

LifeBalance Solutions provides high quality wellness, family, and professional development education to your employees. Our goal is to strengthen individuals, families, organizations, and communities.

We work with over 30 expert trainers offering leading-edge workshops with information based on the latest research.

Your employees take away practical tips they can implement immediately. Sessions can be 1-hour, 90-minutes, or whatever works best for the customer. We will deliver onsite or online. We have several platforms to choose from with a capacity for up to 150 attendees.

Our mission is to be creative and customize an experience for your employees that meet the unique needs of your culture.

LifeBalance Solutions Program
952-201-0595
kkacher@clalliance.com

Career/Life Alliance Services, Inc.

Content Catalog

Health & Wellness	page 2
• Stress Reduction, Mindfulness & Mental Health • Food and Nutrition • Fitness, Prevention and Lifestyle
Resilience & Wellbeing	page 41
• Building Resilience • Work-Life Integration • Organization and Time Management • Goals, Purpose, Motivation and Mindset
Professional Development	page 59
• Leadership Skills • Communication • Managing Conflict • Virtual/Remote Workplace Competencies
Diversity and Inclusion	page 86
• Building an Inclusive, Culturally Competent Culture • Understanding Bias and Stereotypes
Financial Wellbeing	page 95
Healthy Families	page 100
Eldercare and Aging Readiness	page 106

HEALTH & WELLNESS

FEATURED SESSIONS

Stress Reduction, Mindfulness & Mental Health

Karly Hall, MA, CPC, CCMP, CSPO, is a curious and driven problem-solver who empowers others to take action and maximize their greatest potential in life and business. While most of her 20+ year career has been providing award-winning marketing and brand management, she also has a decade of experience as a certified change manager, coach, trainer, and published author. Karly believes in the incredible impact others can have within their organizations and communities.

NEW! From Overwhelmed to Empowered: Mastering Stress from the Inside Out

Move beyond surface-level stress management to understand what's really happening in the mind and body. This presentation helps participants recognize their personal stress patterns, regulate their responses, and develop daily habits that foster calm, clarity, and sustainable well-being.

NEW! Micro-Habits for Macro-Change

Big transformation begins with small, consistent steps. This session reveals how micro-habits—simple, evidence-based actions—can reshape routines, boost performance, and strengthen resilience. Participants discover how intentional daily choices create meaningful, long-term change in both life and work.

Robin Yates After 26 years at IBM, Robin left to focus on her passion of social justice, healthcare, education, and the environment. As a consultant, she helped identify stakeholder needs, develop strategic plans, assess program, and team effectiveness, analyze the internal and external environments, integrate best practices into existing processes, and build successful partnerships. As a coach, she recognizes that each client is creative, resourceful, and whole on their own and her coaching gives them a chance to examine what they are doing in light of their intentions. All sessions ADDITIONAL $300

Mental Fitness to Keep Yourself Moving Forward

It's not that we don't know what we need to do to be successful, but instead it's that we feel overwhelmed, stressed, and frustrated which distracts us from taking positive steps forward. These and other negative emotions get in the way of us engaging our brains in a way that makes empathy, creativity, innovation, and forward-thinking possible. In this workshop we will introduce you to the saboteurs at play in ourselves and among the many stakeholders we work with to see how they impact our motivation, relationships and outcomes. You will leave with some techniques to help you respond vs. react to difficult situations in ways that stay true to the person you want to be.

Dr. Gregory Alch has been in practice for more than 25 years, helping people better manage their professional and personal relationships. He can communicate complex ideas without arousing defensiveness and people find it easy to talk to him. By engaging employees at all levels of an organization, Dr. Alch has a keen ability to bring clarity to complex situations and identify the action steps necessary to achieve identified goals. Dr. Alch is able to engage employees at all levels of an organization, through his straightforward, straight-talking approach. As such, he has routinely earned the trust of those he works with. Leaders and employees alike view Dr. Alch as an unbiased, reliable source for resolving issues. All sessions ADDITIONAL $150

Silencing Your Inner Critic

Is there a little voice in your head that often says to you: "What a dumb person you are!" or "You won't do it right, so why bother!" or "Either I get that new job, or I'll be stuck in this one forever!" Your inner "Critic" is that voice – the one that is all-to-ready to berate, criticize, and demean you. If your "Critic" is not managed, it can rob you of feeling good about yourself. Strong self-esteem – the value and worth you put on yourself – is an attribute that enables you to succeed at work and in relationships. In order to have healthy self-esteem, it's important to confront the "Critic" and change the language of that internal voice. There are many strategies that can help people develop healthy self-esteem.

Participants will learn to:

- Define self-esteem and identify the sources of adult self-worth
- Make the connection between irrational thinking and low self-esteem
- Develop strategies for controlling the critic and enhancing self-esteem
- Create a personal plan for developing positive self-esteem.

Understanding Mental Health Conditions

Mental Health is in the news now more than ever, yet there continues to be stigma associated with Mental Health issues, despite the growing commonality of such challenges. This workshop helps the participant understand the most common mental health issues, how to recognize concerns in oneself and/or others, and how to communicate concerns to other people. By increasing understanding, we can hope to reduce stigma.

Learning Objectives:

- Learn the spectrum of the most common Mental Health issues
- Be able to recognize the signs and symptoms of Depression and Anxiety
- Learn how to cope with everyday stressors
- Learn how to navigate conversations with others you may be concerned about
- Understand the importance of work/life “balance” or “integration”

Mental Health: A Guide for Everyone

The past three years have been an extraordinary time with regards to the stress, anxiety and overall uncertainty that has infiltrated and overtaken everyone’s life. Our resiliency has been tested and there has been a significant toll taken on the mental health of most, if not all, people. Understanding the most common mental health issues is key to managing ourselves and how we can promote good mental health in our everyday lives.

This workshop explores the following:

- Learn what Mental Illness is and its contributing factors
- How Mental Health has changed pre to post COVID
- Learn the signs and symptoms of distress in employees and others in your life
- Understand your role in minimizing burnout
- Understand tools/techniques to maintain good mental health

Kay King, Employer Education Coordinator, (she/her)- Kay provides mental health education to employers in our community, supporting employee's mental health, and wellbeing. Kay is committed to NAMI's mission because of her son's experience dealing with major depressive disorder. All sessions ADDITIONAL $50

Good Mental Health in the Workplace: Five Things You Can Do

Learn the five things you can do to create a workplace that values good mental health. Participants will learn how to promote good mental health (including dealing with stress), the common symptoms of a mental illness, how attitudes and language impact people with mental illnesses, and accommodations for a mental illness. This class is for employees, supervisors, organizational leaders, owners, board members and human resource professionals.

Dr. Bill Kriva is dedicated to helping people achieve and maintain optimum health and wellness. He is a Doctor of Chiropractic with a post-graduate certification in Herbal Medicine. Dr. Kriva is an inspirational national speaker and award-winning author. He is the Clinic Director of Parkview Chiropractic Clinic and an adjunct faculty member of Northwestern Health Sciences University. Dr. Kriva also holds a master’s degree in business administration and a bachelor’s degree in industrial engineering as well as years of experience in both fields. This diverse background brings a well-rounded perspective to his presentations and uniquely qualifies him to speak on topics like injury prevention, ergonomics, and a healthy workplace.

Sleep, the Great Battery Charger

This session shares important details of why sleep is critical to our overall health and the physiological effects poor sleep has on our mind and body. Dr. Kriva will review cutting edge research being done in the field of Epigenetics, which shows how critical sleep is to the proper functioning of each cell in the body. Finally, tips for achieving excellent sleep are covered. Take home message: cutting edge research shows more than ever how critical sleep is to health, there are many things you can do to improve the quality and duration of sleep, proper sleep is not optional, but critical to your overall health.

Managing Stress Naturally

"Managing Stress Naturally" looks at the role of stress in detrimentally impacting our health. The physiological response we have to stress is discussed and the impact of stress on productivity is explored. A personal and private stress survey is included to help participants gauge their stress exposure. Finally, practical approaches to managing stress are presented. This talk has been extremely popular with all types of audiences from the workplace to the general public. Take home message: stress is the leading cause for visits to doctor's offices in this country, there is good and bad stress, managing stress using the techniques presented is critical to good health and overall productivity in all aspects of life.

Managing Stress Naturally Feedback

The presenter was knowledgeable about the topic, he presented with skill and spoke with enthusiasm. the presentation was very engaging (without forcing folks to engage) when it could have easily been one that you "zone out" during or alternatively felt forced to participate. presenter did a great job delivering the info.

Rachel Thiemann, with a background in Social Psychology,

Rachel Thiemann has built on her knowledge of interpersonal dynamics in the workplace with an international career of 18 years as an internal and external organizational consultant and trainer. She also has a keen interest in the link between mind and body and has trained and practiced as a hypnotherapist, NLP practitioner and life coach. Rachel has authored the online tool "From Stress to Resilience" for the US Navy, as well as many other classroom and online courses. She has been Vice-President of WFC Resources, a work-life company, since 2003.

Sshhh, Quieting Your Inner Chatter

In today's fast-paced world, the demands of staying constantly connected and fulfilling various roles can lead to a cluttered mind, hindering our ability to focus, stay present, and achieve restful sleep. The mental noise created by this busyness can limit our capacity to be fully present and effective in our relationships and responsibilities.

In just 10 minutes, pausing to quiet your mind can significantly enhance your mental availability and productivity. In this workshop, we'll delve into practices aimed at calming the mind amidst chaos. This skill is not only beneficial for finding peace of mind but also for gaining clarity in thinking and problem-solving. Join us to explore techniques that can transform your ability to navigate life's demands with greater ease and effectiveness.

Social Wellness: Nurturing Meaningful Connections for Wellbeing

This workshop is designed to help you enhance your social wellness by fostering meaningful connections that support your overall well-being. In today's fast-paced world, maintaining strong relationships can be challenging, but it's crucial for mental, emotional, and even physical health. You will explore the importance of social connections, learn how to cultivate deeper relationships, and discover strategies for building a supportive community. Whether you're looking to strengthen existing bonds or create new ones, this workshop will provide practical tools to nurture relationships that contribute to your well-being.

Learning Objectives:

- Understand the impact of meaningful social connections on mental and physical health.
- Identify barriers to forming and maintaining healthy relationships and learn how to overcome them.
- Learn strategies to improve communication and deepen existing relationships.
- Explore ways to expand your social network and create a supportive community.
- Develop a personal action plan to nurture and maintain meaningful social connections for long-term well-being.

Supporting Neurodiversity in the Workplace

Neurodiversity refers to the range of differences in brain function and behavioral traits among individuals, including those with conditions such as autism, ADHD, dyslexia, and other neurological variations. In this enlightening workshop, we'll explore how embracing neurodiversity can lead to greater innovation, creativity, and inclusion in the workplace.

Participants will gain a deeper understanding of neurodiversity and its impact on the workplace environment. We'll examine common myths and misconceptions surrounding neurodiversity and explore practical strategies for creating a more inclusive and supportive workplace culture.

Learning Objectives:

- Understand the concept of neurodiversity and its relevance in the workplace.
- Recognize the value of neurodiverse perspectives in fostering innovation and creativity.
- Identify common challenges faced by neurodiverse employees in the workplace.
- Learn practical strategies for creating a more inclusive and supportive work environment for neurodiverse individuals.

Jill Borgerding started sharing her passion for fitness with others when Jazzercise, Billy Blanks, and Nordic Tracks were hot! Since then, she has led thousands of group fitness and yoga classes, trained hundreds of clients, and has a very long list of certifications. Luckily, both she and the world of health and wellness have evolved tremendously in the past twenty-five years! Now, with an extensive background in personal training, nutrition coaching, healthy-aging and habit change, she teaches a lifestyle of balance between effort and ease in all areas. Her enthusiasm, passion and knowledge show in everything she does. Whether she's working one-on-one with a client or presenting a workshop to a group, you will feel a positive and supportive attitude, infused with an abundance of motivation and a sense of humor.

Relaxxxxxx

Stress. We can't eliminate it from our lives, but we can learn sound, scientifically proven ways to manage it and prevent much of the stress we experience. There are numerous simple techniques in this area. I'll give you a few simple stress relievers you can use daily to take better care of yourself and those around you. Reducing stress protects your heart, boosts your memory, lowers your risk of stroke, lowers the risk of depression, and even stops weight gain - just for starters. Plus, everyday life is better when you're managing your stress. Learn tools and techniques to use daily whether you have one minute or one hour available! You will leave this workshop feeling relaxxxed!

Chair Pilates: Strength, Stretch & Posture at Your Desk

No mat required! This class is designed to bring the benefits of Pilates right to your chair. Using simple, mindful movements and intentional breathing, you'll strengthen your deep abdominal muscles, restore balance, and increase your flexibility while both sitting and standing. Learn how to decompress your spine, stabilize your joints, and strengthen your entire body, moving from the inside out. Perfect for the office or at home, Chair Pilates helps counteract the effects of sitting, reduces stress, and re-energizes your body and mind! All levels welcome.

Kimberly Fox graduated from South Dakota State University, with a degree in Dietetics, Kim Fox continued her education, becoming a Registered and Licensed Dietitian and Certified Diabetes Educator. Through these vast and varied experiences Kim founded Fox Nutrition & Diabetes Services to more effectively assist people in caring for their diabetes, eating more nutritiously, and managing their weight with better outcome.

Boosting Mental Health Through Nutrition

Anxiety, depression, and stress are more connected to your diet than you might think. In this workshop, we'll dive into the powerful link between nutrition and mental health, exploring how the food you eat directly affects your brain chemistry. With today's abundance of processed foods, maintaining a healthy diet can be a challenge. Join us to learn about essential nutrients that support mental well-being and discover foods that can positively influence how you feel, think, and function.

Class is taught by a registered dietitian who specializes in functional nutrition.

Sarah Routman is certified in Laughter Yoga and the Founder of 'Laugh for the Health of It'. For over a decade, Sarah has wowed audiences with her expertise, enthusiasm and highly interactive laugh-it-out approach toward event planning, corporate wellness, and personal stress management. She fills her presentations and workshops with creative tools that are fun, engaging and guarantee a memorable, and personally empowering experience--not to mention a shot of camaraderie in the arm.

NEW Self-Care Toolkit

Self-care is a personal journey, and it's important to recognize that there's no one-size-fits-all approach. In this one-hour workshop, we will delve into a diverse range of self-care activities. While some, such as breathing and meditation, may be familiar, we'll infuse them with fresh perspectives. Others, like exploring color and engaging in simple drawing, may be entirely new experiences for you. By tapping into your innate creativity, you may discover that stress starts to dissipate, often without you even noticing.

Objectives:

- Discover multiple approaches to stress management and learn how to incorporate them into your routine.
- Practice new breathing techniques that engage the diaphragm and enhance oxygen circulation.
- Recognize the significance of journaling in reducing stress and gain insight into effective journal-writing methods that promote relaxation and problem-solving.

Dr. Bill Kriva is dedicated to helping people achieve and maintain optimum health and wellness. He is a Doctor of Chiropractic with a post-graduate certification in Herbal Medicine. Dr. Kriva is an inspirational national speaker and award-winning author. He is the Clinic Director of Parkview Chiropractic Clinic and an adjunct faculty member of Northwestern Health Sciences University. Dr. Kriva also holds a master's degree in Business Administration and a bachelor's degree in Industrial Engineering as well as years of experience in both fields. This diverse background brings a well-rounded perspective to his presentations and uniquely qualifies him to speak on topics like injury prevention, ergonomics, and a healthy workplace.

Overcoming Burnout and Getting Back on Track

This class focuses on the importance of balancing the demands of life, stress and your ability to achieve your goals day in and day out. We will discuss the impact that burnout has on your daily performance and the negative outcomes that can result if burnout is left unchecked. Dr. Kriva lays out a systematic approach to structuring your life to minimize burnout and maximize your ability to achieve goals and maintain your performance even when unexpected trials threaten to derail your life journey. Take home message; most people live close to their maximum capacity, small upsets and burnout can derail pursuit of goals, it is possible to structure your life using the 85% principle to consistently pursue and achieve your goals.

Learning outcomes:

- Identify warning signs of burnout
- Effectively address burnout
- Practical step to prevent burnout and achieve goals

Food & Nutrition

Rachel Thiemann, with a background in Social Psychology,

Rachel Thiemann has built on her knowledge of interpersonal dynamics in the workplace with an international career of 18 years as an internal and external organizational consultant and trainer. She also has a keen interest in the link between mind and body and has trained and practiced as a hypnotherapist, NLP practitioner and life coach. Rachel has authored the online tool "From Stress to Resilience" for the US Navy, as well as many other classroom and online courses. She has been Vice-President of WFC Resources, a work-life company, since 2003.

Eating for Life

If you would like to get nutrition and weight management right once and for all, this session will help you to eat right, without feeling hungry (or hangry)! Learn from an Instructor who walks her talk! We'll take a look at the building blocks of nutritional groups, known as macronutrients, and how to aim for healthy ratios and portions of each to support weight loss or gain, weight maintenance or supporting an active lifestyle. You'll learn about different preservatives, additives, sugars, fats and other elements that can be counter-productive to a healthy digestive system and a healthy diet, and the hidden cost of many processed, packages and convenience foods. We'll cover menu planning and cooking tips for enjoying simple, healthy "whole" foods for even the busiest family.

After this session, you'll walk away with:

- A food plan for your health goals
- A list of foods to include and reduce or eliminate
- Online tracking tools, menu plans and other resources.

Kari McElveen Kari McElveen is a retired Family and Consumer Science teacher, Mayo Certified Wellness Coach, with over 25 years of helping people discover their JOY of cooking.

Cooking Simply, Making Good Food Fast!

Interested in enjoying the advantages of home-cooked meals without the hassle of daily cooking from scratch? This session will help you explore what kind of cook you are and share simple guidelines for eating well. You will explore different methods of preparing good food fast while incorporating pre-made ingredients, recipe revamping, and other approaches to prepare nutritious meals. Walk away with ideas to streamline your cooking process, making dining at home both simpler and more enjoyable.

Finding the JOY of Cooking!

Why is there such a strong sense of guilt surrounding cooking habits, whether it's not cooking frequently enough, not cooking in a preferred manner, or simply not cooking at all? Perhaps you love cooking but find it challenging due to time constraints. In the first half of this workshop, we explore six distinct cooking personalities to assist you in identifying or redefining your culinary identity. From there, Kari will review cooking practices that fit with your lifestyle. She will use engaging video demonstrations to showcase two straightforward yet delicious recipes that can be used to create a variety of meals. Throughout the presentation, you'll gain numerous insights and tricks to increase comfort and confidence within your kitchen space.

Kimberly Fox graduated from South Dakota State University, with a degree in Dietetics, Kim Fox continued her education, becoming a Registered and Licensed Dietitian and Certified Diabetes Educator. Through these vast and varied experiences Kim founded Fox Nutrition & Diabetes Services to more effectively assist people in caring for their diabetes, eating more nutritiously, and managing their weight with better outcome.

Functional Nutrition: Eating with a Purpose

While all food provides essential calories and nutrients to sustain life, today's market offers more options packed with bioactive compounds that play a key role in disease prevention and risk reduction. With growing awareness of these benefits, more Americans are turning more to these functional foods to support their overall health and well-being, but are they as beneficial as we believe? This session will take a closer look at some of the more popular functional foods, such as yogurt with probiotics, kombucha, almond milk, gluten-free foods, veggie chips, agave, and more. Find out if these manufactured functional foods are as healthy as they claim, or a big waste of money.

Smart Meal Planning and Prep for a Healthier Lifestyle

Figuring out what's for dinner can be tough, especially without a plan in place. This workshop offers a step-by-step guide to help you create a week's worth of meals that can easily be adjusted and expanded for future weeks. We'll cover cooking methods to maximize nutrition, how to do a cupboard cleanse for healthier pantry staples and explore cookware options to keep your family safe.

Decoding Nutrition Labels: Shopping for Health

Grocery shopping can feel overwhelming, especially when it's hard to tell which options are truly healthy. In this interactive workshop, we'll take you on an aisle-by-aisle journey, breaking down how to make informed food choices that support long-term wellness. Participants will learn how to read and interpret nutrition labels, spot hidden sugars and unhealthy fats, and see through misleading packaging claims. We'll also explore when organic, natural, or "low-fat" really matters, and when it doesn't. By the end of the session, participants will be able to:

- Confidently read and compare nutrition labels to identify the healthiest options.
- Recognize common marketing tactics and buzzwords that can mislead consumers.
- Understand the impact of serving sizes, daily values, and ingredient order on overall nutrition.
- Apply practical strategies for making balanced choices that fit personal and family health goals.
- Attendees will leave with practical tools and a clear framework to shop smarter, save time in the store, and feel more confident about what goes into their cart.
-

Janice Novak developed her unique posture program over twenty years of working with individual clients and teaching thousands of workshops. She has been quoted as the country's premier expert on posture in national and regional publications and broadcasts. Janice has a master's degree in health & physical education. She is an internationally acclaimed bestselling author, speaker and wellness consultant who teaches workshops and seminars for hospitals, corporations and professional organizations. She presents up-to-date info on pertinent health/wellness topics that can improve employee health, decrease sick days, improve productivity, alertness, energy and motivation.

Metabolism Boosters and Busters

In the past you probably could drop weight by cutting back on calories or exercising a bit more. But then suddenly the scale stops moving and you just can't seem to lose weight. THE GOOD NEWS - You could lose up to 20 pounds in a year – without eating less. Just by revving up your metabolism, you can burn more calories every day, lose fat, boost energy, feel stronger and more fit. In this class, you will learn 20 SIMPLE things you can do every day to boost your metabolism and burn as much as 30% more calories every day.

Dr. Jodi Peltier, LAc has walked the walk through her 30 year adventure in holistic health care. She is practical in her approach, not seeking perfection', rather solutions and modifications to adjust to an individual's lifestyle or genuine partnership. Dr. Peltier is triple Board Certified in Acupuncture & East Asian Medicine, having spent an additional 2 years completing her Residency and Fellowship as an Advanced Practice Doctor.

NEW Ways to Detox

The online "mentor, doctor, guru, dietician" is a complicated and confusing place to navigate. One tells you one thing, and another tells you something entirely different. What avenue should you take? Or do you try one and then when that doesn't work, try the next and so on? This course is meant to help break down some of the confusion and create the "why" of necessity... or not. Helping to make informed decisions with an umbrella of knowledge is always the clearest and most healthy path to take. Learning Outcomes:

- Learn contributing factors that indicate detox is necessary
- Understand supportive and not supportive options for detoxing
- Create personal goals that are realistic and achievable

Chef Marianne Jurayj is the founder and chef behind The Cook's Cure, a wellness cooking and teaching service. Marianne is so passionate about cooking for health, that after 25 years in restaurant kitchens and with an award-winning catering company, she changed course and began to share her passion for nutrient-dense foods through culinary wellness classes. Marianne is certified in Food Management/Safety, Medicinal Plants and Nutrigenomics. www.thecookscure.com *All sessions ADDITIONAL $200

NEW Healthy Cooking Demo Classes

These 1-hour virtual cooking demos with Chef Marianne Jurayj always feature real food, nutrition information and food prep tips. Each class highlights a few recipes, and you walk away with cooking skills that translate to more control in the kitchen. A moderator relays questions asked in the chat and participants receive handouts with a shopping list, recipes, and bonus cooking tips.

Choose from the following topics:

Batch Cooking for Easy Meals:

We've all heard the dreaded question "What's for dinner?" Well, we are here to help you with healthy inspiration and useful kitchen tricks that will make meal prep easy, so you can have dinner on the table in no time! We will cover food storage and planning, items to have on hand, and demonstrate some simple techniques and recipes you can use for an easy week of meals.

Sheet Pan Dinners & One-Pot Meals:

The worst part of cooking is all the dishes you're left with after, right? After a long, busy day, cooking a complicated dish is not ideal. In this demonstration cooking class, we make cooking simple so you're not spending all your time in the kitchen. Learn tips and tricks to make the dinner routine easy, delicious, and healthy using tools you already have in your kitchen and foods you already like to eat.

Cooking for a Healthy Heart:

Your heart is the hardest working muscle in your body & we know that heart disease can be prevented with real food, so let's take control by cooking up some delicious, heart-healthy meals and snacks. We will discuss foods that can help with cholesterol, blood pressure and vascular health, like the good fats in salmon, healthy compounds in garlic and polyphenol-rich fruits and veggies that give our heart the fuel it needs to keep us moving.

Easy Weekday Lunches:

Start your week off right with easy, balanced lunch ideas to set you up for success. Reinvent the brown bag lunch with delicious and nutrient dense midday meals that are ready when you are: for work, school, or your home office. This virtual demonstration class will help with shopping, preparation, and storage to keep you on track during your busy week.

Foods for Better Focus:

"Food for Thought!" is an expression we've all heard, but we often forget how food has an impact on our minds! Join us as we dive into the kitchen to explore some tasty dishes that nourish our brains for better memory, processing, and learning, regardless of age. This class will include foods rich in antioxidants, omega-3 fatty acids and anti-inflammatory compounds that will feed our brain and keep us sharp from childhood to our senior years.

Fitness, Prevention & Lifestyle

Jenny West is the Community Educator for FamilyMeans in Stillwater, MN. Jenny has a B.S. degree in Therapeutic Recreation from the University-Wisconsin La Crosse. After graduation, she volunteered for a year out in New York and served individuals living with HIV/AIDS. She has over ten years of experience working with residents and caregiving families in long term care facilities and in the community. Her current focus is providing caregiver education and support to those in Washington County and the Metro area. All Sessions Additional $100

A Healthier You in 2025!

What does your picture of health look like? What are a few things that you could do better? Learn strategies to improve your own health - because you are worth it! Decide for yourself what changes are needed and then we can discuss the action steps to make them happen for you in 2025.

Dr. Bill Kriva is dedicated to helping people achieve and maintain optimum health and wellness. He is a Doctor of Chiropractic with a post-graduate certification in Herbal Medicine. Dr. Kriva is an inspirational national speaker and award-winning author. He is the Clinic Director of Parkview Chiropractic Clinic and an adjunct faculty member of Northwestern Health Sciences University. Dr. Kriva also holds a master's degree in Business Administration and a bachelor's degree in Industrial Engineering as well as years of experience in both fields. This diverse background brings a well-rounded perspective to his presentations and uniquely qualifies him to speak on topics like injury prevention, ergonomics, and a healthy workplace.

How to Stay Fit While You Sit

Recently published research found people who spend higher amounts of time sitting during the workweek were more likely to have higher symptoms of depression, anxiety and fatigue. But it doesn't have to be this way! People can learn what to do differently throughout the day to improve their energy and wellbeing. This interactive workshop is designed to help people combat the issues that go along with working at a desk. Proper techniques for ergonomic workplace design are discussed, as well as techniques to maintain fitness while sitting. Emphasis is placed on injury prevention. Take home message: sitting at work can be hazardous to health, proper workstation design is critical to avoiding health problems due to sitting, participants are given exercises they can use at their workstation to reduce the risk of injury from sitting.

Stay Fit While You Sit Feedback

Very helpful and would recommend this course to all new hires as a part of their on board training. Technical skills aside, how to stay healthy and "fit" while we work is very important. Dr. Kriva is a very good instructor and highly recommended for future courses.

Key Takeaways:

- Understand the impact of sitting on the four main areas of the body
- Posture tips and workstation setup
- Exercises and stretches to improve movement and reduce injury.

NEW Exposing the Hidden Enemy: The Importance of Managing Chronic Inflammation

After years of research into chronic health problems such as heart disease, stroke, premature aging and cancer, a common causative factor, chronic inflammation, has been identified. In this talk we discuss what chronic inflammation is and where it comes from. We then discuss strategies that can reduce inflammation in the body and help prevent major health problems before they begin.

Learning Objectives

- Define chronic inflammation and how it is measured
- Learn causes of chronic inflammation
- Learn strategies to reduce inflammation in the body to reduce chronic serious health problem

Safety First: Proactive Measures for Workplace Injury Prevention

This interactive workshop is dedicated to proactive strategies for preventing workplace injuries, ultimately leading to a healthier, safer workplace. Key topics covered include:

- Understanding Musculoskeletal Disorders (MSD): We delve into the definitions and implications of MSDs, shedding light on how these disorders can impact employees.
- Injury Prevention Techniques: Learn how injuries occur and, more importantly, discover effective methods to prevent them. From proper lifting techniques to ergonomic adjustments, we equip participants with actionable insights.
- The Power of Teamwork: Employers and employees play pivotal roles in maintaining a safe work environment. We emphasize collaboration and shared responsibility in injury prevention.

Key Takeaways:

- Prevention Over Cure: Prioritizing injury prevention is more effective than dealing with injuries after the fact.
- Hidden Risks: Even seemingly safe workplace conditions can harbor potential risks.
- Awareness and Vigilance: Staying informed and proactive are essential for maintaining health and safety at work. brain.

Jenn Espinosa-Goswami, private health coach and motivational speaker, helps people filter through misleading or ludicrous health claims to add their own flavor to a wellness plan that fits into their busy schedules. Jenn has been featured in a national US magazine with over 4 million subscribers. She is also a volunteer speaker for the American Heart Association.

Finding your Neat Beat: The Importance of Non-Exercise

The American Council on Exercise (ACE) recommends getting at least 60 minutes of exercise 4 times a week. Yet, what if you could still reach your activity and health goals through non exercise? Join Jenn to learn about how non exercise activity thermogenesis (NEAT) helps combat the dangers of sitting disease, why gyms are overrated, and specific ways to incorporate more non exercise in your busy lifestyle. All participants get access to a free Workout Style quiz to get moving the right way!

Key Takeaways:

- What is sitting disease, and do you suffer from it?
- Why gyms are not a perfect solution for fitness.
- The research behind NEAT and specific strategies to incorporate non-exercise into everyday life at home and the office.

