Easter crafts made in art class at the city library

Zephyrhills Public Library hosts popular sessions, which are free and held monthly

BY STEVE LEE
News Reporter

It's that time of year with young and old alike making baskets and decorating eggs as Easter approaches. A monthly art class at the Zephyrhills Public Library, which convenes on the second Friday of each month, was filled with eager artists doing their part to uphold tradition.

"I knew these crafts would be a big hit," said Lori Brightwell, who is in her second year as the city's library director.

Brightwell, who formerly owned a photography business, previously started a crafts class when she was the director of the South Hillsborough Library. Knowing how well it went over, she wasted no time in initiating it when she arrived at the Zephyrhills Library.

There is plenty of camaraderie among the participants, as well as the assistant librarians and volunteers who led a helping hand. There also have been several generations of family members at the sessions, Brightwell noted.

Volunteer efforts do not go unnoticed at ZHS

Pasco County School District celebrates April as Volunteer Month

BY STEVE LEE
News Reporter

Jacob White is a big help in Catherine Burgess' art class. Former school resource officer and softball coach Jeff Hupp has come back to coach the boys golf team and oversee attendance issues. Gwen Stein and Evylyn Simmons assist with running the media center.

Collectively, they are among 700 Zephyrhills High volunteers who do not go unnoticed. They are being recognized as part of a statewide education effort to declare April as School Volunteer Appreciation Month. In Pasco County, that includes more than 17,000 volunteers contributing 185,000-plus hours.

"Zephyrhills High is very lucky to have a large contingent of people who are willing to give their time and effort to help students who are in need and to help school programs that would probably cease to exist without that," said principal Angie Stone.

White, a 2018 Zephyrhills graduate who is autistic, helps fellow art students in Burgess' class on Tuesday and Thursdays.

"He works with the clay and has been running our pug mill, as well as helping with student projects," Burgess said. "He is always there and always helpful."

Paul White said his son is appreciative for the chance to stay connected with the school and enjoys time spent with some of his former classmates. He took art in Burgess' classes for all four of his years at the high school.

"It's good for him," Paul White said. "He enjoys it a lot and it gives him something to do. He likes stuff to do. He doesn't want to sit at home. He and his teacher get along well."

Daybreak Rotarians bowl for a great cause

Zephyrhills Daybreak Rotarians converged on Pinchasers on Saturday afternoon for some good times and good deeds

BY ANDY WARRENER
News Reporter

It wasn't an ordinary Saturday at Pinchasers on Gall Boulevard in Zephyrhills. Sure, families and friends took the afternoon to beat the heat and fellowship but 14 different four-person teams were competing, not just for a trophy but to help make the world a better place.

"So many people come to bowl-a-thon, even the Dade City clubs come out," Daybreak Rotary of Zephyrhills president Rick Leanillo said. "We're here to show our presence to the community as well."

The 24th Annual Daybreak Rotary of Zephyrhills Bowl-A-Thon was held on Saturday. The event is one of two primary fundraising events of the year for Daybreak Rotary, the other being an October golf tournament. The 2018 bowl-a-thon generated a net of $4,800 and the 2019 event looked to improve on that figure. There were several ways the Daybreak Rotarians raised funds through the event.

First, it costs $180 per team to enter the contest.

grandparent," she said.

Librarians Debbie Lopez and Victoria DeGeorge, along with volunteer Susan Clark, helped out with last week's project.

"This is alcohol ink on eggs," Clark said. "We did it one other time on another project."

Added DeGeorge, "We try to pick a different theme each month. Easter's here."

The classes are free and are held in the meeting room, just off to the right as you enter the library. They have become so popular that an extra session was needed.

"We've got such a following we have to do two classes," said DeGeorge, alluding to morning and afternoon sessions that bring in about 20 people apiece.

"You come in, you do your craft and you go home," Clark said.

Zephyrhills resident Lisa Cummins enjoys the crafts, but it is about much more than simply making something: "Just the relaxation and meeting new people."

