Christmas Parade is cause for a downtown celebration

Children wave to the crowd from the Crossroads Pentacostal Church float during Saturday night's downtown parade.

Festival of Lights and accompanying parade represent most recent event hosted by Main Street Zephyrhills

By STEVE LEE
News Reporter

Within the past year, Main Street Zephyrhills has helped with the downtown revival. The non-profit organization has organized Music & Motorcycles, Halloween Howl and partnered with the Fraternal Order of Eagles Aerie 3752 on last month's Veterans Parade. The biggest and most notable event, however, occurred Saturday when Main Street Zephyrhills helped to bring back the Festival of Lights highlighted by the annual Christmas Parade down 5th Avenue. More people lined the downtown streets for the festival and parade than any of the other previous events.

For Faith Wilson, Main Street's coordinator, it marked her first festival and parade at Christmas-time. Last year's event was cancelled due to the coronavirus pandemic and she was hired this summer.

"I didn't have any expectations, because I had never been," said Wilson, crediting the organizational skills of what primarily is a new board of directors as well as the volunteer efforts of her son, 11-year-old Bryce. "We all came together and it came out spectacular."

The theme of this year's festival was a Candyland Christmas and it included the traditional tree lighting and visit from Santa Claus. In all, the parade listed 52 entrants and there were 66 vendors set up in the downtown corridor.

"I'm blown away by the talent of all the parade participants," Wilson said. "They were so creative."

Maryanne and Edward Royster, a retired couple from Michigan who spent their winters in Zephyrhills, said they usually come down to Florida after Thanksgiving. Attending the Christmas parade is among several events they enjoy coming to.

"We like seeing all the young people on the floats."

Take a Christmas Stroll at AdventHealth Zephyrhills

Hospital's annual tradition begins with festive opening and runs nightly through Dec. 11

By STEVE LEE
News Reporter

The annual Christmas Stroll has returned following a one-year hiatus due to the coronavirus pandemic. It kicked off Sunday night in front of AdventHealth Zephyrhills and will continue nightly, 6-9 p.m., through Dec. 11.

A walk along the fitness trail on a hill in front of the hospital featured holiday decorations — the general public was welcome to decorate several trees along the circular pathway — oversized Christmas cards and enlarged plastic winter characters such as reindeer and snowmen.

Music and lights also were part of the fun-filled, family celebration with hot chocolate and cookies doled out. There was even a visit from Santa Claus, who sat in a horse-drawn carriage.

"This is an amazing event," said Leah Scott, who runs St. Petersburg Carriages and takes part in numerous holiday events throughout the Tampa Bay area. "You can definitely feel the joy here. With the volunteers it's a very well organized event."

Serving as emcee of the event in place of Amanda Maggard, AdventHealth Zephyrhills' president and chief executive officer, was Jason Newmyer. Formerly the vice president of administration at the neighboring AdventHealth Dade City, he is now the president and chief executive officer at AdventHealth Riverview.

"I'm honored to do it," said Newmyer, who welcomed visitors before symbolically flipping a switch to light a large Christmas tree placed in the center of the walking path on the front lawn. "The last two years have been very trying for our community and our staff."

Sunday night's event was planned, Newmyer noted, "so we could enjoy a tradition that brings us joy and brings us together." "I like the decorations and the holiday spirit," said Elijah Kolthoff, a 13-year-old from Zephyrhills who along with his 6-year-old brother Zach stopped along the path to view a Christmas tree.

Another family passed by, echoing that sentiment. William and Katherine Smith stopped by the trees and visited Santa with their children; Austin, 5, Grace, 3, and 2-year-old Melody.

"It's nice for the kids," Katherine Smith said. Added Angela Schaberg, who came with her sister Tabitha Bosley and niece Emma Woodruff, "I think it's super cool. It's family oriented."

While some were thrilled that the stroll returned for this winter holiday season, others expressed disappointment with the scaled-down version. The stroll had included Christmas trees representing every state with live music and fireworks on occasion. Those facets were not part of this year's festivities.

"I don't think it's near what it used to be," said Angela Harrison, who came with her daughters, Zephyrhills High junior Serenity and 4-year-old Kyaira. "The tradition's lost."

