Beach tennis comes to Zephyrhills

Beach tennis players squared off in doubles matches for a two-day tournament on four sand courts.

Sarah Vande Berg Tennis & Wellness Center hosts first beach tennis tournament, but surely not the last one

By STEVE LEE
Sports Reporter

Beach tennis came to Zephyrhills last weekend when the Sarah Vande Berg Tennis & Wellness Center hosted a two-day event. It won't be the last for that relatively new sport either.

Organizers said they would love to return to the new center that opened last year with Pascal Collard, the facility's chief executive officer, echoing that sentiment and saying plans were being made for additional beach tennis competitions.

"We're going to do it four-to-six times a year," he said. "There's a vision to bring other racquet sports to the center."

While that would include badminton and ping pong once an indoor building is constructed on the grounds located off Simons Road, the primary focus after last weekend is bringing back even more beach tennis players than the 24, two-member teams that showed up last weekend.

"This is perfect, because four courts are the minimum we can use," said Michelle Bos, who along with Armando Ghinaglia help organize beach tennis tournaments, including recent stops in Tavares (near Orlando) and Clearwater. "I've been to different places and I think this will be the VIP site. They have lights and that's very important to our tournaments."

"Top of the line," is how Ghinaglia described the SVB center and its four sandy courts. "Their main focus should be tournaments."

The International Federation of Beach Tennis Tournament, held Saturday and Sunday, consisted of various divisions for professionals and amateurs. Most of the players on the two dozen teams came from the Tampa Bay area, along with the Orlando metropolitan area as well as parts of south Florida.

Quarantine leads to Zephyrhills opting out of preseason game

By STEVE LEE
Sports Reporter

In the first week of school, the state reported more than 400 students having to quarantine due to Covid-19, which is once more surging. Locally, a player on the Zephyrhills High football team tested positive.

Late last week athletic director Bruce Cimorelli, who also is a former assistant football and weightlifting coach for the Bulldogs, said about 20 players were affected and that number could increase this week.

That forced the Bulldogs to withdraw from a three-way preseason scrimmage scheduled for Aug. 20 at Zephyrhills Christian Academy. Gainesville Buchholz also is set to come down to Pasco County to play and Zephyrhills Christian coach Mike Smith said he sought to bring in another team to take the place of Zephyrhills.

"It stinks. We really wanted to play Zephyrhills Christian," said Zephyrhills coach Nick Carroll, who conferred with principal Christina Stanley and Cimorelli before pulling out of the game. "I know a lot of people wanted to see us and ZCA play."

With the varsity team adversely impacted, notably several players on both sides of the ball, Carroll did not consider fielding junior varsity players against other teams' varsity squads.

"You don't want to put the JV players out there," he said. "For safety reasons, we didn't do that."

Not everyone in quarantine was infected with Covid-19. Florida Department of Health guidelines state that K-12 students who are symptomatic or test positive should be excluded from school facilities and may not return for at least 10 days. Those exposed can return after a 14-day quarantine from the date of last exposure, or after seven days if they test negative.

"We're going to see when we can get those kids back," Carroll said. "We hope that this is the only time it happens, but it's something we can't control."

As for the rest of the Bulldogs, the varsity and JV players will continue to practice while being somewhat shorthanded.

"We've practiced, but obviously we didn't have the offensive line and defensive line,"

Four entities seek solutions for transmission pole

The city, county, Metro and Duke hope to find some solution that would remove the pole and open up Kossik Road

By ANDY WARRENER
News Reporter

If frustration could melt metal, the transmission pole on the west side of Wire Road, opposite Otis Allen Road, would just be a pile of molten steel. The transmission pole stands defiantly obstructing any sort of connection from Kossik Road to Wire Road, a significant thoroughfare that would help open up the north side of Zephyrhills.

Frustration boiled over at the Aug. 9 Zephyrhills City Council meeting. Senior planner Rodney Corriveau approached council with a final plat for the Abbott Park Development that straddles Kossik Road.