Exercise Snacks for Everybody: Staying Active by the Minute

Think you need to spend 60 minutes (or more) exercising in order to stay active? The truth is: you may have more success at staying active through "exercise snacks". Exercise snacks are short, intense bursts of activity integrated throughout the day, offering benefits like improved cardiovascular health, blood sugar regulation, increased endurance, better muscle function, and enhanced mood.

In this session, Jenn will walk you through:

- How exercise snacks are superior to longer exercise routines of 30+ minutes
- Instructor-led exercise snacks in the following increments: 2 minutes, 3 minutes and 5 minutes
- How to create your own exercise snack prescription by incorporating cardio, resistance, and balance exercises

Lynda Enright MS, RDN, LD, CLT helps individuals to learn to eat well so that they are no longer overweight, feel bloated and sick. She works to address the whole person so they can live a healthy life full of energy and free of illness. Lynda received her Master of Science degree in nutrition from the University of Minnesota, is a Registered Dietitian and has received additional training in weight management, functional nutrition and food sensitivities. *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150

Nourish & Thrive: Essential Tips for Healthy Cooking

Ready to cut back on dining out but unsure where to start in the kitchen? In this class, you'll learn the health and financial benefits of home-cooked meals compared to restaurant dining. We'll explore simple yet flavorful recipes, along with practical cooking techniques to make meal preparation easy and enjoyable. Whether you're a beginner or looking to refresh your skills, this workshop will help you build confidence in the kitchen and create meals that nourish both body and mind.

Learning Objectives:

- Understand the nutritional and financial advantages of preparing meals at home versus dining out.
- Learn practical cooking techniques and strategies to simplify healthy meal preparation.
- Discover easy, delicious recipes that support a balanced and healthy lifestyle.

Unlocking Longevity: Exploring the Blue Zones Diet and Lifestyle

There are areas in the world where a high percentage of people live to be in their 90's or over 100, what researcher Dan Buettner has called Blue Zones. Not only do they live long, but people in these areas also have low rates of chronic disease including heart disease and Diabetes. In this workshop you will learn what diet and lifestyle choices are made in Blue Zones and what you can do to build your own Blue Zone to optimize your health today and live well into the future.

Jill Borgerding started sharing her passion for fitness with others when Jazzercise, Billy Blanks, and Nordic Tracks were hot! Since then, she has led thousands of group fitness and yoga classes, trained hundreds of clients, and has a very long list of certifications. Luckily, both she and the world of health and wellness have evolved tremendously in the past twenty-five years! Now, with an extensive background in personal training, nutrition coaching, healthy-aging and habit change, she teaches a lifestyle of balance between effort and ease in all areas. Her enthusiasm, passion and knowledge show in everything she does. Whether she's working one-on-one with a client or presenting a workshop to a group, you will feel a positive and supportive attitude, infused with an abundance of motivation and a sense of humor.

Longevity: Steps to Lasting Strength and Well-Being

Now is the perfect time to invest in your future self! Your 84-year-old self will thank you for the choices you make today. Healthy, functional movement is essential for avoiding disablement and maintaining an active, fulfilling life as you age. In this workshop, we'll dive into the five key areas to focus on right now that will help you stay capable, confident, and independent throughout your later years. Beyond preserving your physical abilities, you'll discover how these strategies can boost your energy levels and enable you to keep doing the things you love well into the next stage of life.

Join us to learn practical, actionable steps that will not only enhance your longevity but also improve your quality of life today and in the years to come. Whether you're looking to stay fit, prevent injury, or simply invest in long-term well-being, this workshop offers the tools and motivation to take control of your future.

The Brain-Boosting Benefits of Exercise

There are so many benefits of movement that go far beyond cardiovascular and weight management, which are often the focus of the exercise. Physical activity is an essential piece to maintaining prime cognitive function throughout life. In this workshop, we'll dive into the following:

- Why exercise is so important and how it impacts the brain
- How activity decreases our chance of cognitive decline
- The benefits of combining physical training with cognitive challenges

Take control of both your brain and body health by learning these brain-healthy exercises that may slow your cognitive decline by as much as 45%!!

Janice Novak developed her unique posture program over twenty years of working with individual clients and teaching thousands of workshops. She has been quoted as the country's premier expert on posture in national and regional publications and broadcasts. Janice has a master's degree in health & physical education. She is an internationally acclaimed bestselling author, speaker and wellness consultant who teaches workshops and seminars for hospitals, corporations and professional organizations. She presents up-to-date info on pertinent health/wellness topics that can improve employee health, decrease sick days, improve productivity, alertness, energy and motivation.

Acupressure for Relief from Stress, Insomnia, Anxiety & More

Acupressure is an ancient healing art and self-help tool. It can offer great relief with no side effects and help you feel your best. Along with the specific points to help relieve stress, insomnia, anxiety, irritability and even weight gain, you will learn the Nine Master Pressure Points which are the most helpful and most frequently prescribed to help and assist every system in your body.

Posture, Get it Straight! Look 10 Years Younger & 10 Pounds Thinner & Feel Better Than Ever

Posture affects how you look, how you feel, and how others perceive you. Poor posture is the #1 cause of back and neck discomfort and can lead to a lifetime of annoying aches and pains. By improving your posture, you improve the health and comfort of your spine. By standing tall you can stop the rounding over that occurs as we age, causing you to shrink in stature. And last, but not least, your posture conveys a lot of info to the outside world about your mental and emotional state, as well as confidence level. In this workshop, you will learn very specific exercises to straighten your shoulders, flatten your upper back, strengthen lower back and all 4 layers of abdominal muscle. You will learn tips and techniques that will improve alignment immediately. We will discuss back-friendly ways to adjust your computer workstations or desk; how to adjust your car seat to help your posture, beneficial sleeping/resting/reading positions and much more!

Core Solution for Desk Workers - Flatten Your Abs, Strengthen Your Core

A few reasons abdominal muscles weaken and lose shape are past pregnancies, surgeries, sitting at a desk all day, being sedentary and poor posture. In this workshop, you will learn a series of extremely effective exercises that will quickly strengthen all four layers of abdominal muscle, especially the deepest layer WITHOUT stressing your back or neck joints and WITHOUT having to get on the floor. Don't waste time with traditional crunches. Learn a different, more effective way to flatten your stomach, re-shape your waistline and prevent/relieve lower back discomfort.

Health & Wellness
NEW! From Overwhelmed to Empowered: Mastering Stress from the Inside Out	Move beyond surface-level stress management to understand what's really happening in the mind and body. This presentation helps participants recognize their personal stress patterns, regulate their responses, and develop daily habits that foster calm, clarity, and sustainable well-being.	Hall
NEW! Micro-Habits for Macro-Change	Big transformation begins with small, consistent steps. This session reveals how micro-habits—simple, evidence-based actions—can reshape routines, boost performance, and strengthen resilience. Participants discover how intentional daily choices create meaningful, long-term change in both life and work.	Hall
Understanding Mental Health Conditions	Mental Health is in the news now more than ever, yet there continues to be stigma associated with Mental Health issues, despite the growing commonality of such challenges. This workshop helps the participant understand the most common mental health issues, how to recognize concerns in oneself and/or others, and how to communicate concerns to other people. By increasing understanding, we can hope to reduce stigma. Learning Objectives: • Learn the spectrum of the most common Mental Health issues • Be able to recognize the signs and symptoms of Depression and Anxiety • Learn how to cope with everyday stressors • Learn how to navigate conversations with others you may be concerned about • Understand the importance of work/life “balance” or “integration”	Alch *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
Mental Health in 2025: A Guide for Everyone	The past three years have been an extraordinary time with regards to the stress, anxiety and overall uncertainty that has infiltrated and overtaken everyone's life. Our resiliency has been tested and there has been a significant toll taken on the mental health of most, if not all, people. Understanding the most common mental health issues is key to managing ourselves and how we can promote good mental health in our everyday lives. This workshop explores the following: • Learn what Mental Illness is and its contributing factors • How Mental Health has changed pre to post COVID • Learn the signs and symptoms of distress in employees and others in your life • Understand your role in minimizing burnout • Understand tools/techniques to maintain good mental health	Alch *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
Supporting Neurodiversity in the Workplace	Neurodiversity refers to the range of differences in brain function and behavioral traits among individuals, including those with conditions such as autism, ADHD, dyslexia, and other neurological variations. In this enlightening workshop, we'll	Thiemann explore how embracing neurodiversity can lead to greater innovation, creativity, and inclusion in the workplace. Participants will gain a deeper understanding of neurodiversity and its impact on the workplace environment. We'll examine common myths and misconceptions surrounding neurodiversity and explore practical strategies for creating a more inclusive and supportive workplace culture. Learning Objectives: • Understand the concept of neurodiversity and its relevance in the workplace. • Recognize the value of neurodiverse perspectives in fostering innovation and creativity. • Identify common challenges faced by neurodiverse employees in the workplace. • Learn practical strategies for creating a more inclusive and supportive work environment for neurodiverse individuals.

Protect Yourself from Burnout or Compassion Fatigue	In this workshop, you'll gain practical tools and insights to protect yourself from burnout and compassion fatigue, especially if you're in a caregiving or high-stress role. These conditions can drain your emotional, physical, and mental reserves, leaving you feeling overwhelmed and disconnected. Together, we'll explore how to recognize the early signs, understand the root causes, and apply strategies to restore balance and vitality in your life. Through guided discussions and interactive exercises, you will learn how to set boundaries, practice self-care, and cultivate resilience to maintain your well-being while still caring for others. Learning Objectives: • Recognize the early warning signs of burnout and compassion fatigue to prevent long-term harm. • Understand the emotional and psychological factors contributing to burnout and compassion fatigue. • Learn effective self-care and stress management techniques to build resilience. • Develop strategies for setting healthy boundaries in both personal and professional environments. • Implement practices that promote emotional renewal, balance, and sustainable caregiving without feeling depleted.	Thiemann
Managing Your Work Style to Reduce Stress	Employees can often find themselves reacting in a high-stress manner to today's fast-paced, demanding, and pressure-riddled workplace. Research continues to indicate that a high-stress work style threatens health, decreases a sense of well-being, inhibits happiness, and negatively affects workplace morale. By adopting a low-stress approach, people maintain a demeanor of calm, don't have the compelling drive to "fight the clock," consider the needs of others, create a cooperative work and/or home environment, and stay healthier. This seminar focuses on two key areas: wit and wisdom. Participants learn how to fine-tune their perception and astuteness when viewing situations and how to call upon humor to lighten up in terms of their own stress and to defuse potentially volatile or difficult interactions with co-workers. Learning Objectives: • Identify the traits of a high-stress and low-stress work style. • Describe each style's impact on yourself – and your co-workers. • Indicate which style reflects your individual behavior. • Learn strategies for fine-tuning your perception, tapping into your wisdom, and applying humor to reduce stress at work.	Thiemann

Proven Ways to Boost Your Mental Health and Happiness	Join us for an interactive workshop designed to equip you with practical strategies to enhance your mental well-being and cultivate greater happiness in your life. In this session, you'll discover thirty actionable techniques to boost your mood, reduce stress, and foster a greater sense of fulfillment. Through engaging discussions and expert guidance, you'll explore a variety of approaches to improve your mental health and enhance your overall quality of life. From simple daily habits to more profound mindset shifts, you'll learn how to incorporate these strategies into your routine to experience lasting positive change. Learning Objectives: •Identify over 20 practical strategies to improve mental well-being and enhance daily happiness. •Explore the connection between mindset shifts and long-term mental health improvements. •Develop a personalized plan to incorporate mental health-boosting habits into daily routines. •Understand the science behind stress reduction techniques and how to apply them effectively. •Enhance self-awareness by recognizing triggers for stress and low mood, and using targeted approaches to address them. •Implement strategies for fostering positive relationships and social support as a key component of overall happiness.	Thiemann
Navigating Mid-Life: Empowering Women Through Mental Health Challenges	"Join us for an empowering workshop tailored specifically for mid-life women navigating the unique mental health challenges that come with this transformative stage of life. Whether you're experiencing career transitions, empty nest syndrome, hormonal changes, or other life shifts, this workshop is designed to provide support, insight, and practical strategies to help you thrive. Participants will leave feeling inspired and empowered to embrace the opportunities and challenges of mid-life with confidence and resilience. Together, we'll celebrate the strength, wisdom, and resilience of mid-life women everywhere. Learning Objectives: •Identify common mental health challenges faced by mid-life women, including stress, anxiety, depression, and self-esteem issues. •Explore the emotional impact of life transitions such as career changes, hormonal shifts, and empty nest syndrome. •Learn mindfulness practices and self-care strategies to manage stress and enhance emotional well-being. •Develop resilience-building techniques to navigate mid-life challenges with confidence and grace. •Empower participants to embrace mid-life as a time of growth, strength, and new opportunities through positive mindset shifts."	Thiemann
Putting You First – Taking Care Of Your Health Before, During And After Menopause	Our body's needs change throughout life – from early adulthood through perimenopause and menopause. In this class you will learn some of the physical changes that occur during menopause and what you can do to promote good health, prevent disease and feel your very best.	Enright *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
Living Well Through Menopause—Maintaining A Healthy Weight And Keeping A Clear Head	Have you put on 5-10 lbs. around the middle? Do you feel brain fog and fatigue? These are common symptoms of menopause and resolving them can be frustrating. In this class you will learn choices you can make to support your body during this time including food, exercise and supplementation.	Enright *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150

Wellness for Life	"Wellness for Life" is designed to help you make lasting, meaningful changes to your health and well-being by going beyond simply knowing what's good for you. This workshop acknowledges that building sustainable wellness habits requires more than information—it demands self-awareness, practical strategies, and a clear understanding of your personal motivations. In this interactive session, you'll explore the foundational behaviors that support resilience, performance, and happiness. Through easy-to-implement tips and tools, you'll gain clarity on your strengths and areas for growth, empowering you to embark on a successful wellness journey. Learning Objectives: • Identify personal strengths and weaknesses in maintaining wellness routines and behaviors. • Understand the connection between responsible wellness behaviors and resilience, performance, and happiness. • Learn practical, simple tips to optimize daily wellness routines. • Develop clarity around personal motivations ("whys") and strategies ("how's") for sustaining health and wellness. • Create an actionable wellness plan that aligns with your goals and lifestyle."	Thiemann
Self-Care Toolkit	Self-care is a personal journey, and it's important to recognize that there's no one-size-fits-all approach. In this one-hour workshop, we will delve into a diverse range of self-care activities. While some, such as breathing and meditation, may be familiar, we'll infuse them with fresh perspectives. Others, like exploring color and engaging in simple drawing, may be entirely new experiences for you. By tapping into your innate creativity, you may discover that stress starts to dissipate, often without you even noticing. Objectives: • Discover multiple approaches to stress management and learn how to incorporate them into your routine. • Practice new breathing techniques that engage the diaphragm and enhance oxygen circulation. • Recognize the significance of journaling in reducing stress and gain insight into effective journal-writing methods that promote relaxation and problem-solving.	Routman
Get Serious About Laughter (No Joke!) - Let's Manage Stress With LAUGHTER!	Evidence abounds that play deprivation and loss of laughter are taking a huge toll on the overall health and wellbeing of an overwhelmed, burned out and isolated workforce. With a spirit of play, Sarah stimulates creativity with breathing, stretching, movement and the most animated laughter you've ever shared. Not only does it help to de-escalate stressful moments, but it also increases oxygen flow in the body, boosts the immune system, and provides a great exercise workout as it increases overall wellness. This session creates a ripple effect of positivity, leaving you with a clear mind, a fresh perspective and a healthy laughter glow.	Routman
Sshhh, Quietening Your Inner Chatter	In today's fast-paced world, the demands of staying constantly connected and fulfilling various roles can lead to a cluttered mind, hindering our ability to focus, stay present, and achieve restful sleep. The mental noise created by this busyness can limit our capacity to be fully present and effective in our relationships and responsibilities. In just 10 minutes, pausing to quiet your mind can significantly enhance your mental availability and productivity. In this workshop, we'll delve into practices aimed at	Thiemann calming the mind amidst chaos. This skill is not only beneficial for finding peace of mind but also for gaining clarity in thinking and problem-solving. Join us to explore techniques that can transform your ability to navigate life's demands with greater ease and effectiveness.

The 7 Types of Rest: Recharging for Total Well-being	This workshop introduces participants to the concept of the seven types of rest—physical, mental, emotional, sensory, creative, social, and spiritual—each vital for achieving true restoration. Participants will discover how different types of rest impact overall health, productivity, and life satisfaction. Through engaging discussions and practical exercises, attendees will learn to recognize their unique rest needs and develop strategies to incorporate all forms of rest into their daily lives for a more balanced and fulfilling life. Learning Objectives: Understand the seven types of rest and how they contribute to overall well-being. Identify personal rest deficits and the signs of burnout related to insufficient rest. Learn practical strategies to incorporate various types of rest into daily routines. Explore how adequate rest enhances creativity, relationships, and work-life balance. Develop a personalized rest plan to promote holistic recovery and sustained energy.	Thiemann
Reducing Stress and Improving Performance Through Mental Fitness	Mental Fitness, based on the NY Times bestseller book Positive Intelligence by Shirzad Chamine, is defined as your capacity to deal with life's challenges in a positive way vs. a negative way. Mental Fitness is based on extensive research at Stanford with 500,000 participants from 50 countries. Join this 1-hour interactive workshop by Nirav Sheth, Certified Life Coach, to learn about Mental Fitness and how it can transform your life. You will learn about parts of our brain that create stress and sabotage our performance (our Saboteurs), and also about the positive emotion generating part of the brain that leads to improved happiness, relationships and performance (our Sage). Nirav will also take us through some simple exercises that will make you feel calmer and relaxed!	Sheth *All sessions ADDITIONAL $300
Silencing Your Inner Critic	Is there a little voice in your head that often says to you: "What a dumb person you are!" or "You won't do it right, so why bother!" or "Either I get that new job, or I'll be stuck in this one forever!" Your inner "Critic" is that voice – the one that is all-to-ready to berate, criticize, and demean you. If your "Critic" is not managed, it can rob you of feeling good about yourself. Strong self-esteem – the value and worth you put on yourself – is an attribute that enables you to succeed at work and in relationships. In order to have healthy self-esteem, it's important to confront the "Critic" and change the language of that internal voice. There are many strategies that can help people develop healthy self-esteem. Participants will learn to: Define self-esteem and identify the sources of adult self-worth Make the connection between irrational thinking and low self-esteem Develop strategies for controlling the critic and enhancing self-esteem Create a personal plan for developing positive self-esteem	Alch *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
Overcoming Anxiety to Enjoy Life	Anxiety is a healthy and normal emotion that everyone feels from time to time. When trying to overcome anxiety you should not try to eliminate your feelings of anxiety but should aim to develop your coping mechanisms when you do feel anxiety. Having the ability to cope with anxious thoughts are key to overcoming anxiety. Attendees will:	Alch *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150

	• Learn the model for how to stay in the "present" and minimize stress and anxiety. • Learn the model for understanding underlying attitudes and beliefs that drive behavior. • Learn techniques to gain more comfort around things that cause discomfort.
Tips and Tactics to Quell Anxiety	According to the National Institute of Mental Health (NIMH), 31.1% of US adults experience an anxiety disorder at some point in their lives. Getting treatment is critical to one's emotional health. There are some practical approaches for recognizing and managing one's anxiety. In this session we will discuss the symptoms of anxiety and some exercises and techniques to alleviate anxious thoughts.	Rogers
Understanding Invisible Disabilities	Most people think of disabilities as something observable. However, there are a great many "invisible" disabilities that affect a significant portion of our population: Mental Health issues are the most common, but there are many more. This workshop defines what invisible disabilities are, challenges our assumptions about them (and the people they affect), explores the areas of depression, anxiety and suicide, and what you can do to help. Participants learn: • What invisible disabilities are • Understanding depression, anxiety, suicide, and other chronic conditions and their accompanying symptoms • Understanding the importance of empathy, validation, and being non-judgmental	Alch *All session ADDITIONAL $150
Understanding Mental Illness in the Workplace	1 in 5 adults have a mental illness that can impact absenteeism and presenteeism at the workplace. This means an average of 27 lost workdays per year, 9 sick days and 18 days of lost productivity for each employee with a mental illness. It is also the leading cause of short-term and long-term disability. This training will provide a brief overview of mental illnesses, will increase your understanding of why disclosure is difficult, and will offer information on providing accommodations in the workplace. Employers with proactive mental health programs see financial benefits, higher productivity, motivation, and reduced absenteeism.	NAMI
5 Steps to Maintaining Brain Health	This workshop will discuss the causes of memory loss and non-drug related approaches to maintaining a healthy memory. These include the importance of diet, exercise, staying mentally active, socializing, as well as supplements that may help boost mental performance. Dr. Kriva will also discuss cutting edge research that may open new doors for future management of age-related memory maintenance and when to seek professional help for memory loss. Take home messages; there are basic things that can be done easily to help boost memory function, the future for memory management is exciting given our new understandings of the brain.	Kriva
Caring for Someone Else? Build Your Own Team of Support to Continue to Care	Who's taking care of me while I watch over you? What keeps you from taking care of yourself? We all have the same 1,400 minutes in a day, and often it is our own perceptions of things that keep us stuck and unbalanced. By attending this seminar, you will learn time-saving techniques for self-care, to identify physical, emotional and mental tools that can fit into your busy schedule, and how to improve your team of support.	West *All sessions ADDITIONAL $100
A More Balanced You	Is your plate overflowing with stress and responsibilities? Is your to-do list never ending? Are you forgetting important things? We all have the same 1,400 minutes in a day, and often it is our own perception of things that keeps us stuck and	West *All sessions

	unbalanced. By attending this seminar, you will learn time-saving techniques for self-care, the importance of slowing down and ways to improve your sense of well-being.	ADDITIONAL $100
The Power of Connection	Love and belonging are irreducible needs for all people. In the absence of these experiences, there is always suffering...these are the words of Dr. Brene Brown in her book Atlas of the Heart. People will always need people...human connection is critical to our well-being, but in our fast-paced world, often we miss those connections. Join us for an interactive webinar where we will explore this concept and strategies for better connection.	Rogers
Social Wellness: Nurturing Meaningful Connections for Wellbeing	This workshop is designed to help you enhance your social wellness by fostering meaningful connections that support your overall well-being. In today's fast-paced world, maintaining strong relationships can be challenging, but it's crucial for mental, emotional, and even physical health. You will explore the importance of social connections, learn how to cultivate deeper relationships, and discover strategies for building a supportive community. Whether you're looking to strengthen existing bonds or create new ones, this workshop will provide practical tools to nurture relationships that contribute to your well-being. Learning Objectives: • Understand the impact of meaningful social connections on mental and physical health. • Identify barriers to forming and maintaining healthy relationships and learn how to overcome them. • Learn strategies to improve communication and deepen existing relationships. • Explore ways to expand your social network and create a supportive community. • Develop a personal action plan to nurture and maintain meaningful social connections for long-term well-being.	Thiemann
The Power of Laughter	Could you incorporate more laughter into your life? Laughter affects human physiology by reducing pain, strengthening our immune system and decreasing stress. Learn some simple tools and laugh a little along the way. Increasing humor helps put life's trials and tribulations into perspective and allows us to take ourselves less seriously.	West *All sessions ADDITIONAL $100
Communicating Effectively with Your Healthcare Provider	Ever wonder if there is a way to improve communication with your health care providers? This seminar will help anyone who wants to increase communication, get more out of your office visit and create a team approach towards your health care needs. By learning effective communication techniques, you will save time and energy by making the most of your health care provider visits.	West *All sessions ADDITIONAL $100
Preventing Caregiver Burn-Out	If something were to happen to you, where would the person that you care for go? Learn strategies and tips that can keep your life balanced and not burnt. Build a team of support and be your greatest asset when you need it the most. Discover the community resources that can support you!	West *All sessions ADDITIONAL $100
Relaxxxxxx	Stress. We can't eliminate it from our lives, but we can learn sound, scientifically proven ways to manage it and prevent much of the stress we experience. There are numerous simple techniques in this area. I'll give you a few simple stress relievers you can use daily to take better care of yourself and those around you. Reducing stress protects your heart, boosts your memory, lowers your risk of stroke, lowers the risk of depression, and even stops weight gain - just for starters. Plus, everyday life is better when you're managing your stress. Learn tools and techniques to use	Borgerding daily whether you have one minute or one hour available! You will leave this workshop feeling relaxxxed!

Managing Stress Naturally	"Managing Stress Naturally" looks at the role of stress in detrimentally impacting our health. The physiological response we have to stress is discussed and the impact of stress on productivity is explored. A personal and private stress survey is included to help participants gauge their stress exposure. Finally, practical approaches to managing stress are presented. This talk has been extremely popular with all types of audiences from the workplace to the general public. Take home message: stress is the leading cause for visits to doctor's offices in this country, there is good and bad stress, managing stress using the techniques presented is critical to good health and overall productivity in all aspects of life.	Kriva
Conquering Fear and Anxiety: A 2 (or 3) Part Series on "Self" Management	Part One of this two-part series examines: • What is Anxiety and How Does it Differ from Worry • Roots of Fear and Anxiety • The Time Competence Model • Understanding the power of your thoughts Part Two of this series continues with: • The Single and Double Learning Model • Conquering Fear and Anxiety • Mindfulness and Acceptance • A Tool Kit for Maintenance	Alch *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
Be Here Now: How Mindfulness, Effectiveness, and Happiness (and Less Stress!) Meet	In today's fast paced, constantly shifting world, it has become increasingly difficult to stay "present" when so much pulls us in different - often competing - directions. Who hasn't been at dinner and watched as the smart phones take us to different places (like the office)? An important link between stress and where one's thoughts are has been found. This workshop lays out a model for how to stay as present as possible, feel less stressed and more in charge and in control. And Harvard University agrees! Learning Objectives: • Participants will learn where their own "mental time" is and how to change it when desired. • Will understand the role stress plays in our mental, emotional, and physical health. • Will learn the steps necessary for exerting more control over their lives.	Alch *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
Coping with Chronic Medical Illness in the Family	Living with illness, especially chronic illnesses like cancer, MS, asthma, and the like are becoming more and more the norm. This workshop examines the impact chronic or ongoing medical illnesses have on the affected person and the family as a whole. How to manage worries and fears, keeping up with everyday life, effective communication with healthcare professionals, and building resilience are also discussed. Learning Objectives: • Participants will learn the Time Competence Model and how to implement it in daily life. • Understand how to take charge of and navigate their doctor visits.	Alch *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150

	The key steps in building and maintaining resilience.
Transform Your Diet with These 6 Simple Tools	Lots of people think meal plans and specific diets are the answer to better nutrition. Too often they are difficult to sustain and don't get us the results we want. Check out these 6 clear and virtually effortless ways to transform your nutrition for lasting and real change!	Borgerding
Forget Calorie Counting!	Calorie counting is often complicated, tedious, and inaccurate. There is a better way to get the right amount and balance of nutrition at every meal. Learn a painless and personalized way to control calories to look better and feel better and take control of your health starting today.	Borgerding
Farmer's Market: Making the Most of the Season *Seasonal	Late summer and fall are wonderful times to take advantage of all the wonderful, fresh food available through our farmer's markets. This interactive session will take you through a Farmer's Market experience, from beginning to end. Starting with the best produce to buy and when, finding the best quality at the best price and what to look out for. Once the shopping is done Kari will show how to wash and store your produce for good quality results and then share a couple of great recipes you can try at home. This session is full of bright images from the local Farmer's Market along with step by step meal prep and cooking instructions.	McElveen
Finding the Joy of Cooking	Why is there such a strong sense of guilt surrounding cooking habits, whether it's not cooking frequently enough, not cooking in a preferred manner, or simply not cooking at all? Perhaps you love cooking but find it challenging due to time constraints. In the first half of this workshop, we explore six distinct cooking personalities to assist you in identifying or redefining your culinary identity. From there, Kari will review cooking practices that fit with your lifestyle. She will use engaging video demonstrations to showcase two straightforward yet delicious recipes that can be used to create a variety of meals. Throughout the presentation, you'll gain numerous insights and tricks to increase comfort and confidence within your kitchen space.	McElveen
Eating For One - The Single Person's Guide To Food	Would you like to eat a healthy diet, but are tired of throwing away uneaten fresh foods? In this class you will learn how to choose food for good health. You will learn how to plan meals that will taste great and can be incorporated throughout your week. You will leave with a plan for stocking your kitchen for meals for one.	Enright *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
Planning A Healthy Menu That Fits Into Your Life	In this class you will learn how many calories you need to maintain a healthy weight, simple tools for planning menus that will fit into your life and the importance of balance, variety and moderation in a healthy diet.	Enright *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
Eating Well For Your Best Health	In this class you will learn how your food choices impact your health and how our food environment has changed. You will also learn simple tools for planning menus that will fit into your life, how to stock your kitchen with nourishing foods and the best choices you can make each day.	Enright *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
Dining Out Without The Guilt	In our busy lives today eating out is common in most households. In this class you will learn how to make healthy choices away from home and how to enjoy dining out while maintaining a healthy weight and without feeling guilty.	Enright *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
Eating Well For Kids And Families	Are you tired of fighting with your kids about what to eat? Are you unsure of what your kids really need for a healthy diet? In this class you will learn what kids need for healthy growth and development and tips on getting your kids to eat right at home and away.	Enright *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150

