Little Everglades Ranch hosts weekend races with numerous obstacles and three distances

By STEVE LEE
Sports Reporter

The savages are back — as in a daredevil culture of people who favor obstacle racing that challenges one's fitness and endurance rather than simply running various distances on roadways and sidewalks. The Little Everglades Ranch hosted the two-day event last weekend, which lured about 4,500 competitors to the scenic rural sprawl in east Pasco County.

The Savage Race, which draws some of the sport's more seasoned participants as well as plenty of newcomers, consisted of a course measuring more than five miles with 27 obstacles to overcome. The Savage Blitz was a bit shorter, a three-plus mile course with about 20 obstacles. Then came the Junior Savage race with fewer and smaller obstacles for young boys and girls. The races returned after a one-year hiatus. They were cancelled last March along with numerous other activities as part of a government shutdown stemming from the coronavirus pandemic. Just 48 hours before last year's races state officials informed organizers that the two-day event had to be cancelled. Staff and volunteers then had to share the bad news with about 6,000 entrants.

"Last year was pretty tough for us. People understand why we did what we did," said race founder Sam Abbitt, who was only too happy to reinstate the series at the popular ranch off U.S. 301, just north of Dade City. "It's amazing. We're just super excited to host the event for our competitors."

Waves of runners took off from the start line at various intervals throughout Saturday morning and afternoon. Before one group began their heat, emcee Jeff Meeks enthusiastically offered a bit of advice: "Once you cross this line you're part of the family; part of the community. You have each other's backs."

That is one aspect of the sport many enthusiasts relish. John Wade, who is from Panama City and has done many five-kilometer

Bulldogs finish second to powerhouse Sunlake, which has won four of the past five Sunshine Athletic Conference titles

By STEVE LEE
Sports Reporter

Admittedly, Zephyrhills boys weightlifting coach Chris Barrick said his senior-laden team was loaded in 2019 when it halted Sunlake's four-year reign as the Sunshine Athletic Conference champion in boys weightlifting. Before last week, that was the last conference meet due to last year's event being cancelled as a result of the coronavirus pandemic.

"They'd been the top dog in the county for a while," said Barrick, who is in his sixth season coaching the Bulldogs. "That was the year for us to snap the streak. That year I was pretty deep with older kids."

That group of Zephyrhills weightlifters featured seven seniors, who along with several juniors helped the team win individual conference titles with three runners-up.

The host Bulldogs placed second this year with 46 points, well behind Sunlake's 69 and a comfortable 20 more than third-place Cypress Creek. Land O' Lakes finished fourth at 23, Wesley Chapel was fifth with 14, followed by Pasco and Wiregrass Ranch, each with 9.

Barrick noted that this year's Zephyrhills squad

Bulldog baseball drops visiting Tenoroc 9-0

Heading into the spring break, the Bulldogs make it a high note

By ANDY WARRENER
Sports Reporter

The Zephyrhills Bulldogs shook off a 7-0 loss at Land O' Lakes last Thursday night by downing Orlando-area Tenoroc at home to head into spring break 3-6. It's been a tough year for a very young Bulldog squad. There isn't a senior on the whole team and there are just five juniors. The season is and ought to be fraught with fits and starts.

"It's a young team, so we're going to go through some stumbles," Bulldog head coach Rusty Guynn said. "We can pitch well enough, we think we can win two ball games."

Guynn is referring to the district playoffs, where despite the regular season record, they can win two district playoff games and make regionals. That all seems a long ways away as the Bulldogs are still battling through the first half of the season. They took some hard losses at top area schools like Cypress Creek, Sunlake and Wesley Chapel.

"We're getting better by it, getting the experience, so that we'll be ready," Guynn said. "If we play like we did tonight, we would have been in some of those earlier ball games."

The Bulldogs got a hot start on Friday, both from starter Bryan Santiago and from the top two-thirds of the batting order. Santiago came out and got two ground outs and a strikeout to retire the side. The Bulldog batters answered and got four hits off their first six batters. Jaxon Rivera singled and scored on a passed ball, as Mark Santiago was hit by a pitch. Bryan Santiago doubled to right-center, setting up two more runs.