Councilman Ken Burgess began politely but his frustration grew as the subdivision nears completion and yet the massive metal road block continues to be, "kicked down the road." Burgess later softened his tone and even walked back some of his angst at the end of the meeting but his sentiment was shared by every council member.

The sentiment was so pervasive that city council did not approve the plat, rather, they tabled it until the Aug. 23 meeting.

It was not a line in the sand drawn with the tip of a sword but more with an olive branch. While council and Zephyrhills City Manager William Poe Jr. are frustrated, they are also eager to come to the table and work with the interested parties toward a solution. Let's look at the parties involved.

AdventHealth Dade City's Transitional Care Unit receives a CMS 5-Star rating for overall quality

AdventHealth Dade City's Transitional Care Unit (TCU) is the only short-term skilled nursing facility in East Pasco County to achieve a 5-star CMS rating, the highest rating possible for overall quality from the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS). The prestigious recognition is based on health inspections, staffing, and quality of patient care.

"When the Transitional Care Unit opened its doors, we made a strong promise to our community that we would offer convenient and unrivaled whole-person care," said Jason Newmyer, administrator and VP for AdventHealth Dade City. "Achieving the highest possible score for overall quality is an indicator that our world-class team members are working tirelessly to provide superior patient outcomes."

The 45-bed unit opened in the summer of 2019 and is uniquely designed to offer physical, occupational, and speech therapies seven days a week. It is conveniently located within the hospital and provides access to highly trained physicians and therapists, who use leading-edge technology and innovative techniques.

"Our 'patient first' mentality has allowed us to become the premier destination for transitional health care services in East Pasco County," said BobbieJo Roseboro, director of the Transitional Care Unit at AdventHealth Dade City. "We are able to tap into our highly connected network of care and assist the community to achieve their healthiest life possible. We are so proud of this accomplishment."

Because the environment patients recover in is just as important as the care they receive, the transitional care unit also provides a nurturing and healing experience. The unit offers beds without rails, allows patients to wear their own clothes instead of hospital gowns, provides 24/7 access to a social services worker, and includes an activities room with scheduled events to encourage patients to get active on the path to a fast, healthy recovery.

State Farm teams up with Zephyrhills Fire Department to Spark Fire Safety Education

The National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) and State Farm Agent Elaine Riegler are teaming up with Zephyrhills Fire Department and Wendy Heimes, Fire Safety Inspector, to support fire prevention and safety education for young children.

State Farm agents are delivering Sparky Educator kits to hundreds of fire departments and school across the country, including Zephyrhills Fire Department. Each kit includes a Sparky stuffed animal, a large educator book, lesson plan and books to be distributed to children. The kit is designed to educate preschool through second grade students. Topics include the importance of smoke alarms, creating a home fire escape plan and more.

"These materials capture the attention of young audiences in a fun, but educational way," said State Farm Agent Elaine Riegler. "Many fires are preventable and we want to ensure our local kids know how to not only avoid starting fires, but what to do in case one does happen."

Parents and educators looking for resources online can visit the NFPA Sparky site. This site offers educational videos, activities, games and more.

"At State Farm, our mission is to help build safer, stronger, better educated communities," said Riegler. "By partnering with Zephyrhills Fire Department, we are doing just that in Zephyrhills."

Carroll said. "We ran the (passing) routes and we worked on the secondary."

On Sunday afternoon, Carroll led a Zoom call with the missing players. Aside from being an effort to keep them involved with the program, he informed them of some new additions for the game plan against Kathleen in Lakeland. That season opener is scheduled for Aug. 27 with a 7:30 p.m. kickoff.

"We installed three more running plays," the coach said. "That way we have everything in when we play Kathleen."

While Pasco Superintendent Kurt Browning spoke in a press conference last week about reluctantly abiding by Governor Ron DeSantis' ban on mask mandates in schools, he nonetheless encouraged staff and students to don masks.

Carroll, who is vaccinated, concurred: "We really want them to wear a mask so we can keep the virus away from our team."

