Rugged Maniac's 9th Annual event at Little Everglades Ranch enjoys pristine but windy weather

The picturesque scene at Little Everglades Ranch was a perfect backdrop for Rugged Maniac's April installment

A band of wind and rain ripped through Central Florida Friday afternoon causing inconvenience and a bit of havoc, especially if the event you're hosting has a city of pop-up tents that might double as gigantic kites in a gust.

"The rain was great because it made everything more muddy but the wind was really giving us trouble yesterday," Rugged Maniac Events Coordinator Savannah Slater said. "We had a few tents break and had to chase some down until we had all hands on deck staking them down. Today was the same, except without the rain."

The challenges that Friday dealt the Rugged team a hard hand afforded them a Saturday morning and afternoon with magnificent weather.

"It was so cool today, I loved it," overall champion runner Ben Rittenhouse said. "(cool weather) Definitely helps that last mile and then when you hit the water and get that cool breeze."

Little Everglades Ranch is a great venue for an Obstacle Course Race (OCR). It's open fields, undulating terrain and wooded areas afford great visibility of the course and a variety of terrain.

"It's a massive property with a great festival area," Slater said. "We fashion this event as a festival that has a mud run - people can make a whole day out of it."

Food trucks and beer tents lined the festival grounds as well as a host of corporate sponsors, many giving away swag bags and other items. Rugged Maniac deployed a mechanical bull for enjoyment by all ages. On stage, fitness contests like holding a full beer stein at arm's length and doing pull ups earned competitors more swag and beer tickets, courtesy of Cigar City Brewing. A DJ spinning tunes on the main stage helped set the party atmosphere.

The real challenge, however, was on the course. The three-mile course featured more than 20 obstacles that challenged racers in a number of ways. The competitive wave went off first at 9 a.m. and waves continued all the way up to 1:45 p.m. As many as 200 rugged maniacs crowded the starting slips for each wave. Palm Harbor resident Rittenhouse won the overall top spot in 26 minutes and 46 seconds.

Bulls, Pirates add to list of district tennis titles

Zephyrhills also competes in districts and advances four to state tournaments

By STEVE LEE
Sports Reporter

The Wiregrass Ranch boys and Pasco girls keep on racking up district titles. Last week the Bulls made it 10 straight district championships, which followed two district runner-up finishes to give them 12 consecutive postseason appearances.

"We had a good group of brothers who came through and then another set of brothers," said Wiregrass Ranch coach Dave Wilson, who also is that school's athletic director and boys soccer coach. "It's been a family affair for us."

The Bulls, state champions in 2014 and 2015 before finishing as state runners-up in 2017, won four singles and two doubles matches in last week's Class 4A, District 6 tournament at Wharton. Nos. 1-4 singles winners were, in order, Kanishkh Ramesh, Destiny Okungbowa, Adam Mansour and Josh Abrams. Ramesh and Abrams then won at No. 1 doubles while the No. 2 doubles title went to Okungbowa and Mansour.

The Pirates, who at 13-0 have yet to lose this season, won their second district crown in the past four years. That includes two district runner-up finishes after narrow losses to rival East Lake on tiebreakers in the finals.

Bulldogs clawed by SAC champion Seahawks in 13-0 mercy-rule defeat at home

Sunshine Athletic Conference champ Sunlake dominates host Zephyrhills as postseason nears

By STEVE LEE
Sports Reporter

Tuesday night's clash on the softball diamond in Zephyrhills was a tale of two teams at opposite ends of the spectrum. One came in fresh off clinching its first-ever Sunshine Athletic Conference title while another struggled to even get players on base with only one making it to third.

Not surprisingly, visiting Sunlake dominated Zephyrhills 13-0 in a game ended after five innings due to the 10-run mercy rule. Thankfully, the conference rivals will not meet in the postseason since Sunlake competes in Class 7A, District 10 while Zephyrhills is in 6A-7.

Sunlake is 20-2, on a 17-game winning streak and is having its best season in the school's 12-year history. The Seahawks, district runners-up twice, have their sights set on a district championship and long playoff run.

