Zephyrhills dedicates sidewalk extension at Zephyr Park to Irene Dobson

At her 95th birthday celebration, the City of Zephyrhills issued a proclamation dedicating a portion of sidewalk to one of Zephyrhills' icons Ms. Irene Dobson

By ANDY WARRENER
News Reporter

It actually began during Ms. Dobson's 92nd birthday party at a pavilion in Zephyr Park. She needed to use the restroom and enlisted the help of her youngest daughter Betsy. At that time, there was no sidewalk connecting the pavilion to the restrooms.

"I was actually pushing her through the sand," Betsy Dobson said. "My brother Robert came over to help and it was still difficult. Once we got there and back I made a comment to Steve (Spina). He said it had never crossed his mind that we needed a sidewalk there and that he'd bring it up to the city council."

Outgoing city manager Spina is a long-time friend of the family and of Dobson's. Spina attended that 92nd birthday party. He was also in attendance at the dedication ceremony marking Dobson's 95th birthday. Dobson's actual birthday is April 30 but the friends and family members in attendance last Saturday at Alice Hall, were a testament to the impact that Irene Dobson has had on the Zephyrhills community.

Three years later and not only is a portion of sidewalk connecting the pavilions to the restroom complete, but that section of sidewalk will be hereafter named after Irene

Zephyrhills High art students proudly show off their works

Displays at annual show featured plenty of variety, including art forms in two dimensions

By STEVE LEE
News Reporter

Last Thursday students, friends and families milled around the concession stand in front of the Zephyrhills High gym, but nobody was there for a sporting event like volleyball, basketball or wrestling.

Instead, that early-evening gathering, complete with food and refreshments, took place so people could check out student's works for a school art show. It was the only one of the year.

"The kids have worked so hard this year and have done a great job," said Amanda Luby, one of two art teachers along with Catherine Burgess who helped arrange the annual high school art show.

"It's just to give the kids an opportunity to display," added Burgess. "If they're interested in selling their work they're free to do that too. Most of them are attached to their things, so they ask when they can have them back."

Luby, a 1997 Zephyrhills High graduate, transferred from Fivay High in Hudson and is in her first year at Zephyrhills. On the other hand, Burgess has taught art classes at the high school for the past 15 years.

On display were the works of about 75 students, who delved in 2-D and 3-D dimensions. Art shown by the students, ranging from freshmen to seniors, were in various forms such as drawing, sculptures, ceramics, clay and mosaics.

Since it was not a juried show, there were no prizes and no judges to rank the art forms of the students.

"It's just to display and socialize," Burgess said. Zephyrhills senior Brooke Brown had nearly a dozen works on display, including her prized possession she called Jupiter, a 6-foot-6 acrylic painting.

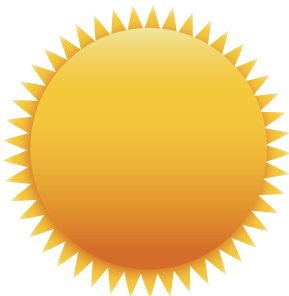

"Finally getting to show it off is nice," she said. Brown, who plans to pursue art in college, followed in the footsteps of her older brothers who likes to do art.

"They did it more as a hobby, but I got hooked on it," said Brown, who began to take art seriously as a student at Stewart Middle.

Night of excellence for Zephyrhills seniors

Senior Scholarship and Awards Ceremony recognizes high achievers

By STEVE LEE
News Reporter

While every graduating class is unique in its own right, the Class of 2019 will always hold a special place in the hearts of families and friends who gathered in the Zephyrhills High gymnasium Tuesday night for the traditional Senior Scholarship and Awards Ceremony.

Billed as the 2019 Night of Excellence it will be memorable as well for April Simons, the school's college and career counselor who worked closely with many of those students on their future paths.

"This is probably the most high-achieving, academically, over the past five years," she said. "They have the highest GPAs with the most involvement in sports and community activities."

Simons doled out many scholarships and awards, introducing numerous representatives of various sponsors as well. Toward the conclusion, principal Angie Stone and assistant principal Camille Watkins

AdventHealth Zephyrhills receives an 'A' for patient safety again

Keeping patients safe is one of AdventHealth Zephyrhills most important standards, so learning on May 15, that the hospital received an 'A' grade from The Leapfrog Group is a huge honor, according to Gwen Alonso, RN, the hospital's vice president and chief nursing officer.