Eating Well For Picky Eaters	Are you tired of fighting with your kids about what to eat? Are you unsure of what your kids really need for a healthy diet? In this class you will learn what kids need for healthy growth and development and tips on getting your kids to eat right at home and away.	Enright *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
Eating And Living Well As You Age	Do you plan for your financial future but not your future health? People that are happiest in retirement have the healthiest lifestyle! Learn how your nutritional needs change as you age and how to get started on a healthy retirement.	Enright *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
Healthy Meal Planning And Shopping For Families On A Budget	Do you want to feed your family well but feel like “healthy” food choices don’t fit into your family’s budget? In this class you will learn how to plan healthy family meals and shopping tips to get the most value at the store.	Enright *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
Eating Right For Your Heart	Heart disease is the leading cause of death in the U.S. In this class you will learn what are the premature risk factors for heart disease, important tests of heart health, and how to protect your heart with a healthy diet.	Enright *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
Are Gluten Free Foods Healthier? Understanding “Gluten Free” In An Ever Expanding Food Market	The gluten free product market is expected to reach over $6 billion within the next 5 years. With the growing supply of gluten free products, is there a reason for their demand? In this class you will learn what gluten is and where you will find it in your food. We will discuss the health benefits of gluten free products and the individuals who may have the greatest benefit from choosing gluten free. You will learn products available and recipes for gluten free cooking.	Enright *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
Organic and Natural Foods – Are The Benefits Worth The Costs?	Are you interested in nourishing your body well, but not sure if the benefits of organic foods outweigh the costs? In this class you will learn the requirements of organic and natural food labeling. We will discuss the reasons why you may wish to choose organic foods. And you will learn the foods most important to consider purchasing organic.	Enright *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
Meal Planning Made Easy: Convenience without Counting Anything	The biggest struggle most health warriors face is what to eat! In this presentation, Jenn shares the Power of 3, and why programs that require you to count or track every bite you eat are setting you up to fail. Why meal planning is important to healthy eating What diet programs are missing when it comes to healthy eating A 3 step meal planning process, even if you have allergies or dietary restrictions Why sugar is not the enemy (and what to focus on instead)	Espinosa-Goswami
Eating for Life	If you would like to get nutrition and weight management right once and for all, this session will help you to eat right, without feeling hungry (or hangry)! Learn from an Instructor who walks her talk! We'll take a look at the building blocks of nutritional groups, known as macronutrients, and how to aim for healthy ratios and portions of each to support weight loss or gain, weight maintenance or supporting an active lifestyle. You'll learn about different preservatives, additives, sugars, fats and other elements that can be counter-productive to a healthy digestive system and a healthy diet, and the hidden cost of many processed, packages and convenience foods. We'll cover menu planning and cooking tips for enjoying simple, healthy "whole" foods for even the busiest family. After this session, you'll walk away with: • A food plan for your health goals • A list of foods to include and reduce or eliminate	Thiemann

	• Online tracking tools, menu plans and other resources.
Your Role in Reducing Food Waste	This workshop focuses on empowering you to take action in reducing food waste at home, in the workplace, and within your community. With 64% of food waste being preventable, we will explore practical steps to manage food more efficiently, from better shopping habits to creative ways to repurpose leftovers. By understanding the significant impact of food waste on both the environment and our economy, you will learn how to make a tangible difference. Join us to create a personalized plan for smarter food management, reduce waste, and contribute to a more sustainable future. Learning Objectives: • Understand the environmental, social, and economic impact of food waste in the United States. • Identify key sources of food waste at home, work, and in the community. • Learn practical strategies to prevent food waste through better shopping, storage, and meal planning. • Explore creative ways to repurpose leftovers and unused food items. • Develop a personalized plan for reducing food waste and promoting sustainable food management practices.	Thiemann
Poor Grains: Including Carbohydrates in the “Low Carb” World	The “low carb” craze has had many different names over the years. Each new version sounds better than the one before. There are three main nutrients required for a healthy functioning body: Protein, Fat and CARBOHYDRATES. Whole grains provide vitamins minerals, fiber and can even aid in a good night’s sleep. Join Licensed Nutritionist Carolyn Denton to discover what, why and how to eat grains. Objectives: • Understand the role of whole grains and their nutritional benefits. • Discern what constitutes a “healthy grain” from a simple, refined grain. • Discover the best sources of whole grains with delicious and easy ways to incorporate them into your diet.	Denton
Healthy Through the Holidays	The holiday season can be a landmine of delicious temptations and stress. In this interactive workshop, Jenn will explore how to enjoy the holidays by identifying the top food saboteurs and stress-relieving strategies for a healthier holiday. Includes an e-book of Healthy Holiday treat recipes. Audience takeaways: • Why a holiday mindset can keep you reaching for unhealthy foods • The role of stress in overeating, and how to relieve stress without food • Healthier substitutes for popular sugar-laden foods	Espinosa-Goswami
Eating Through the Holidays	Does the average American actually gain 5 lbs. over the holidays? Making healthy choices during the holidays can be an extra challenge. But you can eat well and feel great through the holidays and into the new year. In this class you will learn how to avoid overeating at social events, gain confidence in planning a healthy holiday party and end your year feeling great.	Enright *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
Mindful Nutrition – Choosing Foods to Feel Your Best	Are you worried about the impact of your diet on your health? Do you want your food to help you feel energized rather than sluggish? This workshop introduces you to mindful, balanced eating—focusing less on calories, fats, or carbs, and more on	Enright

	the quality and natural goodness of the foods you choose. You'll discover what it means to eat a nutrient-rich, whole foods diet and learn practical ways to incorporate these healthy habits into your everyday routine	*All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
Are You an Emotional Eater?	Do you feel like you know what you need to eat for a healthy weight, but you just can't get yourself to make the right choices? Emotional eating can be one of the biggest struggles towards healthy living. This class will help you understand what emotional eating is and how you can take control of your eating habits.	Enright *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
Why Can't I Keep My Fitness and Nutrition Goals?	Does your willpower seem to disappear when you see the ice cream in the freezer? Understand how and why we make decisions and then ignore them. Healthy habits are achievable with a few straightforward, uncomplicated, and manageable strategies that yield big results. Learn 5 ridiculously easy steps to sticking to your goals.	Borgerding
Blood Sugar Control – Are You at Risk for Diabetes?	Over 79 million people in the United States are considered pre-diabetic with an additional 7 million with undiagnosed Diabetes. Are you at risk? Before Diabetes is diagnosed damage to arteries that increases risk for heart disease, stroke and blindness may occur. In this class you will learn what the numbers from your doctor mean and simple things you can start doing today to control blood sugar and prevent disease.	Enright *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
How Your Diet Impacts Your Risk of Disease	Many of the chronic diseases prevalent today are directly associated with our diet and lifestyles. In this class you will assess how your diet affects your risk and you will leave with tools to get started on making your lifestyle healthier to prevent disease	Enright *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
The Strong Pull of Sugar – Eliminate the Sugar Cravings, Feel Your Very Best	Do you hear the ice cream calling you from the freezer? Do you have greater success with weight loss and management on a low carb diet, but are not sure it is the healthiest option? In this class you will learn why some people find sugar in their diet a great challenge and how to plan a diet that will eliminate sugar cravings and promote a healthy weight.	Enright *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
Protecting Your Back in the Workplace	This comprehensive workshop is designed to equip employees with practical tools for preventing workplace injuries, particularly those related to the back. Whether you're working from a desk, in the field, or on the floor, this session has tips for everyone. Led by Dr. Kriva, a seasoned expert in workplace safety and injury prevention stemming from his background as an industrial engineer, this seminar delves into specific strategies applicable to all employees. Participants will gain insights into proper lifting techniques, understanding not just the "how," but also the crucial "why" behind them. Beyond lifting, we'll explore often overlooked causes of back injuries in the workplace. Additionally, attendees will learn targeted exercises aimed at strengthening and stabilizing their backs, empowering them to proactively safeguard their health and well-being on the job.	Kriva
The Truth About Skincare: Avoiding Toxins and Nourishing Your Skin	The skin is our largest organ, and it plays a vital role in protecting our bodies from external elements. However, what many people don't realize is that up to 60-70% of what we apply to our skin gets absorbed into our bloodstream. Alarming, many common skincare products contain toxic chemicals that are banned in other countries due to their potential health risks. These hidden toxins can lead to serious health issues, including obesity, thyroid dysfunction, and hormonal imbalances. Key Takeaways:	Fox

	• Discuss the harmful ingredients lurking in everyday skincare products and the impact they can have on our overall health. • Discover how to read labels with confidence, identifying which ingredients to avoid and why. • Learn how to make the switch to healthier and safer skin care products and make-up.
Summer Skin Health	Welcome to the summer skin health workshop! This workshop is designed to help you maintain healthy and glowing skin throughout the summer season. During this workshop, you will learn about the importance of protecting your skin from the sun's harmful UV rays, how to properly cleanse and moisturize your skin, and how to address common skin concerns such as sunburn, dryness, and breakouts. The session will provide you with valuable information on choosing the right sunscreen for your skin type, the benefits of using natural skincare products, and the importance of staying hydrated to keep your skin healthy and radiant. By the end of this workshop, you will have the knowledge and tools to protect and care for your skin during the summer months, and beyond. Join us for a fun and informative session that will leave you feeling refreshed and confident in your summer skin care routine.	Thiemann
The Power of Your Gut: Heal from Within for Better Health	"Your gut is home to 100 trillion microorganisms with hundreds of different bacteria needed for digestion, immunity, metabolism, mental health and more. Imbalances in this system can affect virtually every area of your health. 62 million Americans are diagnosed with a digestion-related condition annually. Are you one of them? Class covers: • Signs of gut function decline (it's more than bloating and constipation!) • Symptoms of poor digestion • Gut-brain connection • Pre and probiotics • Tips to improving your gut health	Fox
NEW! Everything You Wanted to Know about Brain Health but Forgot to Ask!	Every 3 seconds, someone is diagnosed w/dementia globally, making Alzheimer's Disease--the most common form of dementia--the fastest growing epidemic. It's no wonder that brain health has become a top priority for many. This workshop delves into the causes for the recent increase and disease development, along with nutrition and lifestyle strategies, which experts believe, if implemented, can prevent the development of Alzheimer's Disease.	Fox
Functional Nutrition: Eating with a Purpose	While all food provides essential calories and nutrients to sustain life, today's market offers more options packed with bioactive compounds that play a key role in disease prevention and risk reduction. With growing awareness of these benefits, more Americans are turning more to these functional foods to support their overall health and well-being, but are they as beneficial as we believe? This session will take a closer look at some of the more popular functional foods, such as yogurt with probiotics, kombucha, almond milk, gluten-free foods, veggie chips, agave, and more. Find out if these manufactured functional foods are as healthy as they claim, or a big waste of money.	Fox
Spice Up Your Life: Unlocking the Health Benefits of Herbs and Spices	Hidden inside your pantry or cupboard are ingredients used to enhance flavor, however, many of these seasonings have been proven by science to also provide health benefits. Can Turmeric really fight inflammation? Does Cinnamon truly lower blood glucose? Will garlic lower risk of heart disease? Find out which common herbs and spices potentially provide medicinal effects.	Fox

	Hidden inside your pantry or cupboard are ingredients used to enhance flavor, however, many of these seasonings have been proven by science to also provide health benefits. Can Turmeric really fight inflammation? Does Cinnamon truly lower blood glucose? Will garlic lower risk of heart disease? Find out which common herbs and spices potentially provide medicinal effects. Key takeaways: • The difference between herbs and spices. • Health benefits of utilizing herbs and spices. • Cautions in using specific herbs and spices. • How to incorporate and use herbs and spices appropriately. • Storage guidelines. • Where to start. • Specific spices discussed: Basil, Or Rosemary, Thyme, Peppermint, Turmeric, Ginger, Cinnamon, Salt, Garlic.
Decoding Nutrition Labels: Shopping for Health	Grocery shopping can feel overwhelming, especially when it's hard to tell which options are truly healthy. In this workshop, we'll take you on an aisle-by-aisle journey, breaking down how to make informed food choices. You'll learn how to read nutrition labels, decipher food packaging, and understand when organic really matters. By the end, you'll have the tools to confidently pick the healthiest options for you and your family.	Fox
Essential Oils: Miracle or Myth?	Essential Oils usage can date as far back as 4500 BC, with oils used as medicines, perfumes, aromatherapy, and embalming. This presentation uncovers how essential oils are extracted, benefits of their use, various ways they can be used and safety considerations. After this session you will be able to determine if these items used all over the world are truly help, hype or hoax. Participant will be able to: • State how essential oils are extracted • State three of the top 12 essential oils utilized today • State three ways essential oils can be used • List two carrier oils and why they may be required • State a safety considerations with essential use	Fox
Heart Health: Concepts and Controversies	With heart disease still the leading cause of death in the U.S., this workshop delves into the latest heart health guidelines. We'll tackle some of the most debated topics, including the rising use of statins, the role of saturated fats, eggs, dietary cholesterol, and the butter vs. margarine debate. You'll explore both sides of these issues to better equip yourself for making informed decisions about your health, and discover why a 'one-size-fits-all' approach may not be the best solution.	Fox
Boosting Your Mental Health through Nutrition	Anxiety, depression, and stress are more connected to your diet than you might think. In this workshop, we'll dive into the powerful link between nutrition and mental health, exploring how the food you eat directly affects your brain chemistry. With today's abundance of processed foods, maintaining a healthy diet can be a challenge. Join us to learn about essential nutrients that support mental well-being and discover foods that can positively influence how you feel, think, and function.	Fox
Food, Nutrition & Disease: Myths & Misconceptions Exposed	This workshop aims to challenge widespread myths about food and nutrition that can negatively impact health. Attendees will explore common misconceptions such as the belief that all calories are equal, that fat is inherently bad for you, and your genes determine your health destiny. We'll dive into how misinformation shapes our dietary choices and affects chronic diseases like diabetes, heart disease, and	Fox obesity. Through this session, participants will gain a clearer understanding of how to separate fact from fiction, enabling healthier, evidence-based food choices.

Inflammation 101: Strategies for a Healthier, Pain-Free Life	Inflammation is a common term, but did you know it plays a major role in many Western diseases? In this workshop, we'll dive into the hidden signs and symptoms of inflammation, explore its underlying causes, and discuss proven strategies to prevent, reduce, or eliminate it. Our daily food and lifestyle choices can either fuel or fight inflammation. Join us to better understand how inflammation impacts your health and discover practical ways to promote a healthier, more vibrant life.	Fox
Smart Meal Planning and Prep for a Healthier Lifestyle	Figuring out what's for dinner can be tough, especially without a plan in place. This workshop offers a step-by-step guide to help you create a week's worth of meals that can easily be adjusted and expanded for future weeks. We'll cover cooking methods to maximize nutrition, how to do a cupboard cleanse for healthier pantry staples, and explore cookware options to keep your family safe.	Fox
The Pros and Cons of Plant-based Eating	Many experts claim that plant-based eating (PBE) is the way to go, but is it the way everyone should eat? This class will provide an introduction to PBE, associated health benefits, some of the challenges associated with PBE, plant-based foods that aren't as healthy as we think, and how to successfully begin the plant-based journey.	Fox
Eat Your Way to Great Health	This talk provides an introduction to the primary nutrients we need in our diet to achieve outstanding health. The basic foods groups including fats, proteins and carbohydrates are discussed. Nutritional supplements are also introduced. Most importantly, the audience is given key guidelines to follow in order to achieve the best results from their diet. Take home points: foods from all three major types are essential to good health, current research is showing trans fats and sugar to be major contributors to poor health, eating whole foods close to the source is best for long term health.	Kriva
Cooking Simply, Making Good Food Fast	Interested in enjoying the advantages of home-cooked meals without the hassle of daily cooking from scratch? This session will help you explore what kind of cook you are and share simple guidelines for eating well. You will explore different methods of preparing good food fast while incorporating pre-made ingredients, recipe revamping, and other approaches to prepare nutritious meals. Walk away with ideas to streamline your cooking process, making dining at home both simpler and more enjoyable.	McElveen
Empowering You with Meditative Movements	Empowered employees take charge of their life. Join us for this one-hour interactive session that gives you daily exercises so you can feel energized and excited about yourself and your career. The demands on your time for work, caring for your families and others can be stressful. Learn how to take care of your own mind, body and being needs in a new way. By attending you will: • Explore your own response to change. • Learn simple home and office Meditative Movements to release stress while cultivating positivity. • Create a simple "Take Care of Me" plan.	Peterson
Finding your Neat Beat: The Importance of Non-Exercise	The American Council on Exercise (ACE) recommends getting at least 60 minutes of exercise 4 times a week. Yet, what if you could still reach your activity and health goals through non exercise?	Espinosa-Goswami

	Join Jenn to learn about how non exercise activity thermogenesis (NEAT) helps combat the dangers of sitting disease, why gyms are overrated, and specific ways to incorporate more non exercise in your busy lifestyle. All participants get access to a free Workout Style quiz to get moving the right way! Key Takeaways: • What is sitting disease, and do you suffer from it? • Why gyms are not a perfect solution for fitness. • The research behind NEAT and specific strategies to incorporate non-exercise into everyday life at home and the office.
Understanding and Managing Insulin Resistance	From 16-45% of people worldwide suffer from insulin resistance. Insulin resistance is linked to various chronic conditions, including heart disease, NAFLD, PCOS, Alzheimer's disease, and cancer. In this workshop, Jenn will share her own learnings and best practices from her journey with insulin resistance. Takeaways: Learn risk factors for insulin resistance and its impact on overall health, identify specific habits that reduce insulin resistance and prevent dependence on medications, determine whether a continuous glucose monitor may be a helpful tool for managing insulin.	Espinosa-Goswami
Choosing Your Lifestyle for a Healthy Brain and Body	Do your food choices, exercise and sleep habits affect how you feel – your mood and behavior? Did you know that there are steps you can take to keep your brain healthy and to feel better every day? In this class learn how foods can make you feel tired, depressed, or happy and how to make changes to your diet to improve how you feel every day. You will also learn the impact exercise and sleep have on the health of your brain and activities you can choose or avoid for better brain health.	Enright * All Sessions ADDITIONAL $150
A Healthier YOU in 2025!	What does your picture of health look like? What are a few things that you could do better? Learn strategies to improve your own health - because you are worth it! Decide for yourself what changes are needed and then we can discuss the action steps to make them happen for you in 2025.	West *All sessions ADDITIONAL $100
Safety First: Proactive Measures to Workplace Injury Prevention	This interactive workshop is dedicated to proactive strategies for preventing workplace injuries, ultimately leading to a healthier, safer workplace. Key topics covered include Understanding Musculoskeletal Disorders (MSD): We delve into the definitions and implications of MSDs, shedding light on how these disorders can impact employees. Injury Prevention Techniques: Learn how injuries occur and, more importantly, discover effective methods to prevent them. From proper lifting techniques to ergonomic adjustments, we equip participants with actionable insights. The Power of Teamwork: Employers and employees play pivotal roles in maintaining a safe work environment. We emphasize collaboration and shared responsibility in injury prevention.	Kriva
90 Days to Your Best Self	Have you become infatuated with 30-day health programs or fitness challenges? While these challenges might have high sign-up rates, the majority of participation disappears by day 15. In this seminar, you will learn how to create a 90-day plan to your best self, using the same path to body bliss Jenn uses with her health coaching clients. • Why 30 days are not enough for any goal. • The temptation to jump into another challenge (and why that is not serving you). • How to create your own personal 90-day plan for health success.	Espinosa-Goswami

Resolution Solutions: Turning Goals into Lasting Success	Did you know that up to 65% of resolutions die by February 1? Join Jenn Espinosa-Goswami, health coach, for powerful solutions to turn your resolutions into reality, using techniques you might have ignored in the past. Take goal setting to a marathon level (the easy way). • Why SMART goals are really dumb. • How to establish milestones to long-term success. • The truth about accountability partners and how to find the support you really need.	Espinosa-Goswami
Mindset Makeover: 3 Strategies to Upgrade Your Health	Your body can't go where your mind refuses to. Join former fat girl, Jenn, as she shares how she got her mind in shape when she dropped 100 pounds. • How to tap into your intrinsic motivation for lasting change • Why infobesity is keeping you stuck in the same health rut • The secret strategy of bodybuilders for natural body transformation that you aren't aware of	Espinosa-Goswami
Active at Your Desk: Easy Moves for Office Wellness	Think you need a company gym to get fit at the office? Or that you need to spend 8 hours a week hitting the pavement? Jenn debunks the common gym myths and shares a simple exercise prescription to make the most of the brief "movement breaks" in your long day. She will also share her top tools to boost fat burning, even while you sleep! • Why most gym members stop going within 5 months • How to get fit in just 10 minutes a day • The best way to burn fat while you sleep (it's not what you think!)	Espinosa-Goswami
Yoga + Stretch (No Mats, No Sweat)	Join us for a relaxing session designed for all fitness levels. No mats, no sweating, and no getting on the ground — all stretches are done seated or standing, using chairs indoors or picnic tables outdoors. Come as you are and leave feeling refreshed, energized, and ready for the rest of your day.	Borgerding
The Five Secrets to Permanent Weight Loss	This class offers a realistic and practical approach to weight management and overall health. Participants will learn why typical diets don't work, what kind of exercise is the most beneficial for weight loss, and how to increase energy levels while losing weight through simple changes in eating habits. Key barriers to losing weight are also discussed. Take home message; diets don't work for a reason, once this is understood, weight loss can be achieved, common barriers to losing weight, once identified, can be eliminated.	Kriva
Chair Pilates: Strength, Stretch & Posture at Your Desk	No mat required! This class is designed to bring the benefits of Pilates right to your chair. Using simple, mindful movements and intentional breathing, you'll strengthen your deep abdominal muscles, restore balance, and increase your flexibility while both sitting and standing. Learn how to decompress your spine, stabilize your joints, and strengthen your entire body, moving from the inside out. Perfect for the office or at home, Chair Pilates helps counteract the effects of sitting, reduces stress, and re-energizes your body and mind! All levels welcome.	Borgerding
Peak Performance	Peak performance is designed to teach the participants how to achieve peak levels of energy and performance in all areas of their lives. Topics covered include proper nutrition to maximize energy throughout the day, the role of water in performance, the potential need in our modern world for nutritional supplements, ways to enhance joint flexibility for maximum physical performance, and injury prevention at home and at work to avoid the devastating impact injuries can have on performance.	Kriva

The Power of Sleep	In our fast-paced world, sleep is often one of the first things sacrificed, despite its critical role in maintaining overall health and wellbeing. This workshop explores the science behind sleep, including how it affects our mood, productivity, weight, and long-term physical and mental health. Participants will learn practical strategies to improve their sleep quality and leave with a personalized plan to integrate better sleep habits into their daily lives, enhancing both their health and productivity. Learning Objectives: • Understand the science of sleep and its impact on mental and physical health. • Identify the relationship between sleep and productivity, mood, and weight management. • Explore common barriers to good sleep and how to overcome them. • Learn effective techniques to improve sleep quality and duration. • Create a personalized sleep improvement plan to enhance long-term wellbeing.	Thiemann
Sleep, the Great Battery Charger	This session shares important details of why sleep is critical to our overall health and the physiological effects poor sleep has on our mind and body. Dr. Kriva will review cutting edge research being done in the field of Epigenetics, which shows how critical sleep is to the proper functioning of each cell in the body. Finally, tips for achieving excellent sleep are covered. Take home message: cutting edge research shows more than ever how critical sleep is to health, there are many things you can do to improve the quality and duration of sleep, proper sleep is not optional, but critical to your overall health.	Kriva
Train Wreck to Terrific! The 5 Keys to Vibrant Health	This class focuses on moving from a "Train Wreck" with respect to health to being terrific. Dr. Kriva reviews 5 key areas that have to be in place in order for the participants to enjoy vibrant health. The 5 keys area include minimizing the negative side effects of drugs, restoring function and getting out of pain, the importance of sleep, proper nutrition and the importance of exercise as part of a healthy lifestyle. The talk is fun and energizing and provides specific actions the attendees can take immediately following the class to get on track to improving their health. Take home message; many people are train wrecks with respect to their health, it is possible to radically improve health with 5 simple steps and enjoy a healthy lifestyle.	Kriva
How to Stay Fit While You Sit	This class is designed for people who sit at a desk or computer all day. Proper techniques for ergonomic workplace design are discussed, as well as techniques to maintain fitness while sitting. Emphasis is placed on injury prevention. Take home message: sitting at work can be hazardous to health, proper workstation design is critical to avoiding health problems due to sitting, participants are given exercises they can use at their workstation to reduce the risk of injury from sitting.	Kriva
Mental Health in the Workplace	This workshop provides an overview of Mental Health issues and how they may appear in the workplace. Facts about Mental Health, signs and symptoms of the more common mental health issues, contributing factors to mental health issues, suicide warning signs, as well as tools to manage stress and how to help yourself and/or others who may be struggling are explored. The learning points are: • Learn about the most common mental health concerns • Understand the signs and symptoms of Depression and Anxiety • Learn the warning signs for suicide Learn stress management tools for overall positive mental health	Alch

8 Ways Age-Related Muscle Loss Impacts Your Health and How to Fight it	Did you know you can lose as much as 5% of your muscle mass each decade after age 30. Called sarcopenia, this loss speeds up as we age. It's a primary factor in falls, fractures, and frailty. While aging is natural, losing too much muscle is not and can directly impact everything from your energy level to organ function. Stop it now with these 8 strategies! • Why we lose muscle and how it can determine how we are going to age. • How muscle loss impacts our lives now and in the future. Which strategies are most effective at maintaining muscle mass for a long and healthy life.	Borgerding
Good Mental Health in the Workplace: Five Things You Can Do	Learn the five things you can do to create a workplace that values good mental health. Participants will learn how to promote good mental health (including dealing with stress), the common symptoms of a mental illness, how attitudes and language impact people with mental illnesses, and accommodations for a mental illness. This class is for employees, supervisors, organizational leaders, owners, board members and human resource professionals.	NAMI
Dealing with Difficult Interactions	We've all had to deal with a challenging situation, whether it's dealing with a personal problem with a large company or communicating for your job. But have you thought about the person on the other side of the interaction? People may be difficult due to symptoms of a mental illness, stress, physical illness or disability, past experience, or they think it's the only way to get help. In this class learn the signs and symptoms of mental illnesses, along with tips and strategies that can be used in dealing with difficult interactions, to manage the situation, and yourself.	NAMI
Unlocking Longevity: Exploring The Blue Zones Diet and Lifestyle NEW!	There are areas in the world where a high percentage of people live to be in their 90's or over 100, what researcher Dan Buettner has called Blue Zones,. Not only do they live long, but people in these areas also have low rates of chronic disease including heart disease and Diabetes. In this workshop you will learn what diet and lifestyle choices are made in Blue Zones and what you can do to build your own Blue Zone to optimize your health today and live well into the future.	Enright *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
The Brain-Boosting Benefits of Exercise NEW!	There are so many benefits of movement that go far beyond cardiovascular and weight management, which are often the focus of the exercise. Physical activity is an essential piece to maintaining prime cognitive function throughout life. In this workshop, we'll dive into the following: • Why exercise is so important and how it impacts the brain • How activity decreases our chance of cognitive decline • The benefits of combining physical training with cognitive challenges Take control of both your brain and body health by learning these brain-healthy exercises that may slow your cognitive decline by as much as 45%!!	Borgerding
Longevity: Steps to Lasting Strength and Well-Being	Now is the perfect time to invest in your future self! Your 84-year-old self will thank you for the choices you make today. Healthy, functional movement is essential for avoiding disablement and maintaining an active, fulfilling life as you age. In this workshop, we'll dive into the five key areas to focus on right now that will help you stay capable, confident, and independent throughout your later years. Beyond preserving your physical abilities, you'll discover how these strategies can boost your energy levels and enable you to keep doing the things you love well into the next stage of life. Join us to learn practical, actionable steps that will not only enhance your longevity but also improve your quality of life today and in the years to come. Whether you're looking to stay fit, prevent injury, or simply invest in long-term well-being, this workshop offers the tools and motivation to take control of your future.	Borgerding

Healthy Living For Men	Do you find it used to be easier to stay active and maintain a healthy weight? Are you interested in eating well but don't know where to begin? In this class you will learn how to prepare simple meals for work and home, how to make the best choices when eating out and how to incorporate exercise into your busy life.	Enright *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
Live Longer, Live Better	Do you wish to live a longer life, or do you hope to feel great and be healthy each day of your life? The leading causes of death in the United States may be highly preventable with the choices you make every day. In this class you will learn the four elements of healthy living: a healthy diet, regular exercise, adequate sleep and stress management and how to make each a part of your life to promote health and longevity.	Enright *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
Small Changes For Your Best Health - 15 Minutes A Day To Look And Feel Great	Do you want a healthier lifestyle but don't feel like you have the time? The number one barrier individuals say inhibits making healthier lifestyle choices is time. In this class you will learn 3 of the main components for healthy living, how to stock your kitchen and make choices each day to eat well, build physical activity into your every day life as well as minimize and manage stress. Simple changes in less than 15 minutes each day will add up to a lifetime of good health.	Enright *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
Blood Pressure – A Key Component For A Healthy Heart	Blood pressure is one of the most common measurements taken - at your doctor or even at your local grocery store. It is a useful marker for disease risk but do you really understand what your numbers mean? Heart disease is the leading cause of death in the U.S. and understanding your numbers is important for prevention. In this class you will learn what your blood pressure readings tell you, other risk factors for heart disease, and ways to reduce your risk while avoiding medication through healthy lifestyle choices.	Enright *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
Preventing Cancer – Strengthening Your Immune System And Reducing Your Risks	Cancer is the second leading cause of death in the United States. It's specific cause and the impact of lifestyle on disease risk is not as clear as for other chronic disease conditions. In this class you will learn the enormous power of the immune system, its connection to cancer and choices you can make to reduce your risk.	Enright *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
Understanding Cholesterol For A Healthy Heart	Do you have your cholesterol checked regularly but you don't really understand what the numbers mean? In this class you will learn how cholesterol may affect your heart health, what the numbers mean, what current research tells us, and what you can do to improve your cholesterol levels.	Enright *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
Strengthening Your Immune System – Choosing Well To Stay Well	Your immune system keeps you healthy during cold and flu season as well as preventing chronic illness. When it is weak you are more likely to get sick, as simple as that. But is there anything you can do to promote a healthy immune system? Yes! In this class you will learn how the choices you make each day can make it harder to fight that cold or help you to reduce your risk for disease.	Enright *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
Fitting In Fitness - Fitness As Part Of A Busy Lifestyle	Do you feel that the commitments of work, home, family and friends don't leave much time for physical activity? We all know that fitness should be part of our lives but how do we make it fit in? In this class you will learn the three components of physical fitness and how to make fitness part of your life every day whether you have 5 minutes or 60 minutes. You will learn options for exercise at home or at a fitness center and how to choose a personal trainer.	Enright *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
Aerobic Exercise – Incorporating Calorie Burn Into Your Workouts	The benefits of aerobic exercise range from losing weight to improving sleep to preventing heart disease. For as many benefits there are options of activities to choose from. In this class you will learn the benefits of aerobic exercise, choices you could incorporate into your exercise program and the FIT formula to achieve the greatest results.	Enright *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150

