Shotgun shootout benefits charities and new technologies in the sheriff's department

2019 Tampa Bay Sporting Clays' Shotgun Shootout draws skeet and trap shooters from all over Pasco County and beyond to unite for a great cause

By ANDY WARRENER
Sports Reporter

The Pasco Sheriff's annual shotgun shootout has a list of beneficiaries. It's an opportunity for local businesses to show their support for many of the department's programs. "This is the biggest shootout for sporting clays all year," Pasco Sheriff Chris Nocco said. "It's a great opportunity to get out there and see some faces that I haven't seen in a while. It's a semi-homecoming. It's also great to see how Pasco County businesses come out to support this."

Beneficiaries for the shootout are: the Pasco Sheriff's K-9 Association, Sunrise of Pasco County Domestic Violence Shelter, Special Operations Warrior Foundation (SOWF) and the Pasco Sheriff's Family Support Network. There were 108 teams of four people who ponied up $800 to enter. Corporate sponsorships ranged from $10,000 to $1,500. Trinity Services stepped up to be the breakfast sponsor, the law firm of Cope, Zebro & Crawford took on the cart sponsorship and Stepp's Towing and Transportation Services was the primary event sponsor. Their heavy-duty tow truck with an enormous American flag raised 40 feet in the air, welcomed guests at they approached the facility in Land O' Lakes.

Attendees could purchase raffle tickets for a number of handsome products from corn hole games, to furniture to actual shotguns.

Pasco Sheriffs Community Engagement Assistant Ashley Astorquiza stated that the event had raised over $180,000 and that was before all the teams even returned from the courses.

The beneficiaries were on hand to help promote the event. K-9 Deputies Mike Sentner and Chris Stone gave demonstrations with K-9 J.R. The K-9 Unit is expanding into the 21st Century. It's no longer a German Shepherd-only affair. The department uses Golden Retrievers as drug-sniffing dogs, labradors to help find cadavers, even Bloodhounds for tracking. Funds raised from Friday's event go to the K-9 unit and help officers and K-9s through their service and into their retirement.

Sunrise Domestic Shelter operates a confidential shelter in East Pasco County for victims who are not safe in their homes. The shelter provides a warm atmosphere where survivors are provided with counseling, support groups and assistance in rebuilding their lives and the lives of

Bulldogs start strong on tennis court

Ace Jonathan Judy-Hansen makes Zephyrhills a solid district title contender

It's early yet, but already things are looking a bit brighter than usual for the Zephyrhills High boys tennis team. A state title for the team's ace as well as a district championship just might be the final rewards in what is shaping up to be a stellar season.

The Bulldogs posted a 7-0 shutout of Weeki Wachee in a Class 2A, District 7 match on Tuesday. That gives them a 3-0 record, which includes a forfeit win over Hudson followed by a season-opening 7-0 victory against Anclote.

"We'll do alright," said Zephyrhills coach Karl Hinkle, not quite ready to display unbridled enthusiasm.

Zephyrhills finished third in last season's district tournament with Crystal River and Nature Coast advancing to the regionals. This season, the Bulldogs might just take one of those top two positions that comes with a playoff berth.

"We'll be in the hunt," Hinkle said, adding, "The thing about districts is it all depends what the draw is."

Zephyrhills clinches a fifth straight postseason berth

Bulldogs are headed to the region quarterfinals as the Class 6A, District 8 runner-up

By STEVE LEE
Sports Reporter

The Zephyrhills High boys basketball team came up short in its quest for the Class 6A, District 8 championship with last week's 65-53 loss to top seed Anclote, which claimed its first title in school history and had the home-court advantage.

No matter, the Bulldogs are still headed to the playoffs for the fifth year in a row and sixth time in the past seven seasons. They made it as a district runner-up for a second straight season. Last year, Zephyrhills lost to Ridgewood in a district final before being eliminated from the postseason after a region quarterfinal loss to Nature Coast.

"It's kids playing basketball," said coach Mike Novak, now in his third season with the Bulldogs after replacing Alan Reed, who last month had the school's basketball court named in his honor. "That's what we work for at Zephyrhills."