This marks a second straight season in which the coronavirus has made an impact on the early part of the schedule for the Bulldogs. At the beginning of the school year last August, they were dealt a major blow when a player tested positive and several players were quarantined. Zephyrhills missed two early games, but salvaged the season by rallying to make the playoffs.

Unlike Zephyrhills, Wiregrass Ranch dealt with adverse implications from the virus at the end of last season. Following a positive test by a player, several Bulls were quarantined, which led the team from opting out of its playoff game.

GOD'S PROMISE vs MAN'S EFFORTS

"For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise of none effect: Because the law worketh wrath" (Romans 4:14-15).

This should be self-evident to us. If blessing is gained by the works of the law, it is earned. This is why Galatians 3:18 says: "If the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise; but God gave it to Abraham by promise."

The apostle Paul, God's great apostle of grace, declares in Romans 4:4-5: "Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on Him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness." Let's go back to that phrase: "the law worketh wrath." Many people just don't want to see this. Even some clergymen tell us that the law was given to help us to be good, but God Himself says, "the law worketh wrath." Every criminal knows this, and every sinner should know it. God certainly places strong emphasis on it. "Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions (Galatians 3:19) "that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God" "Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in His sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin (Romans 3:19-20).

If we come to God expecting eternal life because of our good works... Are we not offering Him our terms, which He will never accept? He will never sell salvation at any price, and certainly not for a few paltry "good" works, when our lives have been filled with failure and sin. Sin and death came into the world by one man, Adam, and God says that all have sinned and come short of His glory (Romans 3:23 and 5:12).

What is our only hope? God has promised to give eternal life to those who trust in His Son. "For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord" (Romans 6:23). "Christ died on the cross to pay for our sins, He was buried, and He rose from the dead on the third day according to the scriptures (1 Corinthians 15:1-4). Simply believe God's Word. Ephesians 1:7 says, "In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins according to the riches of His grace." It is impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:1-2).

SALOME'S STARS

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) A more harmonious aspect favors all relationships. Family ties with mates and children are strengthened. Libra is Cupid's choice to win the amorous Aries' heart.
TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) The bold Bull is ready to take on fresh challenges. Expect some opposition as you plow new ground -- but supporters will outnumber detractors.
GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) An upcoming job change could mean uprooting your family to a far-distant location. Weigh all considerations carefully before making a decision one way or the other.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) A long-standing problem is resolved by a mutually agreed upon compromise. You can now focus on getting the facts you'll need for a decision you'll soon be asked to make.
LEO (July 23 to August 22) The Big Cat needs to be wary of what appears to be a golden investment opportunity. That "sure thing" could turn out to be nothing more than a sack of Kitty Glitter.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) You give of yourself generously to help others, but right now you must allow people to help you. Confide your problems to family and trusted friends.
LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Relationships benefit from a strong harmonious aspect. Things go more smoothly at work. Someone you thought you'd never see again asks for a reconciliation.
SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) A minor distraction interferes with travel plans, but the delay is temporary. Meanwhile, expect to play peacemaker once again for feuding family members.
SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Keep that positive momentum going on the home front. Arrange your schedule to spend more time with your family. You'll soon have news about that job change.
CAPRICORN (December 22 to January

19) Control that possessive tendency that sometimes goads you into an unnecessary display of jealousy. You could be creating problems where none currently exist.
AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) A new project holds some challenges you hadn't expected. But don't be discouraged; you'll find you're more prepared to deal with them than you realized.
PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Yours is the sign of the celestial chemist, so don't be surprised if you experience a pleasant "chemistry" betwixt yourself and that new Leo in your life.
BORN THIS WEEK: You enjoy being fussed over, as befits your "royal" Leonine nature. You also have a strong loyalty to family and friends.

BET YOUR FRIENDS that you can prove that 12 minus 4 equals 7. To prove it, make a Roman numeral 12 as shown here using toothpicks. Now, remove the bottom four sticks which will leave a Roman numeral 7, proving that 12 - 4 = 7.