"This designation underscores AdventHealth Zephyrhills ongoing commitment to protecting our patients from harm and providing safer health care. To be recognized nationally as an 'A' hospital is an accomplishment that our community should take pride in," Alonso said. "Hospitals that get an 'A' are making it a priority and working very hard to protect patients from preventable medical harm and errors. The entire AdventHealth Zephyrhills clinical and non-clinical team appreciates the community's trust in us."

This is the second consecutive year that AdventHealth Zephyrhills has received an "A" grade from The Leapfrog Group for patient safety, Alonso added. The Safety Grade assigns an 'A', 'B', 'C', 'D' or 'F' grade to 2,600 acute care hospitals across United States twice annually based on their performance in preventing medical errors, injuries, accidents, infections and other harms to patients for whom they are caring.

Developed under the guidance of a national expert panel, the Leapfrog Hospital Safety Grade uses 28 measures of publicly available hospital safety data to assign grades. Its method for selecting hospital grades is peer-reviewed and fully transparent and, the results are free to the public by visiting HospitalSafetyGrade.org

Leapfrog is a national, non-profit organization that was founded in 2000 and is committed to improving health care quality and safety.

Dobson. Spina brought along a copy of the proclamation and read it aloud. The commemorative plaque is on its way and will be placed near the section of sidewalk.

A procession of friends and family members joined Ms. Dobson and shared personal experiences. Daughter Betsy shared a story about Irene told to her by her Uncle Alfonso, where Ms. Dobson oversaw a fishing excursion from a fallen tree only to find out that a five-and-a-half-foot water moccasin was coiled up inside it.

Betsy Dobson shared another story about how Irene put sneezing powder on a teacher's desk when she was still a student.

Neighbor Fred Harold shared stories about how Ms. Dobson was like a godmother to him and how she guided him with her frank advice. Daughter Elaine Dobson sang a rendition of "Amazing Grace."

Sixty-year friend Mary Ellen Ahrens shared that she had three boys of her own that all called Ms. Dobson, "Nanny." Ahrens even performed a rap commemorating their enduring friendship.

"This is very exciting, I did not expect anything like this," Ms. Dobson said. "I've been active in Zephyrhills for a long time and I've always been a people person. Color never made any difference to me."

Ms. Dobson had high praise for Spina as well.

"He's just a nice person, born to be a good guy," Ms. Dobson said. "He never saw above anyone. If he could help someone he did it."

Know what to expect if you're expecting or a new parent

If you're pregnant or caring for a newborn, AdventHealth Zephyrhills has some free classes coming up that may be perfect for you.

They also offer Infant CPR and Choking Rescue June 3, 6-7:30 p.m. This American Heart Association class is an orientation to both emergencies and can help save your baby's life until emergency personnel arrive. While they hope that you're never in this position, it's important to know what to do.

The Baby Place Birth Advocates understand that you have a lot of questions if you're expecting, so they've organized a two-part childbirth education course June 22, 9 a.m.-2 p.m. that continues during these same hours on June 29. The facilitators will cover the different stages of pregnancy and labor, but special attention will be given to natural childbirth, epidurals, Cesarean sections and answering your questions. They will also take time to delve deep into postpartum and newborn care.

All classes will take place at AdventHealth Zephyrhills, 7050 Gall Blvd., Zephyrhills, in the Cypress Room off the main lobby. Pre-registration is required, so please call (813) 779-6471 or reserve your place online by going to the Events and News page at AdventHealthZephyrhills.com.

