of a rivalry in girls basketball. When Zephyrhills was good, Pasco was not and vice versa. That is not the case so far this season with the longtime rivals aligned in Class 5A, District 6 and the Sunshine Athletic Conference.

Both teams entered Monday night's clash at Zephyrhills with winning records. The host Bulldogs came in with seven wins in eight games and riding a six-game win streak while Pasco sported a winning record at 6-3 despite two straight losses.

"Sometimes winning records can be deceiving, but it's a tough game just for the fact that it's our biggest rival," Zephyrhills coach Chris Smith said before the game. "They definitely have improved and so have we."

The Bulldogs revealed just how much they have improved from last year's by extending their current streak to seven in a row with a 58-25 win. That also gave them an 8-1 overall record, 6-0 mark at home as well as a perfect 4-0 district slate.

Meanwhile, Pasco, which already owns a five-game winning streak and has matched their entire win total from last season, has now lost three consecutive games. The Pirates are 6-4 overall with a 2-3 record on the road.

"I told our players to just look down there and see the color of their uniforms and if that doesn't get you to play you may not be a Bulldog," said Smith, alluding to the school rivalry between cities separated by just nine miles.

In fairness, Pasco took on Zephyrhills with its top player sidelined. Coach Justin Dargahim noted that Evelyn Randall, a senior who averages a team-leading 16 points per game, was out sick. He added that Randall and Hayli Carter were instrumental in Pasco's strong start, in ried it on a Mikayla Cintron free throw and never looked back. From that one-point deficit early in the game, Zephyrhills went on a 13-0 run to take a 15-3 lead. That stretch of consecutive points ended on a Carter free throw.

Carter hit one of her six 3-point shots to give the Pirates an early lead, but the Bulldogs

Zephyrhills extended its lead to 26-11 at halftime and increased that to 40-18 by the end of the third quarter. Smith credited his players with solid efforts, also noting that he made an adjustment right before the game to offset Pasco's plan to play a box-type defense.

"Right before the game we put in an offense to counter that and it worked to perfection," Smith said.

While Carter wound up with a game-high 20 points, mostly on her 3-point shots from long range, Pasco did not get much offensive production from anyone else. For Zephyrhills, it was just the opposite with nine players getting on the score sheet.

Leading the way for the Bulldogs in that department was Maya Llanes, who finished with 18 points while adding a handful of assists and steals.

"I would say her game's peaking right now," Smith said of Llanes, a senior who can play guard and forward.

Madison Driggers added 10 points while Allison McCullough and Jade King chipped in with six apiece. Cintron was next with five.

Smith also praised Kylie Walton, a sophomore who plays strong in the middle on both ends of the court. The coach said she has looked solid for the past three games.

"We've tried to do it every year for the last 10 years," Cubmaster Scott Johnson said. "The kids are excited to have it back. Our first through fifth graders decorated the float."

The parade provided an outreach outlet for the pack, one that they've sorely missed the last two years.

"Community service is part of our goals," Thompson said. "With schools being closed to us, we haven't been able to recruit. We're here to say that Cub Scouts still exist and we're a great organization."

Jumping in the parade for their first time was the Pasco County Cattle Woman's Association. The association promotes the beef industry by doing outreach in schools, providing scholarships and participating in industry-related activities.

"We always want to be part of the community and what better way than to be part of the parade," association president Casie Holloway said.

Firefighter/Paramedic Thomas Blanchard of Pasco Fire Rescue was part of the end of the procession with a fire department brush truck and Special Ops Truck 1 with Santa and Mrs. Claus in the bucket.

"People in Dade City are a tight-knit group," Blanchard said. "It's great to have everyone come out. I hope I get to see all these kids' faces light up and everyone has a good night."

Carissa Dykes of Dade City has been coming to the parade since she was in elementary school.

"It's unreal how big it's become," Dykes said.

Dykes brought along her sons Colton and Ashton. Colton was excited to come out and see his friend Parker in one of the floats. The friends and family vibe was in full swing Friday night. Dade City resident Vicki Wiggins remembers the annual tradition stretching back 30 years.

"The parade has always brought the Christmas spirit into the community," Wiggins said. "I figured the area would be packed with people ready to get out and celebrate together."

Even folks from out of town showed up to enjoy the festivities. Marissa Stridge of Lakeland missed the Lakeland Christmas Parade and so drove out to Dade City with her kids Tanner and Maddox.

"It's nice for things to be back to normal, especially for the kids to not go missing out on things," Stridge said.

Stridge was on-hand with her kids, husband, mom, dad, even cousins.

Left: Members of Dade City Church on 21st Street were thrilled to have the parade back after the 2020 hiatus.