"It's wonderful to see them come in every month," said Clark, who then looked over at Cummins and said, "You're ready for eggs."

Quite a few people in the library's meeting room last week said they have been coming to the sessions for various periods of time. Zephyrhills resident Dianne Fisher, however, was a first-timer.

"I recently joined the library and I joined the book club," said Fisher, adding that she enjoyed making the eggs.

Lynne Westervelt, a Zephyrhills resident who has taken the crafts class for about six months, said she liked making a heart-shaped wreath during one session, "but this is good too."

Added Zephyrhills' Stacey Puckett, who has been coming to the sessions for three months, "It's fun. It's enjoyable."

Not everyone is local. Molly Meadows travels to the local library from Lutz since a library in that area does not have crafts classes.

"I like coming out here," she said.

Two people who drove further than that were Sandra Livengood and Helen Manchesi, who drove across the county from New Port Richey.

"It's a long drive with the traffic," Livengood said. "Is it worth it? Yes, it is."

It does not look like the crafts classes will end anytime soon, especially since they are such a big hit, as Brightwell noted. And, the librarians and volunteers pointed out that there always are plenty of ideas, which in turn draws people to Zephyrhills from near and far.

"With Lori having an art degree she understands what you can do," Clark said.

Upon Brightwell's arrival to the Zephyrhills library, she said, "We really didn't have much in the way of programs. We really wanted to make it active for all ages."

Ernest Douglas Young

YOUNG, Ernest Douglas, 88, passed away unexpectedly at his home in Zephyrhills on March 27, 2019. Doug was born to Ernest S. and Sophia A. Young in Berkley, Mich. on May 11, 1930. He served his country in the U.S. Army in Europe in the early 1950s. He worked at General Motors for 13 years and operated Young's Lumber through the 1970s. He married Marcia Niles Laucks in March 1962 and became devoted stepdad to her two sons, Lloyd "Mickey" and Steven Paul Laucks. They added a daughter to the family, Sandra Kay Young. Doug and Marcia retired to Zephyrhills in 1990. Doug faithfully cared for Marcia until she passed away in 2010 after a long illness. Doug married his new-found sweetheart, Jean Nichols, in 2015. They enjoyed attending the Alliance Church, McDonalds for breakfast with friends nearly every morning, and traveling in their motor home together. Doug's passion for automobiles spanned his entire lifetime. He enjoyed working on his classic cars and attending car shows with his "car buddies," even the night preceding his passing. Doug will be missed by everyone who knew him. Doug is survived by his wife, Jean Nichols; two sons, Lloyd "Mickey" and daughter-in-law, Cheryl Laucks and Steven and daughter-in-law, Debbie Laucks; his daughter, Sandra Smith and son-in-law, Steven Smith; grandsons, Parker (Kelly) Smith, Palmer (Rayne) Smith and Preston (Adrianna) Smith; and Jean's children, Rick (Beth) White, Missy Stevens and Cheri Taylor; and one very sweet great-granddaughter, Ariadne Smith. Lyn Currier

CURRIER, Lyn, 92, of Zephyrhills passed away April 5, 2019. Lyn was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and friend. Lyn was involved with many community activities; one group has always held a special place in her life. Eastern Star and the Masons became a large part of their lives. She met many dear friends that she renamed

