Some Words from Fr. Robert

How narrow is the narrow gate?

Jesus speaks about the “Narrow gate that leads to life”, and He invites all of us to strive to enter through the narrow gate. There is another gate that is wide and broad but leads to destruction. No one should take that route or else they will regret at the end. (Mt 7:13-14) This small and narrow gate symbolizes the great effort required for entrance to the Kingdom of God. It symbolizes the following of Jesus on the path of suffering that leads to salvation.

Jesus, when asked, did not give an answer to the question “if only few people will be saved”, but counsels to avoiding the wide and broad gate for it will certainly lead to destruction and death.

How narrow is the gate depends on how we respond to his invitation. Let us joyfully and lovingly strive to enter into that narrow gate and also help others especially our family.

The best way to help others enter into the Kingdom of God through the narrow gate is to bring people back to the Eucharist. Jesus is also the Gate and the Kingdom. “ I am the gate for the sheep” (JN 10:7)

As we celebrate the National Eucharist Revival, I would like to recall all our Eucharistic Ministers, Lectors, Sacristans, Altar Servers, Catechists, Ushers, Homebound Ministers and all religious organizations of the Church of St. Anne to actively come back to your respective ministry. Let us gather again to spiritually enrich ourselves with love of the Holy Eucharist and minister to help others enter into the narrow gate and His Kingdom.

Just a heads up. All parish ministers are invited to attend the planned Eucharistic sessions. Saturdays, September 3, 10 & 17 from 12 noon to 1 PM.

All are welcome to attend.

ANIMA CHRISTI

Soul of Christ, sanctify me; Body of Christ, save me;
Blood of Christ, inebriate me; Water from the side of Christ, wash me; Passion of Christ, strengthen me; O good Jesus, hear me; Within your wounds hide me; Separated from you, let me never be; From the evil one protect me; At the hour of my death, call me; And close to you bid me; That with your saints, I may be, praising you forever and ever.

Amen