Many people accepted free ornaments at a table manned by hospital volunteers Barbara Erdman and Gladys Rojas. Some placed them on trees along the path and others took them home. Either way, Erdman said, "Everybody's taking them."

Kyle was extremely intelligent and empathetic. He was a gifted athlete who played soccer, football, and other sports for various leagues in the area. Kyle was a shade-tree mechanic and helped anyone he could with their vehicles, he called it OJT. Kyle's musical talent was pure magic. Friends and family spent hours listening to him picking and singing. He mastered "Stairway to Heaven" when he was 13 years old and was a big Stevie Ray Vaughn fan. He had his entire family wrapped around his finger with his beautiful blue eyes and his sense of humor. He learned sign language several years ago and loved signing with kids. Kyle had a good soul. The Good Lord is listening to that guitar wailing now along with many others gone before who loved him. Heaven has received a gift. Blues Child Kyle will be sorely missed by everyone who knew him. The Greatest Story Every Told

*From the Manger to the Cross,
We have eternity in Heaven as a free gift of God,
Because of what my Saviour lost.*

*The cruelty of the Calvary Cross
Took the life of my Saviour, and Satan thought he had the victory;*

*But my Saviour's life was actually given,
Because He was keeping in His Father's favor.*

*Nothing can be added to the Cross,
Because everything was taken away,
All the sin in this world, all the sin of you and I,
Was covered by the Precious blood
my Redeemer shed that day.*

*The victory Satan thought he had attained, Was only in his mind,
For Before the foundation of this world, The salvation of Saul was planned;
To be an Apostle with the new name of Paul,
And deliver the Dispensation of the Grace of God,
The free gift of Salvation to all!*

*From the Manger to the Cross,
To that Tomb so bleak and so cold, He has risen and lives for us,
Believe this true Story of Christ's Love for you,
And God will impart His "free gift" of "eternal life in heaven's glory" to you!
Then "Your Salvation – in Christ" is part of the Greatest Story ever told! Amen!*

SALOME'S STARS ★★★★★

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Make your holiday preparations one step at a time in order to avoid being overwhelmed and leaving things undone. That confusing family situation continues to work itself out.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Ease this year's holiday money pressures by letting your thrifty side guide you as you look for those perfect gifts that typically reflect your good taste and love of beauty.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) You'll have a good handle on potential holiday problems if you delegate tasks to family members, friends or co-workers -- most of whom will be more than happy to help out.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Right now you are especially vulnerable to holiday scams that seek to take advantage of your generosity. Best advice: Check them out before you send out your checks.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) The upcoming holiday season gives the Big Cat much to purr about. Relationships grow stronger, and new opportunities loom on the horizon, just waiting to be pounced on.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) A changing situation brings conflicting advice about how to go forward with your holiday plans. Your best bet: Make the decision you feel most comfortable with.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Holiday plans get back on track after some confusion about the direction you expected to take. A potentially troublesome money matter needs your immediate attention.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Your holiday preparations are on track. But you need to confront a personal situation while you can still keep it from overwhelming everything else.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Tight financial matters ease a bit during this holiday season. But the sagacious Sagittarian is well-advised to keep a tight hold on the reins while shopping for gifts.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Don't put off making decisions about this year's holiday celebrations, despite the negative comments you've been getting from several quarters. Do it NOW!

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) The holidays will bring new friends and new opportunities. Meanwhile, be careful to use your energy wisely as you go about making holiday preparations.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) There's good news coming from a most unlikely source. And it could turn out to be one of the best holiday gifts you have had in years. Remember to stay positive.

BORN THIS WEEK: You are respected for your honesty and loyalty. You make friends slowly -- but with rare exceptions, they're in your life forever.

Zephyrhills wins two-day tourney hosted by the Bulls

Wiregrass Ranch plans on making an annual tradition of new Hillsborough-Pasco wrestling format

By STEVE LEE
Sports Reporter

For many years, several of Pasco County's more competitive high school wrestling teams have taken part in an early-season tournament hosted by East Lake, which featured Pasco and Pinellas schools.

Last year's competition, however, was cancelled due to the coronavirus pandemic and East Lake opted not to continue that series for this year. No problem for Wiregrass Ranch coach Jamey Ketter, who eagerly put together an inaugural dual meet for teams from Hillsborough and Pasco counties.

