Wiregrass Ranch has a 3-2 advantage over Zephyrhills in five straight season openers

By STEVE LEE
Sports Reporter

Although they do not play in the same districts, Wiregrass Ranch and Zephyrhills have built up quite a rivalry in recent years. The Sunshine Athletic Conference opponents have met in five straight season openers and headed into last Friday's game at Wiregrass Ranch with a 2-2 split. The host Bulls earned a 3-2 series advantage with an impressive 43-13 win over a young Zephyrhills team trying to rebound from the loss of nearly two dozen seniors.

"They just flat-out beat us," said coach Nick Carroll, who aims to guide his team to a sixth consecutive playoff berth and eighth straight winning season that would extend two school records. "We did well at times. We were able to move the ball. Field position wasn't a problem, but we gave up a lot of rushing yards."

The teams collectively racked up 670 offensive yards, 380 by the Bulls in a penalty-marred game that included 22 combined infractions for 215 yards and the ejection of Zephyrhills' Maguire Neal.

"Undisciplined," Wiregrass Ranch coach Mark Kantor said afterward.

Wildcats throttle Bulldogs 3-0 in early-season showdown

The Bulldogs got a little better each set, but fell quickly and quietly to the host Wildcats

By ANDY WARRENER
Sports Reporter

It's volleyball season. What better way to kick it off than to pit a pair of East Pasco teams against each other? Kicking off the 2019 fall season, the Wesley Chapel Wildcats seem like they are starting off on a promising season. Even in a 3-0 loss, the Bulldogs showed some hints of cohesion and some sparks for scoring.

It didn't look so good early for the Bulldogs. Chloe Danielson and Paige Dosal combined to make a blocking wall at the net to stuff a Bulldog hit and take a 4-0 lead in the first set. Chloe Danielson would emerge again quickly and with a kill shot, made it 5-1. The Bulldogs got the serve back but fell victim to a 5-0 run and found themselves down 11-2, then 15-2 before they finally got the serve back.

"Tonight was a good night to work and run more plays, be aggressive at the net," Wildcat head coach Brittany Collison said. "Against River Ridge, we went on runs but we let them back up."

The Wildcats did not let the Bulldogs back up. Fresh onto the court Amiya Oliver set down a kill shot to make it 17-5. Jordan Danielson would follow with one of her own minutes later to make it 21-7. Jordan Danielson tapped in a service ace as she spotted the Bulldogs out of position and followed it with another ace to lock up the first set 25-7.

"We have really been working on our serves this week," Collison said.

Longtime east-side rivals clash at the East Pasco YMCA pool

Pasco boys and girls sweep Zephyrhills in season-opening swim meet for both teams

By STEVE LEE
Sports Reporter

Setting the tone by winning the season-opening swim meet against a longtime rival was the primary goal the Pasco and Zephyrhills boys and girls swim teams on Aug. 21 at the East Pasco YMCA pool.

Pasco made it loud and clear with a sweep of host Zephyrhills, dominating in the girls meet with a 112-50 score and winning the boys competition by a closer 82-49 result.

Comparing the numbers, the Pirates team roster outnumbers the Bulldogs by a 26-15 margin, which is not a lot for either team and reflects a lack of depth for both. In Pasco's favor is the fact that the roster includes 13 seniors.

"We don't have enough kids to fill the pool," said Zephyrhills coach Karen Cooley, noting that some events did not have a swimmer from her team. "If I had enough kids to fill every event we would've won. It is what it is."

Cooley is more concerned about watching her swimmers — especially her best ones who have their sights set on doing well at districts, regionals and states — drop times in their respective events as the fall season progresses. Above all, she noted, is that they enjoy participating in the sport.

"If they're having fun and they're getting personal bests then they're doing well," she said.

Pasco's coaching triumvirate of Laura Fisher, Tamara Davidson and Mary Jean Darnell share that sentiment.

Coaches and swimmers from both teams watch as competitors race in the pool at the East Pasco YMCA. STEVE LEE

"I just expect them to keep improving," Fisher said. "We want personal records."

