THE BLACK ART TODAY FOUNDATION
PRESERVING CULTURE THROUGH THE ARTS

The Black Art Today Foundation

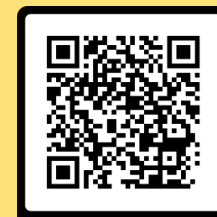

The Black Art Today Foundation is a 501(c)(3) Public Charity. Our mission is to support artists in the genres of visual arts, performing arts, and literature. Our purpose is derived from Kwanzaa's sixth Principle, Kuumba, meaning Creativity.

“Kuumba is the commitment to being creative within the context of the national community vocation of restoring our people to their traditional greatness and thus leaving our community more beneficial and beautiful than we inherited it. The principle has both a social and spiritual dimension and is deeply rooted in social and sacred teachings of African societies.”

We supply a variety of services and opportunities for artists and art organizations to aid artists in reaching their creative potential. Your generous donations and purchases aid us in funding those services and opportunities and ultimately helps to preserve the African Diasporic's Culture and History, through the arts. Please consider making a donation or volunteering your talent and time. Thank you again for your continued support.

Sincerely,

Alicia B. Clark,
Chief Executive Officer (CEO)/President
Lisa A. Lumford Clark,
Chief Operations Officer (COO) Vice President
Black Art Today, Inc.

PLEASE SUPPORT

The "We, The People" Exhibit artists and artworks reflect the diverse and inclusive culture of the State of Maryland. We hope that the exhibit raises the awareness and reinforces the importance of artists and their contributions to society.