The move to form the Pasco-Hillsborough Duals stems from a realignment by the Florida High School Athletic Association that now has Pasco and Hillsborough teams squaring off more than in years past.

"It only makes sense that Pasco schools wrestle the Hillsborough schools," he said, adding, "I'm going to try to keep it here at Wiregrass Ranch. We're trying to build our program and this is another good opportunity to bring wrestling into the Wesley Chapel area."

"I love that (coach) Ketter put this on, because we never really see Hillsborough teams," said Jackson Hudson, a 160-pounder who wrestles for Cypress Creek.

Zephyrhills' Mike Martinez was among several local coaches who looked forward to the new format. Even more so afterward since Zephyrhills won. The Bulldogs went 6-0 to finish ahead of runner-up Hudson and up-and-coming team.

"I couldn't be more proud of this group," Martinez said. "They're stubborn and love challenges, just like Bulldogs should be. 'It's going to be a fun season. I think (the Hillsborough-Pasco format is) great. I always felt we've got some good wrestlers in this area. This will be another way to build it up."

Cypress Creek and host Wiregrass Ranch finished third and fourth, respectively, to give Pasco teams the top four spots. The highest finish for a Hillsborough squad was fifth-place Bell Creek, a private school in Tampa. King, Tampa Prep and Spoto rounded out the field by finishing sixth-eighth.

Individually, five Bulldogs did not lose a match. Jaiden Martinez went 6-0 with five pins and a 7-1 decision in the 145-pound weight class. At 170, Idael Reyes had five pins and a win by forfeit. Theotis Smith, a 220-pounder had four pins with two forfeit victories. Dalton Arrington and Gabriel Gulay each had three pins at 182 and 113, respectively.

Wiregrass Ranch had three undefeated wrestlers who went 6-0 in Devin Lanier, 120; Donovan Eury, 126; and Roman Sanchez, 138.

Last weekend's two-day tourney also included a girls division with Ketter citing an increased interest among that group. That proved to be true with more than 30 girls competing after the boys division was completed.

Two girls from Zephyrhills wrestled last weekend, but not at Wiregrass Ranch. Kohana Martinez, the coach's daughter, and Anesha Gonzalez opted to compete in the Clash of Titans all-girls division in Orlando. Kohana won the 100-pound weight class, but Gonzalez, a relative newcomer, did not place among the leaders.

A touching part of the tourney came during a break in the action when Wiregrass Ranch wrestler Steven Ochs, a senior who wrestles at 152 and is in his second season, made an announcement that he committed to enlisting in the U.S. Marine Corps.

"They just offered a great opportunity," said Ochs, who plans to pursue a culinary degree and be a chef.

"There's still an inherent level of patriotism in this generation," said staff Sgt. Connor Mitchell, a recruiter based in Wesley Chapel.

In a different dual meet, Zephyrhills Christian Academy won five of seven team matches. The Warriors posted victories over Wesley Chapel, Nature Coast, Citrus, Brooksville Central and Anclote.

We like the marching bands," Maryanne said. "She always wants to see the big tree at that mall too," added Edward, alluding to the Symphony In Lights with the huge tree on display at The Shops at Wiregrass.

"We're excited for the parade and we're excited for the Grinch," she said.

Janelle Van Ness, who came from Lakeland with her two sons to enjoy the festival, said she missed last year's parade but was glad it has been revived.

"I took the boys to it the year before and they really liked it," she said.

Jonathan, 9, said his favorite part was "getting candy" from various parade participants who threw candy out to the crowds that aligned the downtown corridor.

Alexander, 6, revealed his favorite part of the festivities when he exclaimed, "Santa! There's Santa!"

Sure enough, there was Santa Claus, sitting high up in an old city fire truck driven by retired Zephyrhills Fire Department employee Dale Barnett.

When the parade concluded, awards were given in nine categories. Winners included: Best in Show, Renewed Life; Best Theme, Academy of Spectrum Diversity; Most Original, Corazal; Best Costume, Helen's Baton and Dance; Best Walking Unit, Zephyrhills High Marching Band; Best Automobile, Chuck Ropolo; Best Business, Wee Care; Best Club, Moose Lodge; Best Organization, Crossroads Church.

