Meet the crew at The Zephyrhills News

Here are the people behind the scenes of your local weekly newspaper

By STEVE LEE
News Reporter

As we all embark on the new year with family, friends and various events intertwined in our lives we at The Zephyrhills News are taking time in this edition to introduce ourselves to newcomers and get re-acquainted with those we already are involved with.

The community newspaper, which at 110 years is the oldest of its kind in the Sunshine State, continues to cover all aspects of the local scene and spread the word about our loyal advertisers and their products.

Being in the people business as such, here are brief looks at our people. It all starts with publisher/editor Jan Linville, who has kept the newspaper intact since the passing of her late husband Danny two years ago.

"I am looking forward to the new year with our winter residents returning and are in full swing at the mobile home parks," she said.

Linville also is proud of her son Jeffrey Hawes, a legislative assistant for state representative Randy Maggard who recently got engaged to his girlfriend Lauren Whitley, a Chester Taylor Elementary teacher.

"I'm especially proud of him and I'm glad that he's helping the people in the area," she said.

Linville's sister Cindy DeMatteo is the accounting manager. She has been married to her husband Phil for 43 years and has a daughter Angela and granddaughter Lyla, who was born in August.

"It's a small-town newspaper and my younger sister is the boss. It's good," she said.

Advertising sales manager Theresa LeBlanc welcomes the role of helping local business people prosper.

"2021 was definitely a year of many challenges and growing pains," she said. "We all faced so much, but I strive to be positive and look forward to a happy, healthy 2022."

Dalton King, a Zephyrhills High senior, pins wings on his brother Matt, who recently graduated from airborne school at Fort Benning, Georgia.

LeBlanc is married to Shane, the city's public works director. They have a 22-year-old daughter Jade and 4-year-old granddaughter Aalayah.

"She's a pistol; full of energy," LeBlanc said, adding that her granddaughter is "God's greatest gift."

While there have been occasional contributions from others the two journalists are Steve Lee and Andy Warrener, who like LeBlanc previously spent time working for daily newspapers.

Lee, who relocated to Bradenton where he lives with his wife Ginger, still relishes covering a wide array of sports and news in east and central Pasco.

Bulldogs' unbeaten streak ends

Zephyrhills loses in Nature Coast Classic final to an Ohio team, thus halting a season-opening nine-game winning streak

By STEVE LEE
Sports Reporter

Sooner or later the season-opening unbeaten streak for the Zephyrhills boys basketball team was bound to come to an end. That impressive run concluded with a disheartening 73-49 to Brecksville-Broadview Heights of Ohio in the championship game of the Nature Coast Classic.

Zephyrhills (9-1 overall, 3-0 in Class 5A, District 6) began this season with nine consecutive victories. That included 87-41 and 61-43 tournament wins over Tampa Jefferson and the host team from Brooksville, respectively, to set up the final matchup with the team from Ohio.

"They're a quality team and it just exposed the things we need to work on and get better at," Zephyrhills coach Mike Novak said of the game against the Ohio team. "It's just being consistent. To be good you've got to prove it every day."

The Bulldogs, who traditionally compete in the Nature Coast tourney during the winter break, skipped last year's series due to the coronavirus pandemic.

"It's a real well-run tournament and it's close by," Novak said. "You get to play some teams you never see."

In 2019, Zephyrhills defeated Alonso in the title game with Kevin Pagan being named the most valuable player. Pagan is now a senior forward for the Bulldogs. Pagan, who led Zephyrhills with 18 points in the final game, made the all-tournament team.

So did senior guard Jimmy Mcauley, who scored 14. The Bulldogs just missed having three players in double figures as Preston Linville, a sophomore shooting guard and the team's leading 3-point shooter, finished with nine points.

Zephyrhills has made the playoffs in seven of the past nine seasons, but missed out last year with a district semifinal loss. To make a deep postseason run this year, Novak repeated that the team must focus on becoming more consistent on the court and playing hard at all times.

As for last year's disappointing district

City awards co-employees of year for first time

Jessica Carter and Dennis Farr share the honors as top staff workers for the City of Zephyrhills

By STEVE LEE
News Reporter

A longstanding tradition among Zephyrhills municipal employees has been revived and altered a bit. Due to the ongoing effects of COVID-19 putting a damper on things last year, there was no Christmas party or accompanying employee of the year honored.

That changed this year.

In early December, city staff celebrated a Christmas party at Lange Farm and, not one but two employees of the year were chosen by a selection committee. Sharing the honor as co-employees of the year were Dennis Farr, a service worker in the water department, and finance supervisor Jessica Carter.

City manager Billy Poe, who was a member of that selection committee that made its choice among five nominees, said the co-employee of the year would be continued. "We did it a little bit different this year," he said. "We changed it up, because we have departments that are different sizes."

Poe said employees voted for the nominees and listed their reasons why.

Dennis Farr was among several city workers who recently worked on a local water main.

