

Siren Fatima Morrison

Siren F. Morrison is a passionate educator of elementary school children. She has served in both public and private institutions. She is a certified elementary teacher with endorsements in ESOL, Gifted Education and Coaching. She has been teaching for 27 years in the state of Georgia. A connoisseur of children's books, she enjoys writing short stories about her childhood in New York. She is an intercessor serving in her local church and The Center of Prayer Ministry. Mentoring women young and old by encouraging them to be their best self and be comfortable in their own skin; Siren has hopes to start a "Cup of Coffee Counseling" ministry in the future. Siren lives in Peachtree City, GA with her two adult daughters.