After the parade, there were some gifts doled out at A.O.K., the arcade and sports bar that includes axe throwing. Joe Lancaster, recounting how his family did not have much when he was young and relied on gifts from others, founded The Giving Tree. That foundation gave out a dozen Christmas trees and dozen meals to those in need.

Pioneer Christmas kicks off holiday season in Dade City

The annual Christmas event at the Pioneer Florida Museum & Village opened the door to a host of holiday activities in Dade City

By ANDY WARRENER
News Reporter

Previously billed as the Country Christmas & Vintage Market, the Pioneer Florida Museum & Village in Dade City launched into the holiday season of festivities with their Dec. 4 Pioneer Christmas & Vintage Market, a minor moniker change from the annual tradition. "The change from Country Christmas to Pioneer Christmas was to clarify or brand the event," Museum Executive Director Stephanie Black said. "It seemed a little confusing because there's a Country Christmas Stroll downtown (on the same day) and a few other Country Christmas events throughout the area. I just wanted to be more clear that the event is at the Pioneer Florida Museum."

The 2021 installment featured some of the traditional favorites that attendees are used to being able to enjoy - the pony rides, arts and crafts, as well as 50 cent games for the kids. This event featured some new entertainment options. Gigi & Friends, a variety entertainment show, bedazzled guests with a circus-styled act that included audience participation, games and singing. The Zephyrhills High School Encore Chorus lit up the museum grounds with sound as they sang Christmas carols in the 1905 Enterprise Church.

Some new attractions were there, as well. Lisa Judge of Florida Skunk Rescue occupied the Citrus Stage at the museum and was one of the more popular attractions on Saturday.

"These are domestic skunks that are bred and sold in exotic pet stores," Judge said. "It's the same process as a dog or cat rescue, we try to re-home them and also do outreach at schools and other events. Events like this bring in donations that help with the animals' medical needs as well as raise awareness."

Don't worry, the skunks' scent glands are removed. They are also spayed or neutered. Judge says that they make great pets and can be trained to use pee pads. In the State of Florida, skunks are permitted as long as the owner has a Class 3 permit. Other states do not allow this and that's how many skunks fall into the care of Florida Skunk Rescue.

A couple of other newcomers to the vintage market were Peg Ostrenko and James Geores. The duo combined for a booth entitled Peg's Plants and James' Styles - a booth that included pottery, hand-made holiday centerpieces and "every darned thing" Ostrenko and Geores are also volunteers at the museum, Ostrenko helping with the landscaping design and Geores doing much of the holiday decorating around the museum grounds. Geores is also Ostrenko's hair stylist.

"James has a love and appreciation of all things decor," Ostrenko said. "He's also my hair stylist, so I know he has a sense of taste."

The pair were delighted to see all the guests turned out to enjoy the holiday event.

"You can see how popular this is," Ostrenko said. "The number of happy vendors, lots of families, retirees, Army reservists and special needs children - it's fun to see so many people participate."

The Zephyrhills High School Future Farmers of America (FFA) brought out a petting zoo to help raise awareness and donations for their efforts in the community.

"This is a great experience for our animals to get socialized and used to people touching them," agriculture teacher at Zephyrhills Renee Carpenter said. "It also helps our students advocate about agriculture."

Museum photographer Laura Barthle was on-hand taking free photos in front of a handsome James Geores creation in front of the Blanton Packing House.

"I love capturing that moment of innocence, marking the moment," Barthle said. "I encourage the parents to stand with their kids and when they get the photo to print it out."

Event attendees Jeffrey and Joan Decapua of Land O' Lakes were having a grand time at the event.

"We love country-style living, anything like that we enjoy doing," Jeffrey Decapua said. "You get to see the old days mixed in with the new time."

Joan Decapua got to spend some time with museum volunteer Marilynn Ory in the Loom Room of the Summer Building.

"I'm amazed at how smart people were back then," Joan Decapua said. "Those people managed to live off the land and make the things they needed."

Raeven Harris of Dade City brought along her little ones - Hunter, Tylee and Little Ren.

"We come to these events because we like the old time setting, especially Hunter," Harris said. "Hunter loves the things inside - the old guns, maps and model train sets."

Ronald Lalovel of Dade City enjoyed taking his family to the event as well.