Taking Your Fitness To The Next Level	Are you exercising regularly but want to ensure you are being effective to reach your goals? In this class you will learn the three components of physical fitness and exercise guidelines for good health. You will learn target heart rate calculations for cardiovascular fitness and heart rate zones, strength training basics, and how to maximize your performance and prevent fatigue.	Enright *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
Your Body's Engine - What Is Metabolism And Can You Change It?	You hear a lot in the media about your metabolism, how to "fool it", how to "improve it" or what to do if you have "lost it." In this class you will learn the truth about what your metabolism does for you, what affects your metabolism and how you can help your body work for you.	Enright *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
Walk Your Way to Good Health	The benefits of walking range from sleeping better to living longer. Walking is a simple, inexpensive form of exercise that just about everyone can do every day. In this class you will learn the benefits of walking, how to incorporate exercise into your life to get your 10,000 steps each day, and strategies for staying motivated to continue with a walking program.	Enright *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
Your Body's Engine - What Is Metabolism And Can You Change It?	You hear a lot in the media about your metabolism, how to "fool it", how to "improve it" or what to do if you have "lost it." In this class you will learn the truth about what your metabolism does for you, what affects your metabolism and how you can help your body work for you.	Enright *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
NEW! Exercise Snacks for Everybody: Staying Active by the Minute	Think you need to spend 60 minutes (or more) exercising in order to stay active? The truth is: you may have more success at staying active through "exercise snacks". Exercise snacks are short, intense bursts of activity integrated throughout the day, offering benefits like improved cardiovascular health, blood sugar regulation, increased endurance, better muscle function, and enhanced mood. In this session, Jenn will walk you through: • How exercise snacks are superior to longer exercise routines of 30+ minutes • Instructor-led exercise snacks in the following increments: 2 minutes, 3 minutes and 5 minutes • How to create your own exercise snack prescription by incorporating cardio, resistance, and balance exercises	Espinosa-Goswami
NEW! Recharge at Work: Science-Based Strategies for Energy & Focus	Well-being and productivity go hand in hand. This practical session shares brain-based strategies to help employees and leaders restore focus, reduce stress, and recharge energy — in just minutes a day, right at work. Learning Objectives: • Explain the science of recovery and its link to performance. • Identify quick, evidence-based techniques to boost focus and calm. • Practice micro-breaks and "green breaks" that restore mental energy. • Recognize personal energy drains and develop counterstrategies. • Apply recovery practices to create sustainable team energy and engagement.	Thiemann
Acupressure for Relief from Stress, Insomnia, Anxiety & More	Acupressure is an ancient healing art and self-help tool. It can offer great relief with no side effects and help you feel your best.. Along with the specific points to help relieve stress, insomnia, anxiety, irritability and even weight gain, you will learn the Nine Master Pressure Points which are the most helpful and most frequently prescribed to help and assist every system in your body.	Novak

Posture, Get it Straight! Look 10 Years Younger & 10 Pounds Thinner & Feel Better Than Ever	Posture affects how you look, how you feel, and how others perceive you. Poor posture is the #1 cause of back and neck discomfort and can lead to a lifetime of annoying aches and pains. By improving your posture, you improve the health and comfort of your spine. By standing tall you can stop the rounding over that occurs as we age, causing you to shrink in stature. And last, but not least, your posture conveys a lot of info to the outside world about your mental and emotional state, as well as confidence level. In this workshop, you will learn very specific exercises to straighten your shoulders, flatten your upper back, strengthen lower back and all 4 layers of abdominal muscle. You will learn tips and techniques that will improve alignment immediately. We will discuss back-friendly ways to adjust your computer workstations or desk; how to adjust your car seat to help your posture, beneficial sleeping/resting/reading positions and much more!	Novak
Core Solution for Desk Workers - Flatten Your Abs, Strengthen Your Core	A few reasons abdominal muscles weaken and lose shape are past pregnancies, surgeries, sitting at a desk all day, being sedentary and poor posture. In this workshop, you will learn a series of extremely effective exercises that will quickly strengthen all four layers of abdominal muscle, especially the deepest layer WITHOUT stressing your back or neck joints and WITHOUT having to get on the floor. Don't waste time with traditional crunches. Learn a different, more effective way to flatten your stomach, re-shape your waistline and prevent/relieve lower back discomfort.	Novak

RESILIENCE AND WELLBEING

FEATURED SESSIONS

Building Resilience

Jenn Espinosa-Goswami, private health coach and motivational speaker, helps people filter through misleading or ludicrous health claims to add their own flavor to a wellness plan that fits into their busy schedules. Jenn has been featured in a national US magazine with over 4 million subscribers. She is also a volunteer speaker for the American Heart Association.

Building Effective Habits that Adapt to Your Day

If rigid and structured routines leave you feeling frustrated, this workshop is designed for you. Whether you've struggled with sticking to a routine or managing your time effectively, Jenn will guide you through a flexible approach to habit-building that maximizes productivity while accommodating your need for adaptability. In this workshop, you'll explore the concept of “elastic” habits—habits that can stretch and adapt, especially during uncertain times.

Here's what you'll gain:

- Insights into why rigid routines may not work for you
- A clear understanding of where your time tends to slip away
- A personalized, elastic framework for creating lasting habits
- *This workshop includes The Elastic Framework grid.

Wellness Wake-Up: 5 Steps to a Healthier, Energized Day

*Did you know that the most successful people in the world have already accomplished 5 major habits every morning before 7? No early bird herself, Jenn will share principles based off of Hal Elrod's internationally best-selling book, The Miracle Morning, and how it supercharged her health. Begin appreciating the benefits of early morning rituals.*

- Understand the importance of cornerstone habits for lifestyle change
- Implement a 30-day action plan to shift from night owl to early bird

Rachel Thiemann, with a background in Social Psychology,

Rachel Thiemann has built on her knowledge of interpersonal dynamics in the workplace with an international career of 18 years as an internal and external organizational consultant and trainer. She also has a keen interest in the link between mind and body and has trained and practiced as a hypnotherapist, NLP practitioner and life coach. Rachel has authored the online tool "From Stress to Resilience" for the US Navy, as well as many other classroom and online courses. She has been Vice-President of WFC Resources, a work-life company, since 2003.

Self-Care: Small Changes for Big Results

In today's fast-paced world, self-care is often overlooked, yet it is essential for overall well-being. This workshop aims to highlight the importance of self-care and provide participants with practical strategies for incorporating it into their daily routines. Attendees will learn why self-care matters, explore various ways to integrate self-care practices into their lives, and develop personalized self-care plans. Additionally, the workshop will address how to inspire and support others in their self-care journeys, fostering a culture of wellness and self-compassion.

Learning Objectives:

- Understand the significance of self-care and its impact on physical, emotional, and mental health.
- Explore multiple self-care practices that can be easily integrated into daily life, enhancing overall well-being.
- Develop a personalized self-care plan that aligns with individual needs and lifestyle, including achievable goals and strategies.
- Discuss effective methods to encourage and support others in building their own self-care plans, promoting a supportive community.
- Identify common barriers to self-care and learn strategies to overcome them, ensuring consistent practice and commitment.

Prioritizing the Demands of Your Busy Life

IN A CRAZY-BUSY WORLD, it's very easy to get caught up in a work style that makes us act before we think, reacting instead of planning. It's a pattern that leads us to doing more than we can do well, resulting in mistakes, stress, burnout, and reduced productivity. There's a better way to manage demands, instead of having them manage us. This interactive workshop takes participants through a series of questions that will help them understand if they are meeting their most basic of needs and living what they value. Using the results from the questions and through peer discussion, attendees will decide where to make key adjustments to how they do their tasks and respond to stress, and other reflex behaviors. During the workshop specific employee benefits and external resources are shared, which will equip attendees with an array of self-management tools to improve time management and prioritization and activate a fulfilling life both inside and outside the workplace.

Vikas Narula, is an entrepreneur, speaker, and blogger. He is the creator and co-founder of Keyhubs® – a software and services firm specializing in the power and wisdom of human networks, heightening awareness of self and others, and fostering connections. Since 2009, Keyhubs has worked with many Fortune 500 companies, smaller non-profits, and everything in-between. Their work has been featured in Pollen, Twin Cities Business Magazine, Forbes, and The Financial Times.

Corporations routinely engage Keyhubs to help with difficult challenges, including large scale change initiatives, new executive integrations, succession planning, mergers and acquisitions and cross-functional collaboration. Some of Keyhubs' clients include Medtronic, Thrivent Financial, The YMCA and Bremer Bank.

Vikas has presented at a variety of conferences and venues, including Commencement, TEDx, HATCH, and The World Bank.

Uncommon Connections for Personal, Professional, and Community Growth

In this engaging and interactive session, participants will explore how human networks naturally form, how silos develop within organizations and communities, and why bridging these divides is crucial for personal, professional and societal growth!

It's human nature to stay within the comfort zones of our familiar social networks, gravitating toward people who think and act like us. However, breaking free from these comfort zones is essential for growth. Expanding beyond our existing circles allows us to form new connections, exchange fresh ideas, and cultivate opportunities we may not have encountered otherwise.

This workshop will also delve into how disconnects exist not only within organizations but across communities and individuals, and how this isolation can impact not just our success but our well-being. Research shows that strong social connections are linked to better mental and physical health.

Attendees will gain insights into the transformative power of human connection—whether in a workplace, neighborhood, or personal life. By stepping out of their comfort zones and breaking down hierarchical, lateral, and internal divides, participants will unlock new opportunities for growth, success, and health. They will leave with a deeper understanding of how fostering genuine connections across all levels not only enhances their careers and communities but also supports their overall health and well-being.

Mary-ellen Rogers, Mary-ellen Rogers is a ICF Certified Executive Coach and founder of Excellere, a human capital management services company. With over 35 years of experience in consulting, training, and coaching, I help organizations and individuals to achieve excellence, productivity, and engagement in their work and life.

How Highly Successful People Overcome Self-Doubt

No matter how successful we may be, or how confident we may appear, most of us find that self-doubt and vulnerability may creep in at times. Join us to learn how to overcome self-doubt.

Managing your Time to Manage your Life!

So often we learn bad time management habits early in life, and those habits are a barrier to effectiveness and success. In this session participants will have an ability to first analyze their own personal “time style” and then will learn methods to best employ effective time management within the parameters of their personal style.

The Science of Motivation: Getting Going Again

You don’t have to look far to find tips on how to stay productive and motivated. The reality is that life is changing at warp speed, stress is at unprecedented highs and employee burn-out is dramatically impacting productivity. Motivation is essential, yet so elusive. Distinguishing between approach motivation and avoidance motivation will help us understand what it takes to sustain motivation over time. Ignite your inner “motivator” by better understanding what helps us want to move towards our goals.

Karly Hall, MA, CPC, CCMP, CSPO, is a curious and driven problem-solver who empowers others to take action and maximize their greatest potential in life and business. While most of her 20+ year career has been providing award-winning marketing and brand management, she also has a decade of experience as a certified change manager, coach, trainer, and published author. Karly believes in the incredible impact others can have within their organizations and communities.

NEW Unplug and Recharge: A Technology Detox Class

Step into a world where the constant hum of notifications fades away, and the digital noise gives way to tranquility. With the overwhelming presence of technology in their lives, we all need a reprieve. Participants will explore the relationship they have with technology and explore the benefits of a technology detox. This class provides a structured approach to disconnecting from screens, gadgets, and the online world. Participants will learn practical strategies to regain control over their digital habits and create a healthier relationship with technology. Key Highlights:

- Mindful Awareness: Cultivate mindfulness through guided meditation and awareness practices, helping participants become more present in the moment and reduce digital distractions.
- Digital Detox Techniques: Explore effective methods for detoxing from technology, including setting boundaries, establishing designated tech-free zones, and creating a personalized digital detox plan.
- Offline Connection: Foster genuine connections with others through face-to-face interactions, fostering a sense of community and support among participants who share similar goals.
- Stress Reduction: Understand the relationship between technology use and stress levels. Learn practical stress-reduction techniques to implement in daily life for a more balanced and harmonious existence.

NEW Cultivating Kindness in the Workplace

The modern workplace is facing an epidemic – unkindness – which negatively impacts culture and employee wellbeing. Studies have found teams that work in a respectful environment possess 26% more energy, express 36% more job satisfaction, and are 44% more committed to their organizations.

“Cultivating Kindness in the Workplace” will equip participants with the knowledge, skills, and strategies needed to create a more compassionate and supportive work environment. This course explores the principles of kindness and empathy in the context of professional relationships, emphasizing the positive impact that a culture of kindness can have on individual and team performance. Participants will gain insights into kindness's psychological and social benefits, understanding how it contributes to increased job satisfaction, reduced stress, and enhanced overall workplace morale.

NEW Mastering Time Management: Prioritize, Plan, and Perform

Do you often feel like there aren't enough hours in the day? This engaging and practical workshop will equip you with the tools and strategies needed to take control of your time and boost productivity. Discover how to eliminate common timewasters, set clear priorities, and maintain focus—all while achieving a healthy work-life balance.

Through proven techniques like the Eisenhower Matrix, time blocking, and the Pomodoro Technique, you'll learn how to manage your tasks more effectively and reduce stress. Whether you're managing a demanding career, a busy household, or personal projects, this class provides actionable insights to help you achieve more with less effort.

Take charge of your time and start accomplishing what truly matters—one step at a time!

NEW AI, Attention, and Authenticity

In a world increasingly shaped by artificial intelligence, staying grounded in our humanity has never been more important. This session explores how to balance the benefits of technology with the need for genuine connection, focus, and emotional well-being. Participants gain tools to protect their attention, strengthen authentic relationships, and lead with integrity in a digital age.

Work-Life Integration

Dr. Gregory Alch has been in practice for more than 25 years, helping people better manage their professional and personal relationships. He can communicate complex ideas without arousing defensiveness and people find it easy to talk to him. By engaging employees at all levels of an organization, Dr. Alch has a keen ability to bring clarity to complex situations and identify the action steps necessary to achieve identified goals. Dr. Alch is able to engage employees at all levels of an organization, through his straightforward, straight-talking approach. As such, he has routinely earned the trust of those he works with. Leaders and employees alike view Dr. Alch as an unbiased, reliable source for resolving issues. All sessions ADDITIONAL $150

Work/Life Balance: The Goldilocks Principle

In a world where the new mantra is "Doing more with less," people are feeling more and more pressure to meet the often competing demands of work with their personal life. There is only so much time available in a day. This workshop explores how to find the right balance for YOU between your work life and your personal life. Values, life expectations, and your personal beliefs are examined - and challenged. Learning Objectives:

- Participants will learn a stress management model that can be used in any situation at any time.
- Understand where their own stress level is and how to change it.
- Learn how values show up in everyday behavior.

Organization & Time Management

Rachel Thiemann, with a background in Social Psychology, Rachel Thiemann has built on her knowledge of interpersonal dynamics in the workplace with an international career of 18 years as an internal and external organizational consultant and trainer. She also has a keen interest in the link between mind and body and has trained and practiced as a hypnotherapist and life coach. Rachel has authored the online tool "From Stress to Resilience" for the US Navy, as well as many other classroom and online courses. She has been Vice-President of WFC Resources, a work-life company, since 2003.

How to Find 30 Minutes a Day to Advance your Goals

In this fast-paced world, it's easy to feel like there's never enough time to focus on your personal goals. Yet, even the busiest people can find small pockets of time to make meaningful progress. This workshop will show you how to carve out just 30 minutes a day to focus on advancing your goals, no matter how overwhelmed you may feel by daily demands. Through practical time-management strategies and mindset shifts, you'll learn how to turn those spare moments into powerful steps toward achieving your dreams.

Learning Objectives:

- Identify time-wasting habits and daily distractions that prevent goal progress.
- Understand the importance of dedicating small, consistent amounts of time to personal growth.
- Learn strategies for prioritizing tasks and finding 30 minutes a day to focus on goal achievement.
- Develop a personalized action plan to integrate goal-focused activities into your daily routine.
- Implement time-management techniques that maximize productivity and ensure steady progress toward long-term goals.

Goals, Purpose, Motivation and Mindset

Karly Hall, MA, CPC, CCMP, CSPO, is a curious and driven problem-solver who empowers others to take action and maximize their greatest potential in life and business. While most of her 20+ year career has been providing award-winning marketing and brand management, she also has a decade of experience as a certified change manager, coach, trainer, and published author. Karly believes in the incredible impact others can have within their organizations and communities.

The Art of No: Setting Boundaries Without Guilt

This interactive session explores the critical role that healthy boundaries play in reducing stress, protecting time and energy, and fostering stronger relationships both at work and in personal life. Participants will gain practical strategies for saying “no” with confidence and professionalism while preserving trust and respect. Through real-world examples and guided practice, attendees will learn how to recognize when boundaries are needed, communicate them effectively, and manage the guilt that often comes with setting limits. By the end of the workshop, participants will be able to identify their own boundary challenges, apply techniques for assertive yet respectful communication, and develop an action plan to maintain balance and prevent overwhelm.

Dr. Bill Kriva is dedicated to helping people achieve and maintain optimum health and wellness. He is a Doctor of Chiropractic with a post-graduate certification in Herbal Medicine. Dr. Kriva is an inspirational national speaker and award-winning author. He is the Clinic Director of Parkview Chiropractic Clinic and an adjunct faculty member of Northwestern Health Sciences University. Dr. Kriva also holds a master's degree in business administration and a bachelor's degree in industrial engineering as well as years of experience in both fields. This diverse background brings a well-rounded perspective to his presentations and uniquely qualifies him to speak on topics like injury prevention, ergonomics, and a healthy workplace.

Goal Setting for Powerful Results

This talk focuses on a systematic approach to setting goals in all aspects of life. Strategies for how to set goals are covered and the class can be offered in a format that allows attendees to leave with a preliminary set of their own goals. Also included are methods to "turbocharge" the process of accomplishing goals once they are set to maximize results.

Learning objectives

- Come to an understanding of the power of goal setting
- Provide a systematic framework for setting goals
- Learn tools that can "turbocharge" the accomplishment of goals once set

Resilience & Wellbeing
How Highly Successful People Overcome Self-Doubt	No matter how successful we may be, or how confident we may appear, most of us find that self-doubt and vulnerability may creep in at times. Join us to learn how to overcome self-doubt.	Rogers
Procrastinate No More	Do you tend to "get stuck" and put things off? Are you faced with panic surrounding a deadline? Many of us tend to procrastinate at times; it's vitally important to understand what motivates your procrastination. Join us to discover why you procrastinate and learn tactics to get unstuck, just do it, and move productively forward!	Rogers
Establishing Attainable SMART Goals	Old habits die hard, and new habits can be difficult to maintain, but good habits can help us to stay healthy, both emotionally and physically, can make us successful in our work and keep us engaged. Join us for this workshop to learn strategies for discarding old habits, keeping great new ones, and the wisdom to know the difference.	Rogers
Habits of Highly Effective People	Old habits die hard, and new habits can be difficult to maintain, but good habits can help us to stay healthy, both emotionally and physically, can make us successful in our work and keep us engaged. Join us for this workshop to learn strategies for discarding old habits, keeping great new ones, and the wisdom to know the difference.	Rogers
AI, Attention, and Authenticity	In a world increasingly shaped by artificial intelligence, staying grounded in our humanity has never been more important. This session explores how to balance the benefits of technology with the need for genuine connection, focus, and	Hall emotional well-being. Participants gain tools to protect their attention, strengthen authentic relationships, and lead with integrity in a digital age.

Building Effective Habits that Adapt to Your Day	If rigid and structured routines leave you feeling frustrated, this workshop is designed for you. Whether you've struggled with sticking to a routine or managing your time effectively, Jenn will guide you through a flexible approach to habit-building that maximizes productivity while accommodating your need for adaptability. In this workshop, you'll explore the concept of "elastic" habits—habits that can stretch and adapt, especially during uncertain times. Here's what you'll gain: • Insights into why rigid routines may not work for you • A clear understanding of where your time tends to slip away • A personalized, elastic framework for creating lasting habits • *This workshop includes The Elastic Framework grid.	Espinosa Goswami
Coping with Traumatic Events	This workshop aims to equip participants with the knowledge and tools needed to cope with traumatic events and their aftermath. Attendees will define what constitutes a "critical incident" and explore the range of normal responses that individuals may experience following such events. The session will cover expected expressions of grief, appropriate means of support, and effective strategies for helping children cope with trauma. Participants will also learn stress-reduction techniques and understand when it is necessary to seek professional support for themselves or others. By the end of this workshop, participants will feel more prepared to navigate the complexities of trauma and provide meaningful support to those affected. Learning Objectives: • Define what constitutes a "critical incident" and understand its impact on individuals and communities. • Explore the range of normal responses to a critical incident, recognizing that reactions can vary widely among individuals. • Discuss expected expressions of grief and how they can manifest in different forms, including emotional, physical, and behavioral responses. • Identify appropriate means of support for individuals experiencing trauma, including active listening, validation, and resources. • Examine effective stress-reduction techniques and strategies for helping children cope with traumatic events, ensuring they feel safe and supported.	Thiemann
Wellness Wake-Up: 5 Steps to a Healthier, Energized Day	Did you know that the most successful people in the world have already accomplished 5 major habits every morning before 7? No early bird herself, Jenn will share principles based off of Hal Elrod's internationally best-selling book, The Miracle Morning, and how it supercharged her health. Begin appreciating the benefits of early morning rituals • Understand the importance of cornerstone habits for lifestyle change • Implement a 30-day action plan to shift from night owl to early bird	Espinosa Goswami
Conflict Management 101	Managing conflict in a hybrid workplace can be more complicated than in a traditional workplace. Since the pandemic, more people are working either a hybrid schedule or exclusively from home. This change has impacted how people and teams work, how they disagree, and they resolve those disagreements. This	Hall interactive workshop will take you through a conflict management self-assessment and provide you with tips and tools, including understanding conflict, debate vs. dialogue, and communication essentials.

Leading Without Authority	Leadership is not about having the power to exercise your authority. Leadership is about behaving in ways that influence the feelings, thoughts, and actions of others. True leadership can happen at any level when you learn to exercise your ability to influence others to help achieve common goals. Leading Without Authority will teach you how to improve collaboration and trust among team members, making you more effective regardless of your position.	Hall
Trauma: It's Not Just Affecting Our Client's – Our Workers Feel It, Too!	"Secondary trauma" is a term you've heard many times. You know about it, but what are the steps to understanding its effects and reducing those effects on your own life? Parenting, loving partnerships, collaborating with co-workers, your extended family - every aspect of your life can be influenced by the impact of trauma on your clients, and the ways in which you carry it with you. You deserve to have tools to assure that being a caring professional doesn't cost you your own peace of mind.	Fiegal
Resilience is Your Superpower: Thriving Through Change & Adversity	Unlock your hidden superpower—resilience! This workshop is designed to help you understand and cultivate resilience, enabling you to bounce back from challenges and adversity. While some individuals may have a natural inclination toward resilience, it is a skill that can be developed by anyone. You will learn how to work with your biology, understand the importance of mindset, and discover key components of resilience backed by research. By the end of the session, you will walk away with a personalized framework for building resilience, effective stress management techniques, and practical tools to restore focus and performance, allowing you to thrive in today's complex and fast-paced world. Learning Objectives: • Define resilience and understand its critical role in thriving through change and adversity. • Identify the key components of resilience and the biological factors that influence it. • Explore the significance of mindset in building resilience and learn techniques to shift your perspective. • Develop a personalized framework for managing stress and enhancing resilience in your daily life. • Practice easy-to-use tools and strategies that can be implemented on the fly to restore focus, performance, and well-being during challenging times.	Thiemann
How to Find 30 Minutes a Day to Advance your Goals	In this fast-paced world, it's easy to feel like there's never enough time to focus on your personal goals. Yet, even the busiest people can find small pockets of time to make meaningful progress. This workshop will show you how to carve out just 30 minutes a day to focus on advancing your goals, no matter how overwhelmed you may feel by daily demands. Through practical time-management strategies and mindset shifts, you'll learn how to turn those spare moments into powerful steps toward achieving your dreams. Learning Objectives:	Thiemann

	• Identify time-wasting habits and daily distractions that prevent goal progress. • Understand the importance of dedicating small, consistent amounts of time to personal growth. • Learn strategies for prioritizing tasks and finding 30 minutes a day to focus on goal achievement. • Develop a personalized action plan to integrate goal-focused activities into your daily routine. • Implement time-management techniques that maximize productivity and ensure steady progress toward long-term goals.
Self-Esteem and Peak Performance: It's Hard to Lead the Charge If You Think You Look Funny on the Horse	Self-esteem is one of the most important factors influencing our ability to achieve personal and professional success. People with high self-esteem tend to realize their goals in life. They believe that they deserve to be successful and experience contentment. They also feel a sense of well-being and bring authenticity to their relationships. People with high self-esteem make great team players and contribute immensely to the overall performance and productivity of an organization. This session encourages participants to explore their self-esteem and discover ways to strengthen it through high quality relationships, positive self-talk, developing a sense of purpose, and courageous decision-making. Learning Objectives: • Understand the link between self-esteem and performance. • Understand the causes of low self-esteem. • Learn strategies for increasing and maximizing your self-esteem. • Learn how to encourage high self-esteem in others.	Mulle
Overcoming Obstacles and Managing Constant Change	In today's fast-evolving workplace, many employees feel overwhelmed by the pace and volume of change. This workshop is designed to help you strengthen your resilience and adaptability in the face of constant challenges. Through a new mindset and practical strategies, you will learn how to embrace change with flexibility and reduce the stress associated with it. By focusing on what you can control and making small, impactful adjustments, you'll enhance your ability to cope with uncertainty and manage obstacles effectively. This interactive session will provide tools for navigating change in a healthy, forward-thinking way. Learning Objectives: • Understand the impact of constant change on mental health and workplace productivity. • Identify areas within your control to manage change more effectively and reduce stress. • Learn techniques to cultivate a flexible and adaptable mindset in response to change. • Develop coping skills through small, manageable changes that lead to significant improvements in resilience.	Thiemann

	• Create a personalized plan to navigate change with confidence and reduce feelings of overwhelm in your daily routine.
Prioritizing the Demands of Your Busy Life	IN A CRAZY-BUSY WORLD, it's very easy to get caught up in a work style that makes us act before we think, reacting instead of planning. It's a pattern that leads us to doing more than we can do well, resulting in mistakes, stress, burnout, and reduced productivity. There's a better way to manage demands, instead of having them manage us. This interactive workshop takes participants through a series of questions that will help them understand if they are meeting their most basic of needs and living what they value. Using the results from the questions and through peer discussion, attendees will decide where to make key adjustments to how they do their tasks and respond to stress, and other reflex behaviors. During the workshop specific employee benefits and external resources are shared, which will equip attendees with an array of self-management tools to improve time management and prioritization and activate a fulfilling life both inside and outside the workplace.	Thiemann
Uncommon Connections for Personal, Professional, and Community Growth	In this engaging and interactive session, participants will explore how human networks naturally form, how silos develop within organizations and communities, and why bridging these divides is crucial for personal, professional and societal growth! It's human nature to stay within the comfort zones of our familiar social networks, gravitating toward people who think and act like us. However, breaking free from these comfort zones is essential for growth. Expanding beyond our existing circles allows us to form new connections, exchange fresh ideas, and cultivate opportunities we may not have encountered otherwise. This workshop will also delve into how disconnects exist not only within organizations but across communities and individuals, and how this isolation can impact not just our success but our well-being. Research shows that strong social connections are linked to better mental and physical health. Attendees will gain insights into the transformative power of human connection—whether in a workplace, neighborhood, or personal life. By stepping out of their comfort zones and breaking down hierarchical, lateral, and internal divides, participants will unlock new opportunities for growth, success, and health. They will leave with a deeper understanding of how fostering genuine connections across all levels not only enhances their careers and communities but also supports their overall health and well-being.	Narula
Staying Energized in a Draining World	There is an energy crisis happening in America today! And it is happening in the personal and professional lives of people everywhere. Increased stress both on and off the job is causing a loss of productivity that can run into billions of dollars each year. This energy drainage is robbing us of our own health and happiness. This session explores the symptoms and root causes of stress in our lives and introduces personal strategies for reducing stress and restoring energy. Participants will learn how to replenish their energy reserves even in the middle of hectic and pressured schedules.	Mulle

	Learning Objectives: • Discover the signs and symptoms of personal and professional burn-out. • Uncover the root causes of stress in our lives. • Recognize what gives you energy and what drains you. • Apply strategies for managing the energy exchanges. • Create your own Energy-Management-Plan. • Learn how to handle stress associated with change.
Practicing Gratitude and Mindfulness	Mindfulness and gratitude go hand in hand, and can substantially elevate one's overall happiness, manage stress, anxiety and depression, and change one's perspective permanently. In this session we will explore the aspects of gratitude and mindfulness and will focus on a number of strategies' and exercises to take away.	Rogers
Keeping Pace on a Spinning Planet	We've all experienced the feeling that the "treadmill of life" is speeding up, that the rapid pace of change is constantly throwing new challenges in our path. Just as we overcome one obstacle, a new one is bearing down upon us. How can we possibly keep up? Change doesn't have to lead to that common sensation of being overwhelmed. We can ride the waves of change. People who are moving ahead in our world today are those who know how to navigate the turbulent waters of change. This session unlocks the toolbox for managing change and provides insight and skills that enhance our ability to keep pace. Learning Objectives: • Discover why individuals and organizations resist change. • Gain insight into the process of transition. • Explore two models or "roadmaps" which can guide you through the transition process. • Identify the various elements that are necessary for successful change. • Discuss what to do when these elements are missing in order to lead yourself and others through change. • Develop resilience in your ability to handle change. • Embrace change as an opportunity for growth and innovation. • Become a change catalyst in your organization. • Build skills for resiliency in the face of rapid, constant change.	Mulle
Finding Meaning and Purpose in Your Life	Have you ever felt stuck, uncertain about your next step, or unsure how to align your work and life with what truly energizes you? This engaging session will help you gain clarity, build confidence, and take action toward a more fulfilling future. Through guided reflection and interactive discussions, you will: Discover your passions and strengths – Identify what excites and motivates you and explore how to integrate these into your personal and professional life. Uncover what holds you back – Examine common fears, limiting beliefs, and external barriers that may be preventing growth, and learn strategies to move past them. Embrace new opportunities with confidence – Develop a mindset that welcomes change and equips you with practical tools to take on new challenges.	Thiemann

