WEEKLY BIBLE STUDY FIRST EDITION 2020 VER.26

DAVID HOBRATH

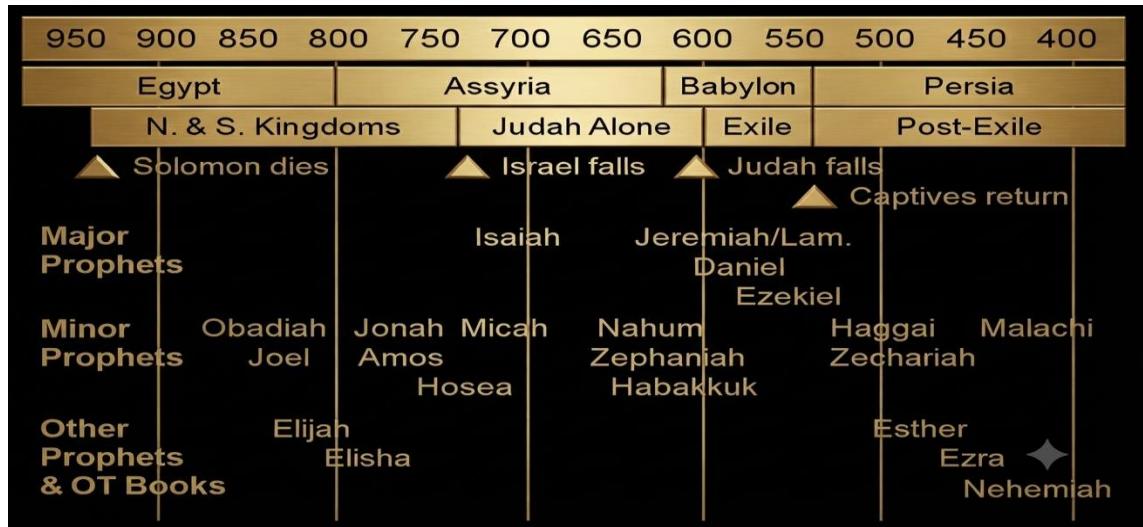

Jonah

A disobedient prophet runs from God, is swallowed by a great fish, and then preaches God's message to the city of Nineveh.

Author: Traditionally Jonah

In Jonah – Jesus is the Great Missionary

Jonah 2:8 "Those who cling to worthless idols forfeit the grace that could be theirs."

- 1 Jerusalem. This is where Jonah is serving.
- 2 Nineveh. This is where God instructs Jonah to go.
- 3 Tarshish. This is where Jonah went.

TEACHER: 4 CHAPTERS LONG.

Everyone knows the story of "Jonah and the Whale." If by chance you don't, just nod your head and smile. No one will suspect a thing. Just trying to give a visitor a break. Jonah is living in the northern half of a divided, back-slidden Israel. Within a few decades Israel would fall to the Assyrians. All because of their own moral decay. We are pretty certain of this time frame because Jonah is mentioned in 2 Kings 14. We are "floating" around 750 years or so before Christ, (did you see what I did there? Don't get swallowed up in my puns), and 2 Generations after Solomon. 3 Generations after King David. The story of Jonah and the Whale is related in the New Testament to the 3 days Jesus body was in the tomb after His crucifixion in Matthew 12. Jonah wants God to destroy Nineveh, God wants to redeem Nineveh. Not to be a spoiler, but God wins. The chart shows where Jonah belongs in the time-line, and the map shows the route he was supposed to take, and the route he escaped to. Or at least tried to escape to. Why is it when we know the way we should go, we automatically want to go in the wrong direction?

CH. 1

STUDENT:

One day the LORD spoke to Jonah son of Amittai.

² He said, "Go to Nineveh, that great city, and speak out against it; I am aware of how wicked its people are."

³ Jonah, however, set out in the opposite direction in order to get away from the LORD.

He went to Joppa, where he found a ship about to go to Spain. He paid his fare and went aboard with the crew to sail to Spain, where he would be away from the LORD.

(GNT)

TEACHER:

Running away from God wastes time, and wastes money.

We know that he gets where God wants him to be. But think about something as we start this journey. Nineveh was a large city. Many children are born every day and many people pass away every day. The time wasted from message to ministry costs. How many people died lost, because Jonah was weak for a time? How many people are lost because I had different desires for my life than the message God wanted me to live out? Redeem the time. The days are evil.

