Lenten Stations of the Cross every Friday in March at 5:45 pm at the Church

Today, we read the transfiguration of Jesus. According to the gospels of Matthew, Mark and Luke, about a week before this event happened, Jesus told his disciples that he would suffer, die but on the third day, he would raise from the dead.

Jesus was able to be transfigured because he wholeheartedly accepted the cross that God gave him.

My brothers and sisters, this challenges us to also follow Christ's lead. As hard as it may be, let us learn to accept all the crosses that God has given us. Just like Jesus too, carry them with faith that God will fulfill His promise that we too will become a different person, to shine like the sun and amaze those closest to us.

As we journey this season of Lent, let us be reminded that whatever sufferings we have, God will help us go through it and He has prepared a great reward for us at the end.

Can you believe that we are now on the third month of year? As a reminder, here are the activities we have during the first week of the month.

First Wednesday, March 4 - Mass at 8 am. Followed by the Prayer to the Perpetual Help.

First Friday, March 6, Mass at 8 am. Followed by the Eucharistic Adoration and praying of the Chaplet of the Divine Mercy.

First Saturday, March 7. Mass at 9 am. Followed by the Eucharistic Adoration and praying of the Holy Rosary.

This Lenten, I encourage you to spend an extra hour a week to pray, reflect and join our services like the First Week devotions or the Stations of the Cross every Friday.