Pasco Board of County Commissioners undergoes reorganization

BCC names new chair/vice-chair

The Pasco Board of County Commissioners (BCC) reorganized at its regular meeting Dec. 7 in New Port Richey. The board elected commissioner Kathryn Starkey to serve as board chair and commissioner Jack Mariano to serve as vice chair.

"It's an honor to have been appointed the new chair," Starkey said. "I'm proud of what the board has accomplished so far and look forward to continuing our work to make Pasco County the best place to live, work and play."

The BCC consists of the following members: commissioner Ron Oakley, District 1; commissioner Mike Moore, District 2; chair Kathryn Starkey, District 3; commissioner Christina Fitzpatrick, District 4; and vice chair Jack Mariano, District 5.

The BCC also voted to adopt new county commission districts as required every 10 years following the U.S. Census. There are five commission districts in Pasco County, and each is nearly equal in proportion to population size. The new districts went into effect Dec. 7.

Pasco Education Foundation opens Wise Supplies to benefit Pasco teachers

Teachers can shop for classroom supplies – and everything is free

Teachers in Pasco County have a new source for collecting much-needed school supplies for their classrooms thanks to the Pasco Education Foundation and generous donors.

The Wise Supplies store at the district office in Land O' Lakes officially opened on Dec. 8, with a ribbon cutting ceremony. Later in the day, teachers began visiting to collect supplies for their students.

"This is going to be a tremendous resource for our teachers," said Pasco Superintendent Kurt Browning. "We all know that teachers spend some of their own money to provide extras for their students. Now, they can arrange to visit Wise Supplies and get those supplies for free. Many thanks to the foundation and to the generous donors for supporting our teachers."

"We are so excited to launch our Wise Supplies Center," said Stacey Capogrosso, president of the Pasco Education Foundation. "This has been a vision for quite some time and is now a reality. Wise Supplies allows Pasco County Schools teachers to shop at no cost for essential supplies, ensuring that all students have access to equitable resources."

Capogrosso said Wise Supplies never could have happened without the generous support of their community partners like Suncoast Credit Union, Creative Contractors, Florida Avenue Brewing, Florida Medical Clinic Foundation of Caring, Volkswagen of Wesley Chapel and Lutz Walmart.

For more information on the Wise Supplies store, visit the Pasco Education Foundation website at <https://www.pascoeducationfoundation.org/>.

Pasco County libraries awarded Little Free Libraries

Free book exchange to help underserved Dade City communities

Pasco County Libraries is proud to announce Hugh Embury Library as the recipient of two Little Free Libraries (LFL), awarded through the Little Free Library's Impact Library Program for November 2021.

The program provides free LFL book exchange stands to communities with members who face economic and social barriers and find it difficult to reach the library. With the Hugh Embury library undergoing renovations, the stands also provide book resources to those not able to travel to other libraries.

The two Dade City communities receiving

LFLs are Lacoochee and Tommytown.

"The Little Free Libraries have been a special project of the Friends of Hugh Embury Library for years, already funding five LFLs," said librarian Angelo Liranzo. "Library team members are working with the friends to reach our community partners in both winning communities as we await the soon-to-arrive LFLs."

Friends of the Hugh Embury Library and Library staff dedicated themselves to researching and apply for the grant opportunity to obtain the LFLs.

For more information about Pasco County Libraries, including the library catalog, E-content, programs, events and links to all Pasco County Library branches, visit: www.pascolibraries.org.

The Bulldogs and Coyotes have forged a tight rivalry in east Pasco County, one plainly evident during last week's eastern conference meet

By ANDY WARRENER
Sports Reporter

The Bulldogs and Coyotes are evening out. The Bulldogs reached their zenith two years ago when they sent their first individual state titlist to the podium and nabbed their highest team finish in school history (third place). Several Bulldog lifters made the state meet in 2021, continuing the team's legacy under coach Joe Rinaldo.

The winter 2021-22 season has a new set of faces for the Bulldogs but the same tenacity from years past. The Bulldogs are perennially chasing county powerhouse Sunlake but now they have upstart program Cypress Creek under head coach Tico Hernandez nipping at their heels.

"This was a dog fight, not with Sunlake but with Cypress Creek," Rinaldo said. "They are up and coming and I told Tico (Hernandez) that we have to plan for him now."

As the dust settled, it was Sunlake cruising to the East Conference title with 78 points. Zephyrhills managed to out-last Cypress Creek 47 to 39 for second place.

"I'm excited to see what the girls do as we progress through the season," Hernandez said. "They all love it and we are closing the gap with Zephyrhills."