The idea of Go Figure is to arrive at the figures given at the bottom and right-hand columns of the diagram by following the arithmetic signs in the order they are given (that is, front left to right and top to bottom). Use only the numbers below the diagram to complete its blank squares and use each of the nine numbers only once.

Wealth of Health

3 strategies to protect mental health

Improving one's overall health and maintaining that health over the long haul can have a profound impact on quality of life. For example, the Harvard Medical School notes that regular exercise can slow the natural decline in physical performance that occurs as people age. That means routine exercise can serve as something like a fountain of youth that allows people to keep their cardiovascular fitness, metabolism and muscle function on par with their younger counterparts.

When attempting to improve long-term health, it's important that people emphasize mental health as much as they do their physical health. The Anxiety & Depression Association of America notes the importance and effectiveness of preventive efforts in relation to depression and anxiety. In regard to mental health, prevention efforts can function in much the same way that exercise serves physical health. Routine exercise helps people to maintain healthy weights, reducing their risk for various conditions and diseases. Preventive efforts designed to improve mental health can significantly reduce a person's risk for anxiety and depression.

Various techniques and strategies can be utilized to promote mental health, and these three are simple and highly effective.

1. Get enough sleep.

According to the Primary Care Collaborative, a not-for-profit member organization dedicated to advancing an effective and efficient health system, sleep and mental health are intimately related. Sleep loss can contribute to emotional instability. The amygdala is the part of the brain responsible for humans' emotional responses. When an individual does not get enough sleep, his or her amygdala goes into overdrive, leading to more intense emotional reactions. The prefrontal cortex is another part of the brain that needs sufficient sleep to function properly. Without it, the prefrontal cortex, which is integral to impulse control, cannot function properly.

Adults can speak with their physicians about how much sleep they should be getting each night. Those needs change as individuals age.

2. Eat a balanced diet.

A balanced, healthy diet doesn't just benefit the waistline. According to the ADAA, a balanced diet that includes protein, healthy non-saturated fats, fiber, and some simple carbohydrates can reduce the likelihood that mental health issues like fatigue, difficulty concentrating and irritability will arise during the day.

3. Volunteer in your community.

A 2020 study published in the Journal of Happiness Studies found that people who volunteered in the past were more satisfied with their lives and rated their overall health as much better than people who didn't volunteer. Perhaps the most noteworthy finding in the study was that people who began volunteering with lower levels of well-being tended to get the biggest boost from volunteering. Volunteering provides opportunities to socialize, which can help ward off the loneliness that can sometimes contribute to anxiety and depression.

Mental health is important, and protecting it should be part of everyone's health care regimen.

ANDY WARRENER

The City of Zephyrhills.

The city is just about finished with the signal and intersection improvements on the Pretty Pond/U.S. 301 Project. The already famous Chick-Fil-A is drawing business into the area and traffic is steadily increasing. Having a good access road on the north side of town that connects U.S. 301 and Wire Road is a priority. Kossik currently stretches east from U.S. 301 but only just enough to access Abbott Park. A plastic fence with red caution markers wall off the road just a few hundred yards from the transmission pole and Wire Road.

Pasco County

Despite most of the residential and commercial parcels in the area, including Abbott Park being within city limits, Kossik Road, as well as Otis Allen and Wire roads, are county roads. Poe speculates as to why the county is holding onto them.

"I assume the ultimate goal is to connect Overpass Road to Epperson, then connect to Kossick and Otis Allen and then to U.S. 98," Poe said. "It will be another east-west cross-county connector like state roads 52, 54 and 56."

While the county might have their eyes set on the bigger picture, the city just wants to complete the Kossick connection. They are working with Metro Development to do just that.

Metro Development

Metro is the builder for Abbott Park. The development is often confused with Zephyr Park. They are, in fact, the same development. In the Fall of 2019, Zephyr Park started to be referred to as Abbott Park. This is not uncommon. It was Metro and the Zephyr Commons builder, the commercial development with the Publix, that constructed the part of Kossick Road that exists today from U.S. 301 to the wall. The city and Metro have a business agreement that Metro will construct the first two lanes of Kossik but that if they expand to three or four lanes, the city will provide impact fee credits.