"They're a good team," Zephyrhills coach Jarrett Myers said of the Seahawks. Zephyrhills, which dropped to 5-12, was held scoreless for the sixth time this season. The Bulldogs have lost three of their past four games but were coming off a dominating 14-3 win over Fivay on Senior Night.

Zephyrhills closes out the regular season on Friday at Hudson and are slotted to play archrival Pasco in the district opener on Monday. That first-round game is scheduled at 5 p.m. How the team fares in that matchup and possibly more games is totally up to the ballplayers, according to Myers.

"We've fixed everything we can fix. We've shown you everything we can show you. It's up to you to fix it," he said in a postgame address to his ballplayers.

Although the results have not been what was expected of this team, the coach had no qualms about the effort.

"It's got to come from within them," Myers said. "We've been working on attitude and effort. They don't get down on themselves and that's good."

Pacing Sunlake's high-powered offense was record-setting slugger Jenna Lord, who had four hits including a pair of homers. She doubled in a run in the first inning, belted a solo shot over the left field fence, added a three-run blast and a single to finish with five RBIs and three runs scored.

The sophomore shortstop is tied for the school record with 15 homers, which includes a single-season mark of nine.

Riverchase Dermatology and Cosmetic Surgery offers over 623 free skin cancer screenings

May is Skin Cancer Awareness Month and the American Academy of Dermatology reports that one in five Americans will develop skin cancer by the age of 70. With over 5 million cases diagnosed in the United States each year, skin cancer is the most common form of cancer in the country. Fortunately, skin cancers are easily treated if diagnosed early.

In 2018 Riverchase Dermatology was named top practice and top skin cancer screener in the U.S. by the American Society for Dermatologic Surgery for the fourth consecutive year and is once again opening its doors to new patients of the practice for a complimentary skin cancer screening throughout the month of May. Riverchase is proudly offering 623 screening appointment throughout 24 locations, with 25 providers participating.

"As an organization that is passionate about your skin health, we are committed to building awareness of the dangers of skin cancer and the importance of annual skin cancer screenings. We are excited about the opportunity to give back to our communities and look forward to hosting the most successful screening event in Riverchase history," says Andrew T. Jaffe, M.D., FAAD, chief medical officer.

Screenings will be available by appointment only during the month of May. With screening events scheduled across 24 Riverchase locations, Riverchase will provide access to members of the communities it serves on the west coast of Florida between Tampa and Marco Island and across the east coast from Boca Raton through Miami.

New patients to the practice may call (800) 591-3376 or visit riverchasedermatology.com/melanomamay for additional information on dates and locations and to reserve their free skin cancer screening appointment today.

In the 3A-6 tourney hosted by Wesley Chapel, Pasco tallied 15 points, one more than runner-up Land O' Lakes.

"We got a little help from East Lake," said Pasco coach Don Charlick, alluding to a No. 2 doubles win by East Lake against Land O' Lakes. A Land O' Lakes victory in that match "would've forced a playoff tiebreaker."

No. 2 Alex Barath, No. 4 Sally Campbell and No. 5 Bess Rom were district champions for the Pirates, who also got a No. 2 doubles final appearance by Sitara Sriram and Barath. That pair lost a three-set tiebreaker against the Gators.

"It was a battle; a great match," Charlick said.

Charlick, who since taking over the girls program in 2009 has built an impressive 129-32 record in the regular season. That followed a rough first season in which the team won just three times in 13 matches.

"Ever since then we've had winning seasons, which is awesome," he said.

Meanwhile, Zephyrhills, whose boys and girls each placed third in their district tournaments, will send Auburn University at Montgomery signee Jonathan Judy-Hansen to the state tourney for the fourth time. Three other Bulldogs made it as a result of No. 1 doubles victories.

At Crystal River, Judy-Hansen defeated Crystal River Trent Stukes in No. 1 singles. The three-time district qualifier will be joined at the state tourney by No. 1 doubles partner Isaac Vincent

"The boys team finished with the best winning record since before I was coach," Zephyrhills boys coach Karl Hinkle said of his team's 11-7 record. "Each player individually had a winning record. Having Judy-Hansen brought the level of play for the whole team up."

