Today we are celebrating the Solemnity of the Ascension of our Lord. This marks the completion of Jesus' earthly ministry.

When Jesus ascended to heaven, He did not leave us alone, helpless or orphaned. Though we can no longer see him physically, He assured us, His disciples that He is with us always until the end of time.

This day too, Jesus commissioned His disciples to continue His work. He told them to baptize people in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, evangelize and teach people to observe all His commandments.

Just like the first disciples, we too are commissioned to continue Jesus' work here on earth. We don't have to be extraordinary to do this task. All we have to do is to make an effort to become the kind of person the Holy Spirit inspires us to be. Being a witness of Jesus and teaching others about Him does not require special occasions or skills. It is about sharing to other our faith and love.

This Ascension Sunday, Jesus is inviting us to continue the task that the Father has given Him to do on earth.

Are you up for the mission?

Fr. Robert