"We are hopeful that the parties involved can work out a solution to connect the roads for our community," John Afflebach, marketing director of Metro Development Group, developer of the nearby Abbott Park community, said.

Duke Energy

The power company holds the cards because they own the land that the transmission pole sits on. On Feb. 24, 2014, Duke acquired the plot from Dune FL Land I Sub, LLC for the sum of $390,000. It was part of a civil action in the Sixth Judicial Circuit Court ceding the eminent domain of just the easement where the pole is located.

Now it's about coming together to figure out a solution. "The goal is, let's get it figured out, if it's cost prohibitive to move it, otherwise, let's get that road in and move traffic," Poe said.

Poe met with representatives from each of the groups prior to the Aug. 9 meeting. What transpires when Poe meets again with the interested parties ahead of the Aug. 23 meeting, could dictate whether or not final plats are approved for Abbott Park or not. Everyone is seemingly willing to come to the table at this point but city council also seems poised to halt progress on the development until a solution for connecting Kossick Road to Wire Road is devised.

Bulldogs train for upcoming season at the East Pasco YMCA pool

By STEVE LEE
Sports Reporter

Swim coach Karen Cooley has some help this season with the arrival of new assistant Jon Kelly. Both are scouring the halls of Zephyrhills High for more swimmers and divers in hopes of rounding the numbers up to more than 20. The roster was just under that during last Wednesday's practice at the East Pasco YMCA pool.

A longtime math teacher at Stewart Middle, Cooley has moved up to the high school this year. That, she feels, gives her an advantage in not only getting more swimmers to come out for the boys and girls teams, but to finish the school day earlier and get to practice sooner.

"Anyone who wants to swim for us can come out," Cooley said. "We're happy to have them. We really want people who want to be out here. That's where we're at right now."

Kelly, who swam at University High School on the state's east coast and later for the club swim team at West Florida University in Pensacola, likely could share some insight from being a competitor at the high school and college levels.

Cooley welcomes that insight, as well as Kelly's enthusiasm.

"Jon brings an extra set of eyes to help each athlete work on technique," she said. "I can work with some and he works with others. He brings strong knowledge of stroke, turns and dive starts, as well as teaching us all how to play water polo, which the kids loved."

"I focus on the kids, making sure they get the most out of it," Kelly said. "For me, it's about the camaraderie, the teamwork, the sportsmanship; really coming out and putting the work in."

In keeping with a strong work ethic, Kelly motivated the boys and girls as they put in laps for various strokes at a recent practice. He challenged them to excel as they went through their paces.

"We're going fast," he implored while walking along the side of the pool and encouraging the swimmers to push hard. "We've got lots of time to rest."

Like most teams, there are a few standouts who are expected to shoulder the load of scoring numerous points for the Bulldogs this season. For the boys, it's sophomore distance swimmer Jacob Piankowski. He ranked among Zephyrhills' top swimmers as a freshman, following in the wake of his brother Jarek, a 2021 graduate.

"He'll be on the relays, but he's going to be a 500," Cooley said, alluding to Piankowski being a strong competitor in the 500-yard freestyle. "He's going to be something to look at."

For the girls team, Cooley expects solid performances this season from Rachel Diaz and Johnna Patrick. Both are returning juniors whose strong event is the 100 butterfly. They, along with versatile swimmer and diver Abby Conner, are penciled in the lineup to be key contributors on the relay teams.

Coming back when he can to help out with some of the coaching duties is Jarek Piankowski, who last Wednesday was in the pool teaching basic strokes to some of the newcomers and working on improving techniques with several key returners. Admittedly, it is a bit different now from when he often assisted some of his former teammates in between his own training.

"I'm used to helping out then going back into my lane and doing my own stuff," said the older Piankowski, who also is a lifeguard at the East Pasco YMCA.