STUDENT:

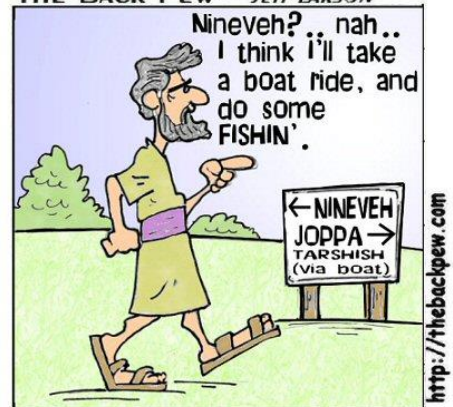

⁴ But the LORD sent a strong wind on the sea, and the storm was so violent that the ship was in danger of breaking up.

⁵ The sailors were terrified and cried out for help, each one to his own god.

Then, in order to lessen the danger, they threw the cargo overboard.

Meanwhile, Jonah had gone below and was lying in the ship's hold, sound asleep. ⁶ The captain found him there and said to him, "What are you doing asleep? Get up and pray to your god for help. Maybe he will feel sorry for us and spare our lives." (GNT)

THE BACK PEW - JEFF LARSON

God calls Jonah to travel to Nineveh and preach. Jonah goes with plan B. Jonah 1:1-3
BAD PLAN!! When God says go... you best be goin'.

THE BACK PEW - JEFF LARSON

But the Lord sent a great wind on the sea.. tossing and pounding the ship. Jonah 1:4

TEACHER:

The crew senses something is wrong, and being superstitious they have a plan.

STUDENT:

⁷ The sailors said to each other, "Let's draw lots and find out who is to blame for getting us into this danger."

They did so, and Jonah's name was drawn.

⁸ So they said to him, "Now, then, tell us! Who is to blame for this? What are you doing here? What country do you come from? What is your nationality?"

⁹ "I am a Hebrew," Jonah answered.

"I worship the LORD, the God of heaven, who made land and sea."

¹⁰ Jonah went on to tell them that he was running away from the LORD.

(GNT)

The Back Pew - Jeff Larson

Before Rock Paper Scissors, or eenee-meenee-minee-mo were established as superior scientific methods of selection, Jonah is selected by drawing lots.
Jonah 1:7

TEACHER:

Step 1 in Jonah's walk back into God's will. Jonah confessed. He admitted what he had done.

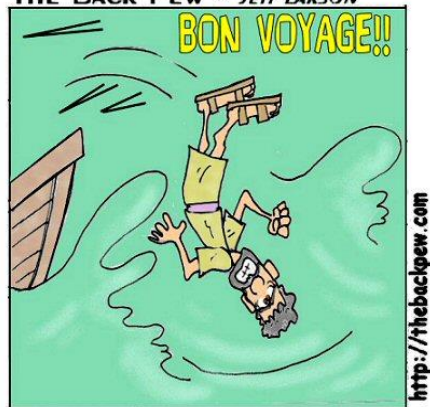

STUDENT:

The sailors were terrified, and said to him, "That was an awful thing to do!" ¹¹ The storm was getting worse all the time, so the sailors asked him, "What should we do to you to stop the storm?"

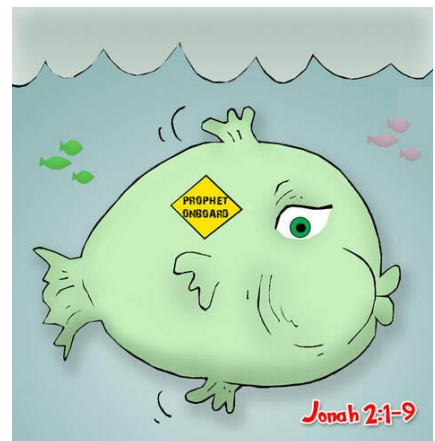

¹² Jonah answered, "Throw me into the sea, and it will calm down. I know it is my fault that you are caught in this violent storm."

¹³ Instead, the sailors tried to get the ship to shore, rowing with all their might. But the storm was becoming worse and worse, and they got nowhere. ¹⁴ So they cried out to the LORD, "O LORD, we pray, don't punish us with death for taking this man's life! You, O LORD, are responsible for all this; it is your doing." ¹⁵ Then they picked Jonah up and threw him into the sea, and it calmed down at once. ¹⁶ This made the sailors so afraid of the LORD that they offered a sacrifice and promised to serve him. (GNT)

THE BACK PEW - JEFF LARSON

Man Overboard!!.. Jonah 1:15

TEACHER:

I love that line. "You O Lord, are responsible for this, this is Your doing." Like Pilate washing his hands. Adam in the Garden of Eden, "It was the woman You gave me." People never change. Don't get me wrong, they had to toss Jonah, I just think it's funny that they thought if they said what they said, God's hands would be tied.

Proverbs 19:3 People ruin their lives by their own foolishness and then are angry at the LORD.

