Happy 4th of July

250 years...

One Nation under God

Pastor's Notes

One of our basic needs as a human being is the sense of belongingness. That is why from the very beginning God gave us a place where we feel accepted, loved and safe - a home. In today's Gospel, Jesus reminds us that we can come to Him anytime especially when are tired, weary and downtrodden. He reassured us that no matter what happens in life, we have "Someone whom we can go to".

Last Sunday, I was very blessed to have witnessed the first Alumni Homecoming of St. Anne's School. Though the school building is no longer here, our church stands. Honestly, I was overwhelmed (in a good way) seeing all the smiles, hearing all the stories and simply enjoying the loving atmosphere. Though faces, sizes and even some names changed, the spirit of camaraderie stood the test of time.

Personally, I want to thank Eileen Tai for spearheading the planning committee. Her commitment to the yearlong preparations was exceptional. I also want to mention her team, Fran Serpico, Lyndel Spies, Keith Gallagher and the late Roseanne Bucciarelli who worked so hard to make the Homecoming special for everyone. To the over 200 alumni who came, thank you for answering the call.

Lastly, we just celebrated our 250 years as a nation. Let us remember those who made our country, the United States of America a family, our home.

I pray that we will continue to be thankful to our God, to our country and to our community. God bless us all.

Fr. Robert