STEVE LEE

Above: Dennis Farr, a service worker in the water department, and finance supervisor Jessica Carter were named as the city's first-ever co-employees of the year during a recent city council meeting. City manager Billy Poe said from here on out the honor would be shared among two people rather than one like it had been.

"I think it went very well," he continued. "Both are awesome employees. The common theme was that they're both willing to jump into any situation and do what it takes to get the job done."

Aside from recognition at the city's Christmas party, Carter and Farr received plaques paying tribute to them, a paid day off and a free parking spot with their name on a sign for one year.

Finance director Ted Beason lauded Carter, as much for her job performance as her personality and optimistic outlook.

"Her attitude is superlative," he said. "I count myself fortunate every day that she's working for us."

Water superintendent C.J. Funnell had just as much praise for Farr, saying, "He's kind of a go-to guy. Everyone kind of looks up to him. He's got one of those personalities where he jokes around with the guys and keeps them going."

John Bostic, the utilities director, noted Farr's versatility. Although he is in the water department Farr has the qualifications to work on sewer lines as well.

"He's a hard-nosed guy who gets the work done," Bostic said of Farr, who works on water leaks and breaks while monitoring the lines as well. "We are working on a plan to get everybody cross-trained. It makes it a lot easier when somebody knows both sides."

Farr found out a week ahead of time, saying, "I knew they were all voting and (co-workers) said we're putting you in. You're an old-timer. It's great. I can park in front, but I don't drive."

Farr actually gets a ride to work on weekdays from his son Jeremy, who also works in the water department. Farr, who has worked for the city for nearly 18 years, has been married to his wife Marie for 41 years. In his spare time he plays in men's softball leagues.

Carter came on board in 2016 as an assistant city clerk and in May of 2020 took on her current role. She graduated from the University of Phoenix in 2014 and has enjoyed working on such city projects as phase 1 of the Sarah Vande Berg Center, intersection realignment at U.S. 301 and Pretty Pond Road and on the Hercules Park project that will alter the old site that once was home to the city's swimming pool.

"You feel like you're doing something bigger than yourself," she said, adding that she enjoys working on capital projects that are part of the city's fiscal 2022 budget of $75 million.

Carter is married to Michael Carter. Their son Michael Jr. plays baseball at Zephyrhills High while their 8-year-old daughter Hailey is in the Zephyrhills Little League.

HAPPY NEW YEAR 2022

Since we have God's wisdom and knowledge revealed today for this "dispensation of grace," we can say: "We know the future with confidence and security. Our future is great, that is, our eternal future. This being true because we have believed God's report from the holy scriptures concerning our "blessed hope" of our salvation that we have "in Christ our Saviour."

Some of YOU who may read this aren't as confident as we are, but we hope and pray that YOU will come to know Christ personally, and that YOU will have peace with God this year and every subsequent year!

We encourage YOU to read YOUR Bible and learn about God's grace, mercy, and peace that he freely gives to ALL who will trust him. The message of God's grace for the Church where God is dispensing his grace and mercy to all nations of people is found in the writings of the apostle Paul alone. These Bible books are Romans through Philemon.

The "good news" of your salvation and the forgiveness of all our sins is found in 1 Corinthians 15:1-4: Moreover, brethren, I (the apostle Paul) declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; 2 By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. 3 For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; 4 And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures: Simply believe this report for your eternal salvation and security.

And after YOU trust this gospel for YOUR salvation and peace, God will seal YOU with his Holy Spirit of promise. Ephesians 1:13-14: In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, 14 Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.

GO FIGURE! by Linda Thistle

Even Exchange by Donna Pettman

Each numbered row contains two clues and two 6-letter answers. The two answers differ from each other by only one letter, which has already been inserted. For example, if you exchange the A from MASTER for an I, you get MISTER. Do not change the order of the letters.

Tax collector Mike Fasano and staff raise $10,000 for Florida Breast Cancer Foundation

Staff and management from the Pasco County Tax Collector's offices hold the check for funds raised from the sale of the End Breast Cancer specialty tag.

During the month of October Pasco County Tax Collector Mike Fasano's five offices partnered with the Florida Breast Cancer Foundation to help raise funds and awareness of breast cancer, its symptoms and treatments. October, which was national Breast Cancer Awareness Month, was the perfect time to feature the sale of the Foundation's "End Breast Cancer" specialty tag. Breast cancer is the most commonly diagnosed cancer among women in Florida (excluding skin cancer). It is estimated that about 12,000 new cases are diagnosed each year.

The five branches of the Pasco County Tax Collectors Office promoted the sale of the "End Breast Cancer" specialty license plates as well as the voluntary check-off donations on automobile registrations. There were 23 plates sold in October. Combined with cash donations, a total of $10,000 was raised to help "End the Suffering Caused by Breast Cancer."

Pasco County launches 2021 Online Citizen Survey

A few minutes of your time can help shape your community's future

The 2021 Pasco County Online Citizen Survey is another key listening mechanism used to gather information and input – as we work to serve our community to create a better future.

