Conference on Peace and Reconciliation: Perspectives from Religion and Philosophy

held on 4, 5 & 6 March, 2017

Organized by the Sri Vishnu Mohan Foundation, Chennai, the second edition of the Conference on Peace and Reconciliation: Perspectives from Religion and Philosophy was held on 4, 5 & 6 March, 2017 at Chennai. The first one was held in March 2016. The 2017 Conference was inaugurated by the Respected Esin Celeni Bayru, 22nd descendant of the famed Sufi sage, Jalaluddin Rumi.

Sri Vishnu Mohan Foundation (SVMF) draws inspiration from the teachings of Her Holiness Sri Sathguru Swami Gnanananda Sarasvathi and Her 'prathama sishya' Sri Vishnu Mohan. Blending the quest for knowledge and the spirit of true enquiry with humility and pointedness, the Foundation's continuing efforts are in bringing to fore the transformational teachings of India, its teachers, gurus, seers and books. SVMF is a non-profit research foundation. Drawing from cross cultural contexts, it strives to harness interdisciplinary approaches to rediscover, formulate and create pathways to transforming lives. Original research, meaningful platforms, discussion forums, seminars and partnerships with organisations and individuals who are keen to bring forth knowledge which purifies and transforms-all are within the purview of the Sri Vishnu Mohan Foundation. The Foundation has a set of active periodic and annual publications.