Despite the loss in the district final, the Bulldogs (16-9) clinched a postseason berth with a 55-41 win over Wesley Chapel in last week's semifinals. Next up for Zephyrhills is a region quarterfinal on Thursday, Feb. 21, at Crystal River, which is 20-6 after defeating favored Nature Coast in the 6A-7 final.

Zephyrhills and Anclote, which was eliminated in the first round of last year's district tourney, featured a pair of 6-foot-7 forwards to claim an obvious height advantage. The teams played a seesaw battle in the district final that included 11 lead changes. Zephyrhills, which trailed 32-26 at halftime, put together a 12-4 run in the third quarter to take a 38-36 lead.

"We kind of got rattled up a little bit," Anclote coach Michael Cooper said.

The host Sharks outscored the third-seeded Bulldogs by a substantial 13-2 margin in the fourth quarter due to the solid rebounding of Jakob Hester, who led his team with 22 points, and a twisted ankle by Javarrius Wilson.

"We competed pretty hard out there," said Novak, adding that when Wilson went down "we didn't really have an answer for their big guys."

Derico Quiles led Zephyrhills with a game-high 24 points, many of his baskets either putting his team ahead or tying the score. Quiles also had 18 points in

Wealth of Health

The importance of knowing your family medical history

When visiting a physician for the first time, patients may notice an extensive section on family history on one of the requisite forms they fill out before meeting the doctor. Though it can be hard to remember family members' conditions, doctors have good reason to ask about their patients' family's medical histories.

Family medical histories can be vital to one's own health care. The National Center for Biotechnology Information states that family history might be one of the strongest influences on a person's risk for developing cancer, heart disease, stroke, diabetes, and more. While you cannot modify your genetic makeup, knowing your family's medical history can help you take the steps necessary to protect yourself.

Family history reports can serve as warning signs for illnesses. These clues can help doctors prescribe certain screening tests at earlier ages to catch potential diseases when they are most treatable. For example, the U.S. National Library of Medicine says that healthcare professionals may recommend more frequent screenings (such as mammography or colonoscopy) and screening at an earlier age for people at an increased risk of certain cancers. Doctors may recommend biannual checkups to stay apprised of any changes in health that may signal a risk.

A thorough health care professional will record your family medical history and ask you to update it routinely in an effort to ensure you get the best, most effective care possible. You can help the process by having the information needed at the ready. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention suggests the following:

- Talk to family. Make a list of close family members and discuss any conditions or issues they might have had and at what ages.
- Learn about chronic diseases. Speak to your relatives about chronic diseases like diabetes or high blood pressure, being sure to ask how severe such issues were and if any required hospitalization.

- Plot your ancestry. Learn about your ancestry and if any medical issues are more common among people who share that ancestry.
- Record everything you learn. Keep the information where it can be easily accessed and updated. For example, My Family Health Portrait is a free web-based tool to organize family health information and share it with doctors. Family history plays a key role in how doctors will approach patients' treatment and preventive care.

Check your rear if you're 50 this year.

If you are 50, it is time to get a colonoscopy. This simple procedure is effective in preventing cancer or catching it early, when it is highly treatable. In fact, 9 out of 10 people beat colon cancer when it is detected early.

Don't put it off. Give yourself peace of mind and call for your appointment today.

Outings, quilt show and tacos at Grand Horizons

By HELENE RUBENSTEIN

The monthly lunch connoisseurs met at Shells Restaurant on Feb. 8. The luncheon was hosted by Bill and Karen Donlon. There were 31 residents in attendance and the menu had a good variety of dishes. There were mainly fish platters or dinners but other dishes as well.

There was no rush and the waitresses were very nice and tried to help if anyone had questions. There was much conversation and everyone got along. It made for a nice afternoon with good company.

The following day, Feb. 9, there were several women, who are members of the quilting club, at the community center and several helpers. They presented a quilt show and what a delight it was. There were quilts all around the community center and some were real eye catching and had so much detail. The quilters were: Margaret Castonguay, Joyce Billig, Naomi Sisk, Denise Hauser, Pat Otto, Pat Mengel, LuAnne Taylor and Jeanice Dalman.

The quilters meet every week at the community center and create beautiful quilts and these were displayed all over in the community center. They also had some helpers and this included Joyce Bell and Rachel Gamache. There were well over 150 quilts, plus handbags, runners and more.