Added Davidson, "We're expecting a lot of dropped times."

Regardless of how the meet went, the longtime rivals welcome the chance to compete against one another.

"It may be rivals, but it's friendly rivals," Fisher said.

Davidson likened a Pasco-Zephyrhills swim meet to "a family reunion."

For Zephyrhills, the Neal family racked up many

Wiregrass Ranch, which has made it to the playoffs three years in a row, got four touchdown runs from Corneil McCrary and a scoring pass from Rocco Becht, son of former Tampa Bay Buccaneer tight end Anthony Becht, in his debut.

McCrary gained 94 yards on 18 carries and had a pair of scoring runs in each half. Backfield mate Nate Miller rushed for a team-high 106 yards on seven carries and slot receiver Keith Walker scored on a 70-yard reverse.

Becht, a sophomore thrust into a starting role when Hunter Helton transferred to Armwood during the preseason, completed 7-of-14 for 64 yards, which included a 24-yard scoring strike to Walker to account for the final margin.

Kantor lauded his offense, noting that unit was vastly improved following a poor performance in a preseason loss to Clearwater Central Catholic.

"After last week we had to get after it — somehow, some way," he said.

Zephyrhills, which also lost a starting quarterback when Nick Novo withdrew from school before last week's preseason game against Land O' Lakes, struggled at that position. A week after rushing for 148 yards scrambling quarterback T.J. Jackson was limited to just 2 yards on 10 touches, although that did include twice losing yards as a punter.

Carroll plans to stick with his sophomore quarterback, reasoning, "He just naturally can run the ball. We've got to work on his passing game; the delivery and the way he sets up."

Jackson completed 8-of-18 for 86 yards with an interception.

The Bulldog offense was bolstered by Zyre Roundtree, who gained 165 yards on 29 carries, both being game-highs. The senior running back, who played some at quarterback in the second half, also had his team's two scoring runs. His 21-yard scoring run pulled the Bulldogs within 8-7 and later in the game he added a 2-yard run to make the score 36-13.

"He's a good running back," Carroll said. "I like watching him play."

Carroll, noting that his team started eight sophomores on defense, lauded the players for continuing to play hard to the very end of the game. Still, overcoming the lack of experience could be a season-long effort.

"I knew that was going to be trouble, because we're inexperienced," Carroll said of the Bulldogs giving up large chunks of yardage to the Bulls a various intervals. "We've got to learn. There's a lot of young kids playing. It was tough to watch, but that group of kids stuck together. We're going to work our tails off to make sure we get things right."

The Bulldogs kept it closer the rest of the way, staying within a point through the opening exchanges of the second set. Aamahri Lewis powered a shot through a Wildcat block to take the Bulldogs' first and only lead of the match at 4-3.

The Wildcats hit back with a stout block at the net and then a service ace from Chloe Danielson to move back in front 7-5. The Wildcats then went on a 8-0 run with kills from Jordan Danielson and aces from Chloe Danielson. The Danielson sister duo is one to keep an eye on this season.

Finally, a block from Mercedes Kurger got the Bulldogs back on track as they trailed 19-12 but the service aces just kept raining down, Maddy Golka with back-to-back ones that made it 22-12. A Danielson sister set-spike combination closed out the second set 25-14.

The Wildcats opened the third set on a high note with a textbook cross-court set and spike from Chloe Danielson to Merleigh Vargas. Another service ace from Chloe Danielson put the Wildcats up 6-3. Danielson's subsequent drop-shot serve started a run and a Dosal kill capped it at 15-6.

Finally, Lewis from Zephyrhills dropped a service ace in but the lead was ballooning to 23-12. The Bulldogs got on a mini run and cut the lead to 10 but a service error settled the set 25-16 and the match 3-0.

It was a big night for the Danielson sisters, Chloe with five service aces and three kills along with a pair of blocks. Jordan tallied four aces and three kills, even as Collison kept a steady rotation of players coming in, especially late in the match.

"This is one game where we got everyone in and kept the intensity up," Collison said. "We want to do that no matter who is on the court for us."