Right: Starting pitcher Bryan Santiago went six complete scoreless innings.

Below: Reliever Caden Negron preserved the shutout win for the Bulldogs.

ANDY WARRENER

Right: Starter Bryan Santiago was also the best hitter of the night going 3-for-4 with a double and an RBI.

It was 4-0 before nine-hitter Mathew Casarez struck out to end the inning. The Bulldogs added two more runs in the bottom second when an infield single from Bryan Santiago scored Jaxon Rivera. Another passed ball, something that together with wild pitches, plagued visiting Tenoroc, allowed the second run to score.

Bryan Santiago set the Titans down in order in the top third, all three with ground outs. He'd do the same in the fourth, although he'd add to his strikeout tally of three on the night. The Bulldogs added an insurance run in the fourth after Martin Calhoun walked, stole second and then scored on a single from Maddox Rivera.

It was goose eggs again for Bryan Santiago in the fifth, giving up just one hit but stranding that runner at first base.

The Titans finally made Santiago throw some pitches in the top sixth. A lead-off walk was wiped clean by a throw from catcher Calhoun, as the runner tried for second base. A single and a balk put a pair of Titan runners on base but a great play by second baseman Austin Dobbins, tracking into right field, stranded them.

The Bulldog would add their eighth and ninth runs off of Titan errors and that would also be the end of the night for Santiago. Santiago would go six complete innings with three strikeouts and two walks, no earned runs and just three hits.

Caden Negron took over in the seventh and despite giving up a lead-off single, got two strikeouts and a fly out to end the game and preserve the shutout. Bryan Santiago finished 3-for-4 at the plate with a double and an RBI. Calhoun went 2-for-2 with a pair of walks and Maddox Rivera was 2-for-3 with an RBI.

"We needed this, it was a tough five-game run there with a week off," Guynn said. "We still have to figure a couple things out with the lineup. We've got to get to a point where we score early and then finish. We should have been at the house by now."

Last Friday, March 12, marked one full year since the Bulldogs played a game. Last season was cancelled right about this point in the season, in 2020.

is unlike his SAC championship team. The roster is comprised of numerous underclassmen, which makes it difficult to compete with more seasoned weightlifters.

"Finishing second with only one senior, I'm pretty good with that," he said.

While the Bulldogs did not have a single winner in any weight class, they did earn enough points to finish as the conference runner-up. The top six in each weight class earned points and Zephyrhills garnered points in all weight classes. The exception was at 119, where none of the seven teams were represented.

"I knew that coming in," Barrick said. The top finishers for Zephyrhills were runners-up Jarrin Galyan (heavyweight), Theotis Smith (238) and Jacob Smith (139). Theotis Smith, who missed some weightlifting practices recently while becoming a regional and state qualifier in wrestling, is viewed by the team as a formidable state contender.

"He's a significant piece to this program," Barrick said.

Aside from Jacob Smith, Dalton King placed fourth in the 139 class.

At 129, Pasco's Lucas Sims was a runner-up and Wiregrass Ranch's Aidan Perez placed third. At 139, Cypress Creek's Abe Burgess finished third. At 169, Wesley Chapel's Jay Blake was third and at 183, Zephyrhills' Nick Sheldon took third. Kamil Mehrab of Zephyrhills placed third at 219.

Helping as a volunteer judge was former Zephyrhills standout Ethan Vest, who was a state runner-up to go along with being a two-time district champion and two-time conference winner.

"This school and the coaches did a lot for me, so I like to come back and do a lot for them," said Vest, now a sophomore at the University of South Florida.

The conference meet kicked off this year's postseason stretch for Zephyrhills, which last hosted a major meet — the Class A, Region 6 Championships — in 2019. Next up on the list of playoff meets in the Class 2A, District 12 Championships, which traditionally is held at River Ridge in New Port Richey. The host Royal Knights have won a handful of district championships there in recent years.