The Citizen Survey, first launched in 2009, is conducted every year to gather feedback on a variety of topics related to the future of Pasco County, including: utilities, parks and libraries, safety/emergency services, transportation, growth and importance/quality of services.

Pasco County receives thousands of responses to the Online Citizen Survey, which is intended to help the Pasco

Board of County Commissioners with planning discussions and decision-making.

"Pasco County is experiencing tremendous growth, and it's important to check in with our customers every year," said Pasco Board of County Commissioners Chairman Ron Oakley. "We value your feedback, as it serves as a critical component to shaping Pasco County's services for years to come."

Here's where you can find the survey: On Pasco County's homepage: MyPasco.net. Just click on the survey link; On the MyPasco App, by clicking on the Citizen Survey button; On Pasco County's Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and Nextdoor pages; or Click directly on the survey link: bit.ly/2021PascoSurvey.

Bahr’s Mobile Home Park celebrates Christmas with a golf cart parade

By SANDRA KUNATH

The annual Christmas Golf Cart Parade was held by the residents at Bahr’s Mobile Home Park on Dec. 17. Several golf carts were decorated and were enjoyed as they rode throughout the park. Two winners were chosen for the most gaily decorated. First place went to Lindsay and Candy Rockhill. The second place winner was Jerry Burgdorf.

A great time of fellowship was enjoyed by all at the clubhouse for hot chocolate and delicious homemade cookies.

Below: DJ Terry Mac’s Juke Box is decked out for Christmas.

By JONI GARANT

Hillside residents were treated to a catered Christmas dinner on Dec.17. The evening was hosted by Terrie Foley, park manager. The community clubhouse was beautifully decorated for the special occasion. Supper started with shrimp and cheese grits, and pigs in a blanket, followed by the main meal of a mashed potato bar with assorted toppings, seasoned roasted green beans, old fashioned meatloaf, chicken pot pie and good old mac and cheese. Dessert was a bread pudding with a delectable sauce. Residents were also treated to a wine assortment, beer, eggnog or soda. All this followed by J Terry Mac’s Juke Box Singer, karaoke and dancing.

Trusted care, close to home.

“A lot of people I’ve covered over the years have moved on, but some return and are only too happy to give back,” he said.

Warrener, who has covered sports, events and has had the city council beat for the past eight years, concurred. Seeing some of the athletes he has covered later on in life is especially rewarding: “Meeting them when they’re adults and them remembering something I wrote about them.”

As for covering council meetings and community events, Warrener added, “It gets you out in the community. You really know what’s going on and who the people are.”

Warrener has two children, 15-year-old Amiri and Noah, 11.

Nancy King, the graphic designer is the longest tenured employee who has worked here since 2001.

“I enjoy creating elements and putting them together every day,” she said. “It’s a touch of my community.”

King’s 26-year-old son Matt is a Sgt stationed at Eglin Air Force Base in the Florida panhandle and her son Dalton is a Zephyrhills senior who plays football and is on the weightlifting team. Matt recently married Katlyn, who he has known since they attended Centennial Middle together.

Receptionist Wendy McElroy, who has been married to her husband Bob for 21 years, enjoys working with the public.

“I like seeing people and talking on the phone,” she said.

James Bannon, who handles circulation, is a retired truck driver. He has been married to Rita for 27 years and they have a daughter Carrie, who resides in Philadelphia. Bannon’s trademark is leaving candy on desks on delivery days.

“Everybody deserves a little treat,” he said.

appearance, Novak noted that is not something the players on this year's team even think about.

"That's really funny about kids," he said. "They don't seem to remember at all. Every year is different."

Another local team competed in the Nature Coast tourney. Wiregrass Ranch, which lost twice in a series at Lemon Bay, went 2-1 at Nature Coast. That included a 58-53 win over Bloomingdale.

"They bounced back," Wiregrass Ranch coach Jeremy Calzone said. "This team is so good at that."

The Bulls displayed a balanced offense against Bloomingdale with four players scoring in double figures. Wyatt Stonerod had a game-high 19 points, Deshawn Mann added 15 with Josh Martin and King Gonzalez Jr. contributing 10 apiece.

Wiregrass Ranch (9-5) followed the Bloomingdale game with a 104-95 victory against Sebring before a 79-70 loss to Tampa Sickles.

Wiregrass Ranch returned to the Nature Coast Classic for the first time since 2017. For the past three seasons they played elsewhere in winter tourneys, in part, because Calzone felt that the series repeatedly brought in some of the same teams.

"I want to make sure we see different teams," he said, adding that the winter tourneys are beneficial for his players. "It's just exposure. We tell the parents we don't want to ruin your Christmas, but it gets them exposure."

While the Bulls are off to a solid start, Calzone expects them to get even better down the stretch. Max Bent, a 6-foot-6 senior power forward who injured his right knee playing for his travel basketball team this fall, should return to the lineup soon.

"Of course, he's got to get in shape, but he'll help us a lot; especially defensively," Calzone said.