SALOME'S STARS ★★★★★

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) You might need to do a bit more investigating before making a career move. You do best when you come armed with the facts. A personal matter still needs tending to.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Your creativity plus your good business sense once more combine to give you an important advantage in a difficult workplace situation. An ally proves his or her loyalty.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Avoid rushing into something just because it offers a break from your usual routine. Take things a step at a time to be sure you're moving in the right direction.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Bouncing back from a disappointing incident isn't easy, but you should find a welcome turn of events emerging. Spend the weekend with someone special.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) An incomplete project needs your attention before someone else takes it over and uses it to his or her advantage. There'll be lots of time for fun and games once you get it done.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Doubts involving a potential career change need to be resolved quickly so they don't get in the way when you feel you're finally ready to make the big move.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Looking to blame someone for a workplace problem could backfire if it turns out you've got the wrong "culprit." Best to get more facts before acting on your assumptions.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Patience might still be called for until you're sure you finally have the full story that eluded you up till now. A trusted associate could offer valuable guidance.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Look into your recent behavior to see if you could have caused the coolness you might now be sensing from a loved one. If so, apologize and set things straight.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Easing up on your social activities allows you to focus more of your energies on a long-neglected personal matter. You can get back into party mode by the weekend.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) A dispute with a colleague can be resolved peacefully once you both agree to be more flexible about the positions you've taken and allow for more open-minded discussions.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Volunteering to take on added responsibilities could be a risky way to impress the powers-that-be. Do it only if you're sure you won't be swept away by the extra workload.

BORN THIS WEEK: Your sense of self-awareness allows you to make bold moves with confidence.

Find at least six differences in details between panels.

STRANGE BUT TRUE By Samantha Weaver

- It was one of the most influential directors in the history of cinema, Alfred Hitchcock -- also known as the "Master of Suspense" -- who made the following sage observation: "The length of a film should be directly related to the endurance of the human bladder."
- In Murfreesboro, Tennessee, it is illegal to keep indoor furniture outdoors.
- The town of Llanfair in Wales is also known by its Welsh name, Llanfairpwllgwyngyllgogerychwyrndrob-wllllantsiliogogoch. Roughly translated, this means, "Saint Mary's Church in a hollow of white hazel, close to a whirlpool and Saint Tysilo's Church and near a red cave." The sign at the railway station that has the town's name is 20 feet long.

- Those who study such things say that cockroaches can run as fast as 3 mph.
- You probably don't realize it -- and you certainly don't notice it -- but experts claim that the Atlantic Ocean is getting about 1 centimeter bigger every year, and the Pacific Ocean is shrinking by the same amount. It's due to continental drift, they say.
- Linguists say that American English has roughly 20 swear words (depending, of course, on how one defines swearing). In contrast, residents of ancient Rome had a lexicon of about 800 so-called "dirty" words to draw upon.
- The tuatara is a lizard that can be found in New Zealand. Its claim to fame? It has a third eye, located on the top of its head.

- If you counted up all the McDonald's, Dunkin' Donuts, Pizza Hut, Burger King, Domino's Pizza, Kentucky Fried Chicken, Wendy's and Taco Bell locations in the United States and added them together, you still wouldn't reach the number of pharmacy locations across the country.

Business sponsors could pay $75 for an ad that would run on the bowling screens at Pinchasers, not just for the event but for the next 30 days. Next, was a 50-50 cash raffle. Lastly, raffle tickets for 12 gift baskets were sold. The gift baskets had particular themes to them and were compiled through the generosity of local businesses in the Zephyrhills community and from the Rotarians themselves.

"Pinchasers really deserves some credit because they not only made the facility available for us but agreed to display the sponsors' business cards digitally on their screens for 30 days," past president and District 6950 vice chair Jack Thies said.

With the bowling competition ongoing, Daybreak Rotary of Zephyrhills and president-elect Manny Funes acted as emcee, coordinating the prize giveaways.

"We're a small club but we're unique at being involved," Funes said. "Everyone pitches in and it's great people working together. It's what being a Rotarian is all about."

"It takes 10 to 12 volunteers to put this event together," Rotarian Jodi Wilkeson said. "A lot of people don't even know all that Rotary does in the community."

Wilkeson mentioned recent projects such as the Samaritan Project, Meals on Wheels and Rotary Camp Florida as recent endeavors they have donated to. Daybreak Rotary of Zephyrhills also provides scholarships for local high school students, having donated $2,000 in scholarships in 2018. They also spring for checks and gift cards to recognize Teachers of the Year and School Resource Personnel of the year.