"We knew we were going against two tough teams in Nature Coast and Crystal River but losing our No. 3 early in the season for employment was difficult," he continued, noting that Crystal River won and Nature Coast placed second. "The other guys stepped up."

Also headed to the state series from Zephyrhills for a second straight season are No. 1 doubles partners and senior twins Hope and Paige Johnson. Paige also won a district title at No. 2 singles with teammate Jaiden Ryker making the final at No. 4 singles.

Nature Coast won the district title and Crystal River was the runner-up.

"I'm very proud of all my girls," said Lorraine Hinkle, who coaches the girls team and is Karl's wife. "We started out with six players and by districts we had five. They all have heart and that is a big thing for athletes. They really know how to work together on the court."

"The most surprising thing at districts this year was we were only two points behind the first-place team. We really hung in there."

"Normally, I'd be running with my buddy Seth, who won the event the last two years," Rittenhouse said. "He's not here today, so I told him I'd represent."

New Port Richey resident Jamie Stiles won the female division, enjoying the cool weather but wary of the high winds.

"I had a feeling the wind was going to be a factor," Stiles said. "The inflatable balancing pads was definitely more sketchy."

Stiles is a veteran OCR runner with a box full of medals dating back to 2013. Forty-nine-year-old Bill Seaton of Odessa turns 50 on Monday. Expect Seaton to rock the 50-plus division from there because he was second overall on Saturday and he was hardly done after the race. Seaton competed in the beer stein hold and even ripped off 26 pull ups in the pull up contest, all of this after his OCR run.

"I love the competition, love being able to prove myself," Seaton said.

There were also plenty of runners there to just have a good time. A group from Pentecostal Church of God in Valrico assembled a superhero-themed team for the event, some more aware of their challenge than others.

"They signed me up without my permission," Olga Perez claimed. "The course looks intimidating and I hate to get dirty."

Perez braved the course nonetheless and probably isn't as concerned about getting muddy as she was prior to Saturday afternoon.

Danny and Roxanna Bennett of Naples drove all the way up to Little Everglades Ranch dressed in professional wrestler-themed ensembles; Danny as the Ultimate Warrior and Roxanna as Hulk Hogan.

"I noticed at the last one (OCR) that a lot of people were dressed up and I thought, heck I wanna dress up, too," Danny Bennett said.

Brandon Kes of Dunedin hosted his friends Austin Drew and Loren Robinson, who drove down from Troy, Ala. for the event. Bandmates from Last Living Souls, Yadira Almeida, Pablo and Jessica Losada drove up from Miami to participate in the event. Locals, Stacy Cline of Tampa and Jeremy Clement of Land O' Lakes put together prison inmate costumes and dubbed their team, Running from Something.

Another milestone for the Seahawks came in the fifth with Kendra Falby getting her third hit of the game, a single that gave the sophomore 100 hits. Falby's last hit came off reliever Kyleigh Smith, the Zephyrhills catcher who struggled in her first relief appearance by hitting four batters, walking six and allowing five runs.

"I knew that (Sunlake coach Nelson Garcia) was going to get her up to get her hit," Myers said. "If (the inning) had kept going I would've pulled her."

In a show of sportsmanship as Smith struggled with her command, Garcia purposely had three baserunners leave early in the four-run fifth so outs would be made.

"We don't run scores up," he said. Zephyrhills had just three hits in the game, two off starter Alyssa Cordoba and one off reliever Michelle Busot. Getting singles for the Bulldogs were Smith, who had two of those hits, and Gisele Navarra.

The only Zephyrhills baserunner to get to third was Amberlyn Davis, who walked twice but got picked off third on her second one.

HOW TO WRITE A GOOD CLASSIFIED AD

Make the heading short - a short heading should have 2 to 4 words and will capture the reader's attention without clutter and confusion.

Start your ad with the merchandise you are selling - starting with the merchandise makes it easier for the reader to locate your item(s) for sale.

Always include the price of the item you are selling - 52% of classified readers do not respond to ads that do not include a price.

Make it easy for readers to understand - abbreviations and technical terms are sometimes difficult for readers to comprehend.

Place yourself in the reader's position - ask what you would like to know about the merchandise for sale. Include information such as brand names, colors and other specific descriptions.
