Advertising:

Marketing will be developed to create the greatest exposure possible through various channels such as media, radio, social network, and other public forums (email, Facebook, Twitter, Google, posters and flyers). It is also well known that word of mouth is one of the best marketing strategies, so we encourage your help in advertising your booth and any others at Polynesian Days. We plan to make Polynesian Days a fantastic success for you and all the families we can help.

Booth/Vender Registration & Setup:

Friday, August 30th from 10:00am-2:00pm at Electric Park South Gate entrance.

Once registered you will be given your assigned booth location and can begin setting up your booth space. Your booth(s) must be set up and all vehicles out of the park before 4pm Friday August 30th.

A general booth space is an uncovered 10' deep by 10' wide space on the grass area. All booth vendors/occupants are required to provide their own enclosed booth structure, tent(s), tarp(s), table(s), chair(s); etc. We strongly encourage you to have a top and side(s) to your structure. Polynesian Days is a weather permitting event and unfortunately, we have no say in that, so be sure that you are properly prepared.

Any booth/vender setup exceeding the allotted 10'x10' booth space will be charged an additional 10'x10' booth space fee. Food trucks in need of a larger space than said space will need to contact us at polynesiandaysinfo@gmail.com

All drinks and beverages sold at Polynesian Days will be done by Thanksgiving Point and the Polynesian Days committee. The sale of all drinks or beverages such as soda, water, juices, sports drinks, or any type of beverage is not allowed at any booth.

The sale of specialty drinks will need to be listed on your application and approved beforehand.

- All Food Vendors will need to obtain a Temporary Food Permit and Food Handlers Permit through the Utah County Health Department. Contact their office for the necessary application(s) needed at (801) 851-7525.

Setting up:

Vehicles will be allowed into Electric Park for unloading purposes and again for loading at the conclusion of Polynesian Days event. All vehicles must be out of park by 4pm before event is scheduled to begin. Unauthorized Vehicles are strictly prohibited from parking in any area of Electric Park during the three-day duration of Polynesian Days.

Any hazardous materials of any kind are not allowed to be brought onto the Electric Park premises or in any area of the Polynesian Days event. Exhibits must meet safety and fire regulations. The Fire Marshall or authorized agent reserves the right to confiscate or demand removal of any exhibit materials not meeting regulations.

Booth(s) must be occupied and running during operational hours all three days of event. Early break down or evacuation during Polynesian Days three-day event duration is prohibited and will forfeit any type of refund and refundable deposit.

There is NO smoking of any kind or alcohol permitted in the venue at any time. This includes vendors as well as the public. Polynesian Days staff, Thanksgiving Point security and local law enforcement have the authority to vacate a vendor(s) from the venue.

Security:

- Thanksgiving Point, Polynesian Days and its associated entities are not liable for theft that may occur during the event.
- Vendor is responsible for taking all measures to ensure your merchandise and equipment is protected.
- Cover and lock items on display after setup is complete. Lock-up or take home expensive items overnight.
- Polynesian Days Festival is open to the public. The responsibility for safeguarding any/all exhibit(s) is solely the vendor's.
- We will lock the gates leading into Electric Park each night.
- Thanksgiving Point security will patrol the external perimeter of Electric Park periodically throughout the night.

General Booth & Exhibiting Information:

Booth fee(s) must be paid in full with vendor registration completed before any type of setup is allowed. All booth exhibitors must man and occupy their booths during all operational hours of Polynesian Days event. Thanksgiving Point and Polynesian Days is not responsible for any stolen, damaged or lost items. All materials used in exhibits must be fire retardant. Vinyl banners are recommended; paper banners are not allowed.

We will assign booth space(s) until all available space is filled. We have setup multiple attractions in various areas of Electric Park to ensure significant flow of traffic (people) in all booth/vendor areas.

If for any reason you leave your booth for any reason please arrange to have someone take your place in your booth available for any customers while you are away. We ask that booth occupants and all items and merchandise being sold remain within the perimeters of your own booth. Please respect the booth space next to you.

Power Source:

Power can be provided for booth(s) upon request for an additional fee of $50 for 2 outlets of power box. Entire power box can be purchased for and additional fee of $200.

Internet & Phone Line:

Thanksgiving Point Electric Park does not provide internet or phone line access.