	Whether you're looking for a fresh start, a renewed sense of purpose, or a boost in motivation, this session will empower you with insights and strategies to move forward with clarity and enthusiasm.
Do You Know How You Impact Others?	Do you ever wonder how and why low EQ individuals make it to high ranks of organizations? Do you wonder how you influence and impact those around you? In this engaging and experimental session, you will examine how you impact others, learn how to enhance your own awareness, and take away 3 new competencies/lessons that you can put into practice immediately. Learning objectives: • How networks and relationships tell us the story of influence and impact • How leaders and individuals often over or underestimate their impact on others • How you impact others and how that might inform your own personal growth plan Learn from the latest in social science and business research. See specific case studies and walk away with personally relevant insights that will make you a more self-aware person.	Narula
Overcoming Burnout and Getting Back on Track	This class focuses on the importance of balancing the demands of life, stress and your ability to achieve your goals day in and day out. We will discuss the impact that burnout has on your daily performance and the negative outcomes that can result if burnout is left unchecked. Dr. Kriva lays out a systematic approach to structuring your life to minimize burnout and maximize your ability to achieve goals and maintain your performance even when unexpected trials threaten to derail your life journey. Take home message; most people live close to their maximum capacity, small upsets and burnout can derail pursuit of goals, it is possible to structure your life using the 85% principle to consistently pursue and achieve your goals. Learning outcomes: • Identify warning signs of burnout • Effectively address burnout • Practical step to prevent burnout and achieve goals	Kriva
Self-Care: Small Changes for Big Results	In today's fast-paced world, self-care is often overlooked, yet it is essential for overall well-being. This workshop aims to highlight the importance of self-care and provide participants with practical strategies for incorporating it into their daily routines. Attendees will learn why self-care matters, explore various ways to integrate self-care practices into their lives, and develop personalized self-care plans. Additionally, the workshop will address how to inspire and support others in their self-care journeys, fostering a culture of wellness and self-compassion. Learning Objectives: • Understand the significance of self-care and its impact on physical, emotional, and mental health. • Explore multiple self-care practices that can be easily integrated into daily life, enhancing overall well-being. • Develop a personalized self-care plan that aligns with individual needs and lifestyle, including achievable goals and strategies.	Thiemann

	• Discuss effective methods to encourage and support others in building their own self-care plans, promoting a supportive community. • Identify common barriers to self-care and learn strategies to overcome them, ensuring consistent practice and commitment.
Cutting Edge Creativity	Let's face it: life is getting more and more challenging. Sometimes we need all the help we can get just to make it through the day. Perhaps it's time to take a different approach to life, a more creative approach. Creative thinking is one of our most powerful tools for managing the challenges and complexities we face every day. Stuck as to how to move forward on a project? Wondering how you're possibly going to meet all the deadlines bearing down on you? Creative thinking is your formula for overcoming these challenging situations. This fun and engaging session explores the practical application of creativity - how we can tap into the power of creative thinking and boost productivity and performance. Learning Objectives: • Gain insight into your own creative abilities. • Learn to recognize and break the mental chains that lock out creative thinking. • Learn the four basic disciplines of creative process. • Develop a toolbox of practical techniques for enhancing creativity. • Apply creative thinking tools and techniques to situations from your real life.	Mulle
The Power of Persistence	This talk focuses on a major component of success in career and in life, persistence. Dr. Kriva discusses how persistent effort over time is the key to ultimate success in reaching personal and professional goals. This talk is entertaining and filled with amusing stories to drive home the point that persistent effort brings large rewards. Most importantly, Dr. Kriva gives the audience the practical tools they need to keep up sustained energy and effort over time in order to achieve their goals.	Kriva
*New Cultivating Kindness in the Workplace	Incivility has become an epidemic in modern workplaces. This crisis of unkindness hurts people, culture, and negatively impacts employee wellbeing. Groundbreaking Harvard research shows companies embedding kindness in their DNA experience 20% better collaboration and 15% higher productivity. The message is clear: leading with kindness and compassion unlocks a better workplace and improved wellbeing. "Cultivating Kindness in the Workplace" will equip participants with the knowledge, skills, and strategies needed to create a more compassionate and supportive work environment. This course explores the principles of kindness and empathy in the context of professional relationships, emphasizing the positive impact that a culture of kindness can have on individual and team performance. Participants will gain insights into kindness's psychological and social benefits, understanding how it contributes to increased job satisfaction, reduced stress, and enhanced overall workplace morale.	Hall

Invisible Labor Uncovered: Achieving Fairness in Domestic Life	Invisible labor—like managing schedules, emotional caregiving, and maintaining household routines—often go unnoticed but has a significant impact on relationships, well-being, and work-life balance. This workshop uncovers the unseen efforts behind domestic life and empowers participants to recognize, share, and value these responsibilities. Through guided discussions, real-world examples, and practical tools, attendees will learn how to foster fairness and collaboration at home. The session includes tips on using task management apps, communication frameworks, and planning strategies to build stronger relationships and achieve a more equitable household. Learning Objectives: By the end of this workshop, participants will be able to: • Understand the concept of invisible labor and its effects on individuals, relationships, and household dynamics. • Identify areas of imbalance in domestic responsibilities and recognize how these disparities impact mental and emotional well-being. • Use communication frameworks, such as "I" statements and nonviolent communication, to address inequities and build mutual understanding. • Apply practical tools and systems for organizing and sharing tasks, including task management apps (e.g., Trello, Cozi, or OurHome) and collaborative family calendars. • Foster a sense of teamwork and gratitude within the household to create a culture of fairness and appreciation for all contributions."	Thiemann
Personal Effectiveness: Navigating with Confidence When Change Happens	As the old saying goes, "Things Change." And when things change, especially if the change is happening to us, it can be unsettling. Most people focus on managing the (potential) outcome of the change. This is usually a huge mistake, since there are typically many factors involved in the outcome. Since change is more often a "when," not an "if," learning how to manage ourselves and not the outcome when change occurs (or may be pending) is a key skill to making sure we come out on top. This workshop explores ways to manage ourselves and how to think differently when change occurs to get results that work for us!	Alch *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
Crafting Relationships That Matter	Life is relationships. If you want to be successful in life you need to be successful in relationships. According to the relationship cookbook of Psychologist Carl Rogers, there is a recipe that promotes and facilitates the growth and development of healthy relationships. This recipe contains three essential ingredients: genuineness, empathy, and unconditional positive regard. This session examines this recipe, and challenges participants to develop a way-of-life style that uses these ingredients in all of their relationships. Learning Objectives: • Understand why some people accept change and growth and others resist it. • Understand what kind of person you need to be to facilitate healthy relationships. • Learn how to empathize with people.	Mulle

	• Discover the power of "Unconditional Positive Regard". • Overcome the tendency to trap people in your point-of-view. • Learn how to approach relationships with more authenticity and genuineness. • Experience the growth of meaningful trust as your reward for supplying these ingredients.
Spot and Stop Burnout on Your Team	In today's demanding work environment, ignoring burnout can lead to significant consequences for team members and overall productivity. This workshop equips leaders and managers with the tools to recognize, address, and prevent burnout within their teams. You'll learn that every individual is unique, and offering diverse options for managing stress is essential. By implementing proven strategies tailored to different needs, you can foster a culture of well-being and support. Participants will gain insights into recognizing signs of burnout, gauging team morale, and modeling healthy behaviors through effective communication and transparency. Learning Objectives: • Recognize the signs of burnout in team members and understand its impact on productivity and morale. • Explore effective approaches for gauging team members' feelings and overall well-being. • Assess personal management styles and identify ways to model good mental health practices through transparency and open communication. • Develop actionable strategies to provide diverse options for team members to manage stress and prevent burnout. • Implement a framework for promoting employee well-being and creating a supportive work environment that reduces the risk of burnout.	Thiemann
Nurturing Resilience and Supporting Mental Health in the Workplace	Our managers and coworkers play an important role in creating a supportive and inclusive workplace culture, especially when it comes to employees' mental health. Through interactive discussions, case studies, and practical exercises, participants will explore the prevalence of mental illness in the workplace, common signs and symptoms to look out for, and best practices for appropriate support and accommodations. Participants will also learn how to foster open communication, reduce stigma, and create a psychologically safe environment where employees feel comfortable seeking help and disclosing their mental health concerns. By the end of the workshop, participants will: • Understand the prevalence and impact of mental illness in the workplace. • Recognize common signs and symptoms of mental health challenges in employees. • Learn effective strategies for providing support, accommodations, and resources to employees experiencing mental health issues. • Develop communication skills for initiating supportive conversations and reducing stigma surrounding mental health. • Create an action plan for fostering a supportive and inclusive work environment that prioritizes employee mental health and well-being.	Thiemann

NEW! Mastering Time Management: Prioritize, Plan, and Perform	Do you often feel like there aren't enough hours in the day? This engaging and practical workshop will equip you with the tools and strategies needed to take control of your time and boost productivity. Discover how to eliminate common timewasters, set clear priorities, and maintain focus—all while achieving a healthy work-life balance. Through proven techniques like the Eisenhower Matrix, time blocking, and the Pomodoro Technique, you'll learn how to manage your tasks more effectively and reduce stress. Whether you're managing a demanding career, a busy household, or personal projects, this class provides actionable insights to help you achieve more with less effort. Take charge of your time and start accomplishing what truly matters—one step at a time! Title: Stress Reset: Strategies for Sustainable Success	Hall
NEW! Creative Problem-Solving: Finding Better Answers Faster	This session encourages innovative thinking and introduces structured methods like the "5 Whys" and brainstorming with constraints. Participants will practice looking at challenges from new angles, uncovering root causes, and generating creative, practical solutions more efficiently.	Hall
NEW! Stress Reset: Strategies for Sustainable Success	Stress is a constant in the modern workplace, but it doesn't have to define your day or your performance. This session explores practical, evidence-based strategies to build resilience, manage stress effectively, and improve overall well-being. Learn how to identify stress triggers, harness your inner resources, and create sustainable habits for professional and personal success. Gain actionable insights to help you navigate challenges with clarity and confidence.	Hall

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT FEATURED SESSIONS

Leadership Skills

Karl Mulle graduated from Cornell University and holds professional degrees in Divinity and Counseling Psychology from Trinity International University in Chicago. He is a corporate trainer and a popular keynote speaker, as well as a personal achievement coach. Karl has also recently authored the book Emotional Intelligence Training and co-authored the book: Put Emotional Intelligence to Work: Equip Yourself for Success.

NEW! Prioritization: Aligning Effort with Mission-Critical Outcomes

The ability to prioritize effectively stands out as a cornerstone for success in all organizations. This course is tailored to empower leaders to practice the strategies and techniques essential for honing prioritization skills that align with the goals of the organization. Participants will explore best practices for aligning team priorities with the vision and directives of the organization. They will also explore prioritization techniques that align individual efforts with these teams and organizational goals. Finally, participants will engage with principles of essentialism and how to develop the habits of effective weekly planning and prioritization.

Learning Objectives

- Master essential prioritization techniques to align efforts with organizational goals
- Make purpose-driven decisions, and use clearly defined priorities to establish boundaries and enhance productivity
- Balance operational responsiveness with long-term impact
- Guide teams in translating agency vision into daily prioritization choices
- Adopt the habit of deliberately investing energy where it creates the highest value
- Engage teams in structured, forward-looking conversations about priority management
- Learn to recognize, understand, and work within other people's emotional states and achieve healthier, more positive relationships

Emotional Intelligence: The New Science of Leadership

An old Afghan Proverb reads: “If you think you are leading, and no one is following, then you are taking a walk.” Leadership is influence and influence primarily flows from the quality of our interpersonal interactions, not from our position. Breakthroughs in Emotional Intelligence research show us why our moods and actions have enormous impact on those we seek to influence. In fact, Emotionally Intelligent leadership allows us to inspire, arouse passion and enthusiasm, and keep people motivated and committed. Every member of an organization has the potential to be a great leader, not because of positional power, but because of the interpersonal effectiveness that comes from developing emotional competence.

Learning Objectives:

- Explore the 4-domain model of Emotional Intelligence
- Understand how Emotional Intelligence relates to leadership effectiveness
- Distinguish between dissonant and resonant leadership
- Learn the four styles of leadership that create resonance in relationships
- Learn the emotional competencies that support these four different leadership styles
- Develop self-awareness of how emotions impact behavior, performance, and interpersonal effectiveness
- Learn how to manage disruptive emotions that threaten leadership success
- Discover why empathy is the foundational skill of all influence
- Learn how to create a motivating emotional climate

Jenn Espinosa-Goswami, private health coach and motivational speaker, helps people filter through misleading or ludicrous health claims to add their own flavor to a wellness plan that fits into their busy schedules. Jenn has been featured in a national US magazine with over 4 million subscribers. She is also a volunteer speaker for the American Heart Association.

From Employee to Intrapreneur: Cultivating Innovation and Leadership at Work

Intrapreneurship refers to the practice of applying entrepreneurial skills and approaches within an established organization. Using examples from Amazon, Southwest Airlines and Flaming Hot Cheetos, Jenn will share how encouraging intrapreneurship within your organization increases innovation, improves processes, and cultivates greater career development and engagement within employees.

Karly Hall, MA, CPC, CCMP, CSPO, is a curious and driven problem-solver who empowers others to take action and maximize their greatest potential in life and business. While most of her 20+ year career has been providing award-winning marketing and brand management, she also has a decade of experience as a certified change manager, coach, trainer, and published author. Karly believes in the incredible impact others can have within their organizations and communities.

Empowering Leadership: Fostering a Culture of Trust and Collaboration

In today's dynamic and evolving work environment, leadership is more crucial than ever. The atmosphere within an organization significantly influences productivity, creativity, and employee well-being. Leaders who can nurture a culture of trust and collaboration tap into their teams' true potential.

This hands-on workshop will guide participants through the essential elements of a thriving workplace culture. Through interactive discussions and actionable exercises, attendees will evaluate the presence of these elements within their own organizational culture.

Session Goals:

- Gain insights into how organizational culture impacts team effectiveness and overall performance.
- Learn practical methods for fostering trust, collaboration, and a supportive team environment.
- Acquire tools for evaluating and continuously enhancing the cultural atmosphere in your organization.
- Draw inspiration from real-life case studies and examples to spark leadership action and promote positive change.

Change Agility & Future-Ready Mindsets

Disruption is constant—but it doesn't have to derail you. This session empowers individuals and teams to anticipate change, adapt quickly, and stay resilient through uncertainty. Participants learn how to embrace a growth mindset, lead with stability, and transform challenges into opportunities for innovation.

Communication Skills

Jenn Espinosa-Goswami, private health coach and motivational speaker, helps people filter through misleading or ludicrous health claims to add their own flavor to a wellness plan that fits into their busy schedules. Jenn has been featured in a national US magazine with over 4 million subscribers. She is also a volunteer speaker for the American Heart Association.

Become a Meeting Maestro: Speak so that People Listen

The number of meetings has increased nearly 70% for working professionals since February 2020, where workers are forced to create an additional 7 hours in their schedules each week for these meeting demands. Being able to speak clearly leads to greater performance and cooperation within your team or organization. Join Jenn for tips from professional speakers on how to speak so that they listen.

Takeaways:

- Learn why public speaking is an important leadership skill.
- Discover pre-speaking rituals to feel and appear more confident and less nervous.
- Implement techniques to engage and energize your listeners (even if you're delivering a boring "TPS" report)
- Evaluate your life and identify areas of life that you'd like to change to reduce unnecessary stress and pressure

Engage and Inspire: Power Tips for Effective Presentations

When asked about what soft skills they wanted L&D to focus on, executives and people managers ranked communication and leadership as the top 2. In the LinkedIn Workplace Learning Report, 94% of employees said they'd stay at a company longer if the company invested in their career.

- Enter public speaking. In this session, Jenn will explore:
- Why public speaking makes you a better employee and leader
- The dos and don'ts of effective public speaking
- The biggest mistake employees make when presenting in front of other teams or groups"

Mary-Ellen Rogers, Mary-Ellen Rogers is a ICF Certified Executive Coach and founder of Excellere, a human capital management services company. With over 35 years of experience in consulting, training, and coaching, I help organizations and individuals to achieve excellence, productivity, and engagement in their work and life.

Keep it Short and Sweet – The Power of Succinct Communication

Ever read an email spanning several paragraphs that could have been communicated in a sentence? Do meetings always run over because participants take 20 minutes to explain something that should only take 5 minutes, at most? Join us as we explore the principles and strategies represented in the book "Smart Brevity" by Jim VandeHei, Mike Allen and Roy Schwartz to help to communicate briefly and effectively.

Managing Conflict

Karly Hall, MA, CPC, CCMP, CSPO, is a curious and driven problem-solver who empowers others to act and maximize their greatest potential in life and business. While most of her 20+ year career has been providing award-winning marketing and brand management, she also has a decade of experience as a certified change manager, coach, trainer, and published author. Karly believes in the incredible impact others can have within their organizations and communities.

Managing Difficult Conversations

No one enjoys having difficult conversations, but they are often necessary in the workplace and can help you and anyone else involved move forward and grow as a professional. But that doesn't make approaching someone with a problem any easier. One of the smartest things you can do before dealing with a difficult discussion, is figure out what your "style" is? With insight into how you handle difficult conversations you will be better equipped to face them head on. This interactive session will help you assess your own style and provide tips and resources to empower you to reach a productive conversation conclusion.

Mastering Conflict Resolution in the Workplace

Managing workplace conflict has become more complex in today's evolving work environment. With many employees now working on hybrid schedules or entirely from home, the dynamics of teamwork, disagreement, and conflict resolution have shifted. This interactive workshop offers a conflict management self-assessment and equips you with practical tips and tools. You'll gain insights into understanding conflict, the difference between debate and dialogue, and essential communication strategies for resolving disagreements effectively.

Effective communication forms the foundation of thriving relationships, and gaining insight into your communication style is pivotal for fostering connections with those around you. It's a skill that requires ongoing refinement to enhance the likelihood of success. Swiftly addressing disagreements and misunderstandings is crucial to prevent them from derailing what could have been a constructive and positive conversation. In this interactive session, you will learn:

- About your own communication style
- How to respond to styles that differ from your own
- Skills to improve your communication abilities.

Dr. Gregory Alch has been in practice for more than 25 years, helping people better manage their professional and personal relationships. He can communicate complex ideas without arousing defensiveness and people find it easy to talk to him. By engaging employees at all levels of an organization, Dr. Alch has a keen ability to bring clarity to complex situations and identify the action steps necessary to achieve identified goals. Dr. Alch is able to engage employees at all levels of an organization, through his straightforward, straight-talking approach. As such, he has routinely earned the trust of those he works with. Leaders and employees alike view Dr. Alch as an unbiased, reliable source for resolving issues. All sessions ADDITIONAL $150

Let's All Get Along! Professional Boundaries in the Workplace

Boundaries are a funny thing - they are rarely noticed or spoken about - UNTIL they are broken. In this workshop, tips, and tools for creating and maintaining healthy professional boundaries are outlined, including: Knowing when to speak up and set boundaries (and doing so with confidence); Using Meta-communication to set expectations and intentions in positive ways; Maintaining respectful relationships with your colleagues.

Learning Objectives:

- Participants will learn Meta-communication and how to use it when addressing boundary issues.
- Will understand the role professional boundaries play in their work (and personal) relationships.
- How to listen to their internal "voice" to know when to address boundary concerns.

EQ (Emotional Intelligence): The Foundation for Getting Along with Anyone, Anywhere, Anytime!

Studies have repeatedly found that EQ (Emotional Intelligence) is a better predictor for success in life than IQ. Contrary to IQ, EQ is able to grow and develop by learning from experiences and from focused attention on the 15 specific skills that are measured in determining one's EQ. This workshop outlines the 15 scales used to assess Emotional Intelligence (e.g., Flexibility, Self-Regard, Problem Solving) and gives specific actions that can enhance each area. Links to how to take the Bar-On EQ-i 2.0 (Emotional Intelligence Assessment Inventory) are given. Learning Objectives:

- Participants will understand what EQ is - and what it is not.
- Will learn the principles to growing their own EQ.
- Will learn how to use EQ skills in their daily interactions.

Rachel Thiemann, with a background in Social Psychology,

Rachel Thiemann has built on her knowledge of interpersonal dynamics in the workplace with an international career of 18 years as an internal and external organizational consultant and trainer. She also has a keen interest in the link between mind and body and has trained and practiced as a hypnotherapist, NLP practitioner and life coach. Rachel has authored the online tool "From Stress to Resilience" for the US Navy, as well as many other classroom and online courses. She has been Vice-President of WFC Resources, a work-life company, since 2003.

Surviving the Human Workplace

Tough personalities, chronic complainers, or dramatic coworkers can make the workday stressful and exhausting. But you don't have to take it personally—or silently suffer. This empowering workshop helps employees recognize common patterns of negative workplace behavior and equips you with tools to respond calmly, protect your energy, and stay focused on what matters.

You'll explore practical strategies for handling conflict, setting respectful boundaries, and speaking up when needed—without escalating the situation or sacrificing your professionalism.

Learning Objectives

At the end of this session, participants will be able to:

- Recognize five common patterns of difficult behavior in the workplace (e.g., the slacker, the bully, the martyr) and their impact on team dynamics.
- Reflect on how their own responses may unintentionally contribute to or help shift negative patterns.
- Apply a 5-step framework to navigate challenging interactions with professionalism and clarity.
- Respond constructively to emotional or defensive reactions without escalating conflict.
- Model respectful communication and support a culture that discourages toxic behavior and promotes psychological safety.

NEW Digital Body Language & Communication Clarity

In hybrid and remote workplaces, the absence of tone, body language, and context often leads to misunderstandings. This workshop introduces digital body language — the new rules for clarity, tone, and trust when most communication happens online.

Learning Objectives:

- Understand the concept of digital body language and its workplace importance.
- Identify common pitfalls in email, chat, and video communication.
- Adjust tone and timing to reduce misinterpretation in digital channels.
- Use intentional communication rituals to replace lost “hallway moments.”
- Apply digital clarity skills to hybrid and remote team interactions.

Karly Hall, MA, CPC, CCMP, CSPO, is a curious and driven problem-solver who empowers others to take action and maximize their greatest potential in life and business. While most of her 20+ year career has been providing award-winning marketing and brand management, she also has a decade of experience as a certified change manager, coach, trainer, and published author. Karly believes in the incredible impact others can have within their organizations and communities.

NEW Cultivating Kindness in the Workplace

Incivility has become an epidemic in modern workplaces. This crisis of unkindness hurts people, culture, and negatively impacts employee wellbeing. Groundbreaking Harvard research shows companies embedding kindness in their DNA experience 20% better collaboration and 15% higher productivity. The message is clear: leading with kindness and compassion unlocks a better workplace and improved wellbeing.

"Cultivating Kindness in the Workplace" will equip participants with the knowledge, skills, and strategies needed to create a more compassionate and supportive work environment. This course explores the principles of kindness and empathy in the context of professional relationships, emphasizing the positive impact that a culture of kindness can have on individual and team performance. Participants will gain insights into kindness's psychological and social benefits, understanding how it contributes to increased job satisfaction, reduced stress, and enhanced overall workplace morale.

NEW Digital & Hybrid Work Fluency

Thriving in today's hybrid world requires more than mastering technology—it's about connection, communication, and adaptability. This presentation equips professionals with practical strategies for effective virtual collaboration, maintaining presence across platforms, and managing time zones with clarity and confidence.

Virtual/Remote Workplace Competencies

Rachel Thiemann, with a background in Social Psychology, Rachel Thiemann has built on her knowledge of interpersonal dynamics in the workplace with an international career of 18 years as an internal and external organizational consultant and trainer. She also has a keen interest in the link between mind and body and has trained and practiced as a hypnotherapist, NLP practitioner and life coach. Rachel has authored the online tool "From Stress to Resilience" for the US Navy, as well as many other classroom and online courses. She has been Vice-President of WFC Resources, a work-life company, since 2003.

Staying Visible and Connected in a Dispersed Workplace

With e-mail, instant messaging, and video conferencing, colleagues are almost as connected as if they were in the office, right? Not quite. When the workplace is dispersed, barriers of time and distance can put employee's visibility at risk. It can be challenging to stay connected to leaders, colleagues and clients who are not collocated.

This interactive workshop is filled with solid tips, real-life examples, and practical advice to help people stay connected in a remote workplace and learn to leverage online tools and technology to cultivate powerful relationships and expand their network. Content will be customized to reflect your capabilities and technology.

Building Effective Teams in a Flexible/Mobile Workplace

In today's flexible and mobile work environment, managers of hybrid and remote teams face unique challenges that require specific skills and strategies for effective leadership. This workshop aims to equip managers with the essential remote leadership skills needed to thrive, focusing on key areas such as technology as an enabler, communication, collaboration, recognition, and team accountability. Through engaging, fast-paced, and application-based activities, participants will learn updated approaches to motivate and engage remote teams, ensuring alignment with how employees work today.

Learning Objectives:

- Identify the unique challenges and opportunities of managing hybrid and remote teams in a flexible workplace.
- Utilize technology as an enabler to enhance communication, collaboration, and productivity among team members.
- Develop effective communication strategies that promote engagement and clarity in a remote work setting.
- Implement recognition techniques that foster a positive team culture and boost morale in a flexible workplace.
- Establish accountability measures that encourage collaboration and responsibility within remote teams, ensuring alignment with organizational goals.

Work from Home Survival Guide

As remote work becomes a prominent aspect of our lives, many individuals face unique challenges that disrupt their traditional work and home environments. This interactive workshop will provide practical strategies to help participants stay healthy, happy, and engaged while working from home. Attendees will learn how to create effective routines that balance personal and professional responsibilities, set boundaries to prevent burnout, and navigate the changes that come with remote work. By sharing best practices and engaging in discussions, participants will leave with tools to enhance their remote work experience and maintain a sense of well-being.

Learning Objectives:

- Identify the unique challenges of working from home and how they impact personal and professional life.
- Develop a personalized routine that supports both work productivity and personal well-being.
- Establish boundaries to create a healthy work-life balance, ensuring time for self-care and family.
- Explore effective communication strategies to maintain connections with colleagues while working remotely.
- Implement practical tips for staying engaged and motivated in a remote work environment, including managing distractions and setting realistic goals.

Professional Development
AI, Chat GPT, and You	Artificial intelligence and Chat GPT can be seen either as threatening, or a way to streamline and accelerate one's success. Join us for facts and strategies to help you to decide if, when, and how to utilize this tool.	Rogers
LinkedIn, Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter: Leveraging Social Media for Career Success	Social Media can make you or break you in terms of career success, join us for this practical session to learn the strategies to best utilize your social media footprint to accelerate your career success.	Rogers
Presentation Skills Tool Kit	Many folks are terrified of speaking in front of others, especially in high-impact situations, but by learning a few simple techniques it can become a pleasant, confidence-building endeavor.	Rogers
Keep it Short and Sweet – The Power of Succinct Communication	Ever read an email spanning several paragraphs that could have been communicated in a sentence? Do meetings always run over because participants take 20 minutes to explain something that should only take 5	Rogers minutes, at most? Join us as we explore the principles and strategies represented in the book “Smart Brevity” by Jim VandeHei, Mike Allen and Roy Schwartz to help to communicate briefly and effectively.