STUDENT:

¹⁷ At the LORD's command a large fish swallowed Jonah, and he was inside the fish for three days and three nights. (GNT)

TEACHER:

Chapter 2 starts with a very intelligent prayer. Listen how Jonah thanks God for saving his life by providing the fish, instead of drowning him. Let's read a few lines from the craziest prayer closet in history.

CH. 2

STUDENT:

From deep inside the fish Jonah prayed to the LORD his God:

² "In my distress, O LORD, I called to you,
and you answered me.

From deep in the world of the dead
I cried for help, and you heard me.

³ You threw me down into the depths,
to the very bottom of the sea,
where the waters were all around me,
and all your mighty waves rolled over me.

⁴ I thought I had been banished from your presence and would never see your holy Temple again.

⁵ The water came over me and choked me;
the sea covered me completely,
and seaweed wrapped around my head. (GNT)

STUDENT:

⁶ I went down to the very roots of the mountains,
into the land whose gates lock shut forever.

But you, O LORD my God, brought me back from the depths alive.

⁷ When I felt my life slipping away,
then, O LORD, I prayed to you,
and in your holy Temple you heard me.

⁸ Those who worship worthless idols have abandoned their loyalty to you.

⁹ But I will sing praises to you;

I will offer you a sacrifice and do what I have promised. Salvation comes from the LORD!"

¹⁰ Then the LORD ordered the fish to spit Jonah up on the beach, and it did. (GNT)

TEACHER:

After a nice long shower, God talks to Jonah.

CH. 3

STUDENT:

Once again the Lord spoke to Jonah. ² He said, "Go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim to the people the message I have given you." ³ So Jonah obeyed the Lord and went to Nineveh, a city so large that it took three days to walk through it. ⁴ Jonah started through the city, and after walking a whole day, he proclaimed, "In forty days Nineveh will be destroyed!" (GNT)

TEACHER:

So Jonah walks 1 day through Nineveh, takes an altar call, and drops the mic. What happens?

STUDENT:

⁵ The people of Nineveh believed God's message. So they decided that everyone should fast, and all the people, from the greatest to the least, put on sackcloth to show that they had repented.

⁶ When the king of Nineveh heard about it, he got up from his throne, took off his robe, put on sackcloth, and sat down in ashes. ⁷ He sent out a proclamation to the people of Nineveh: "This is an order from the king and his officials: No one is to eat anything; all persons, cattle, and sheep are forbidden to eat or drink. ⁸ All persons and animals must wear sackcloth. Everyone must pray earnestly to God and must give up their wicked behavior and their evil actions. ⁹ Perhaps God will change his mind; perhaps he will stop being angry, and we will not die!"

¹⁰ God saw what they did; he saw that they had given up their wicked behavior. So he changed his mind and did not punish them as he had said he would. (GNT)

TEACHER:

Jonah gives what is arguably the greatest altar call in world's history. Certainly up to that point anyway. He must have been the happiest man in the whole world. He tries to run from God, God saves him from drowning, calls him to a ministry as a missionary, spends 1 day in a strange country, and leads the whole country to God. He must have been ecstatic.

CH. 4

STUDENT:

Jonah was very unhappy about this and became angry. ² So he prayed, "LORD, didn't I say before I left home that this is just what you would do? That's why I did my best to run away to Spain! I knew that you are a loving and merciful God, always patient, always kind, and always ready to change your mind and not punish. ³ Now then, LORD, let me die. I am better off dead than alive."

⁴ The LORD answered, "What right do you have to be angry?" (GNT)

TEACHER:

God teaches the prophet a lesson.

STUDENT:

⁵ Jonah went out east of the city and sat down.

He made a shelter for himself and sat in its shade, waiting to see what would happen to Nineveh. (GNT)

The Back Pew - Jeff Larson

Jonah preaches, then pouts. God gives him a plant for shade, but Jonah still pouts... so God sends a worm to eat the plant. Jonah 4:7

STUDENT:

⁶Then the LORD God made a plant grow up over Jonah to give him some shade, so that he would be more comfortable. Jonah was extremely pleased with the plant. ⁷But at dawn the next day, at God's command, a worm attacked the plant, and it died. ⁸After the sun had risen, God sent a hot east wind, and Jonah was about to faint from the heat of the sun beating down on his head. So he wished he were dead. "I am better off dead than alive," he said. (GNT)

=====

TEACHER:

Such attitude. God teaches him how to set priorities. How to count.

STUDENT:

⁹But God said to him, "What right do you have to be angry about the plant?" Jonah replied, "I have every right to be angry—angry enough to die!" ¹⁰The LORD said to him, "This plant grew up in one night and disappeared the next; you didn't do anything for it and you didn't make it grow—yet you feel sorry for it! ¹¹How much more, then, should I have pity on Nineveh, that great city. After all, it has more than 120,000 innocent children in it, as well as many animals!" (GNT)
