Morningside defeats front-runner Sweetwater in season finale, which leads to those rivals sharing the 2022 title

By STEVE LEE
Sports Reporter

The 2022 championship for the Zephyrhills Winter Horseshoe League came down to the wire with defending champion Sweetwater hosting Morningside, the league's two front-runners, last Wednesday morning.

The rivals split at Morningside earlier this season, but Sweetwater led by two points going into the final week. A win would give Morningside a tie atop the standings while a victory for Sweetwater would clinch a second straight title and first since 2020 (the league was cancelled in 2021 due to the coronavirus pandemic).

During the matchup and with Morningside taking a 10-6 halftime margin, Morningside's Ron Suski said, "I'm afraid this one's going to come down to the wire again."

At halftime and with his team ahead by a slim four-point margin, Morningside's Tom Reynolds said, "We've got to win."

Planning commission discusses growth management in Zephyrhills

A panel organized to discuss growth options in the City of Zephyrhills, met in council chambers

By ANDY WARRENER
News Reporter

Presided over by Zephyrhills Planning Director Todd Vande Berg and assisted by Tammy Vrama of Vrama Consulting, together with other city staffers and members of the public, the meeting kicked off at 6 p.m. with five discussion topics.

The first and second items were growth management and development trends. Part of this discussion encapsulated the fifth discussion topic - height limitations. Some jaw-dropping numbers were brought up. Vande Berg stated that 1,000 people move to Florida every day and that by 2030, 2.5 million people will move to Florida.

"Pasco County has one of the highest rates of issuing building permits in the country," Vande Berg said. "It's impactful and we've experienced that."

One of the priorities that Vrama expressed was discouraging urban sprawl and development trends. She hoped that the city and the state for that matter, could avoid low-density, auto-dependent development.

What does that mean? It means going vertical. City council has hedged against multi-story housing developments for years. The writing on the wall would portend that might be a notion not practicable for the future. Predictions had 5,000 residents moving to Zephyrhills from 2020 to 2035. By 2035, 2,432 new units will be made in Zephyrhills, according to predictions used by the Shimberg Center. The city currently has 2,334 residential units already entitled - most on the north side of the city.

Later in the meeting, some renderings with three, four and five-story residential buildings were shown. Historic Preservation Officer Audrey McGuire pointed out the options that were mixed use, as in retail on the ground floor with residential on the upper floors. Apartment buildings with parking on the ground floor and residences above were part of the slideshow.

"We wanted to provide some perspective on how that is going to look," Vande Berg said.

As much as the city has tried to resist this, it might not be a question of "if" but rather a question of "when." The city may not be able to control going vertical but with careful planning, they can control where these structures go and what they will look like. With the city planning to finish the next Comprehensive Plan by the end of 2022, these are important discussions to have.

The next topic was potable water. Vande Berg stipulated early in the discussion that Zephyrhills draws water from a protected basin and because of that, is more limited in the amount of water it can draw.

The city is permitted to draw 3,308,400 gallons per day of water. The 2021 usage was 2,503,869, leaving a difference of 804,531 gallons per day.

City councilman Charlie Proctor asked how long that level of consumption would last, Vande Berg predicted it to hold until about 2040.

Zephyrhills Utilities Director John Bostic spoke, stating that a residential unit consumes, on average, 250 gallons per day. He also stated that as much as 50 percent of residential development usage is chalked up to, "irrigation." It might be time to look at lawns and irrigation systems to improve their efficiency. Bostic also pointed out other options for new sources of public water, such as: tapping the Floridan Aquifer, using the Sunburst Interconnect, drilling additional wells or utilizing Tampa Bay Water's resources. Bostic pointed out that the latter was the least preferred option, as Tampa Bay Water uses a different chlorination process and the city would have to retro-fit pipes and facilities. The use and further implementation of reclaimed water was a topic of discussion.

Zephyrhills City Manager William Poe Jr. stated that the city has a tiered water use structure designed to reduce usage.

The last category to be discussed and it was touched on more lightly than the others, was transportation. A number of road improvements were presented on the projected slide. The CR54 widening project, which is a joint venture with Pasco County, is already underway. Anyone driving the stretch of CR54 either side of Gall Boulevard, has felt that congestion.