"This one was a lot better than two years ago," Lalovel said. "There were lots of vendors and activities for kids - it was an all around good time."

Pasco Middle routs Stewart 9-1

The well-prepared Pirates dealt a lopsided defeat to a depleted Bulldog squad at Zephyrhills High School last Thursday

By ANDY WARRENER
News Reporter

The Pirates were able to take advantage of the right side of the Bulldog defense and it was not long before Christian Montes added a goal to make it 2-0.

The Pirates controlled the action through most of the first 12 minutes, putting near-constant pressure on the Stewart goal. Rangel came near to scoring again, blasting a shot dead center that sailed over the crossbar. Moments later, Juan Carols Sanchez would put one away from more than 20 yards out to make it 3-0.

The Pirates were right back on the attack, Montes driving into the 18-yard box and sending a high shot just under the crossbar for a 4-0 lead. Again, the Pirates were on the move, putting pressure on the Bulldog goal. Sanchez, then slipped a shot far post just minutes later to make it 5-0.

Then the Bulldogs got another unlucky break. They got whistled for a foul inside the 18-yard box and Benicio Leos buried the penalty kick to make it 6-0. Just moments later, Rangel battled through the Bulldog defense and finished off a flurry inside the 18-yard box and made it 7-0.

The Bulldogs looked to be teetering on the brink of a first-half mercy ruling. That's when they finally flipped the field with Kobe Ten Brink pushing deep into Pirate territory and getting a shot off. It won a free kick that was on target but saved by Pasco keeper Sergio Velasquez. This opened up into the first half water break.

half as Faris Al-Khafaji pushed a shot wide and followed it up with another shot, again pushing it just wide of the post. The Bulldogs won a 30-yard free kick that they put on target but again, it was saved by Velasquez. The Bulldogs would survive the first half.

"We had to give our goalkeeper (Trent Priestley) props," Bulldog coach Beatriz Padilla said. "Both our keepers were out today and Priestley stepped up for us."

The Bulldogs were happy to have survived the first half and came out firing in the second. Just minutes in, Andre Brown floated a shot over a group of defenders for a goal that made it 7-1 and staved off the mercy ruling temporarily. The Bulldogs missed a golden opportunity moments later, pushing a penalty kick over the crossbar. Pasco pounced.

Jackson Dietsch fought off multiple defenders to win an open look at the net. He sunk it, making the score 8-1. Just moments later, Rangel would deliver the coup-de-grace on a fast break to make it 9-1 and call the end of the match.

The Pirates now finish out the season against John Long and Centennial, their only loss this season coming at the hands of Weightman. They are technically still in the hunt for the Conference title.

"Weightman was our first game of the year, they were really good but we've been getting better," Herndon said.

The Bulldogs are in a different phase, just trying to hold together and build for the future. "Our objective is to come out and have fun," Padilla said. "We've improved so much from where we started the season."

Winter camps, tournaments, activities in full swing at SVB

By ANDY WARRENER
News Reporter

As the temperature drops (finally!) and friends and families get together, the Sarah Vande Berg Tennis & Wellness Center is stepping up to offer some holiday cheer and a host of activities. In case you missed it, SVB just hosted a four-day Thanksgiving Tennis Camp. It ran from Nov. 22-24 and the 26.

"SVB has coaches for this camp from France, Sudan, New Zealand, all together nine different nationalities are represented," SVB CEO Pascal Collard said. "One of our coaches coached the Brazilian bronze medalist and another was top star John Isner's coach for many years."

The camp is an opportunity for youths of all age levels to get exposure to and coaching from some of the top names in the sport. There is a daily schedule for both academy players and non-academy players that includes a fitness program, followed by tennis training, then an hour lunch break followed by point play or a regular match. The training portion of the camps is taught by former NFL player Mel Williams.

The camp offers both full-week and daily, "drop-in" rates as well as a lineup of activities from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. Missed that one? No problem, SVB's Winter Break Tennis Camp is two weeks long. The first runs from Dec. 20 to 24 and the second from Dec. 27 to 31. Again, the full day of activity as well as weekly and daily rates apply. To get signed up, visit app.svbtenniscenter.com, the SVB website or even just call (813) 361-6660. Do it quickly because the Thanksgiving camp was filled almost to capacity.