For the Bulldogs, it was relying on some veteran grit and upstart surprises. Rinaldo only has seven returners of his 27-member squad. Sophomore Bella Patrias, in the 199-Class, took first place, scoring a big seven points for her team. She hit all three of her bench press lifts, topping out at 145, a personal best. She also hit her third try at 130 pounds on clean-and-jerk, for a composite score of 275, which edged out Pasco's Ashlee Cummings by 10 points.

"I felt like I was in over my head (in clean-and-jerk)," Patrias said. "I was definitely feeling some of the pressure of the moment."

Patrias also won her weight class in the snatch, a new power lift the FHSAA is testing out this season. The way it works this season is girls compete in the snatch as a separate event. The score does not compile with the bench and clean-and-jerk but exists on its own. A female lifter can win the state title in the snatch by itself.

Also ringing up a first-place win was Un-limited lifter Bri Padron. Padron compiled a 350 composite score, best of the whole meet but just five points better than Anastasia Marendia of Wiregrass Ranch. Padron hit all six of her lifts on Wednesday, setting a personal best of 175 on clean-and-jerk and matching her personal best on the bench with 175. She also won her weight class in the snatch.

The phenom at the meet was 101-Class Coyote lifter Andje Costa. Costa is not a rising star but rather a shooting star in girls high school weightlifting. She was third place at the 2021 state meet and with the top two finishers from that meet graduated, Costa looks poised to top the podium in 2022. Her stats are jaw dropping. She weighed in at 100.3 pounds and then won the snatch with a 105-pound lift - more than her own body weight and a mark that would have placed her third in the Unlimited weight class. She followed that up going 2-for-3 on her bench lifts, topping out at 110 and then trying three times to get 140 on clean-and-jerk and finally getting it on her third attempt. It pushed her composite score way out to 250, 15 points ahead of the runner up in her weight class.

"I was hoping to beat my own conference record of 145 (on clean-and-jerk), which is why I came in at 140," Costa said. "But then I wasn't even able to get up from my squat. (By the third attempt) I figured it was my senior year and I wanted to be conference champ and so I decided to just get it over with."

Costa got some help from teammate Sienna Silvest, who racked up a 240 composite score to win the 110-Class.

"She (Silvest) is a determined girl," Hernandez said. "She is a perfectionist with weightlifting, the way she takes care of her teammates and the way she handles her schoolwork. She is the current valedictorian in her class."

The Bulldogs managed to keep just ahead of the Coyotes thanks to stout performances from Payton Leidy, Sharibel Vazquez, Autumn Spoon, Kailyn Miller, Kennedy Arnot and Bail-ee Hitchner. Morgan Stewart won the 154-Class for Wiregrass Ranch with a score of 280 and hitting all six of her lifts.

"Morgan (Stewart) is a fantastic and hard-working young lady," Wiregrass Ranch coach Mark Kantor said.

Alyssa Mero took third in the 110-Class for the Pirates. Sophomore Aubrey Vaile for Wesley Chapel took third in the 139-Class. Her older sister Vicky Vaile tied for second in the 119-Class. All eyes now turn to the Jan. 19 district meet at Zephyrhills where the Bulldogs, Wildcats, Coyotes and Pirates will all test their mettle to see who will advance to regionals.

East defeats West 21-6 in all-star football game

Zephyrhills running backs get all three touchdowns with Cypress Creek kicker converting three extra points

The Seventh Annual Fellowship of Christian Athletes East-West All-Star Football Classic was dominated by the East team, which defeated the West 21-6. The East, which had lost two straight all-star games, leads the all-time series 4-3.

Zephyrhills running backs accounted for all three touchdowns. Jalen Thomas had two scoring runs and Willie Queen ran for another touchdown. Thomas' first score, a 10-yard run into the left corner of the end zone, capped a game-opening 10-play, 75-yard drive. His second, a 4-yarder, gave the East a 14-6 halftime lead.

Queen, who often split time with Thomas in the Zephyrhills backfield during this past season, had a 30-yard touchdown run up the middle in the third quarter to give the East side a 21-6 lead that held up for the final score.

Afterward, Zephyrhills coach Nick Carroll was ecstatic that those two runners played well in the all-star game.

"I was really happy for those guys, considering we didn't play so hot in the playoffs" he said, alluding to the Bulldogs' early ouster in the postseason. "It was pretty good for those guys to go out with a win."

Actually, Carroll and Thomas will share one more game on a football field as both have been selected to be a part of next week's Florida Athletic Coaches Association All-Star game at The Villages.