The club's most recent project was contributing $1,000 to the Pasco County Sheriff's K-9 Training Center in Land O' Lakes. Zephyrhills Rotarians have also donated to Sunrise of Pasco County Domestic Violence Shelter and to the splash pad behind Alice Hall in Zephyr Park.

Rotary International boasts over 1.2 million members world-wide and champions causes like PolioPlus, a 30-year campaign to rid the world of polio. Since 1985, Rotary and its partners have helped reduce the number of cases from 350,000 to fewer than 400 in 2014 and have contributed more than $1.3 billion and countless volunteer hours to protect more than two billion children.

As the competition wound down and the last few baskets were raffled off, teams made their final throws vying for the team title. Zephyrhills resident Kasey Kent won the 50-50 raffle and soon the top-placing teams were announced.

Third place was the team from Center State Bank, second was the Richard Deighton team and the winner was Wilkeson's own WDA Design Group Inc. team consisting of Gene Stanek, Rob Funnell, John Bostic and CJ Funnell.

"CJ pulled the weight today," Stanek said. "I just helped him out."

Wilkeson was happy to defer the actual bowling to her teammates.

"We kind of have a theme every year," Wilkeson said. "For the golf tournament, we had a police team, a firefighters team. My team for this event was public works and water department."

As the event wrapped up, Funes took the opportunity to call up employees and thank Pinchasers for their contributions to the event. Aside from the sponsorship, Pinchasers also provided pizzas and sodas for the teams.

Hupp, a 1986 Zephyrhills graduate, spent seven years as the school resource officer during his time as a Zephyrhills Police Officer. He also coached softball this season and was helping out the boys golf team, taking over late in the season when Shawn Van Patten took another job in Pinellas County.

"It's always nice to help out at a school I graduated from; just being part of the community and helping students at the high school," said Hupp, who has more than 160 volunteer hours since last August.

Volunteers are led by Judy Williams, the parent involvement coordinator who retired in 2016 after years of heading up the student services department.

As for Stein and Simmons, Alan Mullins, the school's resource management associate, expressed his gratitude for their combined efforts.

"They have been instrumental in getting some important projects completed in the media center," he said. "I have enjoyed working with them and hope they will continue to volunteer at our school and the media center in the future."

Among the group of parental volunteers are those who support the Class of 2020. Christy Wilder, Lisa and Samuel Venger, and Lori Weick have worked concessions for countless sporting events, planned the 2019 prom and attended monthly meetings for the Student Advisory Council.

"This is a very special group of parents," assistant principal Michelle Topham said. "They are the most dedicated group of parents I've ever had the privilege of working with. We are grateful for their dedication to the Class of 2020 and to our school."

Stone was quick to add to the list of volunteers who help out with such actions as the chain gang in football that keeps track of yards and distance; parents and other responsible adults who chaperone on field trips and other events such as sports, JROTC and the marching band; guest speakers at academic events; and being judges for the school's version of Shark Tank to showcase entrepreneurial students.

"The real-world connections is what our volunteers are giving," the principal said.

Create colorful Easter eggs

Beautifully colored Easter eggs are a beloved holiday tradition. In many cultures, eggs represent new life, fertility and rebirth. For Christians, the Easter egg is symbolic of the resurrection, or the eternal life, of Jesus Christ. The practice of coloring eggs and offering them as decorative items is embraced during both secular and religious Easter celebrations.

Many fond memories and traditions are tied to Easter egg coloring, and some people may have their preferential kits or practices to achieve beautiful eggs. But embracing some new tips and tricks can produce beautiful eggs and make this beloved tradition even more fun.