If your youth tennis player is looking for some competition, SVB is hosting some tennis tournaments in December. December 12 is a UTR or Universal Tennis Ranking match tournament. UTR is an international ranking system that allows both male and female youth players to be matched appropriately in tournaments.

"UTR makes sure that when a draw is made, the kids are all at the same level," Collard said. "For instance, if you have a mixed boys and girls tournament, you know that a female eight-point-five is the same level as a male eight-point-five."

The youth tournaments are split up into two sections, a green dot and a red dot. These refer to a shrinking down of both the court and the racquet for players under 10 years of age. The green and red dots are painted on the balls and denote a level of inflation or deflation of the ball in order to control the bounce and make it more appropriate to the smaller player and smaller court. The tournaments are open to the public. If you've been thinking about entering your young one and would like to check it out, this is a great opportunity.

"You can come and watch from the terrace, drink and eat under the umbrella and watch your kids," Collard said. "A lot of parents will go and get a massage while their kids play."

Next up is the UTR Match Play for ratings 3.0 to 7.0 starts Dec. 12 and the season concludes on Dec. 19 for the USTA Level 7 Boys/Girls group. The Dec. 12 tournament will feature Brunch with Santa by SVB's very own Vesh Bistro. The 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. brunch will feature live saxophone music and a "build your own cookie" bar.

"SVB is well-known for its brunch, it's always packed for the occasion," Collard said. "For the December brunch we decided to do something a little bit different by bringing in a costumed Santa and some other seasonal options. It should be a little of everything."

Reservations for the brunch can be made at veshcatering.com or by calling (877) 909-8374.

Sheriff's Newsletter

Gift card safety

Gift cards are both highly requested and convenient for holiday shoppers. Some retailers offer gift cards digitally, removing the physical card. Unfortunately, with all the positives, gift cards create an ideal opportunity for scammers. The Pasco Sheriff's Office wants to help you spot and avoid potential gift card scams this holiday season.

Carefully inspect gift cards before you purchase a balance on them. A scam often starts before a card is activated. Gift cards stored near the register and under security camera coverage are less likely with which to be tampered. Carefully review cards and packaging for signs of tampering or exposure. Scammers can take a photo or write down card numbers and check the balance later, searching for cards with an activated amount. If the PIN is exposed on a gift card, notify a store representative and choose an untampered card on which to load funds. Be mindful of replacement stickers that may cover security codes, look for scratches to the card beyond the security strip.

Buy gift cards directly from the retailer and online purchases are best. Direct purchases require fewer transfers of funds resulting in more stringent security. Online retailers mail the gift card directly to you, preventing any access to the purchase codes and PIN. In addition, your receipt from the retailer for the gift card has a direct verification to validate your purchase. As a bonus, stores sometimes offer incentives when you purchase a specific amount. Never buy gift cards from an auction or community website. Resale sites are often a traffic source for stolen, fraudulent or already used gift cards.

Save receipts after the purchase of a gift card. Consider taking a photo of your receipt. You can email that photo to yourself for record-keeping if you fear you may lose the receipt. If you fall victim to a scam, your receipt can validate the original ownership and value of the gift card. In addition, the company's direct purchase of a gift card offers enhanced transaction information such as purchase location, activation and any use of the gift card.

If you receive a gift card, treat it like you would a debit card. Using a gift card quickly helps eliminate potential threats. Change the security code as quickly as possible to something unique only you will know. Check the company's website to see if you can create an account. This feature can help protect your credit value as well as the risk of misplacement or theft. If available, register your gift card online with the company. Some large retailers realize the potential lost or stolen gift card and the opportunity to combine the balance of several cards onto one. At the same time, when you register your gift card, check for the availability to report a scam online through the retailer. Online fraud reporting will avoid a long wait on the phone to speak with the fraud department and easily save confirmation or claim numbers.

Taking a bit of extra caution with your gift cards this holiday season will help prevent gift card scams.

HOW TO WRITE A GOOD CLASSIFIED AD

Make the heading short - a short heading should have 2 to 4 words and will capture the reader's attention without clutter and confusion.

Start your ad with the merchandise you are selling - starting with the merchandise makes it easier for the reader to locate your item(s) for sale.