Another project was the connection of Kossick Road to Otis Allen Road, across Wire Road. The intersection is slated to have a four-way stop sign with the option to install traffic signals at a later time. Discussion about the implementation of round-a-bouts emerged and how round-a-bouts keep traffic flowing.

The intersection of Pretty Pond and Wire roads might one day have a round-a-bout. Other projects displayed were connecting Dairy Road and Kossick Road.

A big item was the traffic south of town on U.S. Highway 301. That area between the city proper and SR56 is a nightmare, traveling northbound in the afternoon. The area is also not within Zephyrhills City Limits. It was brought up that lane expansion is in the future plans for Pasco County.

No plans for public transportation were put forth in the presentation. Pasco County operates the only bus line that serves the city.

These discussions will be ongoing as the city aims at updating the Comprehensive Plan this year. Some bullet points they highlighted as they move forward were: a pause in development, collaborating more with the South-West Florida Management District (SWFMD) and developers, as well as assessing the viability of potable water alternatives.

SALOME'S STARS ★ ★ ★ ★

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Put your restlessness to good use by indulging the Arian love of exploring new places and seeking new challenges. There also could be a new romance waiting to be "discovered."

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) A surprise message from someone in your past could lead to a long-awaited reunion with a once-close friend. Also, look for a workplace problem to be resolved in your favor.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Your self-confidence is rising, and that should be a significant factor in helping you adjust to a new social situation, as well as adjusting to a series of changes in the workplace.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Turnabout could be lots of fun when someone you previously accepted your tender, loving care without question now suggests that he or she wants to start taking care of you.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Put the lessons you learned from past disappointments to work in planning your future. The way ahead opens to opportunities "purrfectly" suited to the adventurous Lion.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) This is a good time to renew contacts with family members and/or old friends who somehow slipped off your personal viewing screen in recent years. Travel also is favored.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Most problems surrounding that recent personal situation have been resolved, and that means you should move on to other things that are important to you.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Spend this weekend recharging your physical and spiritual energies. When you return to your workaday world, you'll be ready to take on that new project.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Be careful how you advise a troubled friend. Even your wise counsel could be misunderstood. Better to suggest that he or she seek professional help.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Family problems once again dominate and, once again, everyone seeks your guidance in these matters. Later, you can indulge in some much-needed relaxation.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Some mixed signals create confusion in the workplace. Best advice: Ask for explanations before you attempt to deal with any of these matters on your own.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) A patch of roiling water in the workplace could be threatening, but stay the course and you'll soon be clear of it. Then go out and have a great time with loved ones.

BORN THIS WEEK: Your extraordinary leadership qualities mark you as someone people can turn to for guidance in difficult situations.

STRANGE BUT TRUE

By Lucie Winborne

- The shamrock, called the "seamroy" by the Celts, was considered a sacred plant that symbolized the arrival of spring. According to legend, St. Patrick used it as a visual guide when explaining the Holy Trinity. By the 17th century, it had become a symbol of emerging Irish nationalism.
- There's a doughnut shop in Clare, Michigan, that's owned entirely by cops.
- A long-haired tortoiseshell cat named Towser holds the Guinness World Record for catching mice -- an estimated 28,899 in 24 years -- as the pest control expert at the Glenturret whiskey distillery in Scotland.
- Between 1912 and 1948, Olympic medals were given out for sporting-inspired masterpieces of architecture, music, painting, sculpture and literature.
- Subaru WRX owners are the most likely in the U.S. to have a prior speeding citation.
- The average energy expended during the ladies Wimbledon tennis final match adds up to 1.56kWh, which is enough power to keep an iPhone charged for a year.
- Hackers were prevented from stealing nearly $1 billion after misspelling the word "foundation" as "fandation" on a payment transfer. However, they were still able to swipe roughly $80 million before their typo tipped off the banks.
- Nineteen-year-old Shayla Wiggins, of Wyoming, found a man's corpse in a river while she was playing Pokemon Go.
- In 2014, South Korea produced an alternative version of their national anthem "Aegukka," which was two keys lower in order to make it easier for kids in school, especially boys going through puberty, to sing.
- When actor Dwayne Johnson was in high school, his height of 6-foot-4 and weight of 225 pounds had some of his classmates suspecting he was an undercover cop.