Rounding out the Zephyrhills boys and girls teams, for now, are: Sariannah Arnold, Alex Bowe-Wootton, Marcus Cara, Mason Cara, Caleb Castorena, Eric Chaffin, Kylee Cooley, Nathan Fitzpatrick, Lucas Gillespie, Tiffany Reynolds, Allyson Wade and Hailey Wayt.

HOW TO WRITE A GOOD CLASSIFIED AD

Make the heading short - a short heading should have 2 to 4 words and will capture the reader's attention without clutter and confusion.
Start your ad with the merchandise you are selling - starting with the merchandise makes it easier for the reader to locate your item(s) for sale.
Always include the price of the item you are selling - 52% of classified readers do not respond to ads that do not include a price.

Make it easy for readers to understand - abbreviations and technical terms are sometimes difficult for readers to comprehend.
Place yourself in the reader's position - ask what you would like to know about the merchandise for sale. Include information such as brand names, colors and other specific descriptions.
Always include contact information - including your phone number will give the readers confidence that your item is legitimate and give them the option of contacting you for more information.

Jessica Cortes, who is from Mexico and now lives in Tampa, and Jessica Sucupira of Riverview teamed up to win an early round matchup. Both spoke highly of the center and the sport.

"It's very well built and there are lots of amenities," Cortes said.

As for the competition, Sucupira noted that while the pro division was entry level, "It does have some really good players. This gives us a great opportunity to get our points."

Another duo that enjoyed the weekend series was Tampa's Amanda Anseeua and Julianna Boutros of Sarasota.

"It's like an oasis in the desert," she said of the SVB. "It's a racquet sports dream."

Boutros spoke about the camaraderie among players and supporters of beach tennis.

"The beauty about the sport is that everybody comes together," she said. "There's good sportsmanship. You compliment your opponent because you want the whole sport to grow."

Matches played in the sand at SVB on what has been traditionally used as beach volleyball courts. The nets were best described as in between volleyball and tennis nets, both in height and density. The game was played with low compression tennis balls and a wooden paddle that is similar to one used for pickleball.

Beach tennis, which originated in Italy in the mid-1970s and has been played in the United States for about 10 years, combines elements of tennis and volleyball. The ball cannot touch the ground and scoring is the same as it is in tennis. In some places it's called beach paddleball. It is played in 50 countries, mostly in Italy, Spain and Brazil.

The health benefits include the sport being excellent for a cardio workout with low impact to knees and joints due primarily to the game being played in the sand.

Boutros said she believed that beach tennis might eventually become an Olympic sport. For now, though, it is likely to continue expanding. Marco Notarianni and Alessandro Antezza paired up over the weekend with both having originally played the game while growing up in Italy.

"We are looking for other places (to play)," Antezza said.

Maggie Smith in "Downton Abbey"

HOLLYWOOD -- Maggie Smith wasn't sure she wanted to play the dowager countess, yet again, in "Downton Abbey 2," but by the time she read the script, which has been called "a lot of fun," she agreed to visit Downton at least one more time. Filming began in April, and by July 16 Elizabeth McGovern had completed filming her role. In addition to the original colorful characters returning, they've added Dominic West (upcoming in "The Crown" as Prince Charles, 2022-23), Laura Haddock (last in "Transformers: The Last Knight"), Hugh Dancy (last in "The Good Fight") and Natalie Baye (last in the French film "Garçon Chiffon"). But the Christmas opening has been scuttled in favor of March 18, 2022.

Hugh Bonneville completed work on "Downton" in time to prepare for his Netflix film "I Came By," with "1917" star George MacKay. MacKay also toplines the BBC series "The Trick" and Netflix's "Munich," with Jeremy Irons. Not bad for a kid who played Peter Pan 18 years ago. Bonneville still has a date with "Paddington 3" (the first two films earned a combined $500 million). Ironically, Bonneville was born in Paddington, London.