Cultivating Kindness in the Workplace	Incivility has become an epidemic in modern workplaces. This crisis of unkindness hurts people, culture, and negatively impacts employee wellbeing. Groundbreaking Harvard research shows companies embedding kindness in their DNA experience 20% better collaboration and 15% higher productivity. The message is clear: leading with kindness and compassion unlocks a better workplace and improved wellbeing. “Cultivating Kindness in the Workplace” will equip participants with the knowledge, skills, and strategies needed to create a more compassionate and supportive work environment. This course explores the principles of kindness and empathy in the context of professional relationships, emphasizing the positive impact that a culture of kindness can have on individual and team performance. Participants will gain insights into kindness's psychological and social benefits, understanding how it contributes to increased job satisfaction, reduced stress, and enhanced overall workplace morale.	Hall
Workplace Bullying: See It and Stop It	This workshop focuses on the critical issue of workplace bullying, which often goes unnoticed and can lead to significant harm within organizations. Participants will gain a comprehensive understanding of what constitutes workplace bullying and its various forms, as well as how it differs from related behaviors such as incivility and harassment. The workshop will provide practical strategies for addressing and preventing bullying, fostering a culture of respect in the workplace. Attendees will learn to identify bullying behaviors, respond appropriately, and implement measures to create a supportive work environment. Learning Objectives: • Define workplace bullying and recognize its various forms, including verbal, emotional, and physical manifestations. • Identify related concepts such as discourtesy, disrespect, incivility, harassment, intimidation, and aggression, and understand their impact on workplace dynamics. • Differentiating between workplace bullying and other challenging behaviors, enabling participants to respond effectively. • Develop actionable strategies to promote a respectful work environment and prevent bullying through proactive measures. • Identify the appropriate steps to respond to acts of incivility and bullying, including intervention techniques and reporting procedures.	Thiemann
Resisting Workplace Bullies	Bullying isn't limited to children and playgrounds. In fact, more bullying probably occurs in the workplace than anyplace else, and the stakes can be high! Join us for this session where we will explore the behaviors and motivations of workplace bullies and learn strategies to disarm bullying behavior and establish productive relationships.	Rogers
Become a Meeting Maestro: Speak so that People Listen	The amount of meetings has increased nearly 70% for working professionals since February 2020, where workers are forced to create an additional 7 hours in their schedules each week for these meeting demands. Being able to	Espinosa-Goswami speak clearly leads to greater performance and cooperation within your team or organization. Join Jenn for tips from professional speakers on how to speak so that they listen. Takeaways: • Learn why public speaking is an important leadership skill. • Discover pre-speaking rituals to feel and appear more confident and less nervous. • Implement techniques to engage and energize your listeners (even if you're delivering a boring "TPS" report)

Engage and Inspire: Power Tips for Effective Presentations	When asked about what soft skills they wanted L&D to focus on, executives and people managers ranked communication and leadership as the top 2. In the LinkedIn Workplace Learning Report, 94% of employees said they'd stay at a company longer if the company invested in their career. Enter public speaking. In this session, Jenn will explore: Why public speaking makes you a better employee and leader The dos and don'ts of effective public speaking The biggest mistake employees make when presenting in front of other teams or groups	Espinosa-Goswami-
From Employee to Intrapreneur: Cultivating Innovation and Leadership at Work	Intrapreneurship refers to the practice of applying entrepreneurial skills and approaches within an established organization. Using examples from Amazon, Southwest Airlines and Flaming Hot Cheetos, Jenn will share how encouraging intrapreneurship within your organization increases innovation, improves processes, and cultivates greater career development and engagement within employees.	Espinosa-Goswami-
Empowering Leadership: Fostering a Culture of Trust and Collaboration	In today's dynamic and evolving work environment, leadership is more crucial than ever. The atmosphere within an organization significantly influences productivity, creativity, and employee well-being. Leaders who can nurture a culture of trust and collaboration tap into their teams' true potential. This hands-on workshop will guide participants through the essential elements of a thriving workplace culture. Through interactive discussions and actionable exercises, attendees will evaluate the presence of these elements within their own organizational culture. Session Goals: Gain insights into how organizational culture impacts team effectiveness and overall performance. Learn practical methods for fostering trust, collaboration, and a supportive team environment. Acquire tools for evaluating and continuously enhancing the cultural atmosphere in your organization. Draw inspiration from real-life case studies and examples to spark leadership action and promote positive change.	Hall
Career Planning	In this session, participants will learn strategies for planning and further developing their own careers. They also will share knowledge and insights from other leaders about the career development and career planning experiences that have been most valuable for them. Learning Objectives	Mulle

	• Recognize the importance of communication and networking skills/practices to career development and planning • Gain tools for more effectively communicating your value (talents, skills, knowledge, and experience) to others in the organization • Create a personal influence map (network) • Understand the current scope of your professional network • Evaluate your personal influence map based on key principles for networking at work • Develop a strategy for further developing and improving your networks for the future Obtain key insights from more senior leaders regarding career planning and development, high value experiences, critical steps/approaches to career planning, and career planning resources.
Accountability: Achieving Results Through Personal and Collective Responsibility	An attitude of accountability lies at the core of any effort to improve quality, satisfy customers, empower people, build teams, create new products, maximize effectiveness and get results. Accountability happens when team members collectively focus on four key areas of success: consistently gaining accurate perspective through feedback, accepting clearly defined roles and responsibilities for managing circumstances, developing strategies for working through obstacles and challenges, and finally executing those strategies and achieving results. This workshop is designed to help team members learn how to take greater personal and collective accountability for achieving key organizational results, even when there are difficult circumstances and challenging obstacles. Learning Objectives • Develop a positive approach to creating greater individual and collective accountability throughout the organization • Learn how to handle difficult accountability conversations with a positive proactive attitude • Discover why the key to maintaining accountability is to clearly define goals, expectations and results, and to align daily work objectives with those results • Learn the four key steps of managing accountability • Learn how to apply the tools and practices that create greater accountability both individually and organizationally	Mulle
Prioritization: Aligning Effort with Mission-Critical Outcomes	The ability to prioritize effectively stands out as a cornerstone for success in all organizations. This course is tailored to empower leaders to practice the strategies and techniques essential for honing prioritization skills that align with the goals of the organization. Participants will explore best practices for aligning team priorities with the vision and directives of the organization. They will also explore prioritization techniques that align individual efforts with these teams and organizational goals. Finally, participants will engage with principles of essentialism and how to develop the habits of effective weekly planning and prioritization. Learning Objectives	Mulle

	• Master essential prioritization techniques to align efforts with organizational goals • Make purpose-driven decisions, and use clearly defined priorities to establish boundaries and enhance productivity • Balance operational responsiveness with long-term impact • Guide teams in translating agency vision into daily prioritization choices • Adopt the habit of deliberately investing energy where it creates the highest value • Engage teams in structured, forward-looking conversations about priority management • • Learn to recognize, understand, and work within other people's emotional states and achieve healthier, more positive relationships
Vision, Alignment and Execution: How to Lead People Through Change and Innovation	Managers and organizational leaders have a responsibility to envision future realities that will meet the needs and expectations of clients, customers and all who benefit from the mission of the organization. Turning these vision statements into reality requires the collective efforts and commitments of all team members who then hold each other accountable for results. Vision, alignment and execution – each phase of leading change requires a different set of competencies, so leaders can effectively achieve mission results. This workshop will explore the competencies that enable managers, organizational leaders, team leads, and project managers to successfully engage others through the process of change. Learning Objectives: • Discover the skills that are necessary to collaboratively build visions. • Learn how to use your strengths and when you need to adapt. • Learn when your greatest strengths can hinder alignment and execution. • Gain insight into how to help others move from vision to execution. • Create teams where team members hold each other accountable for results.	Mulle
Making a Mark That's Hard to Erase: Becoming a Person of Influence	"What . . . me a leader?" "No way, I'm not in management!" Management or not, you are still a leader. You are a leader because you are being watched. People watch your mood and morale and they look to you for direction all the time, possibly without you ever realizing that they're doing it. Leadership is relationship, and whether you realize it or not, you have powerful impact and influence on others simply by being in positive relationships with them. That makes you a leader - to your co-workers, your customers, your family, and your friends. What kind of leader do you want to be? In this session, you will learn the four secrets that leaders know and do by heart. You will discover the difference between personal power and positional power - some leaders have positional power, but not all leaders have personal power. No matter where you are on the org chart, you can exercise your leadership and learn how to make a lasting mark on your fellow colleagues.	Mulle

	Learning Objectives: • Explore motivation and influence and how to inspire people to action. • Discover the energy of your mood and your unconscious impact on others. • Learn how vision ties to leadership. • Discover the importance of managing your messages. • Learn coaching skills to help others reach their full potential.
Innovate or Stagnate: The Cutting Edge of Change	In today's complex and competitive world, no organization can afford to stand still. Continuous improvement and constant innovation are required to achieve success. Innovate or Stagnate examines how creativity can be enhanced and focused toward innovation. The program helps participants understand creativity, and how they can use it to create innovative solutions to problems faced by the organization. They will learn how to ride the waves of change, rather than be overwhelmed by them. The objective of this program is to empower participants to see change as an opportunity for innovation rather than a threat to be avoided. Learning Objectives: • Discover why individuals and organizations resist change. • Anticipate the benefits of change. • Create your and organizational vision for success. • Use the disciplines of design thinking to move from creative ideation to innovative solutions. • Develop a creative and agile mindset to better identify and solve problems. • Learn how to deal with change in a positive and proactive manner.	Mulle
Calm in the Storm: De-escalation Strategies for Managing Difficult or Dangerous Customers	"Today's public-facing work environment presents unique challenges, including handling tense interactions with difficult or potentially dangerous customers. This interactive 2-hour training equips staff with practical tools and techniques to de-escalate conflicts safely and effectively. Participants will learn to recognize escalating behaviors, maintain composure under pressure, and apply proven communication strategies to diffuse situations while prioritizing personal safety and maintaining a respectful customer experience. Through real-world scenarios and hands-on practice, this session empowers staff to respond confidently and calmly to challenging encounters. Learning Objectives: • Recognize Warning Signs: Identify early indicators of customer frustration, aggression, or dangerous behaviors. • Stay Calm Under Pressure: Utilize self-regulation techniques to maintain composure and prevent escalation. • Communicate Effectively: Apply de-escalation communication strategies, such as active listening, empathetic responses, and neutral language. • Set Boundaries Respectfully: Establish clear and respectful boundaries while managing customer expectations.	Thiemann

	• Ensure Safety: Understand protocols and techniques to prioritize personal and team safety during high-risk situations. • Reflect and Recover: Practice strategies for emotional recovery and resilience following a challenging interaction."
Influence without Authority	Jack Welch described the effectiveness of our ideas and solutions with a now famous formula: $Q \times A = E$, where Q = the quality of our solutions, A = acceptance, and E = effectiveness. Since we all know the quality of our solutions is high, the key question becomes: how effective are we at leading others into acceptance and buy-in of our solutions? None of us want to discover that $10 \times 0 = 0$. This training is all about how we can use our leadership skills to influence buy-in, increase acceptance, and lead others into collaborative partnerships. This session is designed to teach the true lessons of leadership. Participants will explore best practices and effective communication skills that will enable them to influence collaboration and negotiate mutually beneficial outcomes. They will learn how to influence and negotiate agreements without depending on the right to tell people what to do. Learning Objectives: • Explore and discuss the factors that create influence. • Learn influencing strategies and principles. • Recognize how to increase our influence. • Discover tools and strategies that increase collaboration, commitment and buy-in.	Mulle
Coaching and Mentoring for Success: Empowering Growth in the Workplace	Effective coaching and mentoring are powerful tools for fostering growth, improving performance, and building stronger teams. This workshop helps participants develop the essential skills needed to coach and mentor others in the workplace. Through practical techniques and real-world examples, participants will learn how to guide, inspire, and support their colleagues, driving personal and professional development. Whether you're leading a team or mentoring a peer, this workshop will equip you with the skills to empower others and create a positive, growth-oriented work culture. Learning Objectives: 1. Understand the key principles and differences between coaching and mentoring in the workplace. 2. Learn how to establish trust and rapport to create an open, supportive environment for growth. 3. Develop active listening and questioning techniques to guide others in problem-solving and self-reflection. 4. Explore strategies for giving constructive feedback and setting actionable goals. 5. Apply coaching and mentoring skills to foster continuous development and performance improvement in individuals and teams.	Thiemann
Critical Thinking at Work: Enhancing Decision-Making and Problem-Solving	In today's fast-paced work environment, the ability to think critically is essential for making sound decisions and solving complex problems. This workshop equips participants with the tools and techniques to develop their critical thinking skills, allowing them to evaluate information more effectively, challenge assumptions, and approach challenges with a strategic mindset. Through real-world scenarios	Thiemann and interactive exercises, participants will learn how to apply critical thinking to improve their performance and contribute more effectively to their team and organization. Learning Objectives: • Understand the fundamentals of critical thinking and its importance in the workplace. • Learn how to analyze information, evaluate arguments, and make well-informed decisions. • Explore strategies to identify biases and assumptions that may cloud judgment. • Apply critical thinking skills to problem-solving and creative thinking in work scenarios. • Develop a mindset for continuous improvement through reflection and strategic thinking.

Improving Organizational Performance through Coaching	This session engages participants in an exploration of their role as performance coaches. Marilee Adam's book: Change Your Questions, Change Your Life provides the framework for participants to develop a customized set of coaching strategies that they can employ to create a culture of coaching and engagement wherever they work. Learning Objectives: • Create a learning environment in the workplace balancing advocacy with inquiry. • Ask powerful questions to uncover new facts and options. • Explore skills for effective performance coaching. • Discover the importance of both reinforcing and redirecting feedback. • Learn how to seek, receive, and give feedback. • Understand the latest research on workplace engagement and human motivation and discover new approaches for inspiring workplace performance.	Mulle
How to Get People to Do What You Want Them to Do	When we are not getting the results, we want out of others, we often experience a tension between accepting people as they are or trying to change them. Both wisdom and experience teach us that you cannot change others, yet people do change. It has been said that people resist change. However, it is perhaps more accurate to say that people resist being changed. This workshop looks at principles of influence, and the dynamics that create, nurture and facilitate change in people and their behaviors. It explores the choices we all have in creating positive change in both our professional and personal worlds. Learning Objectives: • Understand the difference between your circle of influence and your circle of concern. • Develop the habit of being proactive vs. reactive with people. • Explore strategies for accepting and living with situations that you cannot change. • Understand principles of influence and the dynamics which encourage change. • Learn to facilitate change without manipulation or intimidation.	Mulle

	Discover when changing something in yourself can have a profound effect on changing the system.
Encouraging Employee Engagement	According to the Gallup Q12 survey, only 30% of the American workforce is actively engaged in what they do, 52% are not engaged and an alarming 18% are actively disengaged. They are not just unhappy, they are busy acting out their unhappiness, undermining their more engaged coworkers. We used to believe that the best businesses and organizations and even our schools encourage optimal performance by creating motivational systems using 'carrots and sticks', or 'if-then' rewards - if you do this, then you get that. We now know that these models of motivation are no longer effective. Forty years of research reveals the surprising truth that traditional notions of motivation in the workplace do not work very well, and that there is a better way to engage people and get them to perform at a higher level. This seminar is all about the new science of workplace engagement, and how we can tap into the discretionary emotional energy of employees to create engaging, positive and motivated environments. Learning Objectives: - Define employee engagement. - Discuss the benefits of employee engagement. - Learn how experts look at engagement. - Discern the basic human needs that drive engagement. - Delineate six different levels of self-motivation. - Self-assess current levels and desired levels of self-motivation. - Discover how to shift yourself to an optimal motivational outlook. - Learn how to encourage other employees to shift themselves to an optimal motivational outlook.	Mulle
Empower and Engage: Coaching Techniques for Improved Performance	Employees don't need to be managed- they need to be supported. The Human Capital Institute and International Coaching Federation (ICF) reports that organizations with strong coaching cultures are more than twice as likely to be classified as high-performing organizations—61% to 27%. Join Jenn as she shares powerful coaching techniques that will empower and engage your employees. Takeaways: 3 benefits to changing your management meeting to a coaching conversation, which of the 8 ICF-approved coaching competencies are most effective when working in teams, and why coaching is the wave of the future.	Espinosa-Goswami
Understanding Your Communication Style	Effective communication forms the foundation of thriving relationships, and gaining insight into your communication style is pivotal for fostering connections with those around you. It's a skill that requires ongoing refinement to enhance the likelihood of success. Swiftly addressing disagreements and misunderstandings is crucial to prevent them from derailing what could have been a constructive and positive conversation. In this interactive session, you will learn: About your own communication style	Hall

	• How to respond to styles that differ from your own • Skills to improve your communication abilities.
Presentations: Prepare to be Awesome	The way we meet and share information has changed a lot in the last few months. Virtual presentations – whether web meetings, webinars or even “hybrid” meetings – are the norm right now. That’s unlikely to change any time soon. When preparing for a virtual presentation, do you know what to do differently so that you are engaging, and your audience sticks with you from beginning to end? There are some key differences that you need to plan for. This session will address how each of the three presentation “levers” needs to be adjusted to create a successful virtual presentation. We will cover best practices for: • Your content – Clarity and purpose are more important than ever. • Your slides – No death by PowerPoint. • Your delivery – Let your personality shine through, even when you’re virtual. Every takeaway from the session moves you toward two goals: 1. As a speaker you feel you were an effective and authentic communicator 2. The audience believes their time with you was well spent.	Stoen
Authentic Communication: Making Quality Connections with Others	This interactive presentation highlights the barriers to effective communication in the workplace and interpersonal relationships. Focus placed on illustrating ways to improve our connection with others while also providing tips to navigate conflict and difficult conversations.	Enga
Listening: The Heart of Communication	"I know you think you know what I said, but I don't think you really understand what I meant." It has been estimated that 70% of what you say is misinterpreted and misunderstood by other people. We often approach listening in a passive mode, like a spectator sport, just waiting for the other person to quit talking so we can say what we want to say. In fact, much of our interpersonal conflict with others can be traced to the fact that we tend to work harder at speaking than we do at listening. The art of great communication begins not with great speaking but with great listening. Listening is a skill that can reduce communication misfires and increase interpersonal effectiveness. Listening is also the heart of great communication. Truly caring people preserve meaning in conversation by seeking first to understand. To truly listen is to truly understand. Learning Objectives: • Explore the role of listening as it relates to team and interpersonal communications. • Identify personal filters that block true understanding. • Apply the skill of empathy to conversations, to actively listen to others. • Learn how to speak so that others can hear you. • Reduce interpersonal conflict and create more cohesive team relationships.	Mulle

Communication Through Storytelling	This session explores storytelling, and the use of stories to make your presentations more memorable, meaningful, and persuasive for your audience. What are stories, why are they so powerful, and how can you sprinkle some of that storytelling magic into your discussions and presentations? Learning Objectives: • Recognize the importance of power of storytelling for communication. • Discover why stories make presentations more memorable, meaningful, and persuasive. • Learn several different structures for telling stories. • Learn how to be more persuasive and how to meet audience needs through storytelling.	Mulle
Emotional Intelligence: The New Science of Success *Could also be leadership or TEAM training	Emotional intelligence or EI refers to the ability to use your emotions intelligently, to gain the performance you wish to see within yourself, and to achieve interpersonal effectiveness with others. It has to do with how well we handle people, how we deal with setbacks and failures, how well we achieve our life goals, how we motivate ourselves, and how well we manage our emotions. It is the ability to understand what our emotions are telling us and then to choose appropriate action. In this presentation, participants will learn about the emotional competencies of self-awareness, self-management, social awareness that lead to interpersonal effectiveness in all business relationships. Learning Objectives: • Define Emotional Intelligence. • Learn about the anatomy of an emotion and how emotions and thoughts work together to influence our actions. • Understand the link between Emotional Intelligence and our success in life. • Learn both cognitive and behavioral strategies for managing emotions intelligently. • Explore social awareness and relationship effectiveness. • Understand discretionary emotional energy and how to increase engagement.	Mulle
Emotional Intelligence: The New Science of Leadership	An old Afghan Proverb reads: "If you think you are leading, and no one is following, then you are taking a walk." Leadership is influence, and influence primarily flows from the quality of our interpersonal interactions, not from our position. Breakthroughs in Emotional Intelligence research show us why our moods and actions have enormous impact on those we seek to influence. In fact, Emotionally Intelligent leadership allows us to inspire, arouse passion and enthusiasm, and keep people motivated and committed. Every member of an organization has the potential to be a great leader, not because of positional power, but because of the interpersonal effectiveness that comes from developing emotional competence. Learning Objectives: • Explore the 4-domain model of Emotional Intelligence.	Mulle

	• Understand how Emotional Intelligence relates to leadership effectiveness. • Distinguish between dissonant and resonant leadership. • Learn the four styles of leadership that create resonance in relationships. • Learn the emotional competencies that support these four different leadership styles. • Develop self-awareness of how emotions impact behavior, performance, and interpersonal effectiveness. • Learn how to manage disruptive emotions that threaten leadership success. • Discover why empathy is the foundational skill of all influence. • Learn how to create a motivating emotional climate.
EQ (Emotional Intelligence): The Foundation for Getting Along with Anyone, Anywhere, Anytime!	Studies have repeatedly found that EQ (Emotional Intelligence) is a better predictor for success in life than IQ. Contrary to IQ, EQ is able to grow and develop by learning from experiences and from focused attention on the 15 specific skills that are measured in determining one's EQ. This workshop outlines the 15 scales used to assess Emotional Intelligence (e.g., Flexibility, Self-Regard, Problem Solving) and gives specific actions that can enhance each area. Links to how to take the Bar-On EQ-i 2.0 (Emotional Intelligence Assessment Inventory) are given. Learning Objectives: • Participants will understand what EQ is - and what it is not. • Will learn the principles to growing their own EQ. • Will learn how to use EQ skills in their daily interactions.	Alch *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
Change Agility & Future-Ready Mindsets	Disruption is constant—but it doesn't have to derail you. This session empowers individuals and teams to anticipate change, adapt quickly, and stay resilient through uncertainty. Participants learn how to embrace a growth mindset, lead with stability, and transform challenges into opportunities for innovation.	Hall
The Hero's Journey: Illuminating the Pathway Through Change	The Hero's Journey: Illuminating the Pathway Through Change The only thing we can really count on in the world today is that things aren't going to stay the same for very long. Change occurs often and rapidly. How do we continuously adapt to these changing times? What is the process for transitioning from the way things were to a future state? Do you struggle with these changing times? Has change left you feeling stuck between worlds? This insightful session uses a model for understanding change that is based on Joseph Campbell's great meta-analysis of hero mythologies: A Hero with a Thousand Faces. The hero's journey is a journey into uncharted territory, and it serves as a metaphor for helping us to deal with change and transition in the workplace. Through this model we will illuminate the murky pathway through change and provide participants with the understanding and tools needed to navigate uncharted territories with courage and resilience. Learning Objectives:	Mulle

	• Delineate the difference between change and transition. • Gain insight into the process of transition. • Explore the hero's journey model, as a metaphor to guide us through the transition process. • Learn tools for successfully navigating the transitional journey.
Are We Having Fun Yet? Attitude and Peak Performance	Your ability to enjoy life and have fun both at work and home is directly tied to your ability to maintain a powerful, positive, energized attitude. Studies have shown that people with a positive attitude, get sick less often, have better relationships, and are more successful in their careers. Attitude is also contagious and helps create an energized work environment. We would all like to have a positive attitude! Unfortunately, it's a jungle out there! Maintaining a positive attitude can sometimes be a real challenge. This session explores the skills of "Attitude Mechanics" - how to build and hang on to a positive, powerful attitude and more fully enjoy life, personally and professionally. Learning Objectives: • Discover how attitude is an important component of effective performance. • Learn to manage your mood even in difficult times. • Learn to increase your 'fun-factor' on the job. • Discover how to handle disappointment. • Learn strategies to stay positive even when things don't go your way. • Practice the competency of self-motivation.	Mulle
Conflict: Obstacle or Opportunity	Conflict has been described as a dangerous opportunity. When people resolve conflicts quickly and respectfully with a positive attitude, they become better working partners and increase their productivity. On the flip side, unresolved conflict impedes progress, creates unproductive tension and wastes large amounts of emotional energy. Conflict can drive creative process, improve collaborative partnerships, and delivers better results. But it can also threaten professional reputations, destroy trust, and hinder alignment and execution. We all have a stake in resolving conflicts in ways that preserve both the quality of our work, and the strength of our working relationships. The key to effectively resolving conflict is to understand the choices we make around conflict. Too often we invent strategies that allow us to ignore, avoid, stuff or squelch conflict. This webinar is designed to engage participants in an exploration of the tools and strategies that enable us to overcome the obstacles and focus on the opportunities of conflict. Learning Objectives: • Respect constructive conflict as a necessary component of effective teamwork. • Understand one's own strategy in resolving conflict.	Mulle

	• Understand the dynamic that this strategy creates when working with other people. • Develop a conflict resolution attitude. • Manage emotions and defensiveness when resolving conflict. • Learn strategies for managing difficult conversations. • Manage workplace disagreements by balancing advocacy with inquiry.
Why Can't You Be More Normal? Like Me! Communication Techniques for Leveraging Personality Differences	Differences of personality or operational style can be a primary source of conflict in the workplace. Such energy robbing conflict arises when we fail to understand that we are all different in the way we do things. The ability to recognize and work within these style differences maximizes the benefits of diversity and infuses work teams with productive synergy. This session uses a simple personality tool (DiSC, MBTI, or some other 4-Quadrant model) to explore work style differences. The goal is to create an understanding of different types and to provide strategies for speaking one another's personality language. Learning Objectives: • Discover your own style and personality language. • Explore how your style is reflected in your personal and professional relationships. • Develop communication strategies for successful interactions with those who operate from another style. • Increase your interpersonal effectiveness both at home and in the workplace.	Mulle
Let's All Get Along! Professional Boundaries in the Workplace	Boundaries are a funny thing - they are rarely noticed or spoken about - UNTIL they are broken. In this workshop, tips and tools for creating and maintaining healthy professional boundaries are outlined, including: Knowing when to speak up and set boundaries (and doing so with confidence); Using Meta-communication to set expectations and intentions in positive ways; Maintaining respectful relationships with your colleagues. Learning Objectives: • Participants will learn Meta-communication and how to use it when addressing boundary issues. • Will understand the role professional boundaries play in their work (and personal) relationships. • How to listen to their internal "voice" to know when to address boundary concerns.	Alch *All sessions ADDITIONAL $150
Surviving the Human Workplace	Tough personalities, chronic complainers, or dramatic coworkers can make the workday stressful and exhausting. But you don't have to take it personally—or silently suffer. This empowering workshop helps employees recognize common patterns of negative workplace behavior and equips you with tools to respond calmly, protect your energy, and stay focused on what matters. You'll explore practical strategies for handling conflict, setting respectful boundaries, and speaking up when needed—without escalating the situation or sacrificing your professionalism.	Theimann

	Learning Objectives By the end of this session, participants will be able to: • Recognize five common patterns of difficult behavior in the workplace (e.g., the slacker, the bully, the martyr) and their impact on team dynamics. • Reflect on how their own responses may unintentionally contribute to or help shift negative patterns. • Apply a 5-step framework to navigate challenging interactions with professionalism and clarity. • Respond constructively to emotional or defensive reactions without escalating conflict. • Model respectful communication and support a culture that discourages toxic behavior and promotes psychological safety.
Work from Home Survival Guide	The great work from home experiment that started in March of 2020 was a major disruption to the way many of us had worked and lived. Some of us may be working at home in close quarters with our families, others may be feeling isolated, needless to say, we are all having a very human experience. This interactive session will share simple best practices on staying healthy, happy, and engaged when working from home. We will be talking about creating a routine that supports your personal and work life, setting boundaries and living through change.	Thiemann
Staying Visible and Connected in a Dispersed Workplace	With e-mail, instant messaging, and video conferencing, colleagues are almost as connected as if they were in the office, right? Not quite. When the workplace is dispersed, barriers of time and distance can put employee's visibility at risk. It can be challenging to stay connected to leaders, colleagues and clients who are not collocated. This interactive workshop is filled with solid tips, real-life examples and practical advice to help people stay connected in a remote workplace and learn to leverage online tools and technology to cultivate powerful relationships and expand their network. Content will be customized to reflect your capabilities and technology.	Thiemann
Digital & Hybrid Work Fluency	Thriving in today's hybrid world requires more than mastering technology—it's about connection, communication, and adaptability. This presentation equips professionals with practical strategies for effective virtual collaboration, maintaining presence across platforms, and managing time zones with clarity and confidence.	Hall
Building Effective Teams in a Flexible/Mobile Workplace	In today's flexible and mobile work environment, managers of hybrid and remote teams face unique challenges that require specific skills and strategies for effective leadership. This workshop aims to equip managers with the essential remote leadership skills needed to thrive, focusing on key areas such as technology as an enabler, communication, collaboration, recognition, and team accountability. Through engaging, fast-paced, and application-based activities, participants will learn updated approaches to motivate and engage remote teams, ensuring alignment with how employees work today. Learning Objectives: • Identify the unique challenges and opportunities of managing hybrid and remote teams in a flexible workplace.	Thiemann

	• Utilize technology as an enabler to enhance communication, collaboration, and productivity among team members. • Develop effective communication strategies that promote engagement and clarity in a remote work setting. • Implement recognition techniques that foster a positive team culture and boost morale in a flexible workplace. • Establish accountability measures that encourage collaboration and responsibility within remote teams, ensuring alignment with organizational goals.
Global Virtual Teams: Essential Skills for Effective Virtual Teaming	In global organizations the skills required to lead, manage and participate in virtual teams has become increasingly important. Participants will learn the “soft-skills” required when working with virtual teams and how to select and leverage the information and communication technologies available in their workplace. Participants will also be encouraged to share their experiences of virtual teaming and to creatively seek ways to apply their learning on their return to work. Learning Objectives: • Recognize how culture influences their perception and the perception of their teammates. • Determine which technology will best accomplish the desired task. • Facilitate and manage effective team meetings. • Learn how to eliminate multitasking and keep team members engaged in virtual team meetings. • Build team communication and trust.	Mulle
Communicating Effectively in Any Situation	Effective communication is a multifaceted skill that goes beyond simply conveying information; it involves ensuring that messages are understood and received as intended by the audience. This workshop focuses on aligning communication strategies with the audience's wavelength and frame of reference, enhancing both written and spoken styles for maximum impact. Participants will engage in practical exercises and examples to explore the nuances of non-verbal communication, including gestures, expressions, body language, and spatial dynamics. By mastering this holistic approach to communication, attendees will learn how to bridge gaps, foster understanding, and create meaningful connections that improve overall communication effectiveness. Learning Objectives: • Enhance understanding of audience dynamics and adapt communication styles to align with their perspectives for more effective messaging. • Explore the elements of non-verbal communication, including body language, gestures, and paralanguage, and their impact on message reception. • Practice techniques for effective written and spoken communication, utilizing real-world examples to improve clarity and engagement. • Develop strategies to identify and bridge communication gaps, fostering understanding and connection with diverse audiences.	Thiemann