DICE-Y TRICK! Display two dice. Place one atop the other, say a few magic words, lift the top die, and alakazam, the dice cling together as one. Here's how it's done:

Before producing the dice, wet your finger with your tongue. Apply moisture secretly to the bottom of the upper die.

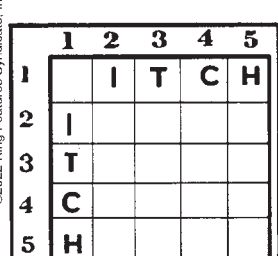

When the dice are pressed together, moisture will cause them to adhere sufficiently to allow both to be raised at the same time.

Separate dice and put challenge to friends.

By the way, keep dice away from young children, who may swallow them.

HERE IS A PLEASANT LITTLE GAME that will give you a message every day. It's a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner and check one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

MOMENTS IN TIME

The History Channel

- On March 10, 1902, the U.S. Court of Appeals rules that despite his claims, Thomas Edison did not invent the movie camera. It did admit that Edison invented the sprocket system that moved perforated film through the camera.
- On March 11, 1942, U.S. Gen. Douglas MacArthur abandons the island of Corregidor under orders from President Franklin Roosevelt. Left behind were 90,000 American and Filipino troops, who would soon succumb to the Japanese offensive. Only one-third of those left behind survived to see MacArthur's return in January 1945.
- On March 12, 1969, the London drug squad appears at house of Beatle George Harrison and his wife Pattie Boyd with a warrant and drug-sniffing canines. Sgt. Pilcher, the man behind the raid, was convicted of planting drugs in other cases and went to jail in 1972.
- On March 13, 1836, Texan Gen. Sam Houston begins a series of strategic retreats to buy time to train his ill-prepared army, which consisted of 374 poorly equipped men. A month later, his newly trained army won a stunning victory against Mexico's Santa Anna.
- On March 14, 1950, the FBI institutes the "Ten Most Wanted Fugitives" list. Since its debut, hundreds of criminals on the list have been apprehended or located, many as a result of tips from the public.
- On March 15, 1901, paintings by the late Dutch painter Vincent van Gogh are shown in Paris, causing a sensation across the art world. Van Gogh had died by suicide, and in his lifetime he had sold only one painting.
- On March 16, 1945, the west Pacific volcanic island of Iwo Jima is declared secured by the U.S. military after weeks of fierce fighting. More than 6,000 Marines died fighting for the island, along with almost all the 21,000 Japanese defenders.

AdventHealth hosts Blessing of the Hands Ceremony

AdventHealth Dade City hosted a Blessing of the Hands Ceremony for 20 students who graduated from the Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA) program. The training is free of charge and open to the community. AdventHealth collaborated with Aguilas International Technical Institute. The students will get paid to attend a five-week course and learn a clinical curriculum that will prepare them for their CNA test.

Upon graduation, they will be hired by AdventHealth Dade City. This initiative is crucial since the COVID-19 pandemic has exacerbated the ongoing shortage in healthcare. AdventHealth is committed to providing high-quality care for the community. This program is a gateway for these students to tap into other healthcare-related jobs. Additionally, the community will continue to receive the care they deserve.

Left: Morningside had a win and a tie against Sweetwater this season to earn a share of the league championship.

Right: Tom Reynolds of Morningside eyes the stake at the other end before pitching.

"They're a good team," Sweetwater captain Cal Osmond said of Morningside.

Indeed they are. Morningside won the season finale, 21-12.

Afterward, there was talk of a possible playoff to decide the championship or giving it to Morningside by virtue of head-to-head play. Ultimately, however, both teams can say they are champions.

"We're doing co-champions this year," said league president Bryan Jorgensen, who also is the captain of Hunter's Run. "The reason is that some of the guys leave early (before the season is over) and some stay."