The Bulldogs have had plenty of success in the postseason of late. They were regional runners-up in 2019 and 2018, a run that included district and conference titles in 2019, as well as a district runner-up finish in 2018.

"We've built up a pretty respectable weightlifting program at Zephyrhills," said Barrick, noting that the girls weightlifting teams have had their share of conference, district and regional champions in recent seasons as well. "These kids here at Zephyrhills tend to like lifting weights little bit."

HOW TO WRITE A GOOD CLASSIFIED AD

Make the heading short - a short heading should have 2 to 4 words and will capture the reader's attention without clutter and confusion.
Start your ad with the merchandise you are selling - starting out part-time and go to full-time. Please come in to apply.
Always include the price of the item you are selling - 52% of classified readers do not respond to ads that do not include a price.
Make it easy for readers to understand - abbreviations and technical terms are sometimes difficult for readers to comprehend.

Place yourself in the reader's position - ask what you would like to know about the merchandise for sale. Include information such as brand names, colors and other specific descriptions.
Always include contact information - including your phone number will give the readers confidence that your item is legitimate and gives them the option of contacting you for more information.

Hugh Bonneville

HOLLYWOOD -- Kevin Hart's personal shopper, 29-year-old Dylan Jason Syer, was indicted in New York by the Queen's County Grand Jury for grand larceny, criminal possession of stolen properties, identity theft and a scheme to defraud. Hart hired Syer to be his personal shopper from October 2017 until February 2019.

"Downton Abbey's" Hugh Bonneville, at 57, is not slowing down. In addition to "Jingle Jangle: A Christmas Journey," released on Netflix in November, he's got "To Olivia," in which he plays "Willy Wonka" and "James and the Giant Peach" author Roald Dahl.

We knew when "Captain Marvel" starring Brie Larson (2015 Best Actress Oscar winner for "Room") grossed $1.13 billion, that a sequel was coming. Now set for Nov. 11, 2022, the first female Captain Marvel will have a new opponent, played by Zawe Aston.

It was bound to happen. They're going to remake "The Wizard of Oz." The last "Oz" film came from Disney and was "Oz the Great and Powerful" (2013). It starred James Franco, Mila Kunis, Rachel Weisz, Michelle Williams and Zach Braff, and cost $215 million and grossed $493 million.

(3.1 miles) and 10-kilometer (6.2 miles) races, joined a group and said he really enjoyed the competition. It was, he noted, more challenging than the aforementioned road races.

"Our team said this was the best one around," he said of the Little Everglades Ranch event, adding some sage advice for anyone intent on completing the course. "Hesitation is the biggest obstacle. Whenever you feel it you just go harder to overcome the obstacle."

While there were plenty of volunteers on the course, competitors often stopped along their routes to lend a helping hand to a fellow racer having trouble getting past or over an obstacle. Nowhere was that more evident in the Junior Savage Race with parents and designated helpers running alongside young children to help them do the obstacles.

Waiting for his 6-year-old son Sebastian and daughter Yarrianna, 9, near the finish line, Wesley Chapel's Terry Cole marveled as they hurriedly shuffled through bubbles before climbing up and over a V-shaped wooden ladder. Sebastian was just a couple of minutes ahead of his sister.

"It's fun," Terry said, adding, "I try to keep up with (Sebastian)."

Having competed in numerous savage events, Meeks knows first-hand of the grueling regimen the competitors go through.

"My calves, I'm hurting," he said, informing a group of recent finishers to "grab some ice cold beer and take a load off. Good job savages."

Savage Race is among the many passions of Abbitt, who is founded the series in 2011 and is from Gainesville. He also organizes mud runs and is a snowboarder, surfer, scuba diver and bull rider. Abbitt was pleased with this weekend's turnout and figures the series will continue to draw well.

"We're seeing that our numbers are trending upward," he said. "It's just overwhelming how they support us."