- Begin with firm, hard-boiled eggs. Bring a pot of water to a rolling boil. Then use a large spoon to gently lower the eggs into the water. Lower the heat to maintain a simmer and boil for just about 12 minutes. Transfer the eggs to a bowl with ice cold water and let them cool. Allow the eggs to cool completely before coloring.
- Lay out newspaper or an old tablecloth to soak up any spills. Spills are inevitable, so don't let them spoil the fun. In addition, empty egg cartons make ideal drying racks, so do not discard them.

- Make patterns or other designs on the eggs. Use a white crayon to draw on the egg directly. The dye will not stick to the wax. Or use string, rubber bands, tape, stickers, or other items to create your pattern. Dip the egg and then remove the materials afterward to reveal the design.

- Swirl a few drops of food coloring into shaving cream on a flat surface. Roll the eggs into the mixture, let dry, and then gently clean to remove the excess shaving cream. The result is a marbled effect.

Explore various Easter egg coloring techniques this season.

- Recognize that you don't have to "dye" eggs at all. Use a sponge to dab on a design. Strips of tissue paper can be adhered to the egg with glue or shellac. Children may enjoy submerging the egg in glue and then coating it in glitter.

The potential to create creative Easter eggs is limitless. Embracing new strategies can set this year's eggs apart.

Fire up the smoker for Easter dinner this year

For much of the country, Easter Sunday typically falls during a time of year when the weather outside is still pretty chilly. But this year Easter falls on the third Sunday in April, increasing the chances that temperatures will be more spring-like and less reminiscent of winter.

Warmer temperatures on Easter Sunday means hosts tasked with cooking Easter dinner might be able to expand their culinary horizons and avoid the stove. Though they might not have considered it before, hosts might want to fire up their smokers to give their families something delicious and different to dine on this Easter Sunday. If the weather takes an unexpected turn for the worse, electric smokers can typically be used indoors, but check the manufacturer's instructions to confirm that.

Big meals are part and parcel for Easter Sunday, this recipe for "Pork Loin Roast with Hot Pepper Jelly Glaze" from Karen Putman and Judith Fertig's "Championship BBQ Secrets for Real Smoked Food" (Robert Rose) is a great way to take advantage of warmer Easter weather while still ensuring everyone has a full belly by the end of the meal.

Pork Loin Roast with Hot Pepper Jelly Glaze

Serves 4 to 6

- 1 boneless pork loin roast (about 2 lbs.)
- 4 cups apple juice
- 1/2 cup Brown Sugar Rib Rub (see below)
- 1 cup hot pepper jelly
- Additional apple juice for spraying

1. Rinse pork under cold running water and pat dry. Place in a large sealable plastic bag and pour in apple juice. Seal bag and refrigerate for at least 8 hours and up to 12 hours.

2. Remove pork from marinade and pat dry. Discard marinade. Sprinkle dry rub over the surface of the meat, coating evenly. Set aside.

3. Prepare a fire in your smoker.

4. Meanwhile, in a small saucepan, melt hot pepper jelly over medium-low heat. Keep warm by the smoker.

5. Place pork directly on the smoker rack, add wood to the coals and close the lid. Smoke at 225 F to 250 F, spraying with apple juice every 30 minutes, for 2 hours. Brush with hot pepper jelly, close the lid and smoke, spraying with apple juice every 30 minutes, for 1 to 1 1/2 hours, or until a meat thermometer inserted in the thickest part of the pork registers 160 F for medium, or until desired doneness. Let rest for 15 minutes before slicing.

Brown Sugar Rib Rub

Makes about 3 1/2 cups

- 2 cups packed dark brown sugar or granulated maple sugar
- 1/2 cup fine kosher or sea salt
- 1/4 cup sweet Hungarian paprika
- 1/4 cup chili powder
- 1/4 cup ground lemon pepper
- 1/4 cup granulated garlic
- 1 tablespoon freshly ground black pepper
- 1 teaspoon dried basil
- 1 teaspoon dried thyme

In a medium bowl, combine brown sugar, salt, paprika, chili powder, lemon pepper, garlic, black pepper, basil, and thyme.