Not unexpectedly, turnover is somewhat anticipated in a league with rosters comprised of senior citizens. Some are snowbirds opting not to come south anymore while others drop out due to health issues.

Among that group is Suski, who played his last game in the league because he does not plan to come back after going home to Wisconsin this spring.

"We were always in it, first or second almost every time," Suski said of his seven seasons with Morningside. "I'll miss it. I play up home for four or five months, but not in the winter."

While Morningside won the final game, a key win by Sweetwater in the second half came from the duo of Cal Osmond, Sweetwater's captain, and Lawrence Pittman. They got several ringers in defeating Morningside's Ted Trzebiatowski and Richard Kolodziej by a slim 21-20 margin.

"We had a good comeback, but it didn't go quite far enough," Trzebiatowski said, alluding to a rally from 20-6 down to make it close at the end.

That pivotal win from Osmond and Pittman, however, still was not enough to help their team. Morningside built a 16-11 lead at that point and extended its winning margin down the stretch to pull away for the team victory.

"We beat No. 1," Suski proudly declared as the final score was tabulated by scorekeepers on both sides.

Morningside might have won the league title outright if not for three ties during the season, which began in January. Aside from the first matchup against Sweetwater, Morningside also had ties with Betmar and Forest Lake Estates, two teams that finished out of the running.

Morningside won the league championship in 2016, the first year it competed in the league. The team, based in Dade City, followed that up with three straight second-place finishes before this year's co-championship.

In 2019, the local winter league listed nine teams. One year after missing a season thanks to Covid, the league had just six teams this year.

"Horseshoes is a dying sport, even though we have nice courts," Reynolds said.

Boys weightlifting claims first conference title in over 20 Years

Following in the footsteps of the successes of the girls weightlifting team, the ZHS boys team has put Pasco County on notice

By ANDY WARRENER
Sports Reporter

Coaches weren't sure just exactly how long it had been but they universally agreed that it had been more than 20 years since the boys weightlifting team had claimed a conference title. Wiregrass Ranch would claim the independent snatch lift title, 57 to Zephyrhills' 54 but the official tally (traditional lifts) went Zephyrhills 56 and runner up Sunlake 43. Wiregrass Ranch claimed third with 29.

"I was stressing for a while - nervous," first-year head coach Zephyrhills alum James Aguilera said. "We had some scratches I didn't see coming in the bench but we were able to come back in clean-and-jerk and eventually beat them (Sunlake)."

One of the sizzling individual matchups that awarded critical points to the Bulldog team was the matchup between Zephyrhills senior Kamil Mehrab and Wiregrass Ranch's Kenneth Walker. Mehrab had been chasing Walker for five weeks, leading up to the conference meet. Walker has the better bench press marks and Mehrab the better clean-and-jerk. Mehrab's goal was to close the gap as much as he could in bench press and then try to out-lift Walker in the clean-and-jerk by the difference. The tie-breaker would go to Mehrab as he weighed in just lighter than Walker.

Walker would hit 300 pounds on the bench and Mehrab 285, placing him 15 points behind Walker, heading into the clean-and-jerk. It quickly became advantage-Mehrab as Walker missed on his first two lifts at 235 pounds. He hit his third attempt and remained 15 points ahead of Mehrab. The strategy was in place. Mehrab needed to hit 250 and he did just that on his second lift, igniting the enthusiasm of the whole gymnasium. He wanted to go for more but with the win locked up, Aguilera shut him down and told him to save his strength for districts.

"Five weeks and I have not forgot about him (Walker)," Mehrab said. "That drive manifested itself in practice every day."

Mehrab looks to be in good position to make a run at states as the state series commences March 30 at ZHS.

There were some other notable performances that highlighted the team win. Ayden Maranelli, 169 pound, won his weight class, hitting all six of his lifts, with a composite score of 485, 10 points better than the runner-up lifter. "I'm more worried about districts now,"

Maranelli said. "That's when I'll start to throw the real numbers in."