SALOME'S STARS ★★★★★

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) There's nothing an Aries Lamb likes less than having to tackle a humdrum task. But finding a creative way to do it can make all the difference. A more exciting time awaits you this weekend.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Finishing up a job on time leaves you free to enjoy your weekend without any Taurean guilt pangs. A romantic attitude from an unlikely source could take you by surprise.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Moving in a new career direction might be seen by some as risky. But if you have both the confidence to see it through and the facts to back you up, it could prove rewarding.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Holding back on a decision might be difficult, considering how long you've waited for this opportunity. But until you're able to resolve all doubts, it could be the wiser course to take.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) You still need to move carefully where financial matters are concerned. Better for the Lion to move slowly than pounce on a "promising" prospect that doesn't keep its promises.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) A rejection of an idea you believe in can be upsetting. But don't let it discourage you. Get yourself back on track and use what you've learned from the experience to try again.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) The early part of the week could find you looking to balance your priorities between your family obligations and your career responsibilities. Pressures begin to ease by week's end.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) An associate's problem could cause unavoidable delays in moving ahead with your joint venture. If so, use the time to look into another project you had previously set aside.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Although a financial problem could be very close to being resolved in your favor, it's still a good idea to avoid unnecessary spending for at least a little while longer.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Support for some unwelcome workplace decisions begins to show up, and continues to build, so that by week's end, the gregarious Goat is as popular as ever.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Congratulations. Deciding to attend a social function you might have earlier tried to avoid could turn out to be one of the best decisions you've made in a long time.

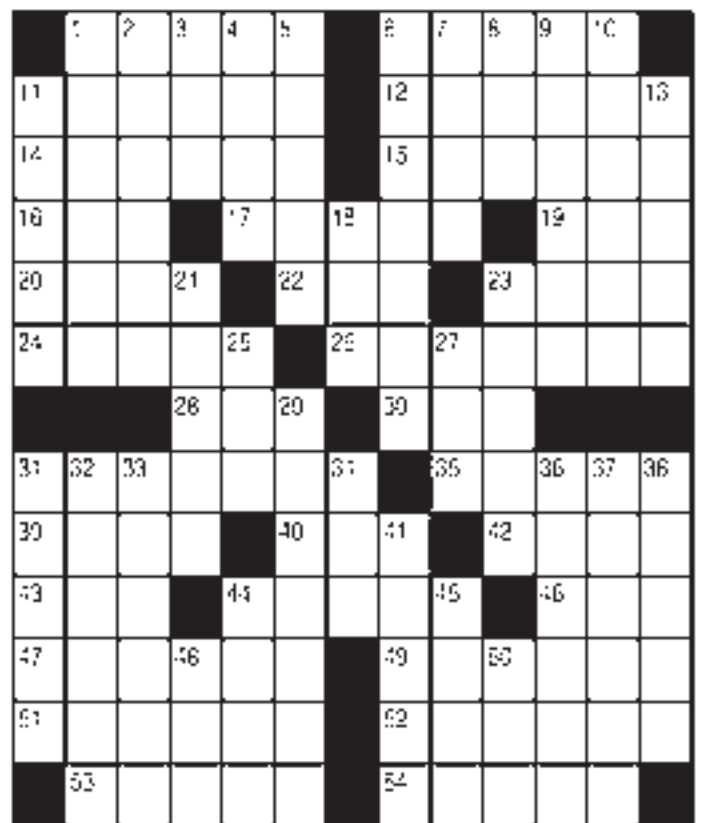

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Getting into a new situation could prove to be a more difficult experience than you expected. Don't hesitate to ask for advice in coping with some of the more irksome challenges.

BORN THIS WEEK: Your strong sense of duty makes you a valued and trusted member of your community. Have you considered a career in law enforcement?

Alysa Hicks had even more pieces on display than Brown. The sophomore showed off 20 forms of art, 18 of which she deemed for sale.

"I am not particularly attached, so I am more than willing to make a few bucks off of it," she reasoned.

Albert Boyle was like many other family members who came to the art show. The 2016 Zephyrhills graduate showed up to support his sister, Nico, a junior.

"It's pretty interesting to see how she's gotten better over the years," he said.

Added Nico, "I've been to a couple of art shows and I thought it's really cool to see other people's stuff. Now people are looking at my stuff."

The recognition goes a long way in encouraging some students to continue working on their art forms. Keianna Mulford, a senior who displayed three works in 3-D, relished that opportunity.

"Everybody doesn't know that I can draw, so it's cool to see people's reactions when they see my art works," she said.

Reagan Wake, a senior who took art for the first time this year, echoed that sentiment: "It's kind of cool to show everybody something I'm good at."

Hailey Caleb, a junior art student, simply said she was there to support her friends.