"It'll be fun. I'll get to coach (Thomas) one more time," said Carroll, adding that the county all-star game played at Sunlake "was a good time. I had fun."

The East might have had more points if not for penalties that negated four touchdowns — all involving Cypress Creek players. That prompted chants of "Coyotes jinx" from the sidelines.

Cypress Creek quarterback Owen Walls had a pair of apparent scoring passes to teammates Dontrell Clerkley and Dernere Jones called back on offensive interference penalties. Additionally, touchdown runs by Cypress Creek's Kione Roberson were negated by holding calls on the offense.

"I'm super proud of our guys the way they competed and the way they prepared for the game," said Cypress Creek coach Mike Johnson, who handled special teams for the East side. "Including those four plays I think they played well. At the end of the day, you can only control what you can control."

At least one Cypress Creek player, however, got on the scoreboard. Colton Carrao converted all three extra-point kicks after touchdowns by the pair of Zephyrhills running backs.

Aside from a highly productive offense, the East side got some impressive play from a swarming defense. Among the top defenders were Wesley Chapel Ayden Roysdon, Zephyrhills' Theotis Smith and Pasco's Javon Jeune. They were all linebackers. Roysdon had a pair of sacks and a handful of tackles at or near the line of scrimmage with Smith and Jeune coming up with pivotal interceptions to stop drives by the West team.

"He should be the defensive most valuable player," Wesley Chapel coach Tony Egan said of Roysdon.

The East all-stars also included: Zephyrhills — Jaxson Rivera, T.J. Jackson, Tymar Mckever, Maguire Neal and Nick Sheldon; Zephyrhills Christian Academy — Austin Henderson, Dontrevius Jackson, Adrian Miller, Donnie Lloyd, Reggie Pry and Demetri Whitehead; Pasco — Ethan Ayo, Elijah Chilbert and Cody Tadlock; Cypress Creek — Andrew Burgess; Wesley Chapel — Jaylen Blake, Dylan Chana, Sebastian Gutierrez, Nehemiah Morgan, Ethan Harper, Jordan McCaslin Briac Riles and Tony Szlatino; and Wiregrass Ranch — Abram Beer, Nate Kidd, Christian Loaiza, Steven Prevau, Logan Ridolph and Tucker Schwab.

All-Star cheerleaders also were selected. For the East, that group included: Zephyrhills — Emily Kirk and Madison Long; Pasco's Haley Enea and Kylie Weiser; Cypress Creek — Faith Welling and Campbell Young; Wesley Chapel — Arianna Kiser and Dehlia Lusier; Wiregrass Ranch — Alexis Burns and Chloe Gilligan.

Russell Guynn, Family of God's pastor, noted that many Richland Baptist members have spread out to other area churches as the years have gone by. Hence the need to come together to keep such a warm tradition alive.

"It's pretty awesome," said Guynn, whose wife Martha is a big help and whose son Rusty coaches the Zephyrhills High baseball team. "We're united together for the right cause. It's kind of a homecoming, so to speak."

One of those original members taking part in the mock village presentation while roleplaying several different characters over the years was Lamar White, who is now with Calvary Baptist. Last weekend, he dressed as a guide to give guests a tour of Bethlehem as it appeared ages ago.

"There's not a whole lot of difference," he said in comparing the current construction materials of wooden structures with cloth similar to what farmers use for their crops, as well as various props at tables. "The city's pretty much the same, the script's the same. The message is the story of Christmas."

That, people learn as they progress through the village, leads to baby Jesus. White's daughter Rachel was placed in swaddling clothing to portray the first baby Jesus and, like her father, has played numerous roles over the years. Last year, she served as a guide.

This year, baby Jesus was Kali Patterson's son Kaden, who is just six months old. Kali portrayed the virgin Mary while her friend, Cullen Bazzell, was Joseph.

In all, about 75 volunteers took part in the reenactment with many having been involved for years. Like Jacob Holloway, a 2019 Pasco High graduate who enjoys playing a shepherd that oversees live sheep in a gated wooden pen.

Near the end of the tour visitors were greeted by the three wise men, who were played by David Barnett, Walter Singletary and Dennis Grimsley. The two next steps carry special meaning to the organizers with large stakes driven into the ground representing Jesus dying on the cross, along a tomb with a large slab rolled to the side to reveal the resurrection of the lord.

A long table in a large tent was the final stop. There, visitors were greeted by several pastors and church members. Among that group was the Bissell couple, Steve and Marcie, who are Christians and have been married for 47 years. They also have a so-called cowboy ministry they spread at rodeos.

The Bissells say they help newcomers and return visitors alike fill out response cards and are there to answer questions about the tour or Jesus as well as provide other information.