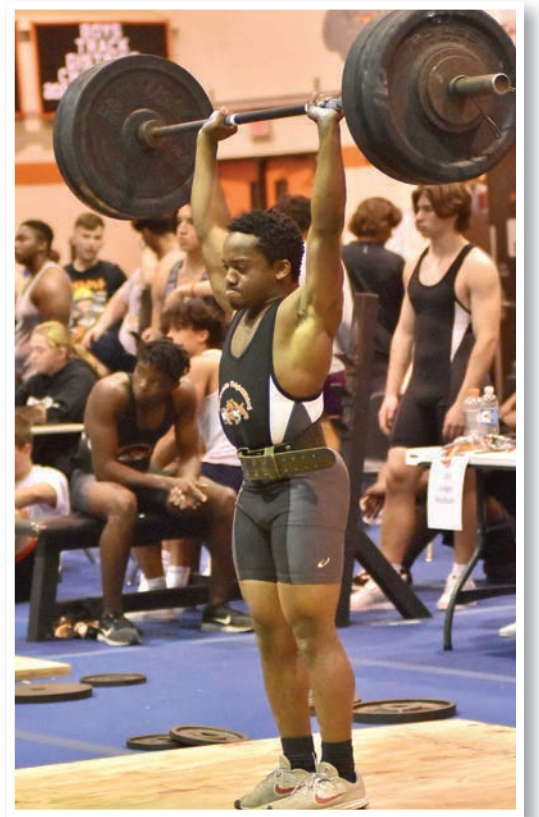

Freshman Malachi Woodard, slowly earning the moniker "Pocket Hercules," won the 139-pound weight class with lifts of 210 in the bench and 215, a personal record, in the clean-and-jerk. He out-distanced the 139-pound runner up by 35 points.

"It feels good knowing I'm getting stronger and helping my team win," Woodard said.

Teammate James Leferriere at 154 pound won his weight class with 425 (245 bench, 180 clean-and-jerk). He was tied in composite score but won the tiebreaker due to his lighter body weight. Senior 199-pound lifter Nick Patrias took second with a 555 composite score.

Patrias was overshadowed only by Wesley Chapel's Jordan McCaslin, who put together a whopping composite score of 590 (315 bench, 275 clean-and jerk) and a personal record on clean-and-jerk. Wildcat teammate Connor Maddox took second in the 154-pound class on body weight differential. Cypress Creek's 129-pound Jayden Cruzado won his class with 310. Pasco's 119-pound Carlos Picciurro won the snatch lift and took second in the overall (285). Wiregrass Ranch's Dylan Dison won the 119-pound title with 295.

"It's gratifying to watch all the hard work in the weight room and them getting after it in competition," Aguilera said. "These kids do everything we ask them to do. I'm proud of these kids, proud of this school and glad to be here."

Below: Nick Patrias, 199-pound, took second in his class and will be a contender advancing through the state series.

Pasco County Animal Services to host rescue adopt-a-thon

March 19 event at Land O' Lakes Heritage Park

Pasco County Animal Services is teaming up with dozens of area animal rescue groups to find forever homes for hundreds of dogs and cats. Join them March 19, 10 a.m.-2 p.m. at Heritage Park, 5401 Land O' Lakes Blvd. for a rescue adopt-a-thon – and bring home the newest member of your family.

"We expect this adopt-a-thon to be our best yet," said PCAS Director Mike Shumate. "We're thrilled to come together with our community partners for the important purpose of adopting animals."

Participating rescue groups have their own fees, requirements and adoption processes.

All pets adopted from PCAS are: spayed/neutered, microchipped, vaccinated and heartworm tested (dogs).

Food vendors include Gizzys of Nutley Pizza, Vamos, Colombian Inspired Food and Wrap Star. Joe McNeal will provide live music and entertainment.

For more information on PCAS, including a full list of programs and services, visit the website: MyPasco.net/PAS.

Masons attend a dinner put on by the Crescent Chapter 54 members

Zephyrhills Masons were invited to dinner by Worthy Matron Nancy Bice and Worthy Patron Paul Weil from Crescent Chapter 54 before their monthly meeting March 8. While members and visitors supped on beef tips and noodles, Past Worshipful Master Tom Walden presented Worthy Patron, Paul Weil with a polo sporting the symbols of his Masonic Office - secretary.