Upon entering the community center, there were several quilts outside on display. Everything was done to perfection and there were two lap-size quilts that were prizes from the raffle that they had. Coffee and cookies were served at this festive show.

Several days later, on Feb. 13, a taco bowl dinner was held at the community center with 110 people in attendance. This was hosted by Margaret and Andy Castonguay. They held taco bowl dinners for the last several years and each year they get better and better. Once again they had several volunteers and each had a specific job and, therefore, it ran smoothly. The helpers were Joyce and Ron Bell along with Ron and Rachel Gamache, Fred and Pat Mengel and Linda Rogers.

The taco dinner consisted of meat, diced tomatoes, cheese, lettuce, salsa, sour cream, olives and onions. All of the above mentioned toppings were placed on a table so you could add them according to your taste. The tortilla shells were hand-made and deep-fried by Margaret and from what I heard, they were simply delicious.

Two days later, on Feb. 15, there was the second karaoke night. It started out with Gary Wilcox singing a Conway Twitty song entitled "Its Only Make Believe." He did a splendid job of it and made it interesting by giving a little history of the song and the singer. He sang several more songs including "Amarillo By Morning" and if you closed your eyes, you could visualize George Strait.

Paul Williams sang a few songs such as "Blueberry Hill," "Abilene" and several others. His deep voice and antics added to the songs.

Chuck Reams also got up to perform several hits including "As Good as I Once Was" by Toby Keith. Reams really got into it as the time progressed. His antics were fabulous and had many a person (in the audience) singing back up. He also sang a hit song by Randy Travis entitled "He Walked on Water" and he did one marvelous job.

A great number of songs were done by Jim Leitzke such as "Good Hearted Woman" by Waylon Jennings, "Okie from Muskogee" by Merle Haggard, several by Marty Robbins like "El Paso." He also looked directly at the audience and he sang like a pro. During some songs, we had dancers like the Rockettes. There also was audience participation on the song "Family Tradition." There were other songs like "Trashy Women" by Confederate Railroad and even a little trivia thrown in.

The evening ended with "God Bless the U.S.A." and we all went home after a lovely two hours. The next karaoke will be March 22.

Senior Jonathan Judy-Hansen, the team's No. 1 player since he was a freshman, is the top draw for Zephyrhills. He is a three-time district champion and has advanced to the state tournament three times with his sights set on a state title for this season.

"This is the last run for it," he said.

Hinkle is enjoying this season, noting that this is the final year for his top player.

"It'll be tough," the coach said of a future without Judy-Hansen. "He's really irreplaceable."

Judy-Hansen has verbally committed to the University of Auburn at Montgomery. He has excellent grades and expects to get some academic money to major in business finance and compete for a spot on the tennis team next season.

"It's huge," he said of deciding on a college before he graduates. "It's like a weight's off your shoulders."

Judy-Hansen also considered Saint Leo University and had other offers, but said he decided on the school in Alabama "because I'll have a better chance of starting sooner."

Judy-Hansen handily defeated Weeki Wachee's Josh Bondulich 6-0, 6-0 on Tuesday before teaming with new doubles partner Isaac Vincent for another win. Judy-Hansen had been paired with 2018 Zephyrhills graduate Wesley Purvis for three seasons.

"That helped a lot," he said of the familiarity of having the same doubles partner for three years. "It took away a lot of thinking on the court. This year is different. It's a new challenge. It's good. Isaac and I work well together. It's fun."

For his part, Vincent had a marathon-session match on Tuesday against No. 2 Rafael Garcia. In a match that lasted more than two hours with volley after volley Vincent won 7-5, 5-7, 10-7 in a tiebreaker.

During that long outing, his Zephyrhills teammates rooted Vincent on, imploring him to go for a kill shot.

"I'm trying to work on putting some shots away, but I'm just trying to win," he said.

In the other singles matches against Weeki Wachee, No. 3 David Rodriguez defeated Brock Vance 6-4, 6-2; No. 4 Braden Venger topped Christian Velez 6-4, 6-4; and at No. 5 Jadiel Rodriguez (no relation to David) beat Michael McMurray 6-3, 6-2.

Aside from Judy-Hansen and Vincent teaming up to win their No. 1 doubles match, David Rodriguez and Venger won their No. 2 doubles match.

Rounding out the Zephyrhills roster were Noah Nales and Yahir Torres.