Here's another irony: After a disappointing appearance in Netflix's "The Prom," Meryl Streep is currently filming "Disappointment Blvd.," starring Oscar-winner Joaquin Phoenix, Patti LuPone, Nathan Lane and Parker Posey. All we know is that it's supposed to be an intimate, decades-spanning portrait of one of the most successful entrepreneurs of all time (who could that be? Florenz Ziegfeld, P.T. Barnum, Billy Rose?). Shooting began June 28 in Montreal and is expected to end in October. Meryl has "Let Them All Talk," with Candice Bergen, Lucas Hedges and Diane Wiest, directed by Steven Soderbergh, available on HBO Max, and Netflix's "Don't Look Up," with Jennifer Lawrence, Cate Blanchett and Leonardo DiCaprio.

When NBC canceled "Manifest" after three seasons, they left us hanging with a lot of questions. Those who've invested a lot of time in this complicated series feel cheated. When

Saint Leo University named 2021 a top Veteran-Friendly School

Saint Leo University's For Those Who Serve sculpture is located in Dempsey Plaza next to the Student Activities Building. It honors the U.S. military.

U.S. Veterans Magazine honors university among Best of the Best

U.S. Veterans Magazine (USVM) recently named Saint Leo University as one of the nation's Best of the Best 2021 Top Veteran-Friendly Schools. Saint Leo will be included in the fall issue of U.S. Veterans Magazine, which will be available via print and digital newsstands later in August.

USVM polled hundreds of Fortune 1000 companies for this year's Best of the Best evaluations, which in addition to educational institutions, also lists top veteran-friendly employers, initiatives, and government agencies. This year, more than 375 companies and institutions participated.

The magazine states, "These non-biased studies are valuable resources for job-seekers, business owners, students, consumers, senior management, business associations, employment agencies, and consumer groups."

USVM's Best of the Best lists were compiled from market research, independent research, diversity conference participation and survey responses that were performed by DiversityComm's agents and affiliates.

"We are grateful to receive this honor and proud of this recognition as being one of the Best of the Best veteran-friendly universities," said Dr. Jeffrey D. Senese, Saint Leo University president. "This honor further demonstrates the university's commitment to providing a superior, private university education to those who have served in the armed services. One-third of Saint Leo's students are affiliated with the military, and the university supports them in multiple ways. From offering veteran-specific organizations, to creating spaces such as the Military Resource Centers, to providing specialized programming, Saint Leo values its veterans and military-affiliated students."

Saint Leo University served as a military college in its past and in 1973, the then-college began offering courses on military bases in Avon Park and at MacDill Air Force Base in Tampa. Saint Leo welcomed military students and student-veterans, who were returning from Vietnam, at a time when other colleges shunned them.

The U.S. Department of Defense lists its core values as "duty, integrity, ethics, honor, courage, and loyalty," which coincide with Saint Leo University's core values, which are based on the rule of St. Benedict. As a Benedictine Catholic university, Saint Leo is committed to making higher education more accessible to all students, including military-affiliated and student-veterans.

Saint Leo University offers a variety of programming for these students. From events such as Mindful Monday featuring guided meditation via Zoom, to Transition Tuesday, which provides info about making the transition from being in the military to being a college student, the university designs veteran-specific activities to support the student-veterans.

Alumnus Stephen Koehn, a 2020 graduate, said the university was supportive. "At Saint Leo, I found an environment that was encouraging and motivating," he said. "They understood the importance of my transition from soldier to student. My academic success was their No. 1 priority. During orientation, I had the opportunity to get involved with Student Veterans of America, which provides student-veterans numerous opportunities to connect on multiple levels. Saint Leo University afforded me the opportunity to attend the annual SVA National Conference, which prepared me for my next transition to the civilian workforce. Saint Leo University truly does love its veterans."

In addition to more than 6,000 veterans currently being served by Saint Leo University, many of the faculty and staff are military-affiliated. "This has helped create an environment that serves our nation's warriors with excellence," said Dr. Jen Shaw, vice president of Students Affairs. "For example, our Career Services provides a special portal that translates military vernacular to business-oriented resumé language and serves not only our current students, but also our alumni for life."