Members of the Eastern Star Order are related by familial ties to Masons and rely on their support and guidance to make their way.

Pasco Tax Collector Mike Fasano announces essay contest for high school students

Pasco County Tax Collector Mike Fasano announced that his office is accepting entries in his annual essay contest for high school students. Entries will be accepted March 28 through April 22. Students enrolled in Pasco's public/charter, private, parochial, non-public, and home school programs are all welcome to participate.

In 500 words or less students will answer the question: "Since the 1980s, Pasco County has seen a steady growth in population that now has us nearing 600,000 residents. To accommodate this growth, we have seen many additions made to our county's general infrastructure (expanded roads, public transportation, additional shopping venues, etc.). What is one addition that has been made that was most beneficial to Pasco County, or what is one addition that you believe should be made to further accommodate our county's growth?"

"We have had a fantastic response to our annual essay contest in previous school years," said Fasano. "I have no doubt that we will receive some excellent essays again this year. Pasco County has some of the state's best and brightest students. The entrant who writes the winning essay will receive a $500 gift card. I am looking forward to that day in the not-too-distant future when I am able to hand this prize to the student who prepares the best essay."

Students in public/charter schools are asked to submit their essays to their principal, who will forward all essays to the tax collector's office. Students in private, parochial, non-public, or home school programs may send their essays directly to assistant tax collector Greg Giordano, c/o Pasco County Tax Collector's Office, P.O. Box 276, Dade City, Fla. 33526. Each entry should include the student's name, school, grade and contact information. Entries may also be hand-delivered to the tax collector's office in New Port Richey at 4720 U.S. Hwy. 19, New Port Richey, Fla. 34652. If there are any questions about the contest, contact communications specialist Jose Rodriguez Sierra at (727) 847-8165 x3826. No essays will be accepted after 5 p.m. on April 22.

Fasano encourages family members, neighbors, and friends to tell eligible Pasco County students about the contest. The winner of the essay contest will be notified by telephone no later than May 13. The winning entrant will also be announced via a media release.

SOAP UPDATE

Matthew Atkinson is "Thomas" on "The Bold and The Beautiful."

THE BOLD AND THE BEAUTIFUL
Paris set Grace straight regarding her true feelings for Carter. Thomas was haunted by keeping Sheila's secret. Deacon checked Sheila when she badmouthed Brooke and glorified Taylor. Ridge got caught in the middle of Steffy and Hope's argument over Taylor and Brooke. Sheila was frustrated at having to convince Thomas to stick to the plan. Wait to see: Brooke comes to her senses and realizes that she must fight for Ridge. Programming Note: Due to CBS Sports Coverage of NCAA Basketball, "B&B" was preempted Thursday, March 17, 2022, and Friday, March 18, 2022.

DAYS OF OUR LIVES
Susan attempted to prove Belle was possessed. Ben informed Marlena the Devil was still in Salem. Will urged Johnny to reconsider making the movie about Marlena. Eli received alarming news from TR's ex-girlfriend, Beth. TR and Eli had an explosive confrontation. Lani and Shawn came upon a shocking crime scene. Marlena did battle with the Devil once more. Allie confided in Will about her feelings for Chanel. Xander pressured Maggie to sign paperwork to have Sarah hospitalized. Tony was caught in the middle between Anna and "Renee." Abigail confronted Gwen about her sister's role in her kidnapping. Abe and TR had a tense first encounter. Shawn investigated Eli's shooting. Chloe and Brady grew closer. Wait to see: Marlena and John prepare for another exorcism. Will and Sonny ask Chad to help them expose Leo. Leo pressures Craig to go after Kayla's job.