Always include the price of the item you are selling - 52% of classified readers do not respond to ads that do not include a price.

Make it easy for readers to understand - abbreviations and technical terms are sometimes difficult for readers to comprehend.

Place yourself in the reader's position - ask what you would like to know about the merchandise for sale. Include information such as brand names, colors and other specific descriptions.

Always include contact information - including your phone number will give the readers confidence that your item is legitimate and give them the option of contacting you for more information.

insurmountable 52-39 lead was Preston Linville. The sophomore shooting guard, who wound up with a game-high 27 points, made four 3-point shots in the third.

"He got it going on there," Novak said of Linville's clutch shooting.

Zephyrhills' other scorer in double figures was Jimmy Mcauley, a senior guard who had 14 points.

Wesley Chapel relied mostly on two players. Trey Murray had a team-leading 26 points and Jaden Loudon added 23. Both are senior guards who shoulder most of the scoring load for the Wildcats.

Unlike the season opener against the Coyotes in which the Bulldogs pulled away with a 9-0 run to end the game after two ties in the fourth quarter, there was no such late push against the Wildcats. Novak emptied his bench in the waning minutes as the lead grew to 20 points.

Before the varsity game, the Zephyrhills JV improved to 2-0 with a 48-20 defeat of Wesley Chapel.

Darryl Vereen scored a game-high 13 points to lead two Bulldogs in double figures. Eli Williams added 10 points with Jakobe Campbell adding seven.

an average of five per quarter left Zephyrhills JV coach J.T. Kirk impressed with the job his team did on defense.

"I couldn't be happier in that regard," he said, adding, "Offensively, we're still coming along."

Leo DiCaprio

HOLLYWOOD -- If you're Leonardo DiCaprio, how do you top starring with Jennifer Lawrence in Netflix sci-fi drama "Don't Look Up" (due Dec. 24) and with Robert DeNiro in Martin Scorsese's $200 million "Killer of the Flower Moon" (for Paramount+ and Apple TV)? Star, produce and play cult leader Jim Jones, who, in Jonestown, Guyana, on Nov. 18, 1978, fatally poisoned 900 followers and himself with cyanide-laced Flavor Aid. DiCaprio turned 47 on Nov. 11, the same age as Jim Jones when he died.

Aaron Sorkin's film about Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz, "Being the Ricardos," for Amazon will have the emphasis on drama, not comedy. Oscar-winners Nicole Kidman and Javier Bardem are Lucy and Desi, and it covers Lucy's investigation by the FBI for registering to vote as a Communist in 1936 (to please her ailing grandfather) and her struggles in convincing CBS to hire Desi as Ricky so she could keep him from galivanting all over the globe with his band ... and female fans. Oscar-winner J.K. Simmons and Nina Arianda play Fred and Ethel Mertz. The film opens in theaters Dec. 10 and starts streaming Dec. 21 via Prime Video. Next, Kidman reunites with her "Big Little Lies" husband, Alexander Skarsgard, in the historical thriller "The North Man," starring Bjork and Ethan Hawke, out April 8.

Gal Gadot was thrilled when original 1970s TV "Wonder Woman" Lynda Carter, now 70, played Asteria, the greatest Amazon Warrior in Greek mythology. She confessed, "Lynda has mentored me from the first moment I was cast as Wonder Woman. She's a true champion of what I've been doing." Carter will be back for the third edition of "Wonder Woman." Gadot hit screens Nov. 5 in "Red Notice," with Ryan Reynolds and Dwayne Johnson, and is upcoming in "Death on the Nile," out Feb. 11.

Here's a new one for you. More than 21,000 fans of the Broadway musical "Wicked" have signed a petition pleading with Universal Studios, which is making the film version, that "James Cordon in no way, shape or form be in or near the production of the movie." Cordon has a way of insinuating himself into movie musicals such as "Into the Woods," "Cats," "Cinderella" (which he also produced) playing a mouse, and Ryan Murphy's film of Broadway's "The Prom," with Meryl Streep. Cordon was singled out in Vanity Fair's review, which said, "Cordon, flitting and lipping around in the most uninspired of caricatures, misses all potential for nuance and thus never finds even a hint of truth in the role." Maybe he should stick to his late-night talk show instead of playing "Cats" and mouse with film audiences!