	• Cultivate skills for creating meaningful connections through empathetic communication, ultimately enhancing overall communication effectiveness in various situations.
Career Performance (Three Part Series)	We often spend more time with those we work with than with our families or friends. Combined with our polarized world, it can seem increasingly difficult to sidestep stress, be effective during conflict, and communicate positively at work. During this three-part introductory series, you will learn the basics of conflict management, communication techniques, and stress management. This series will provide you the opportunity to improve your skills, increase self-awareness, and learn how to create a healthier work environment. Session 1: Conflict Management What is conflict management and why is it difficult. Debate vs. dialogue. Communication essentials. “HALT” method. Session 2: Communication Communication styles and modes. Effective communication skills. Self-assessment. Responding to different communication styles. Session 3: Stress Management Understand how stress impacts the body and mind. Identify stressors and tools to manage. Self-assessment. Best practices in stress responses.	Hall
Conflict Management 101 in a Hybrid Workplace	Managing conflict in a hybrid workplace can be more complicated than in a traditional workplace. Since the pandemic, more people are working either a hybrid schedule or exclusively from home. This change has impacted how people and teams work, how they disagree, and they resolve those disagreements. This interactive workshop will take you through a conflict management self-assessment and provide you with tips and tools, including understanding conflict, debate vs. dialogue, and communication essentials.	Hall
Be a Leader at Any Level	This workshop is designed for individuals at all stages of their careers who aspire to enhance their leadership skills, regardless of their official title or position within an organization. Leadership is not limited to those in management roles; it can be demonstrated by anyone through influence, initiative, and collaboration. Participants will explore key leadership qualities, effective communication strategies, and ways to inspire and motivate others. By developing a leadership mindset, attendees will gain the confidence to lead from wherever they are, fostering a positive impact on their teams and organizations. Learning Objectives: • Understand the core qualities and characteristics that define effective leadership at any level. • Identify personal strengths and areas for growth in your leadership style and approach.	Thiemann

	• Learn practical strategies for influencing and inspiring others, regardless of your formal role. • Develop effective communication skills that enhance collaboration and promote a positive team environment. • Create an action plan to apply leadership principles in your daily interactions, empowering you to lead with confidence and purpose.
Bridging the Gap: Enhancing Communication and Workstyle Harmony	In today's diverse and dynamic workplace, understanding and appreciating communication and workstyle differences are essential for fostering collaboration and productivity. This workshop is designed to help participants identify and navigate these differences, improve interpersonal interactions, and build a more cohesive team. Participants will explore various communication styles and workstyle preferences, develop practical skills for effective communication, and learn conflict resolution techniques. By enhancing empathy and respect, this workshop aims to create a harmonious work environment that promotes teamwork and cooperation. Learning Objectives: • Identify and understand different communication styles and workstyle preferences, including their impacts on workplace interactions. • Adapt personal communication approaches to effectively engage with various styles and preferences of team members. • Implement practical strategies for resolving conflicts constructively and enhancing teamwork dynamics. • Develop skills for clear and respectful communication, including active listening, giving constructive feedback, and interpreting non-verbal cues. • Foster an inclusive and cooperative workplace culture by cultivating empathy, respect, and cultural competence among team members. Delivery: Can provide content as a 1 hour overview of more in-depth as a part 1, 2 and 3. Can be adapted for employees, managers as well as senior leaders.	Thiemann
Manager's Guide to Neurodiversity in the Workplace	This workshop provides a comprehensive introduction to neurodiversity, highlighting the unique strengths and perspectives that neurodivergent individuals bring to the workplace. Participants will gain foundational knowledge of common neurodivergent conditions, such as autism, ADHD, and dyslexia. The session will also explore the benefits of neurodiverse teams and identify common challenges faced by neurodiverse individuals in the workplace. Through effective communication techniques and inclusive management practices, attendees will learn to create an environment that values and respects neurodiversity. By the end of the workshop, participants will be equipped with the tools to foster an inclusive culture that supports all employees. Learning Objectives: • Understand the concept of neurodiversity and the various neurodivergent conditions, including their characteristics and challenges.	Thiemann

	• Appreciate the unique contributions and strengths of neurodiverse employees and how they can drive innovation and success in the workplace. • Identify common barriers faced by neurodiverse individuals and implement strategies to minimize these challenges effectively. • Develop communication skills tailored to the needs of neurodiverse team members to ensure clarity and mutual understanding. • Promote an inclusive workplace culture by adopting inclusive management practices and advocating for policies that respect and value neurodiversity.
Positive Communication in a Polarizing World	In today's divided world, positive communication is a powerful tool for bridging gaps, building understanding, and fostering meaningful relationships. This session will explore practical strategies for navigating challenging conversations, overcoming biases, and creating an environment of respect, even when opinions differ. Attendees will learn techniques to communicate with empathy, listen actively, and respond constructively, promoting unity and understanding in both personal and professional settings.	Hall

DIVERSITY & INCLUSION FEATURED SESSIONS

Building an Inclusive, Culturally Competent Culture

Karl Mulle graduated from Cornell University and holds professional degrees in Divinity and Counseling Psychology from Trinity International University in Chicago. He is a corporate trainer and a popular keynote speaker, as well as a personal achievement coach. Karl has also recently authored the book Emotional Intelligence Training and co-authored the book: Put Emotional Intelligence to Work: Equip Yourself for Success.

Emotional Intelligence: Focus on Diversity Inclusion and Unconscious Bias

For at least the last two decades, organizations across America have implemented programs and strategies designed to create an environment where employees recognize and value one another's unique differences and are therefore better able to work with each other as well as serve the diverse communities where our clients live. Our ability to provide positive connections and to remain inoffensive is often dependent on appreciating and respecting these differences. Unfortunately, sometimes our differences are subtle and our reactions to those differences are both unconscious and biased, interfering with even the best-intentioned leadership. The result is the creation of an environment where certain individuals or groups can be treated as unwelcome, invisible, or incapable of performing well.

The good news is that there are tools and competencies that can enable us to minimize and even eliminate bias. In this program we will explore how developing our emotional intelligence can enable us to value and respect the differences that represent the strengths, experiences, and unique skills of each and every individual. We will learn how to value difference and build relationships with people who are different in order to create and sustain a truly inclusive workplace in which every member of the team contributes to the best of his or her ability.

Participants will learn the skill of people agility, or how to approach people with an attitude of openness, curiosity, appreciation and respect. They will also learn proactive tools for building diverse networks, improving cross cultural communication, adapting to cultural value systems when necessary, and leveraging diversity through action learning.

Learning Objectives

- Learn about the anatomy of an emotion and how emotions and thoughts work together to influence behaviors.
- Learn the difference between automatic bias decisions and intentional, conscious decisions.
- Discover when our automatic processes get in the way of creating a culture of inclusion.
- Recognize stereotyping, bias, and how our brain tends to quickly jump to conclusions.
- Explore the emotional competency of social awareness and how it can help us to value uniqueness.
- Practice agile thinking, and how to consciously, intentionally overcome bias.
- Discuss the difference between inclusion and assimilation.
- Learn how to manage the difference between assimilation and inclusion with both resilience and adapting.
- Discuss how to create an inclusive culture.
- Evaluate your social network and take steps to build a more diverse network if necessary.
- Practice Action Learning as a tool that leverages diversity for better problem solving.
- Discover why leveraging diversity and moving toward inclusion is the cornerstone of building a great organization.

Understanding Bias and Stereotypes

Rachel Thiemann, with a background in Social Psychology,

Rachel Thiemann has built on her knowledge of interpersonal dynamics in the workplace with an international career of 18 years as an internal and external organizational consultant and trainer. She also has a keen interest in the link between mind and body and has trained and practiced as a hypnotherapist, NLP practitioner and life coach. Rachel has authored the online tool "From Stress to Resilience" for the US Navy, as well as many other classroom and online courses. She has been Vice-President of WFC Resources, a work-life company, since 2003.

Bridging Voices: Communication for Racial Equity

This workshop explores the vital connection between communication and racial equity, emphasizing that effective dialogue is essential for dismantling racial barriers and promoting inclusivity in both organizations and communities. Participants will engage in dynamic discussions and interactive exercises designed to deepen their understanding of the intersectionality of communication and racial equity. By examining unconscious biases, power dynamics, and the importance of inclusive language, attendees will develop the skills necessary to navigate difficult conversations and foster a culture of respect and belonging.

Learning Objectives:

- Understand the intersectionality of communication and racial equity, recognizing how effective communication can contribute to dismantling systemic barriers.
- Unpack unconscious biases and their impact on communication, identifying strategies to mitigate their effects in conversations about race.
- Explore power dynamics and privilege within various communication contexts, enhancing awareness of how these factors influence interactions.
- Develop empathy and active listening skills essential for engaging in meaningful conversations about race and fostering inclusivity.
- Cultivate inclusive language and communication practices, while practicing constructive dialogue techniques to navigate difficult conversations and address microaggressions.

Belonging and Trust: Building an Inclusive Work Culture

In today's diverse workplaces, fostering an inclusive culture is not just a moral obligation but a strategic advantage that can lead to increased creativity, productivity, and employee satisfaction. This workshop provides participants with the tools and knowledge necessary to create a genuinely inclusive environment. Through interactive discussions and activities, you will explore the importance of diversity and inclusion, recognize unconscious biases, and learn how to cultivate cultural competence and empathy. By the end of the session, you will be equipped with strategies to communicate inclusively, empower others, and implement policies that mitigate systemic barriers, fostering a workplace where every voice is heard and valued.

Learning Objectives:

- Understand the importance and benefits of diversity and inclusion in enhancing workplace creativity, productivity, and employee satisfaction.
- Recognize unconscious biases and their impact on decision-making and interpersonal interactions within the organization.
- Build cultural competence and empathy skills to navigate and appreciate differences effectively among team members.

- Develop actionable strategies for inclusive communication and collaboration that foster trust and belonging.
- Create a framework for implementing inclusive policies and practices that mitigate systemic barriers and empower bystanders to intervene in instances of discrimination or exclusion.

Supporting Neurodiversity in the Workplace

Neurodiversity refers to the range of differences in brain function and behavioral traits among individuals, including those with conditions such as autism, ADHD, dyslexia, and other neurological variations. In this enlightening workshop, we'll explore how embracing neurodiversity can lead to greater innovation, creativity, and inclusion in the workplace.

Participants will gain a deeper understanding of neurodiversity and its impact on the workplace environment. We'll examine common myths and misconceptions surrounding neurodiversity and explore practical strategies for creating a more inclusive and supportive workplace culture.

By the end of the workshop, participants will:

- Understand the concept of neurodiversity and its relevance in the workplace.
- Recognize the value of neurodiverse perspectives in fostering innovation and creativity.
- Identify common challenges faced by neurodiverse employees in the workplace.
- Learn practical strategies for creating a more inclusive and supportive work environment for neurodiverse individuals.

Dr. Gregory Alch has been in practice for more than 25 years, helping people better manage their professional and personal relationships. He can communicate complex ideas without arousing defensiveness and people find it easy to talk to him. By engaging employees at all levels of an organization, Dr. Alch has a keen ability to bring clarity to complex situations and identify the action steps necessary to achieve identified goals. Dr. Alch is able to engage employees at all levels of an organization, through his straightforward, straight-talking approach. As such, he has routinely earned the trust of those he works with. Leaders and employees alike view Dr. Alch as an unbiased, reliable source for resolving issues. All sessions ADDITIONAL $150

Understanding Invisible Disabilities

Most people think of disabilities as something observable. However, there are a great many “invisible” disabilities that affect a significant portion of our population: Mental Health issues the most common, but there are many more. This workshop defines what invisible disabilities are, challenges our assumptions about them (and the people it affects), explores the areas of depression, anxiety and suicide, and what you can do to help.

Participants learn:

- What invisible disabilities are
- Understanding depression, anxiety, suicide, and other chronic conditions and their accompanying symptoms
- Understanding the importance of empathy, validation, and being non-judgmental

Diversity & Inclusion

Emotional Intelligence: Focus on Diversity Inclusion and Unconscious Bias	For at least the last two decades, organizations across America have implemented programs and strategies designed to create an environment where employees recognize and value one another's unique differences and are therefore better able to work with each other as well as serve the diverse communities where our clients live. Our ability to provide positive connections and to remain inoffensive is often dependent on appreciating and respecting these differences. Unfortunately, sometimes our differences are subtle and our reactions to those differences are both unconscious and biased, interfering with even the best-intentioned leadership. The result is the creation of an environment where certain individuals or groups can be treated as unwelcome, invisible, or incapable of performing well. The good news is that there are tools and competencies that can enable us to minimize and even eliminate bias. In this program we will explore how developing our emotional intelligence can enable us to value and respect the differences that represent the strengths, experiences, and unique skills of each and every individual. We will learn how to value difference and build relationships with people who are different in order to create and sustain a truly inclusive workplace in which every member of the team contributes to the best of his or her ability. Participants will learn the skill of people agility, or how to approach people with an attitude of openness, curiosity, appreciation and respect. They will also learn proactive tools for building diverse networks, improving cross cultural communication, adapting to cultural value systems when necessary, and leveraging diversity through action learning. Learning Objectives: • Learn about the anatomy of an emotion and how emotions and thoughts work together to influence behaviors. • Learn the difference between automatic bias decisions and intentional, conscious decisions. • Discover when our automatic processes get in the way of creating a culture of inclusion. • Recognize stereotyping, bias, and how our brain tends to quickly jump to conclusions. • Explore the emotional competency of social awareness and how it can help us to value uniqueness.	Mulle
---	--	---------------------

	• Practice agile thinking, and how to overcome bias consciously, intentionally. • Discuss the difference between inclusion and assimilation. • Learn how to manage the difference between assimilation and inclusion with both resilience and adapting . • Discuss how to create an inclusive culture. • Evaluate your social network and take steps to build a more diverse network if necessary. • Practice Action Learning as a tool that leverages diversity for better problem solving. • Discover why leveraging diversity and moving toward inclusion is the cornerstone of building a great organization.
Bear, Eagle, Buffalo, Mouse: Living in a World of Difference	Are you a Bear surrounded by a herd of Buffalo? Does your Eagle want to soar but is weighted down by day-to-day details? What direction does the Mouse in you say you should take? Mouse, Eagle, Buffalo, Bear - each represents a “way of being” in the world, a style of operation and interaction. It's no big secret that everyone is different in the way they do things. The secret lies in knowing how to deal with these differences effectively - how to work together without the clashes that are sometimes caused by differing perspectives and approaches. This session introduces a model for understanding people and the diversity of operational style that exists within all groups. Loosely based upon an ancient Native American tradition, the Medicine Wheel model provides insight into self and others, exploring differences that exist between people. This important understanding helps us to maximize our strengths, manage our deficits and interact with others in a more effective, complimentary way. Learning Objectives: • Gain valuable insight both into yourself and your colleagues. • Identify ways to enhance communication and reduce conflict due to clashing styles. • Discover what motivates people of differing styles. • Learn how to work with different styles in a complimentary way.	Mulle
Bambi vs. Godzilla: Dealing with Different, Diverse and Sometimes Difficult People	We all know that diversity can be a tremendous source of collective creativity and insight, but research also shows that our diversity also has the potential to disrupt group functioning. These two divergent realities pose a paradox that has held the attention of researchers and organizational leaders for many years. Indeed, every organization has its share of people, who because of their interpersonal style can be challenging to deal with. They may be customers, they may be co-workers - but in either case, dealing with them in a way that leads to success is a critical skill. In this session, we will answer the question: how can we leverage diversity in ways that lead to positive outcomes and more effective group performance? Participants will discover that most people are more different than they are difficult. They will learn how to value difference and build relationships with	Mulle people who are different. Participants will explore six difficult styles and understand both the "why" of these styles, and the "how" of increasing one's ability to create a positive dynamic. Learning Objectives: • Understand the origins of negative, disruptive behavior. • Learn how to not react to reactive people. • Explore four different personalities, workstyle differences, and six difficult personas within these personality types. • Discuss and apply strategies for dealing with truly difficult styles. • Increase your options for dealing with the difficult people in your life. • Practice formatting conversations to effectively manage conflicts. • Learn how to make sure you are not the difficult person.

Talkin' About Your Generation	This highly informative workshop offers practical generational intelligence to manage the distinctive perspectives, motivations and expectations of each generation employed in your organization. This is the first time in American history that five generations are represented in large numbers in the workforce at the same time. They are required to work together closely and in non-traditional reporting structures. This can lead to misunderstanding and tension. Creating an environment where all four generations, including Boomers, Generation X, Millennials and Gen Z can work collaboratively and respectfully is essential to organizational sustainability and growth.	Mulle
The Power of Perception: The Impact of Perception on Performance	The philosopher states that perception is reality. That is, what we know and understand to be true is not necessarily reality itself, it is reality as it is filtered through our method of looking at it. Perception thus becomes our truth and begins to impact all our experience. This class explores how perceptions impact relationships and performance. A student teacher, not knowing the typical behaviors and performance of her class full of troublemakers, has a perception that they are gifted and brilliant. Amazingly, as she acts upon her perception, there is a turn-around in the students' performance. True stories like this are explored to demonstrate how the assumptions we make about people influence relationship dynamics as well as performance. Learning Objectives: • Learn how we unconsciously label people and trap them in our point of view. • Learn how to avoid making common perceptual errors. • Learn how to challenge your biases and improve your social intelligence. • Learn how to improve your relationships by making powerful, positive assumptions about people.	Mulle
Leave-It-To-Beaver Meets Instagram: Bridging the Generation Gap	The "forty-something" reached out and shook the hand of the "twenty-something". They had just been assigned to partner on a key project in their department. Each felt uneasy, wondering how best to connect with the other. Success would mean finding a way to bridge the gap - the gap of years, the gap of generations. Organizations typically are communities that include people from	Mulle across the generations. Some spent their youth watching black and white TV, while others were weaned on video games. To create a community capable of bridging the generation gap, we must learn to appreciate and understand the influences of our different generations. What were the historical events and social trends that shaped the silent generation, the baby boomers, Gen X or Gen Y? What experiences, skills and values do each generation bring to the whole? How do I reach out and connect with someone who grew up in a different world than I did? Learning Objectives: • Explore the different generations spanning your workplace culture and learn what makes each generation tick. • Gain tools and techniques for bridging the generation gap and connecting with those from different generations. • Challenge yourself to respect and appreciate generational differences. • Expand your ability to gain new perspectives and to learn from what each generation has to offer.

Invisible Differences in the Workplace	For at least the last two decades, organizations across America have implemented programs and strategies designed to create an environment where employees recognize and value one another's unique differences and are therefore better able to work with each other as well as serve the diverse communities where our clients live. Our ability to provide positive connections and to remain inoffensive is often dependent on appreciating and respecting these differences. Unfortunately, sometimes our differences are subtle and even invisible. In this program we will explore the principles of diversity that enable us to value and respect both the visible and invisible differences that represent the strengths, experiences, and unique skills of each of us contributes to the workplace. Participants will learn the competency of people agility, or how to approach people with an attitude of openness, curiosity, appreciation and respect. Learning Objectives: • Appreciate the importance of leveraging our differences to successfully meet the needs of the people we serve. • Delineate the difference between visible and invisible differences. • Understand the problem of creating a social identity in organizations where certain differences are stigmatized. • Understand the choices you have to manage your individual differences in the workplace. • Delineate the difference between assimilation and inclusion. • Learn how to create an inclusive environment where employees can freely choose how to manage their invisible differences. • Learn how to leverage differences to better serve your customers.	Mulle
Diversity, Inclusion and Unconscious Bias	Have you ever wondered if maybe, you or members of your team have subtle and implicit biases that are distorting how you look at others? Have you ever	Mulle wondered what biases are, how to identify them, and what, if anything, you can do to get rid of them? If you answered yes to any of these questions, you are not alone! The most successful leaders desire to create and sustain a truly inclusive workplace in which every member of the team contributes to the best of his or her ability. Unfortunately, biases –whether conscious or unconscious – interfere with even the best-intentioned leadership. Bias is not uncommon, but the good news is there is a lot we each can do to minimize and, in many cases, even eliminate, bias. Join this interactive workshop to develop practical hands on strategies to manage the conscious and unconscious bias. Learning Objectives: • Discover why leveraging diversity and moving toward inclusion is the cornerstone of building a great organization. • Understand stereotyping, bias, and how our brain tends to quickly jump to conclusions. • Practice agile thinking, and how to consciously, intentionally overcome bias. • Delineate the difference between Inclusion and assimilation. • Discuss how to create an inclusive culture. • Learn how to deal effectively with the difficult issues (e.g., race, gender, sexual orientation, unearned privilege, religion). • Evaluate your social network and take steps to build a more diverse network if necessary. • Learn best practices in accountability for senior managers, line managers, employees, and others.

Dementia Friendly @ Work NEW!	This Dementia Friendly @ Work training will help everyone in your organization understand the basics of dementia. You'll get tips on making your workplace safe, respectful, and welcoming for people living with dementia. Objectives for this Workplace Training: • Build knowledge and awareness about dementia and Alzheimer's. • Learn effective communication techniques • Get ideas for maintaining the dignity and respect of your customers	West *All sessions ADDITIONAL $100
Belonging and Trust: Building an Inclusive Work Culture	In today's diverse workplaces, fostering an inclusive culture is not just a moral obligation but a strategic advantage that can lead to increased creativity, productivity, and employee satisfaction. This workshop provides participants with the tools and knowledge necessary to create a genuinely inclusive environment. Through interactive discussions and activities, you will explore the importance of diversity and inclusion, recognize unconscious biases, and learn how to cultivate cultural competence and empathy. By the end of the session, you will be equipped with strategies to communicate inclusively, empower others, and implement policies that mitigate systemic barriers, fostering a workplace where every voice is heard and valued. Learning Objectives: • Understand the importance and benefits of diversity and inclusion in enhancing workplace creativity, productivity, and employee satisfaction.	Thiemann

	• Recognize unconscious biases and their impact on decision-making and interpersonal interactions within the organization. • Build cultural competence and empathy skills to navigate and appreciate differences effectively among team members. • Develop actionable strategies for inclusive communication and collaboration that foster trust and belonging. • Create a framework for implementing inclusive policies and practices that mitigate systemic barriers and empower bystanders to intervene in instances of discrimination or exclusion.
Bridging Voices: Communication for Racial Equity	This workshop explores the vital connection between communication and racial equity, emphasizing that effective dialogue is essential for dismantling racial barriers and promoting inclusivity in both organizations and communities. Participants will engage in dynamic discussions and interactive exercises designed to deepen their understanding of the intersectionality of communication and racial equity. By examining unconscious biases, power dynamics, and the importance of inclusive language, attendees will develop the skills necessary to navigate difficult conversations and foster a culture of respect and belonging. Learning Objectives: • Understand the intersectionality of communication and racial equity, recognizing how effective communication can contribute to dismantling systemic barriers. • Unpack unconscious biases and their impact on communication, identifying strategies to mitigate their effects in conversations about race. • Explore power dynamics and privilege within various communication contexts, enhancing awareness of how these factors influence interactions. Develop empathy and active listening skills essential for engaging in meaningful conversations about race and fostering inclusivity. Cultivate inclusive language and communication practices, while practicing constructive dialogue techniques to navigate difficult conversations and address microaggressions.	Thiemann
Working and Living with Someone with Neurodiverse Challenges	Neurodiverse individuals (ADHD, Dyslexia, Autism Spectrum) may not be appropriately diagnosed or may not have the resources and tools to best facilitate their capabilities. How can you help family members or colleagues feel comfortable in sharing challenges, and find evidence-based strategies to help them to thrive? Join us as we explore this critical topic and share concrete strategies for helping to maximize their talents, goals and passions	Rogers

FINANCIAL WELLBEING

FEATURED SESSIONS

Eli Snyder is a credit counselor, bringing his personal passion for budgeting and money management success to his clients. His prior experience as a mortgage broker, combined with his communications degree from University of Northwestern in Saint Paul, has benefited both FamilyMeans and its clients over the years. In Fall 2019, Eli was named National Foundation for Credit Counseling (NFCC) Counselor of the Year. This award honors Eli's passion for financial counseling and education. In his tenure with FamilyMeans, Eli has helped over

1,275 families pay back over $30 million dollars of debt! All sessions ADDITIONAL $100

What's Your Money Personality?

Explore diverse money personalities in this 1-hr workshop designed to unravel the mysteries of your financial behavior. Drawing from Olivia Mellan's research, we'll identify five distinct money personality types, explore their interconnections, and demonstrate how understanding these dynamics fosters personal financial harmony and enriches relationships. Gain valuable budgeting insights and discover ways to enhance your financial management skills. Join us on this journey toward a more informed and harmonious relationship with money.

Managing Your Finances During Economic Challenges

This 1-hr course emphasizes the importance of goal setting, proposes proactive solutions, and encourages the exploration of actionable steps. Dive into the challenges of a record-high inflationary era, and gain insights into managing the highest-ever average credit card APR's. In response to these economic realities, learn to create a robust Financial Survival Plan that equips you with the tools and strategies to navigate and thrive in uncertain financial times.

Marin Laukka, MA, Marin Laukka is a dynamic wellness speaker and budgeting coach with a master's degree in Positive Developmental Psychology, a #1 new release book, and over six years of experience guiding people toward joyful, values-driven success. Known for her accessible and inspiring approach, Marin has created impactful tools like the D.E.C.I.S.I.O.N. Formula and Joyful Budgeting to empower clients to make confident choices with their money, career, and life. Her workshops blend evidence-based techniques with motivational insights, helping participants overcome limiting beliefs, create sustainable budgets, and clarify their vision of success. Clients walk away with reduced stress, greater confidence, and an empowered relationship with money that fuels lasting success and fulfillment.

Use the D.E.C.I.S.I.O.N. Formula to Enjoy Success

Learn Marin Laukka's simple and powerful decision-making model to overcome procrastination and achieve your goals faster. Through her Eight-Step formula, Marin guides participants to redefine success and make confident, lasting choices with clarity and ease.

- Rewrite limiting beliefs to support confident, quick decisions.
- Learn an 8-step formula to reduce decision fatigue and support lasting success.

Your Wallet Knows Your Mindset

Combine money coaching and positive psychology to reveal how mindset shapes wealth, happiness, and fulfillment. Marin Laukka's three-part formula helps participants achieve their financial goals while staying present to enjoy their success.

- Identify and replace the number one belief that negatively impacts financial and personal well-being.
- Discover your "Wealthy Why" to sustain motivation and fulfillment in life and work.

Joyful Budgeting: Build a Budget You'll Actually Love Using

Discover a fresh approach to budgeting with Marin Laukka that's empowering, flexible, and tailored to your goals. Participants will learn how to build a practical, values-based budget that brings clarity, joy, and confidence to your finances.

- Create a budgeting system that aligns with your values and goals.
- Learn strategies to spend confidently, reduce stress, and keep your goals on track with ease.

Daniel J Enga, CPFC, has worked with both public and private organizations for over 25 years. He studied Communications at the University of Colorado - Denver and delivers exceptional counseling and presenting expertise to many organizations throughout the country.

He started out in the financial sector and eventually found himself working in the mental health field. He currently presents on many Work/Life Wellness topics and delivers content in creative ways through storytelling, abstract concepts and challenges audiences to think in new ways. His presentation style has been described as "personable" and "refreshing" as well as "educational entertainment."

Mr. Enga has partnered with HUD, Citibank, and VISA to speak and educate young adults on personal financial education. He was the recipient of the 'Educator of the Year' award through the Institute of Financial Literacy and now brings his passion to the field of Resilience, Stress management, financial education and organizational development. He is a committed professional as he partners with large and small businesses around myriad areas of health and wellness.

Money and Cents: Effective Budgeting

This engaging presentation offers insight on ways to access a better understanding of how to effectively budget our money. Discussion revolves around tips and suggestions for how to have better control of our money, instead of the other way around. By addressing a proactive approach to spending and managing our finances, you will learn helpful tools to use to effectively modify habits and behaviors to restore financial balance in your life.

Psychology of Money: Behaviors in a Modern Consumer Society

Shame, guilt, fear and denial can significantly impact our financial lives. This workshop offers insight to how our minds work in relation to our behaviors around money and the potential outcomes that can come with various attitudes associated with our perceptions. This track is designed to help create a deeper awareness of how connected our feelings/emotions are to our overall financial situation.

