Pastor's Notes

“I am the bread that came down from heaven.”
(John 6:41)

We don't have to die to meet God. He reveals Himself to us in the ordinary manner. I understand that human tendency is to look for God in extraordinary events, unmindful that God can also be encountered in the ordinaries of our everyday life. If we are attentive enough, he reveals himself to us every day especially in the Holy Eucharist. All we have to do is go to mass.

This Sunday Gospel, Jesus reveals himself again as the living Bread that came down from heaven.

So, when we believe, through the eyes of faith we see angels and saints at mass. Before the Real Presence, they are singing Holy, Holy, Holy, Agnus Dei, lamb of God and the Glory. Beautiful!

Have we ever wondered why Jesus has chosen to perpetuate the offering of himself in the form of ordinary bread in the Holy Eucharist? Have we ever reflected on the Eucharist as God's concrete revelation of his great and extraordinary love?

Fr. Robert