The Bulldogs have their first road match today, Feb. 21, at Sunshine Athletic Conference contender.

the semifinal win over Wesley Chapel and 27 in an 86-71 quarterfinal win over Hudson.

"His focus has been real good. He's done a real good job for us," Novak said.

Dontae Marchman added 11 points to give the Bulldogs two scorers in double figures against the Sharks. He darted in and out of traffic for some tough points inside to go along with clutch outside shooting.

"If you don't have height you better use your speed and savvy," Novak said of his 5-foot-8 junior point guard.

In the semifinal win over the Wildcats, Zephyrhills went on an 11-2 run in the fourth to clinch it. Aside from Quiles' 18 points, Harrison Barker and Marchman added 10 and 9 points, respectively.

Second-seeded Wesley Chapel, which won both regular-season games against Zephyrhills, got a team-leading 12 points from Isaiah Ramsey. Ethan Jones and Sam Lowe added 8 apiece.

As for Zephyrhills' girls basketball team, the season came to an abrupt halt in the district tournament. The Bulldogs lost to Wesley Chapel 59-38 in the semifinals to wind up with a 10-10 record.

That marked an impressive turnaround season for the Bulldogs, who were led by first-year coach Chris Smith. That victory total matched the past two seasons combined. Under former coach Mike Smith Zephyrhills had seven victories last season and just three the year before.

In the final game of the season against the Wildcats, Zephyrhills got 11 points from Paige Johnson and 10 from Taija McCullough.

"We want to do everything we can to end that cycle of violence," Nocco said.

Another beneficiary was the Explorer Program, a program that recruits youths aged 14 to 21 who are interested in a career in law enforcement. The program introduces explorers to the fundamental principles of law enforcement. Many explorers were on hand Friday, helping with the event.

"We're trying to build the next generation of leaders in the county," Nocco said.

The Special Operations Warrior Foundation also benefitted from the event. Special Operations Warrior Foundation helps ensure post-secondary educational support to surviving children of special operations personnel and immediate financial assistance to severely wounded special operations personnel - today and in the future.

Gold Star family, the Lawtons were on hand Saturday. Surviving spouse and children Trish, Ryan and Caden were part of a team along with Grant Johnson. They were honoring Garrett Lawton, a USMC Special Operations soldier killed overseas.

"This is our third year doing this event as a family," Trish Lawton said. "It's a reminder that freedom is not free."

Finally, the Family Support Network, a program within the department, designed to provide support for those who most closely support front-line law enforcement through physical, mental and spiritual means.

"There's a lot of stress on families that support our deputies," Nocco said.

While not direct beneficiaries of the charity event, some emerging technologies in the department were on display Saturday. The F.I.R.S.T. Program or Forensic Institute for Research Security and Tactical is a law enforcement training facility partnering with the Pasco County Sheriff's Office.

"It's a center for excellence in forensics, tactics, K-9 operations, cyber security and intelligence gathering with the goal of training and researching to fill gaps in law enforcement and first responders," FIRSST Manager Roger Green said. "We ask ourselves what challenges are out there for law enforcement and what training is necessary to stay ahead of the challenges they face."

The facility, near the Pasco County Jail in Land O' Lakes, is made possible by a $4.3-million appropriation from the State of Florida and builds partnerships with USEF, UF and Florida Gulf Coast University. It combines several law enforcement aspects and uses cutting-edge technology that has attracted PHD students, law enforcement agencies and first responders from as far away as Tanzania and Greece.

The morning and afternoon shootout gave way to a luxurious lunch provided by Mission BBQ. Awards and the auction followed, wrapping up a great day for county law enforcement and the community beyond.

HOW TO WRITE A GOOD CLASSIFIED AD

Make the heading short - a short heading should have 2 to 4 words and will capture the reader's attention without clutter and confusion.
Start your ad with the merchandise you are selling - starting with the merchandise makes it easier for the reader to locate your item(s) for sale.
Always include the price of the item you are selling - 52% of classified readers do not respond to ads that do not include a price.
Make it easy for readers to understand - abbreviations and technical terms are sometimes difficult for readers to comprehend.
Place yourself in the reader's position - ask what you would like to know about the merchandise for sale. Include information such as brand names, colors and other specific descriptions.