Terms and Conditions

1. The vender/exhibitor agrees to occupy exhibit space assigned, and to be open and staffed prior to and during all regular event hours. In the event the exhibitor shall not occupy said space, the producer (Thanksgiving Point and Polynesian Days) is expressly authorized to occupy or cause said space to be occupied in such manner as it may deem best for the interest of the event without any rebates or allowance whatsoever to exhibitor and without in any way releasing the exhibitor from any liability thereunder. The exhibitor also agrees not to sublet or apportion to anyone else said space without approval. All merchandise solely or displayed is subject to the producer's approval.
2. It is the sole obligation of the exhibitor to provide their own booth structure, tarps, tables, chairs; etc. If exhibitor desires electrical power, this need to be made known in advance and stated on the application. This includes additional electrical requirements (wiring and wattage usage). Exhibitor is responsible to provide heavy duty electric cords to bring electricity to the booth.
3. The producer and its sponsors will not be liable for refunds or any other liabilities whatsoever for the failure to fulfill this contract due to reasons of the enclosure in which the event is to be produced being, before, or during the event destroyed by fire, or other calamity, or by any act of God, public enemies, strikes, statutes, ordinances, or any legal authority, or any other cause beyond the producers control.
4. Exhibitor shall be liable for delivery, handling, erection, and removal of his/her own displays and materials.
5. All fire codes, laws, ordinances and regulations pertaining to health, fire prevention and public safety shall be strictly obeyed.
6. The producer may rent and license space for any exhibit of interest to the general public or of educational value. All exhibit designs must be contracted and operated in good taste and in accordance with the best interest of the event, which producer in its sole discretion shall have the right to decide. All sales, publicity, and promotional activities conducted by the exhibitor must be confined to his/her space. The producer will prohibit the installation and operation of any exhibits not meeting its approval. The producer, in its sole discretion, may prohibit the conduct of any activity whatsoever which it deems harmful and not in the best interest of the event.
7. Polynesian Days is not dependent on weather. Fees will not be refunded in the event of rain or winds. Each vender is responsible for any damages to or from your booth and/or product.
8. Confidentiality: Exhibitor booth pricing is subject to adjustment by Polynesian Days. Your exhibitor booth price is strictly confidential and ANY discussion with other exhibitors at an event/expo for any reason gives Polynesian Days the right to evict your booth from the event at any time.
9. Qualifications of exhibitor: Polynesian Days, in its sole discretion, shall have the right to determine whether a prospective exhibitor is eligible to participate in the event. Applicants who have not previously exhibited at a prior event help by organizer similar to that of the event may be required to submit a description of the nature of their business and the items intended to be exhibited. Polynesian Days reserves the right to restrict or remove any exhibit which Polynesian Days, in its sole discretion, believes is objectionable or inappropriate. NO ADULT MATERIALS MAY BE DISPLAYED OR SOLD AT POLYNESIAN DAYS, as this is a family event.
10. Vendors must comply with Utah State Tax regulations. The tax commission will provide tax packets including a temporary vendor license for each vender at registration.
11. Exclusivity will not be granted to any one vender; however, precautions will be taken to limit duplication of similar items. Sales will be restricted to those items listed on your approved application only sponsoring companies or entities may request exclusivity on certain products and services.
12. Assignment of space: Exhibit space shall be assigned by Polynesian Days in its sole discretion for the event and for the event dates only. Any such assignment does not imply that similar space will be assigned for future events held by organizer. Polynesian Days reserves the right to change the floor plan or to move an exhibitor to another booth location prior to or during the event if Polynesian Days in its sole discretion determines that to do so is in the best interest of the event. There is no guarantee that an exhibitor will be assigned the exhibit space location(s) requested on the contract. Every effort is made to accommodate exhibitor requests for space and position on the venue floor. Payment in full is required with the signed contract before booth space will be assigned. Polynesian Days will not hold any booth space without full payment.
13. This contract (as well as application general guidelines) constitutes the entire contract between the parties and no waivers, modifications, or amendments shall be valid unless written upon or attached hereto AND shall be approved in writing by the producer of Polynesian Days.

By signing this contract, I understand and agree to the Terms and Conditions set by Polynesian Days.