Financial Wellbeing
Abundance: Financial Characteristics and Habits of Wealthy People	Learning how to save more and be debt free is always a good thing. This training will share valuable insight on traits and characteristics of individuals who are financially resilient and able to manage their finances in a way that offers a more abundant financial life. During the presentation we will address what it means to be financially reactive versus financially proactive, debt management strategies and resources to explore ways to align our awareness to slowly improve our financial situations.	Enga
Identity Theft: How to Protect Yourself	Identity theft and fraud is the number one crime in the United States. This workshop will detail specific areas that you can employ to protect your identity, how identity theft works, and tips you can use to create a solid overall plan to avoid any potential hardship. Real life case examples are shared and discussed, and resources are made available to attendees on education that is available to learn more.	Enga

Psychology of Money: Understanding our Behaviors in a Modern Consumer Society	Shame, guilt, fear and denial can significantly impact our financial lives. This workshop offers insight to how our minds work in relation to our behaviors around money and the potential outcomes that can come with various attitudes associated with our perceptions. This track is designed to help create a deeper awareness of our connected our feelings/emotions are to our overall financial situation.	Enga
Money Cents: Effective Budgeting	This engaging presentation offers insight on ways to access a better understanding of how to effectively budget our money. Discussion revolves around tips and suggestions for how to have better control of our money, instead of the other way around. By addressing a proactive approach to spending and managing our finances, you will learn helpful tools to use to effectively modify habits and behaviors to restore financial balance in your life.	Enga
Navigating Financial Wellness During Inflation	It's no secret that the rising cost of living, inflation and interest rates are just a few factors that are making adjusting to the changing economy more difficult to navigate than ever before. This engaging presentation offers insight on ways to effectively budget our money during turbulent financial times. Discussion revolves around tips and suggestions for how to have better control of our money, instead of the other way around. By addressing a proactive approach to spending and managing our finances, you will learn helpful tools to use to effectively modify habits and behaviors to restore financial balance in your life. Learning Objectives • Understand inflation on a macroeconomic level • Identify the markets most effected • Learn best practices for avoiding inflation pitfalls	Enga
Financial Landscapes: Money Professionals and when You Need Them	It can be challenging to navigate the financial landscape. This financial session will place focus on various financial professionals and their services. By providing examples of real-life situations we uncover and highlight when each financial service might be appropriate, and how to access reputable experts to ensure that you are connecting with individuals and organizations that will provide the right type of education and assistance.	Enga
Financial Literacy 101	Managing your money requires smart planning and decision making and can help you avoid making poor financial decisions. In this interactive session we will share best practices in preparing and sticking with a budget, reducing expenses, and setting financial goals. Learning outcomes include: • Understand the three steps to financial freedom • How to prepare a budget • How to cut back on expenses • How to save more and plan for retirement • How to set financial goals	Morrall
Navigating Retirement Budget	Embark on the journey of preparing your budget for retirement with our informative 1-hr session. Explore crucial aspects such as understanding income changes, estimating Social Security benefits, and evaluating various retirement income resources. Delve into the intricacies of budgeting, address considerations for healthcare costs, and discover valuable online resources. Whether you're in the initial stages of retirement planning or looking to complement insights gained from your financial planner, this session is designed to provide practical guidance for a financially secure retirement	Snyder *All sessions ADDITIONAL $100

Successful Credit Management	Gain a comprehensive understanding of the dynamics of credit and its contemporary significance in our 1-hr course on Successful Credit Management. Delve into the intricacies of Credit Reports and Credit Scores, exploring the key factors that contribute to a favorable credit standing. Learn practical insights on obtaining your Credit Report and Credit Score, empowering you with the knowledge needed for effective credit management. Additionally, discover strategies for debt reduction and long-term debt avoidance, ensuring your journey towards financial success. Join us in mastering the essential principles of credit for a secure and prosperous financial future.	Snyder *All sessions ADDITIONAL $100
What's Your Money Personality	Explore diverse money personalities in this 1-hr workshop designed to unravel the mysteries of your financial behavior. Drawing from Olivia Mellan's research, we'll identify five distinct money personality types, explore their interconnections, and demonstrate how understanding these dynamics fosters personal financial harmony and enriches relationships. Gain valuable budgeting insights and discover ways to enhance your financial management skills. Join us on this journey toward a more informed and harmonious relationship with money.	Snyder *All sessions ADDITIONAL $100
Student Loan Basics	Navigate the complexities of educational lending in this session as we explore the landscape of student loan debt, which currently stands at a staggering 1.77 trillion, impacting 43.5 million Americans. Whether you're new to the student loan process or striving to alleviate educational debt, this session will guide you through the fundamentals, including borrowing guidelines, repayment and hardship options, considerations for return on investment, and effective strategies to expedite student loan repayment. Join us for essential insights to empower your journey toward financial freedom from educational debt.	Snyder *All sessions ADDITIONAL $100
Master the Art of Budget-Friendly Holidays	Embrace the spirit of giving without breaking the bank during the holiday season. Discover effective strategies to organize your holiday shopping, curb unplanned expenses, and uncover creative tips for a joyful season without overspending. This seminar equips you with valuable insights into holiday shopping organization, practical methods to limit impulsive purchases, and an understanding of how holiday door busters can impact your budget. Additionally, we'll delve into budgeting techniques and ways to stay debt-free. Join us to ensure your holidays are both merry and financially mindful.	Snyder *All sessions ADDITIONAL $100
Managing Your Finances During Economic Challenges	This 1-hr course emphasizes the importance of goal setting, proposes proactive solutions, and encourages the exploration of actionable steps. Dive into the challenges of a record-high inflationary era, and gain insights into managing the highest-ever average credit card APR's. In response to these economic realities, learn to create a robust Financial Survival Plan that equips you with the tools and strategies to navigate and thrive in uncertain financial times.	Snyder *All sessions ADDITIONAL $100
Understanding and Preventing Identity Theft	Feeling inundated with information on identity theft? This presentation provides clear, straightforward insights into the various forms of identity theft, its prevalence, and actionable defense strategies. Participants will delve into statistics and trends on identity theft in the United States, receive practical written tips for prevention and detection, and access a comprehensive listing of resources available to victims of identity theft. Gain a concise understanding and equip yourself with the tools to safeguard against identity theft effectively.	Snyder *All sessions ADDITIONAL $100

HEALTHY FAMILIES FEATURED SESSIONS

Debra Orbuch Grayson works from a Family Systems Model which recognizes that each family and individual is unique, and that change comes from addressing the dynamics and interactions among members of a system. When working with families she meets with different subsystems of the family to help strengthen relationships which benefit the whole family. She enjoys working with clients and helping them to identify the challenges they are experiencing and to set goals and move toward creating changes in their lives. Throughout her work with clients she provides tools, support and encouragement as well as additional community resources to help sustain their growth. Debra holds a master's degree in Marriage and Family Therapy from the University of Maryland - College Park and a bachelor's degree in Education and Behavioral Disabilities from the University of Wisconsin - Madison. She has been working with families and children for 30 years providing individual, marital, family and group therapy. I enjoy blending my clinical skills with my experience as an educator. She has worked with adolescents in a variety of academic and clinical outpatient settings. In addition to counseling and consulting, Debra partners with community organizations and agencies to provide training, consultation and clinical supervision.

Finding Self-Control: Managing Responses to Our Children's Behavior

Children's negative behaviors can be downright frustrating and overwhelming. When children lose control emotionally or physically, we're often unsure what to do. Many times, we end up reacting negatively, which only increases the undesirable behavior. Deep down we know we need to teach the child how to react differently in the future, but how do we do this? Come for a discussion on the different Stages of Control children go through when emotionally stressed and what we can do to help teach our children how to find greater self-control.

Building Healthy Family Relationships

One of the best kept secrets is that well-functioning relationships don't just happen by chance. Healthy relationships require hard work, flexibility and an interest in change. This program is for parents, grandparents and family members who'd like to learn strategies and tips for strengthening their relationships. This workshop will explore the complexities of family relationships and the common challenge areas of communication, managing conflict and having fun as a family!

Tina Feigal, Parent Coach, M.S., Ed. is the Director of Family Engagement at Anu Family Services/Center for the Challenging Child. A former school psychologist, Tina is the mother of three wonderful sons, and nana to four grandchildren who light up her life. Tina's passion is bringing peace to homes and schools, by helping adults to heal challenging child behavior with the specific, highly effective Present Moment Parenting and Teaching. As a parent coach and trainer, Tina supports adults in applying the techniques in her book. Tina trains coaches as part of her vision that every adult who wants a parent coach can pick up the phone and find one! Tina has been featured as the Minneapolis Star Tribune and KARE 11

TV Extra's "Supernanny." Learn more about parent coaching and coach training at www.parentingmojo.com.

All sessions ADDITIONAL $150

Understanding Gender Fluidity in Adults and Children

Is your young child or teen insisting or exploring the fact that their gender may be different from the one assigned at birth? Do you have some idea that it may be the case, but they haven't said anything? This session will assist you in sorting out this complex topic, ways to talk to your child and will offer professional resources for parents and children.

Talking to Your Kids About Sexuality

Parents, does the idea of the "sex talk" cause you to recoil? You're not alone. We'll cover the "when," "how" and "what" of compassionate and timely discussion on this sensitive topic. You want the information to come from you for your child's benefit. Don't miss this one!

Parenting Anxious and Depressed Children During Uncertain Times

Parent coach Tina Feigal will present her background in helping parents navigate their children's anxiety and depression with specific skills and ways to interact. Tina has 22 years of experience on this topic as a coach and as a school psychologist before that. She will offer parenting approaches and resources for your child's care.

Participants will:

- learn how to identify anxiety and depression in their children.
- gain insight into brain responses to stress and trauma, and how physiology plays a major role in resolving stress.
- learn proven techniques for helping to relieve children's anxiety and depression, with the confidence that parents are the best healers.
- gain hope for the future based on findings from Tina's 23 years of coaching parents.

Academics or Mental Health: What Comes First?

In these challenging COVID aftermath times, what academic affects are you seeing in your children? Since schools have re-opened, are you still seeing frustration, resistance, and denial around schoolwork? You are not alone. Parent Coach Tina Feigal will offer specific ways for you to help your child in elementary, middle, high school, or the new "launching phase."

Child Development: Is My Child Under Too Much Pressure?

In our fast-paced world that values achievement in school and sports, and relies heavily on parents' career goals for affirmation, are we inadvertently loading too much responsibility on our kids for fulfilling the American Dream? Attend this session to learn if this is the case and how to adjust your expectations to your child's developmental level (it's not necessarily just their age!)

Self-Care for Parents

You're chasing after success in parenting, relationships, and work 24/7, which can be overwhelming. Does it seem like there's never a break, leading to feeling inadequate and deflated? It's time to look at Self-Care. This session will offer ideas on how to take care of yourself as you take care of others and your work. If this title jumped out at you, sign up now!

How to Raise a Successful Child: Maybe it's Not What you Think

In our ever-so-future-oriented world, we can easily assume that the map to your child's successful adulthood is to keep our eyes on what's coming. What if that's not really the case? This session will offer ways to rethink childhood so that emphasis on the future, which can lead to childhood anxiety and distress, isn't the focus. There's a better way, and Parent Coach Tina Feigal is ready to share it with you. .

Erin Walsh, Erin is a parent, speaker, educator, and writer. She has worked with communities across the country who want to better understand child and adolescent development and cut through conflicting information about kids and technology. She is fiercely committed to bringing an equity lens and asset-based approach to our understanding of, and response to, youth and media. Her signature down-to-earth approach helps families and educators engage in complicated topics and leave feeling capable and motivated.

The Science of Motivation – Getting Your Kid Going Again

You don't have to go far on the Internet these days to find tips for how to "stay productive" and ideas for how to motivate kids amidst big transitions and stress. The reality on the ground though is that productivity and high motivation can be difficult to find during times of uncertainty. Understanding the science of motivation can help us keep our eyes on how to nurture it in our kids – not just for the sake of getting more done but for everyone's mental health and wellbeing.

Healthy Families
Re-entry and Adjusting to the "Next Normal"	Having the ability to adapt during these uncertain times is critical for managing change. Life has been, and continues to be, complex and challenging. It is important to take time and focus on what is needed when we consider what it will mean to manage our "next normal". This program provides guidance and practices on how attendees can build strength during this time and learn the "ABC's" of riding the waves of re-entry.	Orbuch-Grayson
How to Get Through Those Difficult Conversations with your Teenager	Difficult conversations are a normal part of parenting. What do I say? How can I talk to my teenager about drugs, sex and social media without having "the talk??" Come learn how to create a dialogue with your kids and connect around important issues and changes in our fast-paced 2020 culture.	Orbuch-Grayson
Post-Divorce Parenting: How can I/we get through it??	What is the path to parenting with an ex and what are some tools to help you get through the challenges? Post-divorce parenting can have lots of twists and turns and the path can be bumpy. You are not alone. Buckle your seat belts and come learn to anticipate some of the bumps and discuss how to take care of yourself and your kids along the way.	Orbuch-Grayson
Building Healthy Family Relationships	One of the best kept secrets is that well-functioning relationships don't just happen by chance. Healthy relationships require hard work, flexibility and an interest in change. This program is for parents, grandparents and family members who'd like to learn strategies and tips for strengthening their relationships. This workshop will explore the complexities of family relationships and the common challenge areas of communication, managing conflict and having fun as a family!	Orbuch-Grayson
Finding Self-Control: Managing Responses to Our Children's Behavior	Children's negative behaviors can be downright frustrating and overwhelming. When children lose control emotionally or physically, we're often unsure what to do. Many times, we end up reacting negatively, which only increases the undesirable behavior. Deep down we know we need to teach the child how to react differently in the future, but how do we do this? Come for a discussion on the different Stages of Control children go through when emotionally stressed and what we can do to help teach our children how to find greater self-control.	Orbuch-Grayson

Teaching Kids about Money	Children face media and consumer pressures at a very young age. This workshop gives parents and caregivers a better understanding of what they can do to teach their kids about money. Get tips on helping your children as they develop an understanding of money and how to use it wisely. We'll look at opportunities to make kids money-wise through allowances, healthy money management, and savings & credit awareness. Outcomes: After attending this seminar, you will understand how to talk with your children about money regardless of their age, how to apply ten basic steps to teaching your child about money, and how to help them separate between wants and needs.	Wheeler
Genealogy 101	Genealogy 101 - Getting Started Do you want to learn more about your ancestors? I will share with you some basic forms to start your family tree. Then you will learn about different types of records that are available to gather information about who you descend from and where they lived, worked, and raised their families. Woven into all this information is the story of how I finally discovered the story of my own grandfather through 25 years of on and off research.	Weber
Advocating for Your Child	Whether you're at a doctor's office or a school conference it can be intimidating to oppose their professional opinions and many parents wonder when is the right time to challenge and the right time to accept information that is being shared. As a parent, you know your child's abilities and challenges more intimately than other people do, so it's important to be comfortable stating what you know to be true about your child. This workshop outlines strategies to clearly and effectively communicate with your child's teacher, doctor or other professional to build a strong partnership with your child's best interests in mind.	O'Brien
Working Caregiver in a Sandwich Generation	Many workers find themselves in the "sandwich generation", being employed, raising their children, and assisting their parents. The "club sandwich generation" is caregiving across four generations - which is increasing in numbers each day. This class will give resources and tips on balancing caregiving responsibilities and roles. Involving the youth and helping children to understand various aspects of aging can help strengthen the entire family unit.	West *All sessions ADDITIONAL $100
The Science of Motivation – Getting Going Again	You don't have to go far on the Internet these days to find tips for how to "stay productive" and ideas for how to motivate kids amidst big transitions and stress. The reality on the ground though is that productivity and high motivation can be difficult to find during times of uncertainty. Understanding the science of motivation can help us keep our eyes on how to nurture it in our kids – not just for the sake of getting more done but for everyone's mental health and wellbeing.	Walsh
Stress and the Brain: Raising Resilient Kids	Whether it is uncertainty, upset routines, or isolation, the list of stressors over the last couple of years is long and varied. The challenge is that children often express	Walsh stress through challenging behaviors. It can be difficult to differentiate between “typical stress” and signs that our kids might need extra mental health support. Learn more about what stress looks like in kids and teens and ways to respond that build your family’s resilience instead of eroding it. In this engaging and interactive session, Erin Walsh will deliver warm insight and practical advice for navigating challenges and strengthening family connection when you need it most.

Self-Care for Parents	You’re chasing after success in parenting, relationships, and work 24/7, which can be overwhelming. Does it seem like there’s never a break, leading to feeling inadequate and deflated? It’s time to look at Self-Care. This session will offer ideas on how to take care of yourself as you take care of others and your work. If this title jumped out at you, sign up now!	Feigal All sessions additional $150
How to Raise a Successful Child	In our ever-so-future-oriented world, we can easily assume that the map to your child’s successful adulthood is to keep our eyes on what’s coming. What if that’s not really the case? This session will offer ways to rethink childhood so that emphasis on the future, which can lead to childhood anxiety and distress, isn’t the focus. There’s a better way, and Parent Coach Tina Feigal is ready to share it with you.	Feigal All sessions additional $150

ELDERCARE & AGING READINESS FEATURED SESSIONS

Mary O'Brien, accomplished educator, facilitator, and public speaker focusing on the unique needs, joys and concerns of those age 55+. Utilizing research along with career and life experiences, Mary creates meaningful, connected learning environments where participants will find a safe place to explore what life can and does look like in the last decades.

Downsize Your Stuff to Right-size Your Life

Whether you're considering downsizing to a smaller living space or just staying in your current home, these decisions come with both practical and emotional considerations. There's no one-size-fits-all answer, but it's an important decision to ponder, especially as retirement approaches. This course will explore various factors to contemplate for each option, while also examining their respective advantages and disadvantages.

The Day After Retirement

What will your life look like once you don't answer the call of the alarm clock? What can you do in advance to plan for a positive transition into retirement? Having a sense of purpose is an important key to satisfaction. Change is inevitable. How to put your arms around the changes inherent in retiring and growing is the focus of this class. It will help you explore a variety of ways to identify what is significant to you, then establish a purpose-filled life in retirement.

Staying Connected After Retirement

Your job offered social relationships just because you showed up. Research says that good relationships are critical to healthy aging. How do you rebuild relationships that may not have been given much attention while you were working? Where do you look to develop new relationships and social communities? This class will discuss a variety of ways that retirees can stay socially connected, including seeking volunteer opportunities.

The Road Next Taken: Fearless Aging

You may not have a choice about aging, but you do have a choice about how you approach growing older. What better way than fearlessly? Fearless aging is the power to positively impact your future. This class explores the normal, natural processes of aging—physical and lifestyle--and what you can do to markedly improve the quality of your life. Discover what you can expect and lifestyle choices that will help you make the most of what you've got as you age. Let's explore the inevitable forces of change in your life and be fearless!

Jenny West is the Community Educator for FamilyMeans in Stillwater, MN. Jenny has a B.S. degree in Therapeutic Recreation from the University-Wisconsin La Crosse. After graduation, she volunteered for a year out in New York and served individuals living with HIV/AIDS. She has over ten years of experience working with residents and caregiving families in long term care facilities and in the community. Her current focus is providing caregiver education and support to those in Washington County and the Metro area. All

Sessions Additional $100

Help! My Parents are Getting Old - What do I Need to Know?

Because adult children are often the key contact for their aging parents, it is valuable to collect the right information and health history. Participants will understand key information to know about parents, documents to gather and critical conversations to start about aging.

Learning outcomes:

- Understand the importance of gathering and sharing key information.
- Learn the importance of planning ahead.
- Give you confidence and a sense of peace for planning ahead.

As You Age - What Do You Want Your Family to Know?

No one can read your mind – even though we wish others could. Learn what documents to gather and just how to share these important documents with those you trust. Having things in order can bring confidence and a sense of peace as we all look into our retirement years. Objectives

Learning outcomes:

- Understand the importance of gathering and sharing key information.
- Gain confidence and a sense of peace for planning ahead.
- Learn how to initiate those difficult conversations.
- Equitable outcomes.

Jill Borgerding started sharing her passion for fitness with others when Jazzercise, Billy Blanks, and Nordic Tracks were hot! Since then, she has led thousands of group fitness and yoga classes, trained hundreds of clients, and has a very long list of certifications. Luckily, both she and the world of health and wellness have evolved tremendously in the past twenty-five years! Now, with an extensive background in personal training, nutrition coaching, healthy-aging and habit change, she teaches a lifestyle of balance between effort and ease in all areas. Her enthusiasm, passion and knowledge show in everything she does. Whether she's working one-on-one with a client or presenting a workshop to a group, you will feel a positive and supportive attitude, infused with an abundance of motivation and a sense of humor.

Longevity: Steps to Lasting Strength and Well-Being

Now is the perfect time to invest in your future self! Your 84-year-old self will thank you for the choices you make today. Healthy, functional movement is essential for avoiding disableness and maintaining an active, fulfilling life as you age. In this workshop, we'll dive into the five key areas to focus on right now that will help you stay capable, confident, and independent throughout your later years. Beyond preserving your physical abilities, you'll discover how these strategies can boost your energy levels and enable you to keep doing the things you love well into the next stage of life.

Join us to learn practical, actionable steps that will not only enhance your longevity but also improve your quality of life today and in the years to come. Whether you're looking to stay fit, prevent injury, or simply invest in long-term well-being, this workshop offers the tools and motivation to take control of your future.

Mobility: Why It's so Important in Your Life

Understand the difference between mobility and flexibility and how mobility is actually more important in your daily life. Being mobile will give you the power to feel capable, confident, and free. It will grant you a longer, more comfortable life with less pain and discomfort. Learn a simple 10-minute mobility practice that will profoundly change your life. Improved mobility is accessible to all, no matter what your starting point!

Eldercare & Aging Readiness

Wellness and Aging	As we age, our bodies change, and it may be harder to lose weight than in our 20's. We also may not be able to eat the same foods or exercise the same way. Learn some tips on how to feed, move, and be kind to your body as you age.	West *All sessions ADDITIONAL $100
Staying Connected After Retirement	Your job offered social relationships just because you showed up. Research says that good relationships are critical to healthy aging. How do you rebuild relationships that may not have been given much attention while you were working? Where do you look to develop new relationships and social communities? This class will discuss a variety of ways that retirees can stay socially connected, including seeking volunteer opportunities.	O'Brien

Downsize Your Stuff to Right-size Your Life	Whether you're considering downsizing to a smaller living space or just staying in your current home, these decisions come with both practical and emotional considerations. There's no one-size-fits-all answer, but it's an important decision to ponder, especially as retirement approaches. This course will explore various factors to contemplate for each option, while also examining their respective advantages and disadvantages.	O'Brien
Empower Your Now: Steps to Lasting Strength and Well-Being	Now is the perfect time to invest in your future self! Your 84-year-old self will thank you for the choices you make today. Healthy, functional movement is essential for avoiding disablement and maintaining an active, fulfilling life as you age. In this workshop, we'll dive into the five key areas to focus on right now that will help you stay capable, confident, and independent throughout your later years. Beyond preserving your physical abilities, you'll discover how these strategies can boost your energy levels and enable you to keep doing the things you love well into the next stage of life. Join us to learn practical, actionable steps that will not only enhance your longevity but also improve your quality of life today and in the years to come. Whether you're looking to stay fit, prevent injury, or simply invest in long-term well-being, this workshop offers the tools and motivation to take control of your future.	Borgerding
Mobility: Why It's so Important in Your Life	Understand the difference and how potent "mobility" can be in your life. It will give you the power to feel capable and confident. It will grant you a longer, better feeling life with less pain and discomfort. It will make you feel FREE. Learn a simple 10-minute mobility practice that will profoundly alter your life. Improved mobility is accessible to all, no matter your starting point!	Borgerding
Managing Stress in Retirement	As we grow older, we sometimes believe that our lives will be stress less—or at least less stressful—especially once we are no longer working. This isn't necessarily true. Relationships and life circumstances may continue to be sources of stress. Research has shown that effectively managing stress can contribute to us leading healthier, longer lives. We will review stress management techniques with a focus on how to apply these to the everyday retirement life, as long as explore some strategies that we may not have had time to use while working.	O'Brien
Parenting Your Parents	This is not easy. That said, it's not supposed to be. The shift in roles does not come with an instruction manual and often happens abruptly. How do we plan to be there for our parents in the last phase of their lives? This class will focus on ways to have conversations to help everyone involved make plans and decisions in a respectful way.	O'Brien
Exit Strategy: Conversations for the End of Life	It's been said that two things are inevitable in this life: death and taxes. As we grow older, we become increasingly concerned with the prospect of our death. What effect and impact can we have on a good end of life? And who do we need to talk with in order to carry out our wishes? This class will explore what we reasonably can influence when it comes to the end of our lives and with whom we might want to talk with about our hopes.	O'Brien
Create Your Health Care Directive	Who would speak for you if you couldn't speak for yourself? That's the concept behind Advanced Care Planning, a guided conversation on about your end of life wishes and preferences. It is a process that identifies what is most important to you concerning quality of life and living. This class will prepare you to develop a	O'Brien

	Health Care Directive, a written document which describes your choices. Selecting your health care agent, the person who will make sure your wishes are carried out, will be discussed.
Traveling in Retirement: Sharing the Wisdom	Travel is high on many people's retirement list. How do you decide where, when and how to go? What resources are available on the web? Whether you are experienced and widely travelled or will be new to the world outside your backyard, talking with others is a valuable resource that should not be overlooked. This class will provide some basics on using internet travel sites and tour groups, as well as encouraging group input on personal travel experiences to share the wisdom.	O'Brien
The Day After Retirement	What will your life look like once you don't answer the call of the alarm clock? What can you do in advance to plan for a positive transition into retirement? Having a sense of purpose is an important key to satisfaction. Change is inevitable. How to put your arms around the changes inherent in retiring and grow is the focus of this class. It will help you explore a variety of ways to identify what is significant to you, then establish a purpose-filled life in retirement.	O'Brien
Fearless Aging	You may not have a choice about aging, but you do have a choice about how you approach growing older. What better way than fearlessly? Fearless aging is the power to positively impact your future. This class explores the normal, natural processes of aging—physical and lifestyle--and what you can do to markedly improve the quality of your life. Discover what you can expect and lifestyle choices that will help you make the most of what you've got as you age. Let's explore the inevitable forces of change in your life and be fearless!	O'Brien
Slips and Trips: Make Sure Your Home Can Change as You Do	Your home is your castle, and it should be the safest castle around. Join us for a discussion on implementing simple modifications to keep your home as safe as possible with you in it! Establish techniques and plans now, which will help keep you independent as you age where you want to be.	West *All sessions ADDITIONAL $100
As You Age - What Do You Want Your Family to Know?	No one can read your mind – even though we wish others could. Learn what documents to gather and just how to share these important documents with those you trust. Having things in order can bring confidence and a sense of peace as we all look into our retirement years. Learning outcomes: • Understand the importance of gathering and sharing key information. • Gain confidence and a sense of peace for planning ahead. • Learn how to initiate those difficult conversations. • Equitable outcomes.	West *All sessions ADDITIONAL $100
Communicating When Dementia Interferes	This workshop offers tips for understanding and communicating with someone affected by dementia. Learn strategies to handle difficult behaviors and how to remain connected with your family member. Discussions will cover how dementia affects a person's ability to understand and communicate, some simple skills for handling troubling behavior, and ways to feel more confident in your caregiving role. By attending this seminar, you will learn key principles to communicate effectively, identify influential factors before you begin communicating, strengthen communication skills during difficult behaviors, and decrease your stress to benefit another's behavior.	West *All sessions ADDITIONAL $100

I Wonder if Mom and Dad Should Move?	Ever wonder when the best time is for your parents to downsize? Are you just waiting for a crisis to occur? This seminar will help anyone who wants to begin the conversation, understand the difficulty of downsizing when you are old, and honor the significance of maximizing Mom and Dad's independence. By starting the conversations early on, you will already be one step further than if you receive that 2AM emergency phone call.	West *All sessions ADDITIONAL $100
Be Brave Enough to Start a Conversation That Matters	It's difficult to know when your concerns should qualify for action and possible change when it relates to another person's well-being. How do you bring up concerns over housing, finances, health care advance directives and even death? By addressing those concerns and knowing what steps may follow, you can prevent crises and maximize communication with everyone. Start those difficult conversations sooner rather than wishing you had started them months ago. Learning Objectives: • Gain confidence in initiating conversations that matter. • Identify topics that are important to discuss with others. • Understand the importance of family meetings. • Collect resources that can help.	West *All sessions ADDITIONAL $100
WHO GETS WHAT, When I am Gone!	Making sure the memories and the meaning travel on with your mementos. Learn how to find ways to connect our dearest things with our dearest people. And while we are at it, what do we do with all the not-so-meaningful "stuff" we have accumulated throughout the years? Learn how to be proactive in dealing with a lifetime's accumulation of possessions and explore helpful tips on how to get started.	West *All sessions ADDITIONAL $100
Making Decisions Sooner Rather Than Later...Your Own Health Care Directive	Join us to learn how to identify key people in your life that should know about your wishes and understand the importance of expressing your wishes. Learn about what is included in the Minnesota Health Care Directive and "Five Wishes". These are easy to complete health care directive forms that let you say exactly what your wishes are for the future as well as end of life decisions. Every age is the right age to have a health care directive!	West *All sessions ADDITIONAL $100
Help! My Parents are Getting Old - What do I Need to Know?	Because adult children are often the key contact for their aging parents, it is valuable to collect the right information and health history to store in one place. Participants will understand what key information to know about your parents, documents to gather and questions to consider about aging. Learning outcomes: • Understand the importance of gathering and sharing key information. • Learn the importance of planning ahead. • Give you confidence and a sense of peace for planning ahead.	West *All sessions ADDITIONAL $100
Caring from a Distance	Do you worry about your father falling when you are miles and miles away? Is your mother really taking her medication at the correct time with the exact dose on an empty stomach? Are your thoughts occupied by your parents' health status? "Distance" caregivers, from across the state to across the country, will be prepared for their role and benefit from gaining knowledge on local community resources to assist their loved ones at a distance.	West *All sessions ADDITIONAL $100

Solutions for Your Employee Caregivers: A Workshop for Employers	One in four full time employees is caring for an elder or disabled relative. The costs of family caregiving to employers are substantial including absenteeism, tardiness, and low productivity. And there are health implications. Family caregivers report increased strain, anxiety, fatigue and have higher medical bills. Many employers are increasingly aware of caregiving issues but do not know how to respond. To create a caregiver friendly environment, managers and supervisors can benefit from training to effectively deal with employee caregiver issues.	West *All sessions ADDITIONAL $100
Being a Working Caregiver	7 in 10 family caregivers are employed. Are you trying to juggle work, home, family and caregiving responsibilities? This seminar focuses on the impact of caregiving on today's working population. Identifying your role, collecting community resources and accessing information early on can help while at work and minimize stress levels overall.	West *All sessions ADDITIONAL $100
Compassionate Caregiving	Caregiving can be hard. When did I become a caregiver? Where do I start? How do I do this, because I feel like I am on an island all by myself? Families are often the central unit in the job of caregiving; understanding roles, utilizing community resources and taking care of yourself are the foundation of caregiving. Learn that you are not alone and there are resources to help.	West *All sessions ADDITIONAL $100
No One Gets Out of This Alive: Conversations for the End of Life	It's been said that two things are inevitable in this life: death and taxes. As we grow older, we become increasingly concerned with the prospect of our death. What effect and impact can we have on a good end of life? And who do we need to talk with in order to carry out our wishes? This class will explore what we reasonably can influence when it comes to the end of our lives and with whom we might want to talk with about our hopes.	O'Brien

CUSTOMIZED WORKSHOPS ARE AVAILABLE!

SELECT WORKSHOPS ARE AVAILABLE ONSITE!

How We Can Support You

- Manage the end-to-end coordination of workshops
- Brand presentations
- Adapt content as needed to align with client/attendee needs
- Contact: kkacher@clalliance.com <http://www.lifebalance-solutions.org/>

For more information about scheduling 1-hour, half or full day professional development programming for your employees contact:

Kathy Kacher
President, LifeBalance Solutions
kkacher@clalliance.com

Career/Life Alliance Services, Inc.