GENERAL HOSPITAL
Chase had an awkward exchange. Cameron visited Spencer at Spring Ridge. Carly confronted Esme. Curtis received an unexpected proposition. Brad asked Britt for help. Ava tried to understand Nina's feelings. Sonny was at odds with Michael and Willow. Drew supported Elizabeth. Finn got to the bottom of a secret. Laura, Robert, Dante and Sam plotted to take down Victor. Anna and Felicia went undercover. Victor told Drew to meet if he valued his family. Jake worried that Elizabeth would never forgive him. Ryan watched Spencer and Esme. Joss' study session took a turn. Trina made a decision. Sam and Dante had to make an adjustment. Sonny had news for Nina. Things were awkward when Portia ran into Jordan. Nina met with Harmony. Michael surprised Willow at work. Wait to see: Carly apologizes. Sam and Dante take time alone to regroup. Shawn voices his concerns to Alexis.

THE YOUNG AND THE RESTLESS
Victor went to great length to protect Victoria. Ashland defended himself to Nikki. Jack's world was rocked. Victor strategized with Nick. Phyllis helped Jack with some complicated family ties. Nate saw a new side of Ashland. Victor received ammunition against Ashland. Elena helped Nate make a judgment call. Wait to see: Lauren learns some troubling news about Michael. Programming Note: Due to CBS Sports Coverage of NCAA Basketball, "Y&R" was preempted Thursday, March 17, 2022, and Friday, March 18, 2022.

Following a two-year hiatus, a model train show and swap meet returns to the Zephyrhills Depot Museum

Not since 2019 have model train enthusiasts and curious onlookers been able to come to Zephyrhills for what had been a longtime show and swap meet. That changed last Saturday when people came to the show at the historical Zephyrhills Depot Museum.

"It's nice," said Diane Phillips, who along with her husband Ken are snowbirds from Iowa who spend their winters in Zephyrhills. "In one section you can buy stuff from vendors. We were looking to find a broken-down tractor (for their model train display)."

Ken added that he had a Lionel train set in his attic back home that was more than 50 years old.

The museum and old train depot, located off South Avenue near the Zephyrhills Municipal Airport, houses a collection of memorabilia recognizing the community's rich history and connection to trains. Aside from the main building, a vintage caboose attracted plenty of visitors.

James Danielson said his 9-year-old son Jonathan was content to climb aboard the caboose and play at a nearby playground.

"He loves to climb and I like the history," said Danielson, of Shady Hills. Also getting their photo taken on the caboose platform were Tim Evert and Bill Craven, both members of the local Trainmen Association, which is a volunteer group of train buffs.

"For most of us this links back to our childhood," Evert said. "I got my first Lionel train when I was 8 years old and now I'm 63, so what's that tell you. It's a great hobby."

The event, which serves as a fundraiser for the volunteer organization that runs the show and puts together displays with trains, also is a way to attract visitors, young and old alike.

On Saturday, trainmaster Ron Smith said Sophia Valyuk "is buying a locomotive from me."

Smith stayed upstairs to display train cars and locomotives, inform the public on various aspects of model trains and part, and sell some items. He also hopes that his enthusiasm for the industry rubs off a little bit on others.

"I like to show them that trains as old as the 1950s can still be cleaned up and run well," Smith said as he showed several different types of locomotives to visitors.

The longtime Zephyrhills resident also spoke on the importance that railroads and transportation by railways still have in today's society.

"Railroads are still one of the most reliable forms of transportation of goods," Smith said.

Robert and Sharon Bernardon are well aware of that. Robert, who retired more than 10 years ago, is a former railroad conductor from Pennsylvania.

"I've delivered a lot of products over the years," he said. "Now that we're down here permanently (in Winter Haven) I can come to something like this and be reminded of how special trains are and what they still mean."

"You would think that he'd have enough of trains, but he has an old Lionel set at home in the garage," Sharon added. "He's always tinkering with it."

Among the first-timers at the local show was Richard Wiegus, who said, "I wanted to come for the depot and see the history of the area."

That history was revealed in a mock display of the area featuring such notable sites as the Jeffries House, train depot and the downtown area.

Joe Seabert, who built a lot of buildings and tracks, said, "It's fun to work on the layouts."

Zephyrhills resident Vickie Cohen brought her grandson, 7-year-old Jaxon Wilkerson, to check out those layouts and the model trains. They enjoyed watching trains circle the track repeatedly.

Trusted care, close to home.

"My passion to serve others drove my decision to become a physician."
