PARISH WEEKLY OFFERING

March 29, 2026

Weekend offering.....$4,119

Thank you for your generosity

*He is Risen!
Aleluia!*

For the past forty days of Lent, we journeyed with Jesus. We were reminded of the great sufferings He had to endure so that we can also experience with Him, the glory of His Resurrection.

Today, we celebrate Easter, the biggest feast of our faith. The fulfillment of God's promise. A promise that no matter what hardships we are in, what sorrows we are feeling, what pains we are having, we will overcome it. Just like Jesus did. This my brothers and sisters is the Hope that Easter brings.

We can all say that life is not easy. We will encounter disappointments, betrayal, unfairness, and humiliation. The good news is we do not have to go through it alone. Jesus already showed how we should navigate these challenges and what is at the end.

We have seen it and hopefully, we should also believe it.

On a lighter side, I am happy to see that Spring is finally here. After having a cold, gloomy and snowy winter, I hope the bright sunshine and pleasing temperatures will refresh us not only physically but spiritually as well.

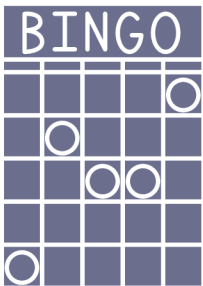

I personally, would like to thank the members of the Beautification Committee who spent their Holy Saturday "beautifying" the church grounds and to make it Easter ready. I also would like to acknowledge the volunteers who helped with our services this Holy Week - from cleaners, decorators, singers, instrumentalists, readers, altar servers, Eucharistic ministers for sharing your time and talents to our parish. Special thank you to our generous donors who continue to help keep our parish running. Lastly, thank you to all of you who consider St. Anne as your spiritual home. I pray that I'll see you more often as we celebrate our Centennial Anniversary.

Fr. Robert
