Royalty Expectation Statement & Code of Conduct

I understand that if I am representing Hugo Rodeo Association Rodeo Royalty as contestant or title holder, I will be a representative of Hugo Rodeo Association which is produced by the Hugo Rodeo Association. I am responsible to represent the sport of rodeo in a professional manner.

I will strive to represent unparalleled sportsmanship with high moral and ethical character.

This title recognizes several attributes: sportsmanship, personality, public speaking and appearance. Therefore, it is my responsibility, as Hugo Rodeo Association Royalty representative to act, speak, and dress according to the presence my title requires any time I am in the public eye. Riding and horsemanship skills are essential to the promotion of the sport of rodeo. Therefore, I will strive to improve my riding and horsemanship skills to better promote the sport. I understand that I am responsible for providing my own horse that can perform queen activities during rodeo activities and events. During competition, contestant must use the same horse for all activities. If horse becomes lame during this time, the Hugo Rodeo Association Royalty Director will need to be notified for horse change approval.

If I become Hugo Rodeo Association Royalty, I Will:

Wear my crown and sash any time I am acting in the capacity as Hugo Rodeo Association Royalty.

Make myself available for all opportunities to appear as Hugo Rodeo Association Royalty to the public.

Attend specific events as requested by the rodeo committee.

Understand it is my financial responsibility to attend all required appearances.

Be on time. No one should have to wait on you. Prepare for the next event so you are ready.

Do my homework on directions, layout, schedules, and requirements for each event. Know what to bring, wear and pack.

Follow through on my responsibilities through the end of my reign.

Not drink, smoke, or use profanity in public while acting in the capacity as the Hugo Rodeo Association Royalty.

Not hang out in bars and/or parties at a rodeo or event while acting in the capacity as the Hugo Rodeo Association Royalty.

Never publicly complain - while visiting I will remain positive and professional.

Work with the rodeo committees on whatever promotions they may desire.

Not use cell phones in public, check messages, or keep phones in pockets or public view while wearing the crown and banner.

Remember the last thing you do is what they will remember. First impressions are important and last impressions are forever.

At no time during the term of my contract shall I post suggestive photos or use profanity on social media (no photos or discussions about parties or alcohol). I will never appear inappropriate on social media (Facebook, Twitter, Snapchat, Instagram or Other) whether it be a personal page or account or the intellectual property of Hugo Rodeo Association Rodeo.

At all times keep posts professional in verbiage, with no language or images that is unbecoming to, or in any way compromise the professional image of Miss Hugo Rodeo Association Royalty or the professional brand of the Hugo Rodeo Association.

Dress Code Requirements:

Hugo Rodeo Association Royalty must adhere to PRCA arena dress codes in the rodeo arena.

Dress or skirt no shorter than 2" above knees.

No visible tattoos or facial piercings.

No sleeveless or tank tops.

No cleavage, no braless attire, no open back or bare midriff.

At no time should bra straps be visible.

Clothing should reflect a professional western image. No evening gowns or cocktail type dresses.

No burn out, transparent material, or see-through lace on body portion of top.

Hair is to be styled fashionably. Ponytails and or braids may be periodic acceptable alternatives, however, hair must still be styled.

Hats: keep a brush for each color. Keep them clean and well-shaped.

Boots: keep clean and free of mud.

Jeans: clean and preferably ironed.

Shirt: Flashy for the arena. You need to be set apart from the rest. Always wear the shirt color for the rodeo theme of the performance when applicable (e.g., pink for Pink Night).

Pay attention to your fingernails and makeup, especially lipstick.

After changing into non-rodeo attire continue to follow professional, conservative clothing and attire.
